Alice Arm Christmas Tree Outstanding Success

The sweet and appealing singing of the children; the gorgeous costumes; the excellent precision in carrying out the programme, plus a large and appreciative audience marked the Alice Arm Children's Christmas Tree and Entertainment, held at T. W. Falconer's Hall on Thursday evening, as one of the most successful yet staged here.

The children of the school, who had been trained by Mr. J. Walter-Hughes, entertained the audience with excerpts taken from the musical comedies: "The Geisha" and "The Country Girl." Their excellent singing and acting was almost faultless, and rounds of applause again and again greeted their efforts. The costumes, which were designed with great care, added color and animation to the stage settings and no item was omitted to make the scenes as realistic as possible.

A feature of the evening was the excellent singing, both by the soloists and chorus and the whole programme was carried through without a single hitch. Much credit in this respect is due to Mr. J. Walter Hughes, who, for several weeks has painstakingly instructed the children, especially in regard to the singing.

Following is the programme.

O' Canada.

1. Recitation, Arthur Moss, Marshall Smith, Jack Graham.
2. Selection by orchestra, "Holy Night."
3. Song. "Jack's the Boy for Work," Alma Evindsen and Geisha chorus.
4. Song. "Dear little Jappy. Jap, Jappy," Michael Blomfield and Geisha chorus.
5. Song. "The Amorous Gold Fish," Joan Trinder and Geisha Chorus.
6. Selection by orchestra "When the moon comes over the Mountain."
7. Empire songs by school children, without accompaniment.
8. Selection by orchestra, "Jingle Bells."
9. Song, "Coo." by Marguerite Moss and "Country Girl" chorus.
10. Song, "When the Work's all done next Fall." by Mr. J. Hatton. Encore, "I have no use for the Women."
11. Song. "Yo Ho Little Girls, Yo Ho." Leah Kergin and Country Girl chorus.
12. Accordian Solo. Mr. Emil Sodurlund.
13. Song. Molly the Marchioness," Ellen Anderson and Country Girl chorus.
14. Selection by orchestra, "The River of Golden Dreams."
15. Crinoline Song and Dance, by school children.

God Save the King.

Accompanists of the evening were Mrs. J. Graham Miss Alice Kergin and J. Fiva.

As the last strains of the latter died away, Old Santa Claus himself, resplendent in his red robes, white whiskers and benevolent countenance burst into the room and strode blithely to the Christmas Tree, and commenced handing out his presents to all the juveniles and also some adults. Squeals of pleasure were heard on all sides as eager fingers stripped the coverings from the parcels, revealing, guns, trucks, books and other treasures; also bags of candy, nuts apples and oranges.

On the departure of Santa, the refreshment committee came into action and hot coffee, sandwiches, cakes, etc. were enjoyed by everyone present. Following the repast the floor was cleared for dancing, and the strains of the opening waltz by the Alice Arm orchestra was the signal that dancing was now the paramount form of entertainment. The floor was quickly crowded with devotees of the terpsichorean art, who kept the orchestra busy until the hands of the clock passed the midnight hour.

Viewed from every angle, from the opening of the children's entertainment until the strains of the Home Waltz died away, the evening was a huge success and the only regret was that such pleasant evenings are not more plentiful.

The success of the evening is due to the efforts and kindnesses of many, and the ladies of the various committees wish to thank all those who gave their time so freely in preparing the hall and stage; also the Alice Arm orchestra for their services; the Collison of Kincolith Chapter, I. O. D. E. for their donation; the anonymous Anyox donors who sent presents to several of the elderly Alice Arm prospectors, and also everyone else, who, whether by gifts or otherwise contributed.

On Christmas Day, at 10 a.m., The United Church Sunday School will be held as usual, and Divine Service at 11 o'clock. Christmas Carols will be sung at this service.

At 7.30 the evening service will be held. The choir will render the beautiful Cantata: "Prince of Peace." At both these services the Rev. Evan Baker will deliver a special Christmas message, and a hearty invitation is extended to everyone.

The Concentrator and Vandals Win At Basketball

Determined to stay with their weekly schedule as closely as possible, the Basketball League held two games on Monday the 19th. There was a somewhat sparse attendance, probably owing to the many duties of this busy season.

The first clash, between the Concentrator and Mechanics, was won by the former 19-17. The game was stubbornly contested throughout, although the Mechanics appeared to have hard luck in not running up a higher score. The teams: Mechanics, C. Dresser-7, Mikeli-8, L. Gillies-2, Murray, Sanderson, Dodsworth. Concentrator: Falconer-6, Dodd, Maclead, Dwyer -8, McDonald-2, McDougall-3.

In the second game the students put up a fine showing against the Vandals' squad, scoring 26 against 42 by their formidable opponents.

The Vandals are fast and tricky, check close, and have the science of passing down to a fine art. The students were nippy and fast, but would do better with short passes, as long ones almost invariably intercepted by their taller opponents. They are never daunted, no matter what the score, and their cleverness provides many a thrill for the fans.

The teams: High School, H. Dresser-5, Patrick, Gillies-15, Shields, Dodsworth, Gordon-6. Vandals: H. Jack-8, Calderoni-18, Walmsley-14, Calderoni-2, Anderson.

Elaborate Plans For New Year Dance

True to their reputation, the Brother Bills are planning to make their New Year Dance equal to the best they have ever held. The committee are doing everything possible to achieve this. The best music available has been engaged, and artistic decorations will give an enchanting effect to the gaiety. The kind of supper for which the Elks hold such a fine reputation will be served. Special novelties for the dancers are on hand.

The committee are making a special request that dancers come early, thus making the most of the best evening of the year. Altogether it promises to be a most fitting function for New Year's Eve, and one that Anyox people should not miss.

United Church Scholars Entertained

On Tuesday evening last the Intermediate and Senior grades of the United Church Sunday School were entertained at a special Christmas function, which was held in the basement of the Church. An enjoyable supper was served, after which the ubiquitous Santa Claus dispensed gifts to all present from the Christmas Tree. Following this a concert was held, all the items being given by the scholars themselves.

On Wednesday afternoon the Cradle-roll and Primary classes were given a Christmas treat. Each child received a delightful gift from the Tree, following which a Christmas Party was held and thoroughly enjoyed by all present. These enjoyable Christmas treats are long anticipated by the children, and the teachers and officers of the school deserve praise for the thorough manner in which they are carried out.

School Boys Continue Weekly Schedule

On Saturday the 10th. the regular weekly basketball game between the two school teams, Muskrats and Pirates, was played, the Pirates overpowering their opponents by a narrow margin. The best of feeling prevails between these schoolboy teams and every member looks forward with keen enjoyment to the weekly tilts. Maxwell Patrick was the capable referee.

The teams: Muskrats, J. Dodsworth, J. Varnes, Bobby Kent, G. Kent, D. McDonald. Pirates: L. Murdoch, H. Dresser, R. Dodsworth, B. Parsons, T. Scott, B. McMaster.

The same teams met again on Saturday the 17th. and this time the Muskrats frustrated the plans of the sea marauders and routed them 13-9. It was a closely contested game, played in a real sportsmanlike manner. Honors are now about equally divided between these budding basketeers.

Mr. Noble, auditor for the Granby Company, arrived on Wednesday. He will spend about three weeks at the Anyox plant.

A. Waters left on Wednesday for a holiday visit to his home in Vancouver.

An Entertainment Of Alluring Charm Coming

A Dansical Musical Comedy, entitled "Our Home Town" will be presented in the Recreation Hall on the evening of Wednesday, January 4th. by a local cast of some seventy Anyox children and young people. It is a succession of interesting dance features in a programme of sustained interest, with a continuity of theme and action which occupies a running time of about two hours. The cast have been in training for a considerable period under the direction of Mrs. V. S. McRae.

This entertainment provides a programme that is quite different and unusual. The production is presented in three episodes. The first of these is "Baby Days", featuring the wee folk in "The Popcorn Ballet," introducing brief but delightful numbers.

The second episode, "School Days," is the medium for dancers of school age, and there is plenty of life and dash. Numbers in this act include "Organdie Chorus," "Walking on Air," "Tapping Gallop," "Duo," and "Circus Intime," with the clowns, acrobats, toe-equestrienne, etc. Then come "Winter Carnival," Showman Dance," "La Belle Coquette," and "The Snowball Strut."

In the third episode, entitled "Love Days," sophisticated dancers are set forth in a cabaret entertainment. Many very pretty song and dance numbers are seen and heard, including: "Adagio," Collegiate Ten Step," a Rumba, a Tap number, Blues Singing, and a special featured dance, "The Moth and the Flame."

The complete cast will appear beautifully costumed for the show; also special scenery and properties are provided for. It is a modern show, snappy, but withal artistic, and this description cannot impart to you the delightful charm of this Dansical Comedy.

Tomorrow, Christmas Day will be with us again. For many centuries the 25th. day of December has been observed as Christmas. It is supposed to commemorate the day of the birth of Jesus Christ. At first the day was observed only by Christian people in touch with the Roman Catholic Church. It later grew into favor with Protestant Churches and has come to be recognized as a universal Christmas festival. Today it is celebrated throughout the world, in pagan lands and Christian. It comes nearer to being a universal holiday than any other day observed by mankind. There is a spirit and an atmosphere about the day that is contagious. While vast multitudes of people may observe the day, without any serious thought as to what lies back of it, there are still great multitudes to whom it has significance, because it marks the day of birth of Jesus in Nazareth, the gift of God to a lost world. We may not think much of what lies back of the gifts which pass among us, but every one of them is related to the unspeakable Gift, which sprang from the love of God. If God had not so loved the world as to give his only begotten Son, there would be no Christmas and no holiday and no Christmas gifts. Every token of love that passes from one person to another is but a reflection of that great love that expressed itself in the gift of God. The angels which came over Bethlehem's field and the shepherds who gathered in the humble manger in Bethlehem have had their songs re-echoed and the gifts duplicated in all ages since. God's gift was an interpretation of the universal heart of mankind, and throughout the centuries that heart has responded in its innumerable gifts at yuletide.

Coast Paper Mills Feels Scandinavian Competition

Pacific Mills Ltd., to meet reduced newsprint prices effective January 1st. by Powell River Co. Ltd. has announced a reduction of $5 per ton, f.o.b. Pacific Coast Ports. Contract purchasers are guaranteed against price increase above $48.50 in 1934 and $52.50 in 1935. Severe competition from Scandinavian imports owing to depreciated curencies of the northern European countries are largely responsible for the price cuts, it is stated.

"Are you folks saving anything?"
"Well, not exactly, but we have quit spending money we haven't got."

African Copper Producers Will Increase Output

The failure of the recent International Copper Conference held at New York, to agree on a curtailment plan for next year has left many executives of the industry in a dilemma especially the foreign producers. The feeling in some quarters is that it will mean unlimited production of copper with the low cost foreign producers fighting for what little business there will be at price concessions. How long some companies of North America with a comparatively small working capital will be able to stand such a competitive fight is problematical to a great many, although it is felt that some will eventually be forced to shut down unless some co-operative agreement as to production is made soon.

The recent conference broke up with the executives of several foreign companies openly stating that they intended to increase their production without any delay. Felicene Cattier, president of the Union Miniere Duhaut Katanga, a low cost producer operating in the Belgian Congo, announced on his departure for Europe that his company would start immediately on an increased production schedule. It was only after strong pressure had been brought to bear that Katanga at the conference a year ago decided to co-operate with other producers and restrict its operations to 20 per cent of capacity. Katanga Company, the largest single copper-producing property in the world, was willing for an extension of the present agreement through 1933.

Premier Co. Has Paid $16,000,000 In Dividends

Premier Gold Mining Company, operating the famous property of that name at Stewart, has declared a dividend of 3c a share in U. S. currency, payable from its New York office on January 4 to stockholders of record December 15. The disbursement totals $150,000. The Premier company is now engaged in rebuilding its 12-mile tramway leading from Premier to tidewater at Stewart, B. C. An order for 24 miles of cable was placed in Vancouver in November, and delivery is expected at Stewart some time this month. The present cable, the longest in the world at the time of its construction, has been in use since the mine was placed on a productive basis in 1920.

The aggregate of Premier's dividends in eleven years is over $16,000,000.

Rastus and Moe (colored) had been surprised by the farmer when they were getting their Christmas turkey. They took to their heels and hearing the loud report of a gun, put on an extra spurt.

"Rastus," panted Moe, "how come they's so many flies keep hanging around us?"

"Them ain't flies," gasped Rastus, them's buckshot."

"I'm sorry," said the perspiring salesman as he unrolled the sixty-eighth piece of linoleum, "but I have shown you our complete stock. Of course, I could send to the factory for more samples."

Well, perhaps you had better," said the dear old lady. "You see, what I want is a small, but neat design in a piece just big enough to cover the floor of my canary's cage."

"Congratulate me, old man, I am going to be married. I have found a beautiful girl and a good housewife."

THE PICTURES

"ARSENE LUPIN"

Saturday—Matinee and one Evening Show. Monday—One Show. Both Evening Shows at 7 o'clock.

In this Metro—Goldwyn—Mayer production John Barrymore and Lionel Barrymore make their first screen appearance together. The picture depicts the entertaining career of a debonair master thief, operating in the fashionable gatherings of Paris. Its chief charm, apart from the entertainment side of the picture, lies in the sophisticated love scenes between John Barrymore and Miss Morley, and in the clever unwinding of the various mysteries, leaving a laugh in the wake of every episode. The acting throughout is superb—See it Saturday or Monday.

"Roar of the Dragon"

TUESDAY, DEC. 27th.

With Richard Dix, Gwili Andae, E. E. Horton, Arline Judge, Zasu Pitts.

A stirring spectacle of the far East. Gwili Andre, the famous Danish beauty, makes her film debut. The story shows the experiences of a group of Occidental refugees in a small town on the frontier. Dix is a hard-boiled captain whose river-boat is attacked. He meets the Russian refugee (Miss Andre) and assumes leadership to combat their marauders. The love story between Dix and the exotic new-comer, and another appealing romance, are set against a background of war-torn China. There is plenty of action, thrills, and tense drama. See it Tuesday.
