AROUND TOWN

by MARGARET GREEN

Sorry to hear that Harold Lock of Fraser Park Stationery in Abbotsford has suffered a heart attack and is in hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery.

The "Barkerville Stage" was in town on Tuesday morning, so I am told. Not the one we would expect. This one was in the guise of a Volkswagen!

Caught in the act early one morning last week were two well-known teachers of Aldergrove. They were having a whale of a time with a ball.

Mrs. Fred Dreger went to the post office late Thursday evening and on the way home her attention was distracted for a moment and she slammed into the pole outside Mrs. Soderbom's. Her nose was pretty sore for a while!

Some animals, particularly sheep, are very stubborn about adopting the young of another of their kind. Mrs. Milaster of Glen Valley had this trouble when she tried to transfer the piglets of a dead mother to another sow. She solved the problem by sprinkling piglets and adopted mother with Johnson's Baby powder.

No one has claimed the watch that Bob Quiring found outside the United Church about three weeks ago. It is a really expensive model.

Little Kelly Steele whose mother, Joy, works in the Super-Valu, was taken to the Langley Hospital on Sunday evening, suffering from a severe attack of bronchial asthma. She was put into an oxygen tent immediately.

I hear that a large aircraft sales agency is moving into Abbotsford Airport shortly.

We went into town to hear Marian Anderson at the Queen Elizabeth Theatre on Saturday evening and when we came out it was so beautifully clear, my son said he was going to take us for a drive before going home. He took us up Grouse Mountain to the chair lift and we saw the city of Vancouver laid out before us in an incredibly beautiful panorama of lights, with the B.C. Electric building appearing like a beautiful big white flower bud rising from the centre. If you have never been up there I assure you it is worth the trip, and something you will long remember.

There has been such a spate of fires this week that one dreads the sound of the siren even at lunch time.

Heart Attack Follows Car Accident

Mr. and Mrs. K. McCormick who live on the Trans Canada Highway at Pine Grove were involved in a car accident last Thursday evening, near Langley. They were returning home after visiting Mrs. McCormick's mother who is in hospital at White Rock.

Mrs. McCormick suffered a broken nose in two places and other facial lacerations caused from her broken glasses. After treatment at Langley Hospital she returned home the same evening. Later, when reaction set in, Mr. McCormick suffered a heart attack and was rushed to M.S.A. Hospital where he remained for several days.

County Line Man Severely Burned

An elderly bachelor, John Lee, who lives on Howell Road at County Line, started a grass fire with kerosene on Saturday afternoon. In the strong wind the fire got away on him and in attempting to control it his pants and shoes were burnt off and he suffered severe and extensive burns to the lower part of his body. He was rushed to the Langley Hospital and immediately sent on to the Royal Columbia Hospital in New Westminster, where he is in critical condition.

The fire was eventually extinguished but not before it had gone through the fence into the Aiken property and caused concern for a short time to the owner.

Rock and Gem Club Hold Successful Show

The Fraser Valley Rock and Gem Club met in the Vasa Hall on Friday evening. President Carl Voigt chaired the meeting. 27 members and 2 guests were present.

The Rock and Lapidary Show sponsored by this club in Langley City was very successful and plans are for others to be arranged. One in Aldergrove was suggested.

Door prizes were drawn for and lucky winners were Messrs. Smallman, Carter, Olson, Thompson and K. Major.

Mr. Carter showed his films from the National Film Board.

Mrs. Eric Young and Mrs. Grace Voigt were in charge of refreshments.

Heavy Damage To Williams' Machine Shop In Sunday Fire

Aldergrove's oldest business and one of the oldest in the Fraser Valley was temporarily suspended through fire on Sunday morning, shortly before 11 a.m.

Les Williams, owner of the machine shop, started a fire in the office heater, then went a couple of doors away to speak to Fire Chief Fred Dams, while his office was warming up. Fire Chief Dams operates a service station. While serving a customer with gas, Mr. Dams noticed smoke emanating from Williams Machine Shop. He immediately turned in the alarm and the Aldergrove Volunteer Fire Department was quickly on the scene.

The fire is assumed to have been caused by the overheated office stove.

Heaviest damage appeared to be the office and the stock room The fire quickly spread to the rafters and damaged the tar on the roof, but galvanized sheeting prevented a total loss of the building. Mr. Williams estiated the damage as around $5,000 dollars, the heaviest loss being in V-belts and power saw parts. The big machinery seems to have escaped damage.

The building and stock was fully insured, according to the owner.

The office was built in 1950 and all Mr Williams records were saved, although a few were slightly damaged by the water. Fortunately, cans of oil which were stored inside the office did not explode. Had such been the case, the house of Mrs. Alice Watt, right next door would have been destroyed.

According to plans the office will be rebuilt inside the main building, and as soon as the building is re-wired, repair work will be resumed.

Harry Williams, founder of the business, came to Aldergrove from England in June, 1911. He worked for a few days for Beaton's, the blacksmiths, then purchased the business and took over on July 1, 1911.

Upon the death of his father, Les continued operation of the business.

In those early days horseshoeing was the major part of the business, followed by millwork and repairs to logging and agricultural equipment. The busy Trans Canada Highway which passes the door was only a dirt road in those days. On Sunday last, spectators crowded the sidewalks and the Sunday traffic was crawling by at a snail's pace, while the fire department carried out its duties.

The firemen fought forty-five minutes to get the fire under control, and it was completely extinguished in two hours and fifteen minutes. Mr. Williams himself a volunteer fireman expressed his opinion that the fire could have been worse, had it not been for the prompt and efficient help of his fellow firemen.

The film of this contest will be shown Thursday evening at 7:30 over CBUT. The local team will have to compete against a Vancouver team in about three weeks' time.

Urgent Need For Dentists

The ratio of dentists to population in British Columbia is already as bad as predicted for 1970, according to a new study by Dr. John B. MacDonald, President-elect of the University of B.C. The report was released Wednesday.

It shows that in rural areas of the Province, there is now only one dentist to serve an average of 9,314 people. That ratio in 1955 was one dentist to 5,527.

Dr. MacDonald's report was released by Dr. W. F. Munsie, President of the College of Dental Surgeons of B.C. It was sought by the College through U.B.C. and was completed in August, before its author was named new President of the Provincial University.

Death Ruled Accidental

A young boy, Robert Chamberlin aged 14, of 19685 McInnes Road, Langley was hit by a station wagon, on Friday and was killed instantly.

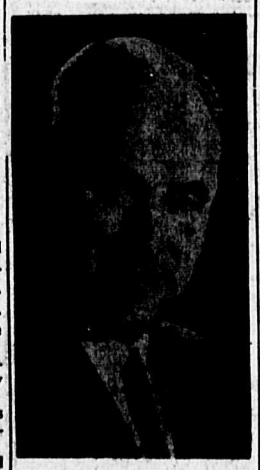
The jury was told that the boy was walking on the wrong side of the road and had almost reached home when the car struck him.

No blame was attached to the driver of the car, and the coroner's jury has recommended that traffic safety should be impressed upon student's, for their own safety.

4-H Takes Over L.A.A. School Gardens

The former school gardens competition sponsored by the Langley Agricultural Association, will be discontinued this year. The project has been taken over by the 4-H Clubs and will be run under their rules, regulations and membership. 4-H comes under the provincial department of agriculture and the new program will be under the supervision of Mr. Jim Hall, district agriculturalist at Abbotsford.

Any boys or girls between the ages of 10 and 20 wishing to join the new club may contact Mrs. Robert Armistead, 20139-80th Avenue, Langley. Phone number is Langley 1050-L2.



RE-ELECTED George O. Adams of Mission City was re-elected provincial leader of the Seventh-day Adventist Church at the 38th Biennial Session of the B.C. Conference held in Vancouver February 24 and 25. Pastor W. H. Beavon is in charge of the Aldergrove Church and local delegates to the convention were George Evans, Mrs. Ellen Haggkvist, David Schulz, Theodore Lapchevich, Peter Neudorf, Jr. and Mrs. Pearl Wettstein.

Grass Fire Endangers Country Home-Property

The Volunteer Fire Department in Aldergrove certainly does not wish to hear the sirens again for a long time! They have answered seven calls in a week, the last one on Monday. This was started when Mrs. J. M. Ashdown of 26020 Kendall Road was burning some garbage. The blaze spread to the grass, burned two outhouses and spread to adjoining properties. At one time, the fire threatened the house itself, but the fire department arrived in time to prevent any major damage being done.

The stubborn blaze passed through the back fence of the property and burned approximately 75 yards into adjoining bush before the firemen had it under control. The Volunteer firemen were out approximately three hours on this job.

Presentation To Retiring Postmaster

The Aldergrove Post Office staff called on Ex-postmaster and Mrs. McDonald one evening recently and pleasantly surprised them with a beautiful mantel clock and leather foot stool. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald were very pleased with the gifts and the good wishes which were extended to them by their guests. Refreshments were served by the girls and everyone had a very enjoyable evening.

Accident On Sunday Morning

During the confusion on the Trans-Canada Highway Sunday morning, at the same time as the fire in Williams Machine Shop, a Chrysler car driven by George H. McDonald of Aldergrove, and a Plymouth station wagon belonging to Robert A. Correale of Vernon collided at the junction of Jackman Road and the Trans-Canada. Fortunately no one was injured in the accident. Damage to the station wagon appeared to be more extensive than that suffered by the Chrysler.

Appointment For Don Anson

Don Anson, former editor of this paper, leaves on Monday to take over as editor of the "Northern Sentinel" at Kitimat, B.C.

There is much prospecting still going on in that region and Don intends to carry on with his interests along that line. An inveterate "rockhound", he will likely have many chances to find unusual specimens there. We of the "News" staff wish him luck.

Also on the staff of the same paper is Mrs. Walter (Margaret) Bailey, formerly of Aldergrove.

Optometrists Elect Dr. Cox

Dr. Brian J. A. Cox, the optometrist who is a specialist employed by the Langley School District has been elected president of the B.C. Optometric Association. Dr. Cox lives in New Westminster.

Elmer Quiring To Be Manager Of Scott Motors

The popular assistant fire chief of the Aldergrove Volunteer Fire Department will be taking a position in Aldergrove shortly.

Jack Scott, of J. E. Motors, has announced that Elmer Quiring will be taking over as manager of the firm the first of March. Jack will be taking over at the new bowling alley.

Elmer Quiring came to Aldergrove in 1950 from Williams Lake, where he had the Chrysler dealership. He was shop foreman at the former Ross Motors here in Aldergrove before going to his present position with Langley Automotive, also Chrysler dealers.

Elmer and his wife, the former Ann Klassen, were married in 1940 and have six children, four boys and two girls.

KEEP YOUR RED CROSS ON THE JOB

I SAW

Each week this paper offers a prize for the best humourous or unusual happening or incident any of our readers experience. It is called the "I Saw" contest and the winner each week receives two tickets donated by Hillcrest Drive-In Theatre and each month, for the best of the month, two Chinese dinners donated by the Aldergrove Hotel Cafe.

Two tickets to Hillcrest Drive-In Theatre go to Mrs. K. Johansen, R.R. 1, Aldergrove for the following entry:

"Some years ago my sister-in-law and I visited Vancouver for the first time. Unaccustomed as we were to large department stores, a shopping expedition was quite an event. Hastening down an aisle, one of us, who happened to be rounding a large pillar pulled up short with a startled 'Oh, excuse me!' to what appeared to be her double. A few moments later the other paused suddenly in the act of raising her foot to board the escalator—realizing that it was actually behind her. It was all done with mirrors—but don't think we have heard the last of it yet!

DONORS WANTED

Next Monday is the day for the Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic.

What happens in the local hospital with the blood collected is explained under "Hospital Notes" in this issue Please READ about it—it will explain the Red Cross slogan, "The Greatest Gift". Some donors in the Langley area have an impressive number of donations to their credit. Others would consider it a privilege to donate but for various reasons cannot. Many others would put forth many excuses including no transportation. This latter excuse won't work in Aldergrove for there are four volunteer drivers waiting with cars for those who will ring the "News" office at BA 6-5170, either afternoon or evening.

For those who have not donated before, it will only take a few minutes. Once you have been to the clinic, you will wonder why you stayed away.

Let us really put the clinic over this time.

EDUCATION WEEK

Next week is Education Week and tomorrow six young people from Aldergrove High School will start work in this office compiling next week's issue of the paper. It is part of their Education Week effort. We feel that the words of Dr. N. A. M. McKenzie, president of the University of B.C. would be well worth printing just before these young people take over.

"While Education Week calls in a special way to the work of our schools, colleges, and universities, it must not be forgotten that the training of young people is a slow, delicate, day-by-day process which extends over many years. Persons who spend their lives teaching the young must be endowed with infinite patience, for the results of their work, carried out daily in thousands of classrooms and laboratories across Canada, do not suddenly emerge. Yet in the long run it is upon the work of such men and women that our national prosperity, well-being and spiritual progress depend: Whatever we accomplish as a nation through individual or collective effort, whatever contributions we make to the whole community of men, these are directly related to the quality of educational opportunities we offer.

"I hope that Education Week will remind every citizen in the Province of the role that reading and reflection, study and contemplation should play in all our lives".

THE CITY OF LANGLEY
Proclamation

The Red Cross 1962 campaign for funds is now under way and the local membership hopes to obtain $3,800 in this area as the objective.

Over the many years of service rendered, the Red Cross has become a symbol of mercy and is not found wanting when called.

To continue its efforts as expected, and due to the fact that it has not escaped the trend of costs and services, even as you and I, the $3,800 is necessary.

City Council endorses this campaign and trusts that the campaign will meet with success.

As a footnote, it might be stressed that the amount called for is a small price in relation to a demand for help, the assessment of which, in suffering, can not be readily measured.

May we escape any misfortune, but still remember the plight of others and contribute accordingly.

J. H. CONDER,
Mayor.

MEMORIAM · FORUM · RETINEBIMUS
LEGION

By Legionaire

The decision to raise funds to sponsor a ward in the new hospital has aroused much interest. The nucleus of the fund already exists in the Legion Memorial Fund in the present hospital, which has been built up by donations from relatives and Branch funds in memory of comrades who have passed on. From now on any profit made from the Legion Bingo games will go to the Memorial Fund, and it is hoped that members, and relatives of deceased members, will bear this Fund in mind. Every dollar will help to provide a lasting memorial that will be of great service to the community.

LIFE INSURANCE PLAN

Once more we ask all members to think over this plan, and ask themselves whether they can afford NOT to join it. It gives very much better cover than can be obtained normally, and is particularly attractive to members in the last war age groups who have families to think about. The enrolment list closes on 30 April next. Application forms and any information required can be obtained at the Legion Office.

NEW MEMBERS

Comrades H. R. Sales and H. C. Suttle were initiated by the President at the last general meeting. Since then, J. J. LeCorre, S. G. Groves and A. H. Laird have joined the Branch.

IN HOSPITAL

J. Sogge T. Brady, G. V. Hay and A. R. Young are in Shaughnessy, S. Purves is in Langley Hospital.

BLOOD CLINIC

We are as usual supplying transport for blood donors next Monday, 5th March. If you can stand by with your car either in the afternooon, 1:30 to 4:30 p.m., or in the evening 6:30 to 9:30 p.m., please ring the Office (Langley 310) preferably in the morning.

We have some copies of "Memoirs of an Old Sweat" by Doug Smith at the reduced price of $1.50 for anyone who would like one. If you liked his yarns in the Legionary you should get this book, especially if you are a second war vet.

At the next general meeting on Tuesday 13 March, Pete Swennson is coming along to show his colour slides of his visit to Russia, and also some of Sweden. Pete is internationally known as a photographer and these pictures are well worth seeing. So come along.

We extend our sincere sympathy to L/S. Green in his bereavement.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir,

Thanks in great part to the coverage you have given us in your columns, The Muscular Dystrophy Association of Canada has raised more this year for medical research than ever before.

The educational value alone of the stories you have run is itself a great stimulus to the progress of public health in Canada.

We are deeply grateful for your help.

Yours truly,
Gus Ryder
Honorary Campaign Chairman
The Muscular Dystrophy Association of Canada.

TO THE EDITOR

The following is a letter which was sent to the Reeve and Councillors, Langley Municipal Hall, Murrayville, B.C.

Dear Sirs:

I have received much criticism of late for my strong views and opposition to the municipality continuing the operation of the Langley Municipal Airport.

How, I would like to ask, could any one individual make the progress I apparently have in accomplishing this, according to my critics, if there were not many bad flaws in the statement of my opponents, that our airport is an asset?

The fundamental issue is one of dollars and cents. Dollars and cents to our municipality and not to Skyway Air Services or Langley City or to any other one or place.

I recently had a conversation with the President of one of the largest developing companies in Canada. He was very interested in hearing that the airport land would very likely be available in the next few years. He remarked that it was a "nice piece of property" and made an appointment to investigate the potential of the airport land, the surrounding area of Langley and adjacent municipalities, with the building of a shopping centre in mind.

A point brought up in the conversation was of considerable interest. It was the possibility of maintaining part of the present airport for the exclusive use of private planes, with Custom Office service. He cited one American city where this had been tried and proved to be a financial success, when combined with a well developed shopping centre.

Now, with the near completion of the new Trans Canada Highway, and an influx of new residents in this and adjacent municipalities, a shopping centre is going to be built somewhere in this area and nothing is going to stop it. We now have an opportunity to have it in our own municipality instead of in Langley City or in some other location.

For years, I advocated going along with Surrey to try and obtain a potential major airport site in the Brookswood area. This site had been surveyed and recommended for such a use by the Dept. of Transport. It had a good chance for success but it was never allowed to get off the ground. Do not allow the same individual or group to torpedo this opportunity.

Instead of a profit of $105.88 to the municipality for operation of the airport for 1961, we could expect an amount somewhere between $23,000 (the Dell shopping centre in Whalley) and $200,000 (the Brentwood in Burnaby)—plus steady employment of a large number of local residents.

Yours very truly,
Wm. L. C. Middleton

Councillors Reversed

The ruling of a B.C. Appeal Court made a switch in councillors for Langley Municipality last week. It upheld John Wellman's appeal and he took his seat on Monday. Councillor Jensen,, who has been acting since the recount, will be out of office.

Mr. Jensen has started libel suits against the Vancouver Province and Pacific Press because of an article published by them just before the election. The article indicated Mr. Jensen was supported by the Communist party.

LANGLEY HOSPITAL NEWS

Since Langley Memorial Hospital opened for patients September 1st, 1948, it has been served by the Canadian Red Cross Blood Bank under contract. The Red Cross collects the blood, processes it and delivers it free to the hospital. In it's turn the hospital provides the necessary temperature controlled blood bank refrigerator where rigid controls are in force and permanent record is kept of each minutes temperature for the 24 hours period. Fine equipment and skilled help see that the blood is properly administered to the patient. This service is also free to the recipient.

This singular and remarkable service is, as you see. a matter of team work. How many of the residents of Langley City and Municipality share in this team work? Are you a blood donor?

Many friends and relatives of a patient receiving blood transfusions are anxious to assist in this great work—many have offered to donate blood to the hospital. However, there is only one way to donate and that is through the Blood Donor Clinics held by the Canadian Red Cross at certain times during the year. The Red Cross has the only laboratory equipment and proper service with which to properly care for this precious life giving fluid.

When you think of the vastness of this Province and realize that each hospital within it's boundaries can absolutely rely on the Red Cross to provide the necessary blood of the proper grouping to care for it's patient you begin to see the magnitude of this work. With this huge undertaking, the direction and supply of blood is a terrific job. It is done so well and so quickly by the Red Cross, that demands for a particular type are immediately met.

Knowing all the foregoing, it certainly constrains one to make every effort to be present at the Blood Donors Clinic to be held in the Anglican Church Hall, Langley in Monday March 5th, 1962 at the following hours:- 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. and 6:30 to 9 p.m.

The average needed in Langley up to the beginning of 1961 was 325 donors and the target for 1962 should be for 425 donors.

HOW TO BOWL FIVEPINS

COMMON FAULTS OF ADVANCED BOWLERS

No matter how long you have been bowling, you'll find that you are still making mistakes.

But, the mistakes an experienced bowler makes, of course, aren't the same kind of mistakes a novice makes. If you have been bowling for some time, then find your game beginning to fall off here is a check-list of 10 bad habits that senior bowlers often develop.

Perhaps the most common fault an advanced bowler can have is that of stubbornly refusing to experiment. When you are having a bad game, don't just keep rolling the same bad balls over and over. Make at least some minor change, like shifting your starting point on the approach slightly. This is especially useful when you find yourself "picking" headpins too frequently. Instead of doing this, most bowlers will start "forcing" the ball, thus losing control.

There are other faults experienced bowlers should watch out for:

1. Turning at the end of the slide. Many bowlers unconsciouslyswivel their left foot or their shoulders as they reach the foul line, and finish their slide facing sideways. This is often due to using too fast an approach, then turning the foot to avoid the foul line.
2. Playing spares from an improper angle. You should always bowl across the lane from the opposite corner, to hit corner pins.
3. Not making a straight-line approach. It is surprising how often bowlers don't walk in a straight line when delivering the ball. This is a fault you can very rarely notice in yourself. Get a friend to check the line you are travelling during delivery.
4. A crooked follow-through. You should follow-through with your hand pointing straight ahead,, so that you can look down across your hand and see the pins, as if in a gun sight.
5. Lack of concentration. You've got to know ahead of time what you intend doing with the ball before you can hope to do it properly. Many bowlers are well into their approach before they have decided exactly how they are going to deliver the ball. Take a moment to plan ahead.
6. Whipping your arm. This result of forcing the ball at the release point, with no follow-through, trying for extra speed. Like "chopping" in golf, it usually results in a "dead" ball", with no spin on it to mix the pins.
7. Improper grip. Your thumb should be as high up on the ball as possible, without being uncomfortable.
8. Not bending properly at the foul line. When you complete your slide at the foul line, your front knee should be bent, and your back leg should be out straight behind you.
9. Poor balance. Before starting your approach, you should be standing with your feet a couple of inches apart.
10. Speeding up when trying for a spare. Don't do it. Keep rolling your same ball just as if shooting for a headpin; just switch your point of aim.

Softball To Be Organized

Plans are being made to form a Softball League in this part of the Lower Fraser Valley and a meeting to organize it is being called this Friday evening, March 2nd, in the Aldergrove Fire Hall. The intention to organize all leagues on a local level this year and they will not be aff iliated with the B.C. Softball Association.

All divisions from Bantams to Seniors, for both boys and girls, are planned and it is hoped the support will be forthcoming.

Anyone interested in helping to promote softball in the area is asked to turn out for the meeting. As many coaches and managers as possible are needed to make a successful year of softball for all.

The meeting is called for 8 p.m. sharp.

Some say the key to success fits any schoolhouse door.

is the

You don't buy gasoline off the shelves in your supermarket, but if you did you'd find Esso one of the cheapest items.

Motorists throughout B.C. buy Esso gasoline for an average price of only 6 1/16 cents a pound. Compared with other commodities in everyday use that's a real bargain.* Of the 6 1/16 cents paid per pound for Esso gasoline, two cents is for federal and provincial taxes that provide such things as social services and new highways. To help bring you this bargain, Imperial Oil is searching for oil in northern B.C. ...drilling wells which will bring B.C. oil to B.C. customers ...has built a modern refinery near Vancouver, new pipe lines, modern marketing facilities. To do these things Imperial has invested more than $80,000,000 in B.C. since 1951 alone.

And yet Imperial receives less on the average for the Esso gasoline it sells today than it did ten years ago . . . and Esso gasoline today is much more powerful than ten years ago.

*Here's how the price of Esso gasoline compares with the average market price of some other commodities in B.C.

Table salt	9 cents per pound
Flour	12 cents per pound
Apples	12 cents per pound

Report from Parliament Hill

By W. A. McLennan, M. P.

It would seem to be quite clear that the huge list of old age pensioners, now numbering over a million, are coming close to the end of the system, where all of the funds will come from taxation.

None would say that the present system of providing funds for old age security pensions out of general taxation is doomed in favour of a contributory system made by employees and employers. The present system is paid out of the 3-3-3 formula, i.e. 3% of income taxes 3 per cent of sales taxes and 3% of corporation taxes. The fund has been breaking a little better than even on the cost of the $55.00 per month but the boost to $65 per month may again throw the fund out of balance, or in other words into the red.

The system of paying for the pensions, by requiring payments over the years by workers and employers presents a great many complications. It seems there is a strong feeling now that those on daily or weekly pay or salaries should contribute a portion of their own future pension after they are past the working age. It is felt that some additional contributory system of savings from salaries and wages should be set up to add to the present pension. Just how this is to be done remains to be seen The implication is that the present old age security pensioners, 70 years and over would get their $65.00 per month but others under that age, would have to enter the contributory plan in so far as the additional $10.00 or more is concerned. It is something the statisticians will have to work out.

A good deal of criticism is being levelled at the Government on account of it's deficit financial policy It would be a comparatively easy task to balance the budget but this would mean a denial of the responsibility of Government to provide stimulus to the economy and the proper climate for business enterprises. It would mean lower payments to the Provinces for hospitals and education.

Unfortunately some Provinces have not passed these extra grants on to the Municipalities, consequently there are higher municipal taxes.

The flag issue has now become an annual event in the House of Commons and not only one, but three or four bills are introduced at each session. There is no doubt that there are more and more people who want a distinctive Canadian Flag and where the controversy arises is in the interpretation of the word 'distinctive'. To all patriotic Canadians a flag is something that affects the emotions and it would be a great pity if party politics were allowed to enter into the matter. We have the small national group who would accept anything for a flag, as long as the Union Jack was not part of it. I have never forgotten the speech made by Mr. Mandziuk, M.P. on the subject a year or so ago. He said people were wrong to think that our different ethnic groups were against the inclusion of the Union Jack in our national flag. The Union Jack itself as a flag has become the symbol of freedom and human dignity to people all over the world.

With the Social Security Legislation to increase the Winter Works Program and some Veterans' Legislation passed, the House of Commons is back on the Throne Speech debate. The emphasis on all sides, is much stronger on party politics than usual, which I suppose is natural with the expectation of a National Election coming up.

Canada ended 1961 with business on the upsurge and with a buoyant forecast for 1962. This year's gross national product should rise by at least 5 per cent, to top the 39 billion dollar mark for the first time in our history. The upswing in industrial production, coupled with the current scaling down of unemployment make it clear that the Canadian economy is well into it's fifth expansion era of the postwar period.

Legislative Report

In my budget speech February 15th, I raised several major issues affecting this riding and asked the Legislature to give careful consideration to them.

The first of these was the desperate situation in which homeowners and farmers find themselves this year because of the revision of assessments. I pointed out that land by itself requires neither schools nor hospitals, and as such, should not be burdened by an outdated and outlived tax plan. School taxes should therefore be removed from land and levied on the ability of the individual to pay.

Using the "Public Accounts", years 1960 and 1961, I showed that the revenue from tolls was actually declining. In the case of the Fraser-Delta system (Oak St. and Deas Island tolls), the monthly revenue from tolls declined from $182,000.00 two years ago, to $160,000.00 last year. The combined revenue from the tunnel and bridge two years ago was $5,508.00 short of even paying the interest on the principal. Last year it was $349,210.00 short.

In view of the government's own figures, I called for the removal of all tolls in British Columbia, showing that it would cost only four million dollars yearly to do so. Four million dollars is one seventh the amount of profit the government made last year from the sale of liquor. It is four times the profit the government made last year from the tax on horse racing, or approximately ¼ the revenue expected by the increase in the gasoline tax.

Using the Department of Highway's Annual Report as reference, I called for a compulsory Government Automobile Insurance plan. It cost the government only $16,487.00 in claims last year for its 4,159 motor vehicles. This is a cost of only $4.27 per vehicle. By carrying its own insurance on public vehicles, the government effected a minimum saving of $20.73 per unit for a total of $86,513.00. If the same type of coverage were extended to the 572,000 vehicles throughout the province, it would save car owners a minimum of eleven million dollars yearly.

The export of wheat and wheat flour last year reached the record total of 354 million bushels. The strengthening of Canada's position as the largest seller of wheat in the markets of the world has come about as a consequence of tremendous sales efforts made by various Departments of Government, in particular the Departments of Agriculture and Trade and Commerce.

The Government's attitude to the Commonwealth is that this body represents the greatest instrument for peace anywhere in the world. It covers all the continents and brings together men and women of all races and it does so effectively.

The resignation of Hazen Argue, M.P. from the House Leadership of the N.D.P. and from the Party was a surprise, but not at all unexpected. It will not be any great piece of news to hear of one other N.D.P. member following him. We do not know what is going on, but some of their members make no bones about the fact that they are very disturbed over the control that some labour union officials seem to have over the affairs of the new party, especially the big steelworkers international union. In a ten day trip across the Prairies Mr. Argue apparently found the farmers were very happy with the present Government agricultural program and would not support him and the policies he was advocating on behalf of his party.

United Churches Re-Grouped

United churches in northwest Langley will be re-grouped at the first of July. This plan was adopted by the United Church Presbytery at a gathering in Abbotsford last week.

Fort Langley, West Langley and Sperling will have a resident minister in Fort Langley. Formerly, Sperling was in the Milner charge and West Langley was associated with Tynehead.

A student minister will serve Milner and Willoughby. Formerly, the minister at Milner had to serve four churches. Because of the new highway opening in the near future the group of three churches, centred in Fort Langley, means that they are all north of the freeway.

Present resident minister, Rev. T. E. C. Roberts will be leaving the charge at the first of July, although he has not yet accepted another call. The new minister for Fort Langley had not yet been appointed.

PINEGROVE

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lesyk that their daughter Mrs. Diane Atkins, of Portage La Prairie, gave birth to her second son, William Geoffrey, born Feb. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Evans spent last weekend at Boston Bar as guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Trevor Evans.

Mrs. A. V. Newell is a patient in the M.S.A. hospital.

Mrs. Price attended the funeral in Victoria last Thursday of the late Hulton Harrop, formerly of Abbotsford.

Last Thursday evening Pine Grove Women's Institute catered for the Mt. Lehman Credit Union banquet held in Pine Grove Community Hall. Approximately 150 persons attended.

The regular meeting of the Pine Grove Garden Club was held on Feb. 20th with 15 members in attendance. Arrangements of primulas, snowdrops, Chinodoxa, heather, daphne, rhododendron, pink and blue violets, and jasmine were brought to the hall.

Members gave short talks on some phases of gardening. One member reported on how peanuts grow in loamy sandy soil cultivated the same as for potatoes. The blossoms are somewhat like sweet peas and golden in color.After pollenization, the blossoms turn down to earth and dirt is raked over them. When the peanuts have formed and matured, the dirt is raked off and the nuts are staked up, and tied to dry.

Another member showed a date that she had grown from seed, while another member is trying to grow a coconut sent from the Marshall Islands. Grape culture, the virtues of the cylindrical beet, Fiesta onion, and Fire ball tomato were made known.

MT. LEHMAN

Mrs J McKay, of Ross Road, was hostess for the Presbyterian Women's Group last Wednesday. Mrs. P. Edge took the devotional. The women were given their parts for the Women's World Day of Prayer service, to be held March 9th. Mrs. J. C. Cherry will have the March meeting at her home.

Mrs. Doris Harvey of Mt. Lehman and Mr. Donald Rolls of Abbotsford were united in marriage at a quiet ceremony in Abbotsford on Friday Feb. 23 at 4:30 p.m. Attending them were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clarke of Mt. Lehman. Following the ceremony the bridal party went to the Clarke home for supper. On Saturday a reception was held for 42 relatives on both sides of the family, and on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Rolls held "open house" for friends and neighbours. For the present they will reside at the Harvey home on Satchell Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Stevenson of Lillooet were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Mc Neil.

Last Tuesday evening, the 4th round in the Whist tournament took place in the Veteran's Hall. Winners of first prize were Mrs. Cliff Israel and Fred McElroy. Consolations went to Mrs. A. Israel and Tom Scott. Refreshments were served.

On Thursday evening the Mt. Lehman Credit Union held a very successful banquet and annual business meeting in the Pine Grove Hall. The Pine Grove Women's Institute catered to 150 persons, with Rev. N. Calland asking the blessing.

Mr. Frank Stadnyk, President, was in the chair, and Mr. J. Scofield, Secretary - treasurer gave the financial report. Mrs. C. McNeil, assistant secretary, read the minutes of the last annual meeting. It was with regret that the resignation of Mr. Scofield on account of ill health was accepted.

Assets for 1961 were $213,839.79 and liabilities. $207,803.44. Surplus $6,036.35. It was agreed to pay a dividend of 3½% on shares and a 2% Patronage Refund.

There are 523 active members. Elected to the Board of Directors were Terry Lang-Hodge, Rodney Forsythe, William Lesyk, and Alex Fleet.

To the Credit Committee—George White and Wm. Shandley. Supervisory Committee—Karl Hougen was re-elected.

Wayne Watson has returned from Prince Rupert.

COUNTY LINE

A few ambitious members of the Beaver Women's Institute worked hard last Tuesday at the County Line Hall, cleaning and doing some repairs in preparation for the forthcoming St. Patrick's dance on March 10.

On Sunday the John Riise home was the scene of the baptism of several grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gutzke of Lumby, formerly of County Line. Those baptized were Timmy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Paquette of Lumby; Donna and Wendy, daughters of Mr and Mrs. Del Palmer, Fort Langley; Pat and Naomi, children of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Yeo; Cindy and Laura, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Riise. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kroll and children of Fleetwood were also present. The ceremony was conducted by Pastor J. Haave of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, Annieville. Pastor Haave was a friend of Mr. Riise's in Saskatchewan.

Marvin Gjertsen, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gjertsen, Angling Road, graduated from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police academy at Regina Sask., on February 13. Two of his sisters, Mrs. Ben Robertson of Cloverdale and Miss Astrid Gjertsen, a stewardess of the Trans Canada Airlines, attended the ceremony. Marvin is being stationed at Prince Albert, Sask.

Mr. Farmer!

IT'S SILO TIME . . . 1962

For centuries man has used a method of preserving feed which has proved most effective and economical. Feed that would otherwise become inedible if dry or damaged by rain is made palatable when cut up for silage.

Silage facilitates early clearing of ground to permit another crop, and ends the hazard of fire from spontaneous ignition of inadequately cured hay. In general, the chemical composition and nutritive value of silage are similar to that of the green crop from which it is made.

You too, may benefit from this method of feed preservation when you invest in a Silo.

Aldergrove High School News

By Janina Olejnik

The Junior Public Speaking Contest was held Monday afternoon. Judges were Mr. C. Stewart, Mr. Reid and Mr. Goostrey. Winner was Lorraine Borsato with her speech on Babe Zacharias. She received the trophy and, as did the other contestants, a book of their choice.

Judges of the Senior Public Speaking Contest on Tuesday chose Dennis Schmahl as winner for his speech on "Freedom to Choose Your Own Name". The speeches this year were very good, judges Mr. J. Breier, Dr. S. P. Findlay and Mr. A. B. Rose reportedly had a hard decision to make. Half time entertainment for the Senior contest was provided by Elsie Hildebrandt, Lyle Cazes and Peter Gubbe.

My thanks to Pam Ross, she is obviously the only person in the school who has enough gumption to contribute a name for this column. The rest of you have one week—until the Education Week issue to send in a name. So, use your imagination.

Reports for the different conferences will be in the Education Week issue, which will be put out by the students from this school Pam Ross, Earl Hockins, Grace Crosby, Kathie Arkinstall, Dennis Schmahl and myself plus other energetic people who work at the school.

Alderama—1962 is well under way. Scenes from South Pacific, under the competent direction of Mr. Bunt, and Mr. Goostrey, and a play, "Still Stands This House" under the direction of Mr. Sulsbury.

School crests, year numbers and names for sweaters are to be sold by the Girls' Y-Teens, as the Students' Council feels they already have enough to do. Speaking of the Council, I'm going to start including a short report on their business, as judging by the general results at school, the class reps do an excellent job of suppressing all news which might otherwise leak out.Another thing about class reps—where are you at Council meetings? You'd almost think you were a vanishing breed of animal judging by the number that turn up at Monday noon. If you've died or broken a leg it's only polite to send your secretary-treasurer instead unless he, too, has done the same thing.

The program was taken by E. Jeffrey, Mrs. Suddaby and Mrs. W. Davies. Group discussion followed and reports were given back to the meeting by Mrs. A. Schroeder, Mrs. W. Snowdon and Mrs. G. Corraini. Mrs. R. Beggs, Mrs. Kristoff and Mrs. A. Jeffrey were in charge of the social hour.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Do come and bring a friend who has not donated blood before. The more the better, for some years the total did not match the needs. We then had to draw on the supply from other areas. Let's all put our shoulders to the wheel and push this Clinic well over the top.

OBITUARIES

GRACE ASKEW

Mrs. Grace Askew, late of 2988 Howes Road, Aldergrove, and widow of the late P. A. Askew passed away peacefully on Feb. 25th in Simpson Private Hospital, Fort Langley. She was born in Leamington, Ontario 86 years ago. The Askews moved to Aldergrove in 1928.

The death of Mrs. Askew leaves with her friends a vacancy that can only be filled with pleasant memories. Mourning her passing is her sister, Mrs. Madeline Harris, at home.

Funeral service was held in the chapel of Langley Funeral Home with Rev. J. D. Faris officiating. Burial was in Murrayville Cemetery. Pallbearers were her neighbours and friends and included P. Voigt, B. Sollied, E. W. Spearing, H. E. Dams, C. A. McDowell and J. H. Brown.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the Aldergrove Volunteer Fire Department, our neighbors, relatives and friends who helped us after our home was destroyed by fire last Monday morning. Thanks especially to Mr. and Mrs. J. Kiss for calling the fire department, and in helping our children in our absence. Also to the Langley branch of the Red Cross and Aldergrove Elks Club for immediate help in supplying clothing, shoes and bedding and to the numerous people unknown to us who offered help in getting us re-established again. Thanks also to Grosvenor-Laing Estates for supplying us with a house.

Sincerely yours,
Mr. and Mrs. Glen Sutton
