WHAT PHYSICIANS SAY ABOUT THE
STARR KIDNEY PAD.

"Treatment by Absorption has for some time been recognized by Medical Men to be the most simple and effectual means of conveying to Diseased Organs, "Curatives," but in cases of Kidney Disease and Complaints attendant thereon, successful treatment was practicably impossible until the introduction of the Starr Kidney Pad. It costs less than a single prescription and is immeasurably more decisive and effective than any quantity of internal Medical dosing. Worn immediately over the seat of Disease, its curative properties become absorbed by the diseased and enfeebled Organs, continuously and directly, as required to insure in return their healthy action and original vigour. It is comfortable to the patient and pleasant in its effects, and cures when nothing else can. The Starr Kidney Pad accomplishes positive, decisive results. A more valuable discovery as a true remedy for Kidney Diseases was never made.—Medical Gazette

The Starr Kidney Pad, manufactured in Toronto, is a permanent sure cure for diseases, disorders and ailments of the Kidneys, Bladder and urinary secretive system, or attendant complaints, causing pain in the small of the back, sides, etc., producing urinary disorders, such as too frequent, scanty, difficult, painful or copious micturition, inability of retention and sedimentary urine, dropsical symptoms, etc., denoting the presence in the system of diseases common to the urinary secretive organs—known as gravel, catarrh of the bladder and passages, Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy, piles, nervous debility, etc. Send for pamphlet to LANGLEY & CO., Wholesale Agents, Victoria. Retailed by A. M. HERRING and D. S. CURTIS & CO., New Westminster; T. McNEELEY, Ladner's Landing; H. McDOWELL & CO., HASTINGS SAW MILL CO., THE VANCOUVER DRUG CO., Vancouver; W. E. ## ALKALI SINKS DESCRIBED.

Treacherous Spots on the Green Prairie in Which Travelers Are Sometimes Lost.

It is an awful sight to see a man drown, but with foresight and skill no man need to drown. Fancy a sea in which there is no swimming, and a sea into which you may plunge unaware.

A man is loping over the green prairie, looking out from under his broad sombrero at the lazy cattle and the prairie dogs playing in the sun. Suddenly there is a sound like a giant's throat swallowing a choking shout of terror. The prairie dogs run into their holes, and a moment later come out cautiously and frightened.

The tall, reed-like grass is waving where the horse and rider were just now. The antelope on the crest of the divide yonder look around them watchfully. But there is nothing to fear—no man in sight.

He is going to town, that rider, with the wages of a hard winter's work in his pocket, riding his favorite broncho, dressed in the buckskins he had fringed in the winter evenings, ready to show the foolish girls how brave he looked in his rude attire. Where is he now—he and his horse? In a grave of slimy, shivering mud—alkali paste blue with a nameless tint of putrid death, has filled his throat—covered his eyes before he could close the lids.

What does this mean—this hideous freak of nature—some work of a devil endowed with a moment's power? No; only an alkali sink; only a natural well filled with paste as yielding as water—retentive as Hades.

Picture to yourself the surface setting back to its normal quietude, with an indescribable gulp, a ghoul-like smacking of grave-lips. A grave that supplies itself with dead—a grave that buries before it kills—an insatiable, bottomless grave, set like a trap for the living.

The sink-hole is not always covered with grass. Sometimes it has a caked and seamed crust of bluish white alkali on the top of it. But even that is a poor safeguard, for the long green grass around it will hide it from the rider until it is too late to avoid it.

The tenacity of this paste of mud is something incredible. I have never seen a man caught in a sink-hole, but I have seen a man ride to the edge of one, discover it too late to turn his horse, and shaking himself loose in the saddle vault over the horn pommel, when the pony was caught, striking the ground beyond the sink-hole. There were twenty men there, and before the horse had sunk far there were half a dozen ropes fast to him.

Half a dozen strong ponies can pull almost anything, but they could not pull that horse back from the grave that was closing over him. There is a strange fascination about this alkali—it holds all it grasps with a horrible pertinacity.—[San Francisco Ingleside.

A Gallant Pickpocket.

A New York Fifth avenue belle went to the theatre. On returning home after the performance she discovered that her breastpin, which was quite valuable, had been stolen. She was very sorry, for the breastpin was a present.

A few days afterwards the young lady received the following letter:

"The writer of these lines has the honor to inform you that he knows where your breastpin is, and will return it cheerfully under certain conditions.

"I do not expect to receive a reward in money, since I regard it as exceedingly vulgar to accept money from a lady whom I idolize as much I do you. On the other hand it would be very stupid in me to return your breastpin without getting some equivalent.

"Taking into consideration my consuming love for you, I'll return the missing ornament for a single kiss from your rosy lips.

"To-morrow morning I will be at the corner of Madison avenue and 56th street with the missing jewelry. If you are willing to pay my price, I will, after pressing a kiss on the aforesaid lips, express the breastpin in your hand. No questions asked.—(Signed)—One of your admirers."

The young lady did not know what to do. She wanted to get her breastpin back, but she did not care to pay the price. She hit upon the idea of sending her servant girl in her place.

The servant girl put in an appearance at the appointed hour and place. She was heavily veiled.

A well-dressed gentleman approached and asked:

"Do you accept the terms?"

"I do."

The stranger familiarly embraced her in the European plan, and simultaneously imprinted a large three by seven kiss on her mouth, that caused the policeman on the corner to start. He thought it was a pistol shot.

"Here is what I promised," he remarked after the formality had been complied with, "but," he added, "you will find it like the kiss—not quite what it was represented to be, as you are only the servant, not the mistress," handing her something wrapped up in paper.

After he had retired, which he did immediately, the servant examined the paper and found that it contained only a small piece of wood.

"Heaven Lies about Us in Our Infancy."

What a beautiful and loving delusion this is—the belief which all mothers or mothers entertain that there is something so very extraordinary about their own baby as to distinguish it from every other baby.

Although, when I come to think of it more attentively, I am not so sure that this is a delusion, after all. It may be that, instead of having hoodwinked and blinded us to the imperfections of our own children, our Father, and their father, has but lent a new keenness to our vision, has but brushed away the cobwebs and dust that blinded us, so that we can see more truly and deeply into the hidden beauty and mystery which He has cast around each of His little ones.

You know what Emerson says, that infancy is the perpetual Messiah which comes to the arms of fallen men, and leads with them to return to Paradise." And there is a beautiful saying of old St. Paul, of which I often think: "The smallest children," he says, "are nearest God, as the smallest planets are nearest the sun."

And if it be so, it is no wonder that we should feel hushed and awed and stilled, as we sometimes do, in the presence of a little child.

An Experienced Editor.

"Ah," said the summer tourist, leaning over the fence and addressing the farmer, "may I make bold to inquire what that great quantity of green vegetation growing over there is?"

"Cert'nly, mister; that's corn."

"Ah, thanks. And those large animals over the fence, they are, er—"

"Cows, my friend, every one of 'em. Say, you don't seem to be very much po ted on these 'ere things."

"Perhaps not. The fact is, my business has kept me so closely confined that this is the first chance I've had to get into the country."

"Running a bank or something like that?"

"No, sir, I am editor of an agricultural paper. I have held that position for many years."—[Estelline Bell.

APPETIZERS.

Key-Holes and Latch-Keys.

Latch-keys are more frequently used in the night than at any other time.

The night is very often dark.

For six months in the year, on an average, the weather is cold.

If men partake of stimulants to excess it is generally at night when the labors of the day are over.

Taking all these facts into consideration, why are the keyholes of latch-locks not placed in an accessible position? Why are they not easily discernible and easily penetrable?

We have known latch holes to be placed immediately under the door knob at about two feet six inches from the ground, where a tall man had to bend himself nearly double to get at them.

And we have known them to be placed in immediate juxtaposition with another and larger keyhole, so that in the dark it was almost impossible to know one from the other.

Most latch holes are obscure little apertures not easily seen in broad daylight by a person with all his faculties at their keenest. Now how must it be on a dark night for a person with his hands benumbed with cold and more or less confused with the good cheer of a supper party?

It is simply cruel, brutal and preposterous to place a person in such a situation, when all trouble might be easily avoided by placing the hole at the end of a small cup or funnel of metal and surrounding it with a disc of polished silver, or even with a phosphorescent nimbus, as could be easily done.

Calculate, if you can, the misery, the bickerings, the criminations and recriminations, that have grown out of the inability to open front doors with night keys; the people who have been rung up out of their beds, and the others who have been forced to go to hotels or walk the streets.

Think of it, and say whether we are not justified in asking for reform in this matter.—[Texas Siftings.

A Hard Town For Him.

A stranger who had nothing more in his looks to recommend him than a hare lip called at the Ninth Avenue Station recently and said to the sergeant in charge:

"If you'll guarantee me $10 I'll go into a trance and tell you where to find a prominent murderer."

"We don't want any murderers today," was the reply.

"Give me $5 and I'll call up the spirit of Captain Kidd, and have it point out two bank robbers."

"Couldn't do it. The bank robber market is very dull just now."

"Will you give me $3 if I tell you who stole Charley Ross?"

"No, sir."

"Will you give me a dollar to tell you just how long you are to live?"

"No."

"Say," whispered the man, "I'll give away the Nathan murderer for fifty cents."

"Don't want him."

"Two shillings?"

"No."

"Then you look out for me! If I can't get my living honestly I'll make it some other way! When the next murder occurs look for me! I'll be there! Hist!"

Later in the day he was locked up for vagrancy, and as he was locked up he confidentially remarked to the janitor

"I'm going into a trance now. Come here with a quarter by and by and I'll give you a pointer on the end of the world. It's straight business with me, and I can give you a mile the start of everybody else. Hist! Not a word! Get your duds packed!"—[Detroit Free Press.

He Jumped at Conclusions.

"You saw the greater portion of this fight, did you not?" inquired a lawyer of a witness in an assault and battery case.

"Well, it's like this," commenced the witness.

"No equivocations, sir! You saw the whole occurrence, I believe. You were there?"

"Yes, I war thar."

"Judging from the appearance of your lacerated features and parti-colored complexion I should say you saw the whole thing."

"Wall, yer shouldn't jump at conclusions in that random sort of style. It's like this—"

"Answer, on your oath now, did you, or did you not, see the fight?"

"Noap."

"What!"

"No sir-ee! The fust I knowed about thar bein' any likelihood of a fight Bill Spooner fetched me the gol durndest swipe across the eyes, an' I didn't see anything for an hour, hour an' a half or two hours afterwards."—[Merchant Traveler.

No Chance for the Presidency.

"Mamma," said a little Fifth Ward boy lugubriously the other day as he laid down a volume of biographical sketches of the presidents, "I don't believe I'll ever be a president. I ain't got the chance. I wasn't brung up right."

"Why, child, you have the same chance that other little boys have."

"No, I ain't; I wasn't born in a log cabin, nor I ain't drove a team on the canal, nor had to read the spellin' book by the light of a pine knot, nor had to split rails, nor nothin' like the rest of the boys who got there. I tell you, mother, I'm handicapped on this presidential business."

From the stress laid on the hardships endured by some of the presidents when boys, it is not strange that the juvenile mind should draw such a deduction.—[Elmira Gazette.

Mr. O'Toole's Disease.

"Good marnin,' Mrs. O'Toole! An' so they tell me yer husband is sick, an' what ames to be the mather wid the poor man?"

"Ah! Mrs. Murphy, he has had a terrible attack of spine in his back; he's felt it comin' on this long while."—[Judge.

No Use for the Jewels.

Young Housekeeper (to fish dealer): "What do you charge for terrapin?"

Dealer: "The diamond backs are $48 a dozen, mum."

Young Housekeeper: "Well, haven't you got any without diamonds on their backs that come cheaper?"

Reasonable.

Isaacs: "You can have dot bair of susbenders for feefty zents. Of you dakes dwo bair I lets you have them for seventy-five zents, or I gifs you vour bair vor a dollar."

Customer: "How many pair will I have to take before I get them for nothing?"

SIR.—We the undersigned having witnessed the terrible fire which wiped out of existence the young city of Vancouver, on the 13th inst., have, after the fire, examined the safes sold by you, some of which were put to the most severe test, having been surrounded by large quantities of lard and bacon, and we are pleased to testify to the remarkable manner in which every Safe sold by you preserved its contents, not only books and papers, but also thousands of dollars in paper money were taken out in perfect condition. We can, therefore, with the greatest confidence, recommend them as thoroughly fire proof:

C. For improving the Crescent and Park, the sum of $5,000.

D. For purchasing at a sum not exceeding their par value all Debentures issued on the security of the City of New Westminster, the sum of $28,250, which Debentures are set out in the schedule to this section.

And whereas the sum of $6,000 will have to be raised annually as a special rate for paying the interest and creating a sinking fund for paying the said loan at the days and times when the same shall become due by this Bylaw.

And whereas the amount of the whole rateable property of the Municipality according to the last revised Assessment Roll, being the Roll for the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, is the sum of $769,210, irrespective of any future increase of the rateable property of the Municipality, and of any income in the nature of tolls, interest or dividends from the work, or from any stock, shares or interest in the work upon which the money to be raised as herein provided, or any part thereof is intended to be vested, and also irrespective of any income from the temporary investment of the sinking fund or any part thereof.

And whereas to raise the said yearly sum of $6,000 the annual special rate upon the said rateable property will require to be eight-tenths of one per cent. on the dollar.

Therefore, the Mayor and Council of the Corporation of the City of New Westminster in council assembled enact as follows:

1. It shall be lawful for the Mayor of the said City to raise by way of a loan from any person or persons, body or bodies corporate, who may be willing to advance the same upon the credit of Debentures hereinafter mentioned, a sum of money not exceeding in the whole $75,000, and cause the same to be paid into the hands of the Clerk of the said Corporation for the purposes and with the objects hereinbefore recited.

2. It shall be lawful for the Mayor to cause any number of debentures to be made, each for such sum of money not less than $100 as may be required, and all such debentures shall be sealed with the seal of the Corporation of the City of New Westminster, signed by the Mayor and countersigned by the Clerk of the said City.

4. The said Debentures shall have coupons attached for the payment of interest at the rate of six per centum per annum on the amount of said Debentures payable half-yearly during the currency of said Debentures which coupons shall be payable at the office of said City Clerk.

5. For the purpose of forming a sinking fund for the payment of the principal of said Debentures and interest to become due thereon an equal special rate of eight-tenths of a cent on the dollar shall, in addition to all other rates, be raised, levied and collected in each and every year upon all the rateable property in the said City during the continuance of said Debentures.

6. It shall be lawful for the said Corporation from time to time to repurchase any of the said Debentures at such price or prices as shall be mutually agreed upon, and all Debentures so repurchased shall be forthwith cancelled, and no reissue of Debentures or any Debenture, shall be made in consequence of said repurchase.

7. In case any or all of the said Debentures mentioned in Section D in the recital of this Bylaw cannot be repurchased according to the provisions of this Bylaw, then and in such case the unused portion of said sum of $28,250, mentioned in said Section D of the said recital shall be placed to the credit of the sinking fund of the respective Debentures which cannot be redeemed, and the special rate mentioned in the Bylaw creating such Debentures shall not be levied as in said Bylaw mentioned, but instead thereof the amount required to be raised annually by such special rates for interest on such unredeemed Debentures, shall be paid out of the sinking fund created under said Bylaw, and this Bylaw and the principal sum of said unredeemed Debentures, shall if such Debentures cannot be sooner purchased, be paid out of the sinking fund as and when such Debentures shall become due respectively.

8. This Bylaw shall before the final passing thereof receive the assent of the the Electors of the Corporation in manner provided by the Municipality Act, 1881.

9. This Bylaw shall take effect and come into force on the 15th day of July, A. D. 1887.

10. This Bylaw may be cited as the "Loan Bylaw, 1887."

Bylaw read the first time on the 23rd day of May, A. D. 1887.

Bylaw read the second time on the 23rd day of May, A. D. 1887.

A HOME COMPANY.

This Association merits the confidence the Public is reposing in it from the following FACTS:—

The Security offered to policy holders is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in Canada,

It has no schemes of insurance, but the well-established lines, hence the policy holders cannot be misled as to their contracts.

Its statements to the public can be readily understood, its cash statement showing every item of income and how expended.

Its position is ascertained annually from a detailed valuation in which every item of liability is included.

Its progress has been unexampled in the history of insurance in Canada.

Its policies are indisputable after three years, and non-forfeitable after two years' existence.

Its profits are distributed upon an equitable basis. The profits to one class of policy holders are not lessened to give larger profits to any other class, which method affords superior advantages over the uniform bonus plan of distribution.

GRAND MASONIC OFFICERS. — On Saturday the annual communication of the Grand Lodge, A.F.&A.M., of British Columbia, was held at Nanaimo. The annual address, delivered by the M.W.G.M. was very interesting and instructive. The following officers were elected for the current year: M. W. Bro. A. N. Milne, G.M.; R. W. Bro. J. S. Clute, D.G.M.; R. W. Bro. D. H. Ross, G.S.W.; R. W. Bro. H. Hoy, G.J.W.; V. W. Bro. Rt. Rev. Bishop Sillitoe, G.C.; V. W. Bro. H. F. Heisterman, G.T.; V. W. Bro. E. C. Neufelder, G.S.; Bro. W. Trickey, G.F. The appointed officers were: D. Craig, G.J.D.; W. A. Duncan, Grand Supt. of Works; A. McKeown, Grand Director of Ceremonies; D. Cartmel, Grand Marshall; S. Clarke, Grand Sword Bearer; M. Wolf, Grand Organist; M. Moss, Grand Pursuivant; T. Mowatt and D. Wilson, G.S.

AT WINNIPEG.—Rev. Donald Fraser, of Victoria, according to the Winnipeg Call, spoke Thursday at the meeting of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in that city, of the conditions which exist in British Columbia. The state of morality was low. Young people were growing up in amazing ignorance. Divisions had existed in the church, but he trusted they would soon be healed. In British Columbia people did not care a rush about class; they had no respect for the cloth, and were in no way afraid of the ministers. The men sent to British Columbia were good men. Mr. Jamieson, the pioneer missionary, had done a noble work. He was a retiring man, but had labored faithfully and earnestly. Through Mr. Jamieson's labors the cause of religion had taken deep root in Westminster. The speaker paid a tribute to the excellent work done by the late Rev. Mr McKay.

B. C. MINES.—Some days since a miner from British Columbia struck the city of Ottawa, bringing with him several magnificent samples of galena ore taken from mines in the Kicking Horse pass. The samples being tested show 18 per cent. of silver and 75 per cent. of lead to the ton, and the miner asserts the quantity to be unlimited. The new arrival was not long in making the acquaintance of a real estate agent, who in turn introduced him to an Ottawa gentleman heavily interested in the mining business and who has shown great skill and accomplished much in his line. The first interview led to a second and finally the British Columbian sold a quarter share in each of the mines known as the Carleton, Sunrise, Carrie and Virginia. These mines lie close to the Kicking Horse pass and river. There is a very fine sample of this ore from this mine at the geological museum, which was dug out by R. G. McConnell, one of the staff of field geologists. The share was sold for a large cash price, through Mr. Dowsley's agency.—Ottawa Free Press.

M. Sheehan, of Oscoda, Mich., writes: "I have used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil on horses for different diseases, and found it to be just as you recommended. It has done justice to me every time, and it is the best Oil for horses I ever used." Observe that the name "Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil" is on front of the wrapper, as there are imitations of it.

He left by the C.P.R. for his home at 12:40.

New Westminster Building Society.

On Wednesday evening, the 22nd June, in the court house, was held the first general meeting of the above society, since its incorporation. The following members were present:—Dr. Trew, Messrs. J. G. Jaques, A. Leamy, John Sprott, B. W. Shiles, Wm. Davidson, Chas. Hielyor, Jas. H. Perkins, W. H. Keary, A. G. Gamble, George Turner, John Carty, S. J. Pearce, W. J. Walker, G. W. Grant, W. H. Falding, Joseph Mills, Peter Peebles, E. P. Julien, S. H. Webb, W. J. Corbett, T. R. Figg, W. P. Grant, W. L. Johnson, E. A. Jenns, Z. S. Hall, H. Hoy and others. Mr. Jaques presided, and after the minutes of the preceeding meeting had been read and confirmed, reported the incorporation of the society, and the registration of its rules under the "Investment and Loan Societies' Ordinance, 1869," under date, 2nd June, 1887.

In accordance with the rules, the officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Secretary, Mr. W. J. Walker; Treasurer, Mr. Ben. Douglas; Auditors, Messrs. R. J. Rickman, and W. H. Falding. The election of directors was conducted by ballot, the result, declared by the chairman, being the appointment of Messrs. Jaques, Hoy, Duncan, Shiles and Hendry. A resolution was passed: "That in the opinion of this meeting it is expedient that all necessary printing for the information of members be done as soon as possible." After the ordinary weekly business of the society had been transacted, the meeting adjourned for general business only, until 6th July.

TO ASSIST NATURE most effectually in her efforts to throw off or resist serious disease, it is essential that an impulse should be given to functions which growing in health suspends or weakens, namely, the action of the bowels, bilious secretion, and digestion. Oftentimes, though this is impracticable by the use of ordinary remedies, it proves an easy task when Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure is resorted to.

Arrival of the Rithet.

STORMY PASSAGE AND ALARMING DANGER.

The str. Rithet arrived at 6:30 last evening. An immense crowd had gathered at the wharf to give the boys a welcome home. On the steamer nearing the landing place the rifles fired a salute and cheered lustily. The enthusiasm was taken up by those on shore and three cheers were given for the safe arrival of the gallant Westminster Rifles. About 100 passengers were aboard the Rithet. From those on board we learn some particulars of the trip. The Rithet left Victoria at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning and reached Plumper's Pass at 12:30. After leaving the pass the steamer proceeded to cross the straits, but before she had gone more than three or four miles the wind had risen to such a gale that considerable danger was apprehended. Being a flat bottomed sternwheel steamer, she could not turn with safety, and nothing was left but to keep her going. The force of the storm increased, the waves sometimes broke over the steamer, and the wheel, sometimes completely out of water, would be spinning round at a terrific speed. It was found impossible to enter the Fraser, or to change the course of the boat. When off the sandheads the jib was carried away. The steamer drifted about all afternoon and until 1 o'clock Thursday morning, when she reached Cowichan Gap. It is unnecessary to say that the passengers were thoroughly alarmed, and very few of them ever expected to set their feet upon land again. Most of them obtained life preservers and did anything else they could do preparatory to being precipitated into the seething waters. It is a trip that not one of them will ever forget. The boat left Cowichan Gap at 2:20 yesterday afternoon and without mishap, arrived in the city last evening, being about 36 hours out from Victoria.

THE BRITISH COLUMBIAN Printing Company

(LIMITED.)

ON THE 10TH OF JANUARY, 1887, the COLUMBIAN Newspaper and Printing Concern was purchased by a joint stock company composed of citizens of New Westminster, to be known as the "British Columbian Printing Co., Limited." The concern has been for nearly a year owned and controlled by the British Columbia Stationery and Printing Company, of New Westminster, Victoria and Vancouver. The object of the new company is to continue the publication of the BRITISH COLUMBIAN newspaper and carry on a general printing and publishing concern, controlled entirely by those whose individual interest it will be to promote the development, especially of the Mainland. There will be no slackening of the energy hitherto displayed in the management of the establishment, and its patrons may rely upon receiving full value for their money. The COLUMBIAN will continue to be entirely independent in both Dominion and provincial politics, and will devote itself to the advancement of such schemes as may be considered in the public interest. The concern is now entirely separate from any other business, the book and stationery establishment in this city having been taken over by Mr. T. R. Pearson, who will continue to carry it on in his own name and for his own benefit. It is desirable that a daily newspaper should be maintained in this city, and the new company asks for public patronage on the ground that it is engaged in an enterprise calculated to promote the public welfare. It asks that the COLUMBIAN be judged on its own merits and supported only so long as its policy is consistent with its professions. In consequence of this business change all accounts due the concern must be settled without delay so that the books of the former company may be adjusted and closed. Address all communications and remittances to
