PASSENGERS WILL KINDLY REFRAIN FROM SMOKING IN THIS ROOM.

WHEREVER you travel on the Canadian Pacific, you will find the same desire to maintain that excellence of service for which the Company has been noted for over forty years. The seemingly effortless perfection of Canadian Pacific service is simply an infinite capacity for taking pains.

IT will be a great aid to the service and will avoid any possibility of mistakes if passengers will kindly ask for meal order blanks, and upon them will write their orders, because stewards and waiters are not allowed to serve any food without a meal check.

W. A. COOPER, Manager, Sleeping, Dining, Parlor Cars, Station Restaurants and News Service, Montreal.

HONOLULU

TAKE the wide Pacific in two leaps instead of one. Visit Honolulu, city of tropic radiance, en route from Canada and United States to Japan, China or the Philippines. Add Hawaii's delights to your Orient voyage—famous Waikiki with its swimming and surf-board riding; luxurious hotels; incredibly perfect golf courses; entrancing vistas of mountains, valleys and sapphire seas; quaint native life and customs; pineapple and sugar-cane plantations . . . . Then, in the cool, wind-scented hours of early morning, slip away westward across the sunny Pacific waters. Ahead is peerless Fujiyama; toy-like towns; jinricksha rides; the sun across Hong Kong's matchless harbour; the meeting and mingling of Old Spain and New America in Manila's Intramuros.

Canadian Pacific White Empresses now call regularly at Honolulu, en route from Vancouver and Victoria to Yokohama, Kobe, Shanghai, Hong Kong and Manila. Largest and fastest steamships on the Pacific Ocean, they speed from Vancouver to Honolulu in five days, Yokohama in thirteen days, Kobe in fourteen days, Shanghai in sixteen days, Hong Kong in nineteen days, Manila in twenty-two days. They make the eastward voyage from Yokohama to Vancouver in nine days.

Luxurious appointments, unobtrusive perfection of service by European and Oriental stewards, Royal Naval Reserve officers—these are other features of White Empress steamships.

Canadian-Australasian Royal Mail Steamships

also call at Honolulu en route between Vancouver and Victoria and New Zealand and Australia
