A NEW REBEL GOVERNMENT IS FORMED IN CHINA

SALE OF SECTION TWO PROPERTY BROUGHT CLOSE TO $600,000

Property Averaged a Little Over $1,000 a Lot---Proposal to Recognize the Services of the Auctioneer With a Present of Two Lots Proved Very Popular

The five hundred and eighty lots sold in section two by the G.T.P. fetched nearly $600,000. Expectations of those who predicted that the lots would fetch half a million were bettered by $73,335, the sum total of the prices bid being $573,335.

The two best lots in the section lots 10, block 6 and 78, block 20, commanding the entrance to Second, Atlin and Moresby Avenues in section two went for $5,200 and $6,575, being bought by V. Casley of the Empress Hotel and Wilfrid Grattan of Vancouver.

At the end of the sale the last two lots offered, lots 101 and 102 block 20, were withdrawn, the idea being that the G.T.P. heads at Montreal be informed of the suggestion made by Ald. Clayton and heartily approved by the assemblage of buyers, that these two lots be either presented to Auctioneer Frank Ellis or sold to him at the upset price of $700 in recognition of his undoubtedly excellent services at the sale. The lots constitute a double corner on Moresby Avenue and the Lane continuing Fourteeth street. The suggestion and appreciative remarks regarding the auctioneer were received with approval by Mr. D. H. Hays who will approach his directors on the matter. The lots had to be exposed for sale, but were bid down with laughter by the large assembly.

THE STEAMER TEES IS RESCUED

Was Located by the Tug William Joliffe in Kyuquot Sound Late Saturday Afternoon---Crew and Passengers Are All Saved

LIFEBOAT WAS PICKED UP IN THE FOG

Crew Were Trying to Reach the Estevan Wireless Station, But Lost Their Way in the Fog—They Piloted the Jolliffe to the Stranded Ship—The Tees Had Stripped Her Propellor in Striking Rock—Passengers on Short Rations

(Special to The Daily News)

Victoria, Dec. 4.—The steamer Tees is afloat and all on board are well. They are now on their way here on the tug William Jolliffe. Late on Saturday afternoon the William Jolliffe after gaining entrance to Kyuquot Sound, picked up the lifeboat and crew of the Tees who on Wednesday morning left their ship to get to Estevan wireless station. They had lost their way in the fog and been without food since and were all in bad shape. They piloted the Jolliffe to the stranded ship.

It appears the Tees injured her propellor and bent her rudder post on Wednesday while passing Clay Pits. She struck a submerged rock, then slid off and anchored. After the first call of distress the wireless ceased to work.

Her crew and passengers were put on two meals a day as rations were low. The passengers were transferred to the tug Salvor and will reach here during the day.

TRAPPED A MAGNIFICENT SILVER FOX, WORTH $600

Joe Belway Made a Lucky Trap Near Mile 65 Last Week—Railway Seems to Attract Animals Instead of Scaring Them

With the pelt of a beautiful silver fox valued undressed at $600, and probably double that made up, Joe Belway, a well-known old timer and Skeena river trapper came into his camp at Mile 65 last week. The fox was caught not far from the railway. It is a curious fact so far from the Grand Trunk Co's works having had the effect of driving wild animals away from the line of steel, the creatures seem to be attracted nearer by the bustle of the works.

INVESTMENT THAT PAYS.

No home in Western Canada can better invest a dollar than send it for a year's subscription to The Family Herald and Weekly Star. That paper has been a blessing in thousands of Western homes. Its agricultural columns are as good as a course in a college. Its world's news page covers everything in the nws line and its magazine section provides ample reading for the whole family. Any person seeing the beautiful picture, "Home Again," in a shop window would readily give two dollars for it, yet it can be had absolutely free by sending a dollar for a year's subscription to the paper. Such a paper for a year with such a beautiful picture all for the price of a bushel of wheat is certainly a good in-

DAILY EDITION. MONDAY, DEC. 4

AN EXPRESSION OF CONFIDENCE IN RUPERT

The sale of section two property evoked the best expression of confidence in the future of Prince Rupert that has yet been shown. Sentiment in the mouths of the multitude is often a cheap thing, but there is always sincerity in the act of the real estate purchaser who planks down his dollars and lets them speak his mind for him.

The satisfactory prices received and the continued stiffening of the market during the sale showed that the market was not keyed up by momentary excitement or passing enthusiasm. They also afford an excellent basis of comparison of the values of properties in the inner sections—a comparison that cannot fail to increase the confidence of investors in inside property and result in an enhancement of values.

It is understood that the prices received exceeded by a considerable amount those expected by the vendors. Towards this the gentleman selected as auctioneer undoubtedly contributed in good part by the confidence he inspired and the unquestioned satisfaction he gave the audience from day to day. It would be a graceful and popular act for the railway company to recognise his exceptional service by a presentation such as that suggested at the close of Saturday's sale.

IN TABLOID DOSES

The progress and the safety of the city is being delayed for lack of electric power. New machinery for the electric light plant has been ordered, but no transformers, and further delays will take place after January when the machinery is hoped to be installed. The Council should consider at once the advisability of purchasing transformers and arranging to instal a day load for power users at the earliest date.

The McNamara Bros. have "told the truth to save their lives" according to their attorneys. It is surprising how punishment quickens the conscience of the coward. A few months ago they didn't care a rap either for truth or for other men's lives.

WHAT FREDDIE WELSH EATS.

Freddie Welsh, the English lightweight, has issued the following signed statement to a Los Angeles paper:

"I would like my friends to know the authentic facts regarding my much discussed diet while training for my fights.

"Before I commenced my boxing career I experimented with different diets and foods with a view of finding a diet that would produce the very best results in endurance, speed and stamina. After a couple of years of research and experimenting upon myself while I was a boy I finally came to the conclusion that I produced much more strength, speed, endurance and stamina while training on a non-meat diet. It was because I convinced myself of the greater practical results of a vegetable diet that I abstained from meat when I entered the boxing profession.

"The first two years in the game was an uphill fight for recognition as a first-class boxer, and as I did not make as much money then as I have been fortunate enough to make of recent years, I was obliged to remain in one locality, boxing as often as I could for the small purses offered. Sometimes I would be compelled to box several times each week to pay my room rent and buy myself the modest vegetarian meals which I was able to get at a nearby vegetarian restaurant. For two years, while I lived in this modest way, I was a strict vegetarian and I have never felt better in my life.

"Later I was compelled to travel around the world, living at hotels, cafes, on board ocean liners and on dining cars, which I soon found meant that I was forced to eat anything that I could get. It is a difficult thing to secure a suitable vegetarian diet at the ordinary hotel or cafe. I have never claimed that I was a strict vegetarian. Others have done that for me. But I have always contended that I have trained always on a strictly non-meat diet, which is the truth.

"I am sorry that the circumstances and the environment in which I am compelled to live as a boxing man makes it impossible for me to live as strictly free from unclean and malnutritious food as I would like. In winding up this statement I would like it known that I believe better results can be secured physically and mentally from two meals a day throroughly Fletcherized, with meat entirely eliminated.

"Yours for a non-meat diet,
"FRED WELSH."

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

THAT EVENING GOWN

Vivid Colors and Elaborate Designs Fashionable This Winter.

This season gowns for evening wear are more striking than those of last winter, being more distinctive. The one-sided effect is more marked, the waist and skirt of one side being made of lace of net and the other side of satin, velvet or of the new brocades in shades that blend with the net or lace.

Vivid colors are still fashionable, and some wonderful shades of rose pink, empire green, royal purple and blue in satins, nets and soft taffetas make most stunning gowns when trimmed with the rich embroideries that are made expressly for the colors and fabrics in use this season.

There are few absolutely simple evening gowns. Almost all are made wtih draperies or have double skirts, while heavy embroidered or jeweled tunics are smarter than ever. They are so fashioned that the double skirt effect is well defined and th tunic in many of the French gowns is draped or caught at the side with jeweled ornaments.

Straight lines are still in vogue and the slender lines just as obligatory as in the past few years.

WEAR DINGLE DANGLES

That Is If You Want to Be in the Height of Fashion.

Long dingle dangle earrings, huge hoop earrings, with no pendant, others with a dainty center piece, or round knobs on the ear lobes—every kind of an earring is fashionable. But be you young or old, rich or poor, beautiful or plain, if you are feminine your pink pearly ear must be decorated with some sort of an ornament.

This does not mean that a large amount of money must be spent. Far from it. It is just the other way. Diamonds, opals, pearls, sapphires and emeralds are worn in the ears if you are able to afford these precious gems, still the semi-precious stones are correct. There are also charming long danglers contrived of gold, silver and jet.

Some of the most effctive earrings that the fashionable jewelers expose to fascinate feminine eyes are long enough to touch the shoulders. Others are enormous jeweled hoops, while some take the form of birds, flowers and just decorate the lobe of the ear with a simple stone.

The earrings of today are made with a little clamp. This fastens onto the lobe and the bit of jewelry is perfectly secure.

A MEDAL WANTED.

Editor Daily News.

Dear Sir: In 1908 the Minister of Education told the chairman of the Chilliwack School Board that the Governor General's bronze medals were given "whre there was the most or the greatest competition at the high school entrance examination."

Last July Prince Rupert passed enght pupils at this examination and its best scholar got 685 marks, yet it got no medal. Ladysmith passed seven pupils and its best pupil got only 631 marks, yet it got a medal. Cumberland passed only six pupils and its best scholar got only 672 marks, but it also got a medal.

This proves that Prince Rupert had a better claim to a bronze medal than eithr of those places.

The publication of these facts may help Mr. Manson, M. P. P., to get a medal for Prince Rupert's best scholar. Yours truly,

J. N. MUIR.

FIRST: "CATCH YOUR PRINTER"

DIRECTIONS FOR COOKING A HARE:
FIRST:—"CATCH YOUR HARE"

To produce good printing you must "first catch your good printer. . . You can't get good printing from a poor printer, even if he work with never so good an equipment. If he lacks the "knack," the trained taste, the single-minded fondness for his work which real printers have, he will do poor printing for you. If he has all of these, and in addition to them adequate modern equipment, your printing will have distinction, salesmanship, the lure of type-beauty.

As this office produces good printing you may infer the presence of a good printer—who is "catchable."

FREE TRIP ROUND THE WORLD

We have just arranged with one of our clients to place forty-two lots on the market under exceptional advantages to the purchasers. The lots are some of the best in Sections 7 and 8. The prices are as low as any on the market, and the terms so easy—monthly—that anyone can buy. Along with this exceptional offer, each lot admits the purchaser to a drawing for a FREE TRIP ROUND THE WORLD. If you hold the lucky ticket the trip is yours; or you can surrender it for a cash consideration. The chances are good—one in forty-two. Come in and investigate.

Do these names mean anything to you? Do you understand their towering significence in the field of literature and art? Have youver in alll your life seen so many names of such eminence grouped together as contributors to one magazine? Such a group would make it a publication beyond price, and that is exactly what we are calling your attention to thathis moment. A magazine whose staff of contributors for 1912 contains all these names. The product of either of the above writers is easily worth the subscription price of $1.50.

Cosmopolitan has endeavored in the past to give its leaders four-fold in return for the subscription price. This policy has increased its circulation until it has outstripped every other American magazine, making it necessary to publish 800,000 copies of the Christmas number. It is our earnest desire to extend immediately the circulation past the million mark, with this end in view we will, until December 16th, accept subscriptions to Canada at the rate of $1.50.
