Fraser River Dredging Awarded to B.C. Firm

A $354,500 contract has been awarded by the Department of Public Works to the British Columbia Bridge and Dredging Co. Ltd. of Vancouver, B.C., for dredging the Fraser River in B.C. This was announced today by the Dept. of Public Works.

New By-Law to Govern Water Tank Conveyances

The Municipal Council was presented with and passed a by-law covering water tank conveyances. The serious threat of the public being exposed to impure water for domestic use could prove a health hazard. In view of the danger the council enacted the by-law as follows—

LANGLEY WATER TANK TRUCK REGULATION BY-LAW

1 No person shall convey water in a vehicle water tank or tank truck for delivery to any premises within the Municipality of Langley, for domestic use unless:

A—The water for such delivery is obtained from a well or other source which has been approved by the Medical Health Officer.

B—The water is conveyed in a tank which has been inspected and passed as approved by the Medical Officer.

C—The hose and nozzle used for the intake or discharge of water from such tank.

D—The tank is clearly marked "WATER"

E—A dosage of chlorine either in powder or solution is added to the water in the tank at the time of loading to give a dosage of one part per million (quantity to be determined on the basis available chlorine in the compound added and on the volume of water to be treated).

F—The water drawn for use from the tank shall have a residue of 0.2 parts per million of chlorine as determined by a residue comparator or other approved method of test.

2 Every person who violates any of the provisions of this By-Law or who suffers or permits any act or thing to be done in contravention of this By-Law or who neglects to do or refrains from doing any act or thing required by this By-Law shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) together with the costs of conviction.

Jackman Road to Close July 3 For New Highway Paving

The Municipal Council as informed by the Regional Engineer of the Dept. of Highways that the Dept. is preparing a series of sketches of cloverleafs on the Trans Canada Hwy. They will indicate the portion which is to be maintained by the Dept.

An oil company applied for access on County Line Road north of Eyles Rd. The Dept. intends to classify this portion of County Line Rd. 264th St. between Roberts Rd. and Eyles Rd. as a controllable access Highway and no entrances will be permitted to this portion of the road.

They will give further information as plans are drawn up and the co-operation in restricting accesses to this portion of the road would be appreciated.

In addition to this the Dept. of Highway Progress report was made to the council.

Base-mix paving commenced June 18th and is proceeding eastwardly from Springbrook. Otter Road will be paved June 27th or 28th.

As there is considerable excavating on Jackman Road and two 24" culverts to install before paving, the Dept. will close off Jackman Road at 8 a.m. Tuesday July 3rd. The closure has been put off in consideration of the residents and the school bus situation. However with continued delay there would only be added expense to the cost of the project.

HELP YOUR COMMUNITY BY HELPING YOURSELF

No doubt the community ad appearing in this issue is cause for some wonderment. Please note the complete void of colour and lack of eye-catching appeal. This was done after observing how within our community, there is lack of support for local enterprises.

Cause for concern should be shared by each and every resident. Should Aldergrove businesses fail, the people within it do likewise. Each business that closes its doors or each professional man who looks to greener pastures, is due to the disregard of the people within our community to support their own. The prospect of turning Aldergrove into a place as blank as the ad rests entirely in the hands of the residents.

Every reader should look at the ad, now, and give serious thought to the possible means of rectifying this situation. How many people within the community make the trek to other places in order to purchase goods which are obtainable at home? Should this continue, it is a foregone certainty the businesses and professional men can no longer operate. Without them we have an empty community, no longer attractive to prospective residents, hence comes the day when the community slips into non-existance.

This is the reason for the ad. Each and every person is advised to contemplate the future. The destiny of Aldergrove rests entirely in your hands. Without your continued and added support the blankness of the ad will become a reality in respect to Aldergrove.

IT'S THE LAW

No person under the age of twenty-one years may drive a motor-vehicle unless the motor-vehicle is one for which a motor-vehicle financial responsibility card which is still valid and subsisting has been issued under the M.V.A. of B.C.
M.V.A. 18 (7) (iii).
Ed. note:—It is the responsibility of anyone under the age of 21 to be certain that there is a financial responsibility card in a vehicle before driving it.

HOW TO MAKE MY COMMUNITY A BETTER PLACE IN WHICH TO LIVE

Recently a small British village was named the most perfect community in England. Many people travelled there to see what this community had that theirs lacked. When asked what had made his community so perfect in every way, the mayor had unhesitatingly replied with one word—'Co-operation. The whole community had helped with every project, and because they were such willing workers the government had granted large sums of money for future projects, because they knew the money would be used for the good of the whole community. This small English community could be any community anywhere. If our community, like this British one, decided that it, too, wanted to go on a large scale community-improvement project, it could do it successfully—with co-operation.

The first step toward community-improvement is to set up some reliable committees, and to appoint each with a suitable project to oversee. These committees, in turn, could appoint other reliable citizens to direct certain phases of each project. Contracts for erecting any buildings could be given by the committees. Deadlines for completion of each separate stage of construction or destruction could be set by the committee.

Many different projects could be undertaken under the heading "community improvement". Demolition of eyesores such as Aldergrove's old sawmill site and the unsightly empty barn across from the High school are such propositions.

Devices for community protection and safety also improve the community. For safety a traffic light at the Jackman Road corner is necessary. For community protection an air-raid siren is necessary, although we hope it will never be used. Community fall-out shelters could save many people. If fire or other accidents occurred, victims could be placed there. With world conditions as they are community protection against the dangers of radiation should be considered.

Recreational facilities for all ages help promote settlement of the area.

Parks, ball fields and swimming pools with qualified instructors belong in this category.

Aldergrove lacks swimming facilities, but it has a girl's softball team and a track club.

To beautify a town, a committee should be set up called the town planning committee. Flower boxes placed on sidewalks and trees placed on boulevards seem to invite tourists to stop and rest awhile. Laying out even, straight streets is also the town planning committee's job.

Many people cannot afford a higher education for students who deserve it. Community grants could be obtained for special accomplishment in fields such as dancing, drama, music, art, and sports, thus enabling them to receive further training at a higher level.

Community improvement is a broad and touchy subject. People can talk but not accomplish anything, but if they decided to get down to business and work as a group for the good of the community, they could.

Aldergrove Elementary School.

Mather Comments

By Camille Mather, MLA, Delta

An article in a recent Canadian magazine describes backyard play equipment for younger children. Rather than the usual wading pool and swings there are trees arranged to climb along and up, and sturdy posts set into the ground uprigrt at different heights to clamber over, and large culvert pipes to crawl through.

The purpose of this good—and it is a departure from the conventional play equipment. It does act as a challenge to get children doing something, even if there is a possibility of a fall. It looks like fun and is bound to produce skills of balance and decision.

This departure in ideas of play brings to mind the fact that so often we, as parents, expect children to play in a way WE would like. We expect them to keep tidy not to break things or tear their good clothes, and in general to play in a tidy fashion. Actually this is all wrong. Play clothes should be stout and sturdy—easily washable—and not so good that a few stains or tears really make any difference. They should be constructed for action and fun and initiative. The play idea should be the first concern—not the clothes.

Most children have more imagination than adults, and this precious quality should be encouraged. Toys and play areas need not be elaborate, but they should give scope to pretending, and fantasy. Every mother knows how happily a baby will play with a tin pie plate and spoon, or build with the supply of cans from the cupboard. Some of the most fascinating articles for play are several cartons of varying sizes. These make wonderful houses and even different rooms—all with imagination!

In the city the most ideal place to play was the vacant lot. Any swings put up were done by the children themselves. What matter if the swing was not as good as the one father made at home? It was a satisfaction. A vacant lot that had trees was a treasure trove, for then a tree house could be built, or a clubhouse, and what deeds of might and daring were planned by a group of girls or boys. At the age when all this goes on boys think of girls as sissies if they think of them at all. Girls would not have boys—boys are too rough and mean.

Organized recreation is good and sometimes necessary, but to my mind the best children's play is spontaneous and undirected by adults. This is a world that adults have long since passed—let the children play as they wish—all too soon they will have to conform and lose the elusive and tender imagination that peopled the child world—assume responsibilities —and become adults! I am of the opinion that happy, healthy and imaginative play for a child will make an adult that will face the world with far greater equanimity and ease than one who has been directed and confined as a child.

Mrs. Norman Severide Head of Toastmistress Club

A light and informal program provided an enjoyable evening for the members and guests of the Langley Toastmistress Club, at a dinner held on June 21, at the Newlands Golf Club.

The purpose of the occasion was the installation of the newly-elected officers. An impressive ceremony was conducted by Installing Officer Mrs. Lloyd Steele, during which golden keys symbolic of the individual duties of each office were presented to the incoming executive. Installed as officers for the coming term were: Mrs. Norman Severide— President; Mrs. Robert Shewan,— Vice-President; Mrs. George Willock, Secretary; Mrs. Oswald Ebbeson,— Treasurer; and Mrs. Victor Laird—Club Representative. A past president's pin was presented to retiring President, Mrs. Mulligan by Mrs. Joyce Brand.

The wind-up program of the club term was a strictly informal, fun-filled "indoor track meet" and Toastmistress Mrs. Robert Shewan coached and led the assembly through a variety of amusing events.

The international Toastmistress colors of blue and gold were carried throughout the lovely table decor arranged by Mrs. Victor Laird, Mrs. George Willock and Mrs. Oswald Ebbeson.

Guests for the evening were: Mrs. Norman Armstrong, Mrs. Ernest Sendall, Mrs. Harry Swain, Mrs. William Gray and Mrs. Gordon Fowler.

The next regular meeting will be held on September 6, and anyone wishing to attend may contact Mrs. Robert Shewan, 856-8073.

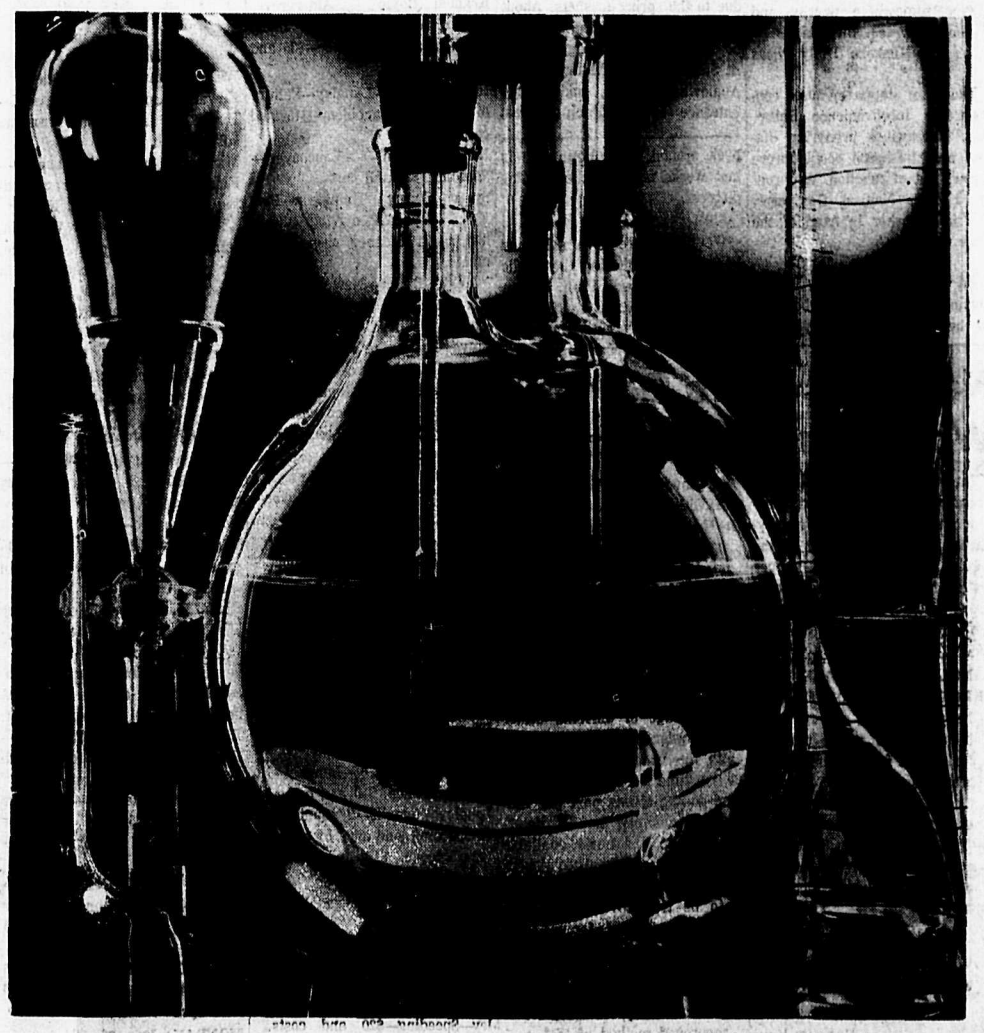
90% of all oil company product research in Canada is done by Imperial



The fuels your car will use in the future are being designed today. In Imperial's ultra-modern research laboratories at Sarnia, scientists and technicians are working to ensure that gasolines for today's cars—and tomorrow's—are tailored for top performance. In the last ten years alone, Imperial has spent more than $80 million to build the equipment needed to bring you top gasoline quality.

At Imperial Oil's laboratories at Sarnia, Ontario, more than 200 scientists and technicians are working to improve present petroleum products—and to develop new ones. Their research covers many fields, from gasolines to household detergents. Another 130 scientists and technicians are working at Imperial's Calgary laboratories on ways to find and produce more Canadian crude oil and natural gas. Imperial does more research than all other oil companies in Canada combined.

SAFETY TIPS FOR AUTO OWNERS TRANSPORTING THEIR BOATS TO WATER

With the number of boat owners increasing every month, the B.C. Automobile Association has issued a list of safety tips for motorists planning to haul their boats to the lake or seashore by car.

Emphasizing that boat hauling requires special knowledge and techniques, the BCAA offered the following suggestions:

While almost all modern boat trailers are designed for high speed, it is a good idea to keep slightly under the posted speed limit. Then, you can stop quickly in the event of trouble.

Large boats add considerable weight to your moving car and, therefore, require longer stopping distances. They also cause your car to accelerate more slowly.

When pulling out to pass and returning to the proper lane afterward, compensate for the added vehicle length.

In turning corners, allow a little extra room for the trailer. Sharp turns should be taken at slower than normal speeds, especially on rough roads.

Avoid sudden stops. A boat trailer with a heavy outboard motor on the rear can jackknife.

If you observe these safety rules, the BCAA said, you should have little trouble in getting your boat to the water with a minimum of inconvenience and risk.

HMCS ALDERGROVE TEAM DOWNED BY KERRISDALE

There was a softball doubleheader played between H.M.C.S. Aldergrove and the Kerrisdale Legion from Vancouver, at Alder grove ball park on Sunday, June 24th. Although the Navy team was unsuccessful on the diamond, it was much more successful as host later on at the base. Members of both teams and their dependents enjoyed the refreshment of the swimming pool after the afternoon game, and the comforts of the Men's lounge after the evening game.

There will be a softball doubleheader between the Navy team and the Surrey Firemen on Sunday, July 1st in Aldergrove.

Dueck's and Aldergrove Display Crowd Pleasing Ball

Aldergrove and Duecks Senior Men's ball clubs met Thursday night in what proved to be a hotly contested, crowd pleasing, exhibition of tight play. The Dueck team managed by Chuck Wiebe downed Manager Henry Rempel's men by 8—5.

Up until the bottom of the sixth inning both teams played almost flawless ball with Aldergrove leading 3—0. Pandemonium broke out with Duecks at bat in the sixth. Aldergrove made some glaring errors, and the Dueck's were far from remiss in taking advantage of it.

Duecks scored one more in the eighth to lengthen their lead to 8—3. Aldergrove put on a drive, trying to pull the game back out of the bag. They rallied sending two more runs in but ran out of innings and steam to drop the game 8—5.

The pitching for both teams was well worth watching. The only real long ball came off the bat of a Dueck player. He caught a big piece of the ball and drove it into the woods only to have it land foul. Hurling for Duecks was John Haak to Mike MacDonald behind the plate. For Aldergrove was Parnie Langhodge throwing to Gary Cardno.

Cliff Watt called the play for the game.

Follow through is must

The ball is smacked solidly; the player hurriedly looks up to follow the ball's flight and mutters to himself: 'Wha' happen?"

Wha' happen is that the player neglected to follow through.

The speed of the club must not be dissipated; let its force take the clubhead on through to the finish or sacrifice power.

At the zenith of the follow through a good golfer looks like this:

- Body is turned, facing the hole.
- Head is up; eyes follow the ball's flight.
- Hands are high, arms close to the body.
- Weight is on the left foot; right heel is high off the ground.

WRIGHT TOPS OPTICAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

The men who should know how to keep their eyes on the ball, the optometrists of the Fraser Valley, tested the fine Chilliwack Golf & Country Club course Wednesday June 20th.

Scores ranged all the way from 76 to 132, as some of the once-a-year golfers let their eyes, and shots, stray in the annual tournament of the Fraser Valley Optometric Association.

Low gross winner was Dr. Bob Wright of Abbotsford, while FVOA president Dr. Bill Linzey of Chilliwack copped the two-foot high trophy with a low net of 65. Back in 1946, Dr. Linzey's father won the same trophy, when it was top prize in a tournament staged by the provincial association.

A dinner meeting at the Park Hotel in Abbotsford followd the tournament, winding up FVOA activities until its Sept. 19 meeting in Langley.

Preliminary Trials Set For Legion Jr. Olympics

Langley Branch No. 21 of the Royal Canadian Legion is holding a Sports Meet for track and field events at the Langley High School Ground on Sunday 8 July. Boys and girls from all over the district will compete in the first round of the B.C. Championships under the Junior Olympics Training Plan. A large number of entries have been received, with strong support from the Langley and Aldergrove High Schools. The programme will begin promptly at 1 p.m.

The competitors are divided into four groups each for boys and girls—Pewee (age 10—11) Bantam 12—13) Midget (14—15) and Juvenile (16—17). There are both track and field events in each group. Catering will be provided by the Ladies' Auxiliary of Branch 21.

The winner of each event will be awarded a Legion Crest, with a bar for each additional event won, and will be entered for the Fraser Valley Zone Meet to be held at the Army Camp at Chilliwack on Saturday 21 July. Transport to Chilliwack will be provided for competitors who need it. The winners of the Chilliwack events will go to the B.C. Championship Finals in Vancouver on August 23rd to 25th. There they will receive expert coaching before the run-off. Transportation to Vancouver and accommodation whilst there will be provided free by the Legion.

This is the second year of the Training Plan, for which over 16,000 girls and boys from all over B.C. entered last year. The object of the Plan is to promote physical fitness in the youth of B.C. and to provide coaching for promising athletes, some of whom may one day represent Canada.

The Sports Committee of Branch is chaired by Comrade J. Wall and includes Pete Swensson, a former Olympic athlete. A large staff of judges, timekeepers etc. is required for an event of this size, and is being provided by the Legion, teachers, and others. Pete Swensson is running a coaching clinic at the Langley High School ground on Saturday afternoons at 2 p.m., for all competitors.

The Langley High School ground is the only suitable one in the district, and the Legion is much indebted to the School Board Trustees for their support, without which the Meet could hardly have been held.

ELECTRICAL APPLIANCE FIRES COST $10 MILLION

Faulty use of electrical appliances and wiring accounts for more than 6,000 fires annually, according to the All Canada Insurance Federation. Resultant damage is close to $10,000,000.

Officials of the Federation, which represents more than 220 fires, automobile and casulty insurance companies, said careless installation and overloading are two common causes of fire.

Safety experts recommend the following precautions against fires in the home.

1 Only qualified experts should be allowed to install wiring.
2 When adding a new appliance to home circuits, make sure wiring is heavy enough. Periodic checks by qualified electricians are advised.
3 Replace cords on lamps and appliances when worn; they seldom are worth repairing.
4 Do not string wires over hooks, under rugs or where constant wear and exposure may be hazardous.
5 Laundry or clothing should never be hung on wires.
6 Home-made extensions and repairs seldom are reliable.
7 Never use improper fuses or substitutes. Fuses protect you by cutting off electricity when danger is present.
8 Turn appliances off when not in use.
9 Use only recognized makes of appliances. Heavier equipment should carry a seal of approval such as that of the Underwriters' Laboratories.
10 Unless you are an expert, don't attempt to repair circuits or appliances.

Jealous mediavel lady, passing a friend arm in arm with a knight in armour: "Don't you ever get tired of tinned stuff?"

A House Is To Live In

The every-day tasks of a housewife are pretty generally understood, ranging as they do from irritating inconvience to downright drudgery. The tasks themselves embody little that is new. They are traditional. But just as irksome to the modern homemaker as to her great grandmother.

In the light of these facts it hardly seems necessary to begin spelling out the duties to mother. Yet some experts with uncounted years of total experience in this field have produced a booklet with a great deal of information on how to do these chores in compatibility with the homemaker's particular personality.

The booklet is entitled "A House Is To Live In", published by the Bissell Home Service Institute at Grand Rapids, Mich., and it gives quick recognition to the fact that although household chores are all the same, the women who perform are different and approach the job in different ways. They cover such situations as establishment of an individual, personalized housekeeping situation. They do not call it schedule. How to clean a room, where to start and what to do next. How to practice "preventive housecleaning" — in short stop creating a mess to tidy up. How to use occasional outside help to the best advantage.

How to identify yourself as a compulsive cleaner, impulsive cleaner, clutter cleaner, casual cleaner and what to do in each case

There is a list of tools to use and tactics to be employed. There are hints on the fabrics and floor coverings easiest to clean, seasonal chores not to be neglected. How to handle the small fry who create big cleaning problems.

Where to begin the cleaning day and how to proceed ultimately to the finish while reducing the chances of being overcome with total exhaustion in the process.

The average husband might find himself a little overawed by the abundance of information in this compact booklet. But the experts didn't overlook him either. He is a contributor to the general disarray of the household and there are some suggestions on how he can reduce the task of orderly maintenance. The booklet is available to all interested persons by writing to The Bissell Home Service Institute, Grand Rapids, Michigan.

GEOGRAPHY

Those who have trouble with geography might be encouraged if they keep in mind the blunder of the British ambassador at Rome, in 1344. Nobody could do worse than he.

The Pope, Clement VI gave to Louis of Spain the title of Prince of the Fortunate Islands. These islands were, of course, the Canaries, which had then recently been discovered.

The British ambassador, however, took off immediately with his retinue from Rome to London to bring the news that the King of Spain had been given the British Isles.

JEHOVAH WITNESSES TO MEET IN KAMLOOPS

A travelling minister from the branch office of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society, Toronto, Ontario, is visiting Aldergrove this week in conjunction with a six-day program of special Bible educational activities being conducted by the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Circuit minister, Grenville, Drake, is here to supervise and effect improvements in the ministerial training program conducted by the local group.

In making the announcement, Mr. Leslie Leighton, presiding minister of the Aldergrove Congregation, stated that Mr. Drake will also be assisting in the organization of the Witnesses' "Courageous Ministers" District Assembly to be held in Kamloops, July 20—22 in the Kamloops Memorial Arena. Delegates from the Okanagan Valley, the Cariboo, and coastal points are expected.

As circuit minister, Mr. Drake supervises local congregations, according to Mr. Leighton, and serves in this capacity as a direct representative of the Watch Tower Society. He visits each congregation approximately three times a year, assisting the local members for a period of one week.

A special program of activity has been arranged for the week of the travelling minister's visit. In addition to working with the congregation members, Mr. Drake will deliver two Bible discourses: on Saturday at 8:00 p.m. he will speak on "New Things Learned", and on Sunday at 2:30 p.m. he will give the special talk "Is This The World's Last Generation?"

The public is cordially invited to attend these meetings which will be held in the Kingdom Hall.

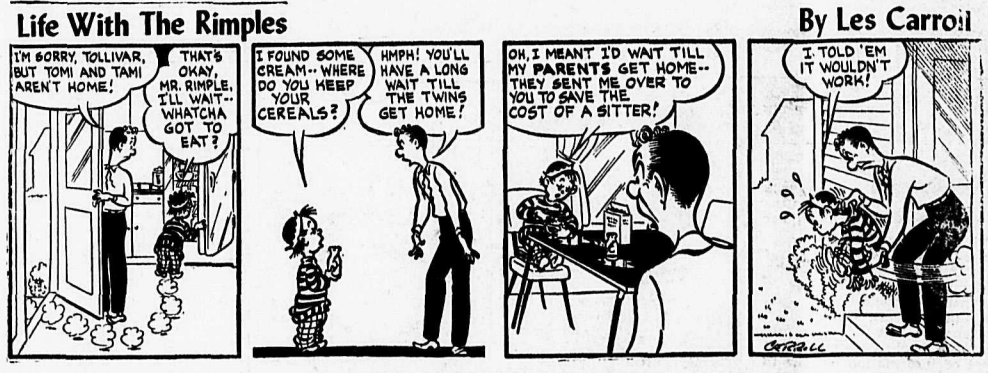
Life With The Rimples

By Les Carroll



NAVY LOG

By ANDREE

On Friday, June 29, families of the personnel of H.M.C.S. Aldergrove are invited to a sports afternoon and picnic at the swimming pool. Mrs. S. Machan will present prizes to the winners of the various competitions; afterwards there will be a barbecue supper and a dance.

Off on a long-dreamed-of fishing trip of several days, up in the Kamloops area, are Lieut-Cdr. S. Machan, Commissioned Officer Fred Ruddick and his son, and Mr. Jack Legault. We wish them every angler's dream! that their biggest fish stories may be true ones-

Able Seaman Terrance Goodrick has joined the secretariat of the ship's company as a replacement for Able Seaman Hicks. Welcome aboard!

There is hardly anything in the world that some man cannot make a little worse and sell a little cheaper, and the people who consider price only are this man's lawful prey.

Avoid Billows

If your diet has not yet made any noticeable change in your overweight problem, avoid full skirts, the kind that billow, as they attract attention to your problem.

We distill wood to get a wide range of useful products such as acetone, methanol, charcoal, creosote oils, rosin, solvents, turpentine and lacquers to name just a few of the numerous wood derivatives.

To protect your fingernails, use an orange stick tipped with a brush at one end. Just dip the brush into soap and clean around each nail. It will do an effective job, gently.

The greater majority of wildlife species will be found from the timber line down. The timber line generally exists up to 7,000 ft However mountain sheep & goat range far above this line during the summer months. The cougar and grizzly bear are lover of high places. Pikas and marmots and even certain species of mice live throughout the year above the timber line. Where there is vegetation there will always be found wild life in some form or other.

Egg Producers' Livelihood At Stake - Want Controls

Our spokesman who attended the egg producers meeting in Abbotsford last night claims he never witnessed anything quite like it.

Unlike last year, when Egg Marketing Board was defeated because of many in the industry not wanting it,the feeling now is unanimously in favour of some form of control to protect the interest of the smaller producer.

Family size operations are being threatened by large operations of up to 30,000 laying birds. The trend has been to expand without limits, resulting in overproduction and low prices to the producer who cannot make ends meet anymore. The largest egg producing plants are backed by large concerns who are also in the feed and egg business. Egg producers feel that if this expansion is not curbed somehow and immediately, the family size operations will be forced out of business. Present conditions call for another plebiscite, which is expected to be province wide since the Vancouver Island and Interior Egg Producers are equally hard hit. At the meeting last night, a vote of confidence was held and the committee sanctioned to proceed on behalf of the egg producers. Although at all previous poultrymen's meetings opinions differed widely, last night showed the urgency of the matter. Some 65 in attendance were, except for one or two, in complete agreement. This can be labelled a unique situation in the industry's history. It has been impossible over the years to organize egg producers although several attempts have been made. Egg producers work and think independently and will not organize unless there is a great need for it. They are now forced into action to protect their livelihood and would rather give up some of their freedom than lose what has been built up over many years. They are mainly and in the first place concerned with keeping production in balance with consumption.

The committee is comprised of men who are egg producers themselves and some have other interests in the poultry industry. Jake Friesen, Clearbrook is the Chairman of the group, he operates a poultry farm and a feed business. Allan Siemens, of Abbotsford, secretary, egg producer; Hugh Currie, Cloverdale, egg producer and wholesaler; Arie de Ruiter, Aldergrove, egg producer and hatcheryman; John Friesen, Abbotsford, egg producer.

The committee made it expressively clear that they have no intentions to interfere with the marketing of eggs, unless the producers themselves want it. They feel that the egg marketing is in good hands, and should be left as is, unless extraordinary circumstances call for a change. All egg producers keeping 500 hens or more will be eligible to vote and will be asked to register in the near future.

IMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH NEWS

July 1st 1962 is Canada's 95th birthday. The Dominion of Canada was unified July 1st 1867, and is today the 3rd largest country in the world. Before that date different parts of Canada were separate colonies, and great unhabitated stretches of country lay between the Maritimes, the Canadas (the Prairies), and the little colony at Red River and the Pacific coast. The steamship and the railway came bridging the great distances which separated the colonies. Men began to think of uniting the British North American communities into a federation. The plan was worked out in the 1860's and in 1867 the Dominion of Canada into existence.

Today, the First of July means little more than a day off work for many Canadians. For Christians it should be a day on which we thank God for this rich land wherein we enjoy Christian liberties. "A land which the Lord thy God careth for: the eyes of the Lord thy God are always upon it, from beginning of the year even unto the end of the year."—(Deuteronomy 11, 12). God bless our native land- Firm may she ever stand Thro' storm and night! When the wild tempests rave, Ruler of wind and wave, Do Thou our country save By Thy great might.

The Lord's Supper will be celebrated next Sunday in both Services. Please announce your intentions, by phoning: 856—8841. Before Sunday, if possible.

* * *

The Church Board is to meet Tuesday July 3rd. The Voters meeting is on Saturday July 7th, both meetings are at 8 o'clock in the evening.

* * *

Our Building Fund has made a start. We hope that after "Pay-Day" it will take longer steps. So far it looks like a very small church.

Anyone wishing to donate Memorial Gifts in lieu of flowers, in memory of Mr. Rudolf Semke who passed away June 28th, may do so. Gifts will be for a worthy cause such as the Church Extension Fund, The Lutheran Hour, or any of the charitable institutions of the church. See the pastor.

ALDERGROVE WEATHER

was 77°. We had to wait over nine weeks for a warmer day.

The average date for the first occurence of a temperature of 80° is May 23. Only in one other year, 1960, when the first hot day was July 4, did we have to wait longer for an 80° reading.

All the minimums of the past week, due to clear, cool nights, have been below normal.

Only two days in the 25 day period, May 28 to June 21, had above normal means.

Saturday's maximum was a record high for the date here, while the minimum on the 19th was not quite a record low. June 19th, 1955, had 37°
