INSANE FOREIGNER KILLED WHILE FLEEING FROM POSSE

Railroader Known as Frank Hill Shot Dead by Special Constable Who Took Victim for One of Bank Robbers ---Verdict of Culpable Homicide

The mistaken zeal of a special constable was responsible for the death of Frank Walimacki, known as Frank Hill, a demented Finn who had been working on construction. After a pursuit lasting for several hours, Hill was shot and killed on Saturday morning, near Skeena Crossing. The inquest, which was held at Hazelton, concluded at 2 a.m. Wednesday. The evidence showed that deceased, who had been missing for a week, and was supposed to be demented, was followed by Magnus Edgar, a half-breed special constable, and two Indians, on the supposition that he was one of the New Hazelton bank robbers. The fugitive, continuing his flight when called upon to stop, was fired upon by Edgar and was struck by two bullets, death resulting almost immediately. A verdict of culpable homicide was returned.

The inquest was conducted by Government Agent Hoskins, acting in the capacity of coroner. The jury included E. H. Hicks Beach, foreman, R. S. Sargent, W. J. McAfee, J. Willett, W. F. Brewer and A. Leverett.

Edgar and Wikner, another special constable, are in custody, awaiting the action of the authorities.

Washington, Nov. 25: — In spite of reassuring reports from the oilfields on the east coast of Mexico, the foreigners of that section are still making very apprehensive appeals to Washington. They indicate that they fear not only for their properties but for their lives.

CANADIAN JUBILEE EXHIBITION PROPOSED

London, Nov. 17:—The movement to celebrate Canada's jubilee by an international inter-imperial exhibition in 1917 is being warmly supported in official, financial and business circles here. Expressions of approval have been received from Lord Strathcona, Lord Desborough, Earl Grey, Sir Thomas Skinner, Mr. A. W. Smithers, chairman the Grand Trunk; Mr. Burbidge, manager of Harrod's Stores; Sir Trevor Dawson of Vickers and also from 3,000 leading manufacturers of London, Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, Bradford, Halifax, Hull, Bristol, Glasgow, Aberdeen, Dundee and Belfast. Many of these manufacturers state that they are considering the establishment of Canadian branches.

There is every prospect that Australia will make a representative display, the Commonwealth desiring to promote the closest possible relations with Canada.

Mr. Leonard Palmer, who recently returned from a consultation with the governments and other authorities in Canada, and is now organizing the project, says that it of course rests with Canada to decide the exact form the exhibition will take and whether it will be held in Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, Winnipeg, Vancouver or Prince Rupert.

HINDUS SUCCEED IN APPEALS TO COURTS

Vancouver, Nov. 26: — The thirty-five Hindus whose appeal against deportation was adversely decided by the federal authorities, took their case into the British Columbia courts. The decision, which was rendered in Victoria, occasions much surprise in Ottawa.

SAYS SHE SIGNED UNDER COMPULSION

Vancouver, Nov. 24:—Claiming that she was forced by threats of violence to sign a transfer of nine timber limits to her husband, who disposed of them next day for $20,000, Mrs. Mary Ellis is suing in the supreme court today to have the transfer set aside. She is suing Messrs. Wm. Lollis and J. A. Tomlinson who purchased the limits from Mr. Ellis, and they in turn have added Mr. Ellis as a third party to the action.

In the pleadings, Mrs. Ellis alleges that on April 27, 1910, her husband came to her and insisted that she sign a document to enable him to make a sale of the limits. She refused, whereupon, she alleges, he kicked the chairs about the room, threatened to throw her out of the window, and otherwise by fear of punishment, forced her to sign the document, which proved to be a transfer. After the sale was over, she notified Mr. Lollis that her signature to the transfer was not legal.

Lollis and Tomlinson in their defence admit no knowledge of the alleged duress, and claim to be innocent holders of the property for value, under the title given them by Mr. Ellis, to whom they have paid the $20,000. The timber limits are all in the Kispiox Valley.

Speaking to a Liverpool audience, Dr. Vaughan Cornish, F. R. G. S., drew attention to the fact that the Panama Canal "will put the immense length of the Pacific Coast of the two Americas into sea communication with the manufacturing districts of the United States and Europe." He then went on to say:

"The breadth of the Pacific Ocean in the Tropics is so great that even from American ports there is no shortening of distance to tropical Asia. It may perhaps not be generally realized that to steam from Panama to Colombo across the Pacific and through the Straits of Malacca is a longer voyage than that from the North to the South Pole. The Panama Canal concerns the British Empire in more ways than one. Obviously, as Great Britain is the largest sea-carrier, we ought to gain by an undertaking which will increase the total amount of sea transport, and also its relative efficiency as compared to land transport. We shall soon see British shipping companies establishing round the world routes entirely north of the Equator, a thing never before possible."

The part of the address which will have the most interest for our readers is that in which Dr. Cornish says:

"One of the greatest boons conferred by the Canal on the Empire will be the bringing of British Columbia 6000 miles nearer by sea to Great Britain, an amount equal to the whole distance which separates London from Cape Town. This reduction will stimulate the trade of British Columbia, and facilitate the settlement and peopling of that great and splendid country —for there is no fairer or more desirable land among those which owe allegience to King George."

President Wilson gave audience to a delegation of 65 suffragettes on Monday, and intimated that congress would consider the extension of votes to women.

Premier Roblin of a Mnitoba has announced the government's intention of spending two and a half millions on good roads in that province.
