CHRISTMAS SAFETY

The greeting is not new but it is sincere: "A Safe and Happy Christmas to All!"

The Christmas Safety hints listed are not new either but they are worth repeating and worth heeding. Some are plagiarized from Burnaby Safety Council and some from other sources.

"This holiday, "Give the Gift of Life". Your own life is precious to your family .. guard it for their sake. Guard the lives of others and don't contribute to tragedy at this time of Christmas rejoicing.

Four main reasons for traffic accidents during Christmas are: The Throttle, The Bottle, Darkness and Faults Afoot. Four out of five drivers involved in fatal Yule accidents were driving too fast for conditions; more than half had been drinking; early darkness is the most dangerous time of day and carelessness, drink and dark clothing contribute greatly to the large pedestrian toll.

Normal traffic hazards are increased by the last-minute shopping rush; more hours of darkness; bad weather, and all too often by partying. As Burnaby Safety Council warned years ago:

"A Little Brew Can Dim Your View" and "Don't Speed to Meet a Deadline ... You Might."

Some safety tips for the home: Place the tree in wet sand or water. Use only C.S.A. approved tree lights. Do not use direct lighting on metal trees. Check wiring: turn off lights when retiring. Be sure ladders used in decorating are in good order and keep the tree away from all sources of heat.

If holding a dance, have fireplace screened. Remember: avoid over-exertion as fatigue tends to increase accidents.

Vancouver Board of Trade holds each year a "Christmas in June", so we feel justified in producing swimming figures in December from a study by E. Kauffman.

Physical fitness pays off (as our Mile Swim for Fitness) as 49.7% of all victims never participated in athletics. 9.5% of victims were under the influence of alcohol; 75% had no training in water safety and as a result 49.7% were swimming alone. In near drownings, 85% were saved by a trained person; 65% of those saved were on the bottom when rescued.

Canadian Red Cross Water Safety Branch trained 39,512 swimmers in B.C. in 1964 and nearly 50,000 this year, but more water safety training is needed.

ALDERGROVE SECONDARY CHIT CHAT

By Linda Webster

Charles King has come and gone. I think that anybody who can entrance a group of high school students into actual silence has got to be the greatest.

Of course, even getting boys to sing is quite an achievement in itself. Athough I noticed that the majority of the Grade 12 boys sat and squirmed, trying to look bored and sophisticated, but I'll bet deep down inside they would have loved to have let go and laughed and sang. But -- it's they who missed the fun.

Thursday, Dcember 9th was dress-up day. Not many students came showing off their finery. This day doesn't seem to be such a big thing as it used to be.

Exams start this week. I really don't know what else to say! I feel, as many others do, that this new system of class work counting for nearly half of your report-card mark is not such a good idea, after all! It seems that we are not expected to study for our Christmas exams. The teachers think we are but we are not being given a chance. Pupils are so busy studying for unit tests, chapter tests and essays that they really don't have any time to study for major exams. I realize that this new system is purely experimental and I hope that exam markers are going to take this into consideration. Also, I don't know if this is the case all through the school, but it most certainly worrying a large number of senior students.

OTTER NEWS

by Mrs. H. E. Larson

Otter W.A. to Langley Memorial Hospital met at the home of Mrs. J.E. Andress on Friday with Mrs. Sam McCallum in the chair.

The Christmas dinner for Aldergrove Pensioners was discussed, to be held in their Hall on Dec. 15th, with Mrs. Penzer and Mrs. Genberg as convenors.

A new member, Mrs. Seifred, was welcomed. It was reported Mrs. H. Williams and Mrs. O. Arsenault were on the sick list. Mrs. Penzer will be in the Hospital Gift shop on the 23rd.

The annual meeting will be held on Jan. 28th at the home of Mrs. G. Miles with Mrs. McCallum and Mrs. Basham as co-hostess.

Peggy Philps Wins 4-H Trophy

A 17-year-old Mount Lehman girl has won the B.C. Guernsey Breeders' 4-H Trophy.

Peggy Philps is the high aggregate member in B.C. in 1965 competition and was awarded the special trophy at the B.C. Guernsey Association Meeting this week at Bradner.

President for the coming year is Barrie Petersen of Agassiz and vice presidents are Robert Logan of Langley and Mrs. J. K. Holycak of Glen Valley.

New directors are an Aldergrove man, Peter White, and Ladner resident, Richard Holding.

Old Age Security Cheques

In January, 1966, 9,800 British Columbians who have reached the age of 69 will receive their first Old Age Security cheques of $75. These will be the first payments made as a result of amended legislation which allows for progressive reduction of the age requirement. This reduction will be effective each January until 1970 when payment will be made to people who have reached the age of 65.

It is believed there may be another 1,200 people in British Columbia eligible for payment in January, 1966. Applications for the benefit may be obtained at all post offices. These should be mailed, along with documentary proof of age, to Regional Director, Old Age Security, P.O. Box 1177, Victoria, B.C.

Bill Poppy Returned to Office

With only one office being up for election Saturday in Langley district, counting the poll was a simple task and the last count was in the hands of returning officer D. J. Doubleday about an hour after the polling booths were closed at 8:00 p.m. Final count was 976 for Bill Poppy; 486 for George Copeman.

The total number of electors who cast their ballots represented about 19¼ percent of the 7,630 who were eligible to vote.

This was lower than in the 1965 election in which 32.09 percent of the electorate went to the polling booths to choose from a record list of candidates.

Reeve Bill Poppy's return for his 11th and 12th years in office came as no surprise to most people but the opinion around town is that George Copeman made a better showing than was anticipated.

The defeated candidate for reeve in Langley municipality, George Copeman, was not present in the election room at the municipal hall to congratulate the winner, Bill Poppy. The well-wishing was left to his fellow council members and to a few friends.

Early returns established the trend towards a two-to-one victory for the incumbent reeve and except for West Langley which shared its loyalty equally between the two contestants, George Copeman showed no sign of providing Bill Poppy with a real fight.

BARICHELLO RETURNED FOR THIRD CONSECUTIVE TERM

A Langley man, Ralph Barichello, has been returned to office as president of The Lower Mainland Jersey Breeders Association for a third consecutive term.

His vice president for the coming year is H. Malenstyne of Delta and secretary-treasurer is Mrs. Carlson of Glen Valley.

At the annual meeting at Langley two local men were named directors to the B.C. Jersey Breeders Association.

They are R.C. Doan of Langley and R.C. Polson of Ladner.

Bella Vista Farms of Milner won every award but the one for the grand champion cow, which was won by H. Malenstyne of Delta. Speaker for the occasion was Oliver Evans, field man for the Canadian Jersey Cattle Club.

Until the past year Evans has covered all of Canada in judging and classifying but in 1965 he judged in the 4 western provinces only, using the new concentrated system instituted by former agriculture minister Harry Hayes.

President Ralph Barichello drew attention to the fact that in 4-H judging at the PNE this year, the Langley club once again won the Jersey Club Shield.

Ralph Barichello

They have won it 3 years in a row.

Other awards won - by Bella Vista Farms at Milner.

Junior Champion male - H. N. Boultbee Trophy.

Progeny of Dam - Alderbrook Trophy.

Senior Get of Sire - Springfield Trophy.

Grand Aggregate - Shamrock Trophy.

Junior Get of Sire - Alderway Trophy.

Dairy Herd - Lower Mainland Jersey Beef Trophy.

Junior Champion Female - Bella Vista Trophy.

Five Honorary Presidents are Jake Grauer of Richmond, Dr. G.D. Pinder of Aldergrove, T. C. Polson of Ladner, Harry Reifel of Milner and Dr. J.C. Berry of UBC.

WEIHNACHTS - PREDIGT

Lukas 2, verse 10 u. 11 lesen wir: .. Der Engel sprach zu den Hirten: fuerchtet euch nicht; siehe ich verkuendige euch grosse Freude, die allem Volk widerfahren wird; Denn euch ist heute der Heiland geboren, wlecher ist Christus, der Herr, in der Stadt Davids.

Diese Freudenbotschaft wird aktuell, wenn wir Jesus Christus, den Heiland, den gekreuzigten, den auferstandenen, den erhoehten und den wiederkommenden Herrn verkuendigen, und gewinnt Farbe, wenn sie in unsere Weltzeit hinein verkuendigt wird, die trotz ihrer ausserordenlichen Einmaligkeit viele gemeinsame Zuege mit der damaligen alten Welt aufzuweisen hat.

Gemeinsam hat unsere Zeit mit der untergegangenen alten Welt eine fortschreitende sittliche Faeulnis, die selbst die Ehen und Familien im christlichen Raum nicht verschont. Politische Spannungen und berufliche Ueberforderungen verursachen zahlreiche koerperliche und seelische Zusammenbrueche. Es erfuellt sich auf dieser Jagd nach dem hoeheren Lebensstandart in unserem materialistischen Zeitalter das Wort Jesu: "We sein Leben erhalten will, der wirds verlieren. Luk. 9, 24.

Aber auch unter den Kindern Gottes will infolge der Wirtschaftswunder-Sattheit die Liebe in vielen erkaten. Diesen gefaehrdeten Menschen in und ausserhalb der Gemeinde gilt diese Weihnachtsbotschaft: Euch ist heute der Heiland, der Erretter, der Erloeser geboren. Diese Botschaft ist abgestimmt auf den Ton der erbarmenden Liebe Gottes in Jes. 40, 1. u. 2. Troestet, troestet mein Volk, redet mit Jerusalem freundlich und predigt ihr, dass das Elend ein Ende hat ... Diese frohe Kunde ist erfuellt von der Kraft und Vollmacht der Verheissung des Herrn: ... und es wird gepredigt werden das Evangelium vom Reiche in der ganzen Welt ... Matth. 24, 14.

Wir verkeundigen den Erloeser fuer kranke, muehselige und beladene, gottferne und trostlose Menschen. Jesus Christus ist ja der Heiland der Kranken Jes. 53:4 Matth. 8:17. Wo er hinkommt, gab und gibt es keine hoffnungslos Kranken mehr. Es erfuellt sich das Wort des Heilandes an ihnen: "Ich bin gekommen, dass sie Leben und volle Genuege haben sollen." Er kann und ist bereit zu helfen.

Jesus Christus ist der Heiland der Muehseliger und Beladenen: Kommt her zu mir alle ... Ich will euch Ruhe geben. Nicht immer nimmt er die Last sofort ab, aber er verspricht, uns zu er quicken und aufzurichten, damit wir nicht zusammenbrechen. Wer vergebung seiner Schuld erhalten und zur innern Ruhe gekommen ist, ist stille geworden in Gott.

Jesus Christus ist der Heiland fuer alle gottfernen Menschen, die Schuldiggewordenen, die zu ihm kommen. Er heilt das Uebel an der Wurzel. Alle irdische Not und seelische Zerrissenheit kommen aus der Suende. So oft Jesus spricht, Gehe hin mit Frieden, deine Suende ist dir vergeben, wird der Anfang zu einem neuen Leben und Dasein geschenkt.

Jesus Christus ist der Heiland fuer trostlose Herzen. Der gem Jairus zuriet: Fuerchte dich nicht, glabue nur. Oder der Witwe zu Nain: Weine nicht. Oder der Marta in Bethanien: Wenn du glauben wuerdest, du wuerdest die Herrlichkeit Gottes sehen, und den Juengern in der Abschiedsstunde: Euer Herz werde nicht bestuerzt, glaubt an Gott und glaubt an mich, der hat auch Heilung fuer unser bestuerztes und trostloses Herz.

Der Heiland Jesus Christus heilt noch heute, indem Er die Furcht aus unseren Herzen nimmt: "Fuerchtet euch nicht." Wir brauchen nicht viel darueber zu sagen, wie vorherrschend die Furcht im heutigen Leben ist, und wie sie einem Menschen zusetzt und krank macht, wir haben es doch alle erfahren.

Jesus Christus heilt unsere kranken Herzen, indem er uns bleibende Frucht schenkt. "Siehe ich verkuendige euch grosse Freude." Ohne Freude koennen wir nicht leben, wie wir ohne Brot fuer unsern Leib und ohne Liebe fuer unsere Selle nicht existoeren koennen. Freude braucht immer eine Freudenquelle. Darum eilen die freudehungriegen Menschen zu allerlei irdischen Freudenbrunnen auf die Erwerbs, Vergnuegungs und Zerstreuungsplaetze. Aber bleinbende Freude fuer Herz und Gewissen gibt es nur bei Jesus Christus, an der Quelle der Ewigkeit.

Jesus Christus heilt, indem Er der Herr unseres Lebens wird: "Welcher ist Christus der Herr," Solange das ich, die Leidenschaft, der Erwerbstrieb beherrschender Mittelpunkt unseres Lebens sind, gehen wir in die Irre. Die frohe Botschaft lautet," Euch ist heute der Heiland geboren. Gesegnete Festtage wuenschend.

Bethel Mennoniten Gemeinde.

A Christmas Prayer

While for your happiness this Christmas pleading,
We say "God bless you and leave the rest,
How can we tell what those we love are needing?
How can we know what for each heart is best?
We lift our eyes to Him who only knoweth
And pray that He will bless you in His way.
For with the gifts and grace that He bestoweth
Thou shall be rich indeed this Christmas.
So a very happy and blessed Christmas to all, in the name of the Little Babe of Bethlehem, merry Christmas!

'GIFT TELEPHONE SERVICE'

Three magic words...

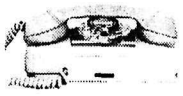
...that can solve your Christmas shopping problems easily this year.

Pick up the telephone and call, "Gift Telephone Service". The pleasant voice at the other end of the line will be your introduction to instant shopping; simply, pleasantly and quickly.

Any of the following gifts you choose will come all neatly wrapped ready to be placed under the tree, or if you prefer, you may send a gift certificate.

NOW, TAKE YOUR CHOICE TO MAKE THIS A "GIFT TELEPHONE CHRISTMAS"

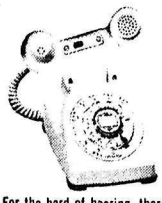
Centre and foremost for the person who enjoys the thrill of hearing from friends and relatives here's the attractive new "Long Distance Gift Certificate."



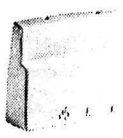
Always popular as the perfect little personal telephone is the glamorous Starlite—dainty, feminine, in colors to match almost any decor, and the dial lights.

Now you can go about your work and talk to friends with a "hands free" speakerphone. Just talk and listen without using the handset. It comes in decorator colors.

Another gift, popular with "the man who has everything," is the Magicall automatic dialer with the electronic memory for up to 1000 telephone numbers. It will dial any one of them for you at the touch of a button.



For the hard of hearing, there's a wonderful and thoughtful gift—the amplifying handset, with a variable volume control, to amplify incoming calls so they can be heard loud and clear.



A welcome gift for that special someone is the melodious bell chime, to replace the regular telephone bell, also in matching colors.

Ever welcome in this activity-packed age is an extension telephone. Save yourself steps and have extensions in all the heavy traffic centres of your home, such as playroom, den, patio, workshop, and of course one in the bedroom for night or early morning calls.

Costs are surprisingly low and in most cases you can pay with small monthly additions to your own account. You'll be glad you took our advice to make this a "Gift Telephone Christmas." Call the Business Office of:

Christmas Message for 1965

The Christmas message is one of very good news. It concerns God, and it concerns His world in which man finds himself today a rather lost and bewildered creature.

Briefly, the good news is that God in Jesus Christ has come into this world of ours and has revealed himself to those who believe in Him, and who base their lives on Christ's teaching and example. Nothing else is really adequate as a statement of what Christmas means. It isn't just the friendliness of this season, it isn't just having a gay old time, or being sentimental about Chistmas trees and Santa Claus, because all this is secondary to the real thing.

In the church to which I belonged in Scotland, we had a large congregation and two ministers - the minister-in-charge and an assistant. I remember how often I heard people say 'I called the minister - not the assistant but the real one'. Perhaps it was not very complimentary, but it pointed up a truth which is, that in time of need, we seek what we believe is best and has the greatest authority.

Only Christ can really answer the deep needs of human life. Nobody else is adequate to do this, and all substitutes for religious faith and for Christian living fall to the ground.

The shepherds worshipped, the kings worshipped, for worship is the only possible response to the Child of Bethlehem. Worship means giving of oneself, obedience to His call for service to the poor and the lonely, obedience to His command to meet at His Holy Table and to renew our life in His.

May this Christmas be a blessed one. May its joys of self-giving be yours. May its message of good news give you that power over all the circumstances of life. And may you join your voice to the worship of the Angiels.

'Glory to God in the highest, and in earth peace'.

James A.M. Moir.

We wish a Merry Christmas to all

CHRISTMAS MESSAGES

"And The Word Was Made Flesh"

St. John 1-14"And the word was made flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and Truth."

Again this time has come around, when we are brought face to face with what John the Apostle wrote over 1,900 years ago. "And the word was made flesh." Although the exact date of the birth of our beloved Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, has not been established, it does not minimize the spirit of Christmas, and what Christmas stands for.

While we cannot all in person, go to the place where Christ was born and look over the traditional sight, we can in spirit, follow the suggestion made by the shepherds --"Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us."

And as we do this, we see what John beheld, "And the word was made flesh." Not only was the "word" made "flesh," but took up his earthly abode on this earth and dwelt among us.

"God with man", that was the divine plan from the beginning.

John writes - "In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God." "In the beginning" is the very first sentence that greets us as we open our Bible. By his word, which was made flesh, were all things created, including man, the very corwn of His creation. The fellowship which was broken between God and man because of sin, was again restoredy by "The word having been made flesh."

May the Christmas season, which we are about to enter, prove to be a blessing to our land, as well as the rest of the world. May the Angels song, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will, toward men," echo in the hearts of all men, including the leaders of the nations.

John L. Zacharias,
Clearbrook, B.C.

Wherein Lies The "Germ Of Life"

Wherein lies the "germ of life" in the Christmas story? We don't have time and energy to spend on th e tinsel and froth. Let's get to the heart of the matter. "Unto you is born this day a Saviour which is Christ the Lord."

Shepherds under the starry skies, suddenly, the Angel of the Lord appears and says, "I bring you good news of great joy which is meant for all people." -- A Saviour is born. Then a host of heavenly knighthood appeared praising God saying, "Glory to God in the highest."

That little babe was safe in that manger. So are you and I. God has a heavenly most to watch over His own.

The shpeherds go in a hurry to search for the Saviour. A Saviour from hunger and want and discomfort, from political powers that be? - no the heart of the matter is that "He shall save His people from their sins." Matthew 1:21.

This was the purpose of the Son of God's becoming a babe, this was the message the shepherds "made known abroad." This is what God offers to do for us and in us this Christmas too - Praise Him.

Pastor George Penner.

What Are You Looking For This Christmas?

IMMANUEL LUTHERAN GHURCH. CHRISTMAS MESSAGE BY PASTOR A. HIPPE

WHAT ARE YOU LOOKING FOR THIS CHRISTMAS?

"What seek ye?" (John 1, 38). Jesus directed this question to two of John's disciples. This is also a good question to ask ourselves, as we approach the Christmas season. We live in a country where most of us enjoy all the comforts of life, and more. Many of us call ourselves followers of Christ. We remind ourselves of the purpose of Christ's coming into the world, by commemorating His Birth. The purpose is stated in St. Paul's letter to the Galatians, 4,4: "When the fullness of time was come, God sent forth His Son, made of a woman, made under the Law, to redeem them that were under the Law, that we might receive the adoption of sons."

This is what all mankind must seek above all else. Christ is, "The light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel." (Luke 2,32). Even king Herod directed the Wise Men to Bethlehem saying, "Go search diligently for the young child, and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also." And they went and they found, "the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense and myrrh." (Matt. 2,11).

What do YOU seek this Christmas? What else could and should you seek than the Christ? (Isaiah (55,6) admonishes us: "Seek ye the Lord whil e he may be found, and call upon Him while He is near." He is here in Christmas. Let us say with the Psalmist (Ps. 27,8): "When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek."

May God fill your hearts with true Christian joy, to say with Mary, the mother of Jesus (Luke 1, 46,47): "My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior."

If you have church home, Immanuel Lutheran, extends to you a warm welcome to worship with us at the following services:

DECEMBER 24 - Christmas Eve children's service 7:30 p.m.
DECEMBER 25 - Christmas Day service 10:45 a.m.
DECEMBER 27 - Sunday service (installation of officers) 11:15 a.m. Sunday School and Bible Class 10:30 a.m.
