Jun 2, 1949

The ROYAL YORK

Toronto, Canada

"Empress of Canada,"

Diner Au Revoir

Thursday, June 2nd, 1949

Menu

Supreme of Grape Fruit au Maraschino

Sardines in Oil Celery Roquefort

Queen Olives Salted Nuts Ripe Olives

Consomme Royale Cream of Tomato Velour

Broiled Salmon Steak Maitre d' Hotel

Fried Fillet of Lemon Sole, Sauce Tartare

Asparagus Hollandaise Apple Fritter, Maple Syrup

Emince of Sweetbreads a la King

Chicken en Casserole Forestiere

Larded Tenderloin of Beef Favourite

Vegetables :

Green Runner Beans au Beurre Carrots Vichy

Persillees and Rissolee Potatoes

Cold Selection :

Galantine of Turkey aux Truffes Raised Pie

Salad ; Heart of Lettuce, Thousand Island Dressing

Sweets :

Plum Pudding

Pear Melba

Friandises

Savoury ; Noisette au Parmesan

Dessert Coffee

The ROYAL YORK

TORONTO « » ONTARIO

Largest Hotel in the British Empire

TOWERING above the heart of Toronto, this great modern hostelry commands a superb view of Lake Ontario. Every luxury is yours . . . each of the 1,200 guest rooms has private bath, shower, 'phone and radio . . . tasty meals courteously served in the Venetian and Imperial Rooms . . . concert orchestra at lunch, tea, dinner . . . supper dancing and floor show every night except Sunday. And all at the Royal York's budget prices!

If you arrive by train you'll find a direct underground passageway from the Union Station . . . no taxis, no fuss . . . but many conveniences!

Whenever you come to Toronto, plan to stay at the centre of business and social life . . . at the Royal York . . . largest hotel in the British Empire and one of the finest in the world.

Canadian Pacific

SPANS THE WORLD

Printed in England 1948.