Option Taken on Dolly Varden Mine by New York Capitalists

By far the best news concerning the Dolly Varden mine was received this week, in a despatch from Victoria, which stated that it is understood that New York capitalists have taken an option on the Dolly Varden mine. The option is likely to be exercisod, it is said, and work may be resumed at the mine in the near future. If an option has been taken with the intention of developing the Dolly Varden and Wolf properties, it is unlikely that owing to the lateness of the season that operations will be commenced this year. If, however, the properties are put in operation next spring and the railroad repaired, it will give considerable encouragement to various property owners of the Upper Kitsault country, who are waiting for operation of the railway before developing their properties. It will also mean an influx of capital into the camp, mining companies having been marking time waiting for a resumption of mining operations at the Dolly Varden and the contiuued operation of the railway.

The Dolly Varden has been closed since December 1920 except for a little development work in 1921, and the shipping of 1874 tons of ore yielding 45,648 ozs. of silver.

Social League Formed at Alice Arm

A well attended meeting was held in the Anglican Church on Tuesday evening, for the purpose of forming an organization to provide entertainment for the coming winter.

The chair was occupied by E. Moss who explained that it was proposed that the organization should be along similiar lines as the Debating Society of last year.

After some discussion regarding the aims of the organization, etc. a motion was made by Mr. Al. Falconer seconded by Mr. C. H. Hutchinson that an organization be formed.

Election of officers was then held and the following officers were elected: Mr. C. Drennen, president; Mrs. R. F. McGinnis, vice-president; Mr. T. W. Falconer, secretary-treasurer; Mr. E. Moss, chairman.

Discussion followed as to the scope of operations, a suitable building for the various entertainments and the collection of finances. As no arrangements had been made for the use of any building it was impossible to outline a programme and a motion was made by Mr. C. E. Hutchinson, seconded by Mr. E. R. Oatman that future plans be left in the hands of officers, who would no doubt arrange for some entertainment at an early date.

A wedding was solemized on Thursday, October 4th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Farnell, the contracting parties being Mr. W. Legge and Miss Gladys Farnell. Rev. J. Herdman officiated. The home was artistically decorated and after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. The bridesmaid was Miss H. Wilson, and Mr. Alex. Wilson attended the bridegroom. The bride was given away by her father, and the wedding march was played by Mrs. E. Swanson. The bride looked very sweet in a white satin dress, with slippers and stockings to match, and wearing a bridal veil of orange blossoms, she carried a bouquet of white and pink chrysanthemums.

Among the guests, were Mrs. J. T. Wilson, Mrs. Max Nord, Mrs. T. Leslie, Mrs, Jenkinson, Mrs. J. A. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. R. Ferguson, Mrs. Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Seaton, Mrs. J. Herdman, Mrs. T. Wilkinson, Miss Anderson, and Mr. W. Wharton.

Mr. J. E. Gill was the guest of honor, on Wednesday. October 3rd., at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gill, of the Mine. Mr. J. E. Gill, who is Mr. R. Gill's brother, left on Thursday last for Princeton university, N. J., stopping en route at Vancouver for a short period.

Four tables of court whist and dancing were enjoyed, followed by a high tea. Among the invited guests, were Miss Swanson, Misses Dick and Ted Haslett, Mr. and Mrs. W. Coulter. Mr. and Mrs. H. Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. E. Swanson, Messrs. Anderson, Patton, Wiles, and Ployart.

Next Year Will be Big Year For Alice Arm

Next summer promises to be a lively one for Alice Arm, especially if the Dolly Varden mine commences operations, and from all appearances this is possible. Considerable logging will also be done next year, and in addition to the camps of the Abbotsford Logging Co. other camps will be operating in the vicinity of the town, but particulars of this will be published later. The logging industry alone will mean the employment of a large number of men next year and coupled with mining, which is our chief industry, and which is steadily employing more men as time goes on, will produce a payroll sufficient for the needs of all citizens, and strangers also. The year of 1924 is full of hope.

ALICE ARM NOTES

See Al. Falconer for Freight and Pack Horses.

The foot-log put across the Kitsault river last week by a couple of loggers, is still in and is a great help to the boys from the logging camps.

Hand Laundry Work. Moderate Prices—Miss B. Crawford, Alice Arm.

A number of prospectors are still in the hills and the absence of snow at the high altitudes makes prospecting an easy matter.

Mr. W. A. Wickwire spent a few days in Prince Rupert this week. on business.

Dr. P. Whelan, of Anyox, spent the week-end here on a hunting trip, and was successful in bagging fifteen ducks.

Like the leaves. the duck are falling fast. The local hunters are busy on the big flats, and it is a smart duck indeed that will keep a whole skin this year.

Mr. W. F. H. Thompson, organizer for the Loyal Order of Moose, spent a few days in town during the week. He was successful in signing up quite a number of new members.

Mr. C. P. Riel arrived home on Saturday, from a trip to Prince Rupert.

Mr. W. M. Cummings received a large and varied shipment of candies and magazines during the week.

Mr. A. McGuire arrived home on Thursday, from a visit to Prince Rupert.

See Al. Falconer for Wood or Coal

The initiation of the Alice Arm applicants for the Loyal Order of Moose will be held in the Welcome Pool Room, tomorrow, at 2 p.m. A number of Anyox officers and members will be present to initiate new members.

It is proposed to hold a dance, on Saturday evening, October 20th., under the auspices of the newly formed Alice Arm Social League.

The new logging camp recently installed by Mr. E. J. Tremblay, commenced logging operations this week. Two teams of horses are employed in pulling the logs.

Now that an organization has been formed for the purpose of providing entertainment it is up to the residents of the town whether such an organization will be a success or die for lack of support. A meeting of officers will be held on Monday evening, when plans for the coming winter months will be outlined. The officers of the organization will undoubtedly call on citizens of the town for help from time to time, and a generous response is anticipated.

Hallowe'en Dance Will Be For Worthy Cause

The dance, which we can justly term, the "Dance of the Season," which will be held on Monday, October 29th, at the Recreation Hall. is being eagerly looked forward to by everyone. It is being staged by an energetic body of ladies, to wit, the Hospital Auxiliary, composed of Mrs. F. M. Kelley, president; Mrs. E. Morning, secretary, and Mesdames Eve, Conway, Kribbs, Cooper, Jenkinson, Farnell and Fraser.

The object of the Auxiliary is to provide many things that conduce to the general welfare and pleasure of the patients, that would not come their way in the general routine of the Hospital menage.

Out of the net proceeds of the dance, for instance, new records will be purchased for the gramophone. The subscriptions for the various magazines, etc. will be renewed, decorations and furnishings for the Christmas tree, and games of all kinds for the use of the patients. Such objects as these cannot fail to produce the fullest support of the whole community. Let us one and all endeavour to make this, the Hospital Hallowe'en Dance the biggest success ever by every means in our power, remembering always that we never know in this old world of ours when our turn is to be.

Anyox Elks' Dance a Great Success

On Friday October 5th. the Elks Hall was the scene of an extremely well managed Dance. There was a big crowd and everyone went home delighted with a most enjoyable evening. The Committee in Charge were: Messrs. H. Thorley, A. S. Nickerson, A. J. LaFortune and A. H. Beaton.

The Orchestra consisting of Mrs. E. Swanson, (piano); Mr. A. B. Giffen (Saxophone); Mr. G. Liddell (Violin); and Mr. E. J. Waterman (drums) proved more than equal to their task, Mr. J. B. Thompson and Mr. W. Olsen had charge of the catering.

Just set this down in your note book:
You'll find 'tis ever true;
That those who talk to you about others
Will talk to others of you.

The high water in the Kitsault river, which usually occurs this month, has so far failed to materialize.

YES, WE HAVE NO VENISON TODAY

Messrs. J. Anderson and B. Turbitt arrived home on Saturday from their deer hunting trip down the coast. The dear little deer are still gamboling around their usual haunts.

Does Newspaper Advertising Pay?

This has come to be a superfluous question among men of business. There was a time when to have declared boldly and out loud in a public place that it paid to advertise in the newspapers would probably have stirred up a chorus of dissenters, but today advertising is better understood.

All advertising is good--some advertising is better--but the very best advertising on the face of the earth is that which slips into the home-town paper and goes direct to the home.

To be sure the best bit of soil that ever lay out of doors requires something more than merely dropping the seed into the ground. Give your newspaper advertising its due co-operation, have the copy properly written, and if you are not sure you can write it so it will get results, have someone who knows how to write it, and newspaper advertising will do its full share every time.

It is a fact noticed by observing people that while one person will always have poor health in a certain locality another person of different tastes and character will enjoy his best health, in that particular place. When we enquire into the cause of it we learn that the one who had poor health was discontented, and out of harmony with the surroundings, whilst the other was contented and happy because it appealed to his nature. That which was congenial to one was disagreeable to the other.

You Don't Say

While the wedding ceremony was going on a baby of one of the wedding guests cried incessantly.

"Was'nt that crying terrible," exclaimed the maid of honor. "When I get married I'm going to have engraved on my invitations: "No babies expected."

POSTAL TALKS

Did you ever give a moment's thought to hours of duty that are put in daily by the local Post Office and the hundred and one things that have to be thought of and attended to, correctly and quickly, to give you the good Service, which you expect. There are so many ways in which you can assist the Post Office to give you the service, and they are all so small and easy that everybody can do without the slightest inconvenience to themselves.

If there is a vacant box, rent it. The cost is but fifty cents a month.

If your time is worth anything at all, you will save money by not having to wait at the wicket for your mail.

If your children call for mail, let one of them do it, It is not necessary to have tne whole family call, one after another.

Put your box number on every letter you write. There are lots of Browns, Smiths and Robinsons everywhere, and it is very annoying when someone else opens your letters.

If you should send to a Mail Order House, don't expect your parcel next boat. Give them time. When the parcel arrives the Postmaster won't forget to give it to you; he dos'nt want it. There is no need to ask four or five times if your order has come.

Put your name and address on the upper left hand corner of the envelope of every letter you write, and stamp in the right hand corner, or better still, use stamped envelopes, and have your box number printed on them,

Never send a parcel without insuring it. Three cents will insure it up to five dollars, and it is a mighty poor parcel that is not worth three cents.

Don't put money in a letter, but buy a Money Order or Postal Note, then if it gets lost the Post Office will gladly issue a duplicate, and some hard-working postal employee will not be suspected of stealing it. If you must put the cash in, register it.

B. C. Ranks High as Field for British Investors

British Columbia's credit in Great Britain is higher that at any time in the past, states Hon. John Hart, minister of finance, who has just returned after a two month's visit to the Old Country. While there the minister studied the financial situation and found interest in British Columbia securities rapidly increasing. At present, said Hon. Mr. Hart, Great Britain, in common with other European nations, had a great many involved financial problems to solve and until some of these had been dealt with Canada could not expect a tremendous inflow of British capital. However, he predicts that within a short time British money will seek investment in this country and particularly in British Columbia, where the great wealth of natural resources promises such big returns from developing enterprises.

The Boy Grew Older

"And has he learned to talk yet?"

My, yes! We're teaching him to keep quiet now."

Mining Property Bonded in Slocan

According to an unofficial report from the Slocan district, the Alexander interests of England, represented by Major James Anderson of Kaslo, will shortly reopen the Jackson mines in the Jackson basin. The property consists of the Northern Belle, Kootenay Star, Labor Day, Ophir, Congress and Dublin Queen, all early locations. The property is equipped with concentrator and tramway and has shipped approximately 4000 tons of high-grade silver-lead concentrates in the past. It has been idle for approximately 15 years R. H. Stewart, formerly general manager of the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada, Ltd., will act as consulting engineer. Under his direction some important showings have recently been found on the Dublin Queen claim.

Rossland Mines Coming Back

The "strike" on the O. K. mine, made by Harry Gamble and associates, who have the famous old free milling gold ore claim under lease and bond, while not as sensational as that won in the now famous old I. X. L., promises to be very productive of the yellow metal.

A crew of men are at work on the property under the direction of Mr. Gamble, and it is reported that the ore shoot is widening out at a pleasing rate.

Mr. Gamble is confident the old O. K. will give up riches worth while ere long.

Work continues on the Gold Drip the claim owned of Mrs. A. McKinnon of Lincoln, Neb., a trial shipment having been made from the property recently. The Golden Drip lies in close proximity to the I. X. L. and is being developed under the supervision of M. E. Purcell, of Rossland.

The work of recovering the rich ore at the I. X. L. continues, the lessees not having been disappointed in the least in the vein diminishing. Another shipment will be made soon to the smelter from the I. X. L.

Other claims in the vicinity of the two properties mentioned above are receiving attention from the owners, and considerable activity is looked forward to in this section henceforth.

Copper & Lead Market

Vancouver, B. C.
Special to the Herald

Copper Sentiment Distinctly Better

Price 13 1-2 to 13 5-8 cents delivered with fair tonnage sold at Latter Price good general European buying.

Copper sentiment here and abroad is distinctly better and prices slightly higher.

Foreign buying is in good volnme, with sales by independents and Copper Export Association to Europe around 4,500,000 pounds for Saturday and up to noon Monday.

Domestic prices are better but buying in the home market continues moderate in volume. Copper can no longer be obtained under 13 1-2 cents delivered, and fair tonnage has been sold for domestic delivery at 13 5-8 cents.

While much depends upon foreign buying and news price trend seems to be upward, with probability that price will rise to around 13 3-4 cents delivered by first of next week.

European buying is general, with France still the best buyer. Orient is buying only moderately. British buying appears to be mainly aside ship at present time. Most of Europe's buying is for fairly prompt shipment.

Price of electrolytic copper for domestic shipment is 13 1-2 to 13 5-8 cents a pound delivered to end of November Price aside ship is 13.55 to 13.60 cents New York. Prices for European destinations are at levels corresponding with 13 3-4 to 13.80 cents c. i. f. Hamburg and London.

Lead market firm with outlook good

Lead market is firm with American Smelting and Refining Co. Price 6.85 cents a pound New York, while in outside market price price is 7 to 7.10 cents a pound for prompt and 6.85 to 6.95 cents for forward. East St. Louis price is 6.70 to 6.75 cents for prompt, and 6.80 to 6.85 cents forward.

Indications are that lead will continue to hold firm, with probably slight advances in price if there is any improvements in European situation and demand for metal develops in rebuilding Japan's devastated area. Domestic production is about in line with home consumption. If consumption should increase, Mexican lead would come into the market in this country instead of going to Europe.

Lead consumption, in common with other metals was at its peak for the year last March, when the price was 8.25 cents a pound New York. At that time, domestic production was inadequate to meet home consumption and considerable Mexican lead was used; but for several months virtually the entire Mexican output, now averaging about 15,000 tons a month has been going to Europe, as Spanish and Australian production has been insufficient to supply the market.

Government Negotiating with C. P. R. re. Settlers' Rights

Through Hon. William Sloan, minister of mines, negotiotions have been re-opened with the Canadian Pacific Railway Company for a settlement of the long-standing settlers' rights problem on Vancouver Island. Dual control of minerals in the 2,000,000 acre E. &. N. belt have made it difficult for mining to develop and recently President E. W. Beatty went into the matter fully, with the result that a solution is in sight.

Don't jump at conclusion—you may sprain your judgement.

Oh Well, What of it?

A band in a western town had just finished a vigorous but not overly harmonius selection. As they sank perspiring to their seats after bowing for the applause, the trombonist asked hoarsely:

"What's the next one?"

"The Maiden's Prayer," answered the leader, consulting his programme.

"Good Lord!" ejaculated the trombonist. "I just got through playing that!"

Repair Work on Kettle Valley Railway Holds Up Copper

Owing to difficulties which have been encountered by the Kettle Valley Railway Company in the work of repairing the spur line to Allenby and Copper mountain, it is now evident that a much later date than at first estimated will be required for tho completion of the job. October 15th. was the date formerly fixed upon but it is now certain that a much longer time will be required.

In view of this the copper company which was speeding up its alterations and improvements at both mill and mine, preparatory to commencing mining at an earlier date now find it expedient to ease up in the work, as there is no object in pushing through and then having to wait for the railway crew to complete their work.

In consequence of this about 25 of the 70 men employed at the Mountain have been laid off, temporarily, during the last few days. There preparations for the mining of ore are well advanced and the reduced force will have no difficulty in completing what work remains to be done and the reduction in the number of workmen at that place is very slight, amounting practically to only some half dozen whose services could best be dispensed with. Married men have been retained on the job and only the services of single men dispensed with.—Princeton Star.

Indian Mine Expected to be Next Shipper at Stewart

The Portland Canal News says: There now appears to be no doubt that the Indian Mine, will within the next six or twelve months be placed on the lists as a shipper.

The last new ore body encountered in No. 1 tunnel is the best so far opened, and is developing favorably. So satisfactory is it proving that diamond drilling has been contracted for to prove more expeditiously the ore bodies in advance of No. 1. tunnel and also to determine the ore bodies directly under the new strike near the face of No. 1 tunnel working at greater depth and in advance of the face of No. 3 tunnel. Actual drilling on the surface will commence before the 1st. of October and should be completed within six weeks, by which time the new ore body in No. 1 tunnel will be sufficiently explored to approximately demonstrate its extent and value, and should the drill hole prove successful in cutting the ore expected, the management will be enabled to know the capacity of the plant required for the mine and mill.

C. P. R. President Visits Allenby

Last Saturday, the special train of Mr. Beatty, president of the C. P. R., consisting of two private cars, one open air, one observation, and one baggage car, was sidetracked at the Princeton depot for nearly two hours, while the president and directors of the company who were accompanying him on his trip through the west, were driven to Allenby to view the big concentrating mill at that place. —Princeton Star.

"Sergeant," said the cavalry recruit, "please pick out a nice gentle horse for me, won't you?"

"Have you ever ridden before?"

"No."

"Ah, said the sergeant, "then here's just the animal for you; he's never been ridden before. You can start together."
