AROUND TOWN

by LOYD McINTOSH

Reading statements about political parties, made by their opposition, leaves little for our country to hope for. Each party claims the other is not good and paints their method of government a very dark shade. If they all tell the truth as they claim, we may as well throw in the towel now.

Some people go to extremes to observe there national holidays. However the Irishman who wore the large bright green bow tie and dyed his hair to match is just about the ultimate in extremes.

Talk about running foul of the law! A couple I know journeyed into New Westminster. They parked their car unknowingly in a restricted zone, it was towed away by the police. They had to go and pay towing charges plus a parking fine. The ironic part of the episode was they were nailed for jaywalking enroute.

Belbriggan Bay was a complete success. However, some of the behind scene difficulties are never known by John Q. Public. Some of the cast in the play were on-stage under conditions of health where they would normally have been in bed. High temperatures and flu plagued the cast, They like true troupers lived by the old saying "The show must go on."

Well it looks like we have another champion parsnip grower. Mrs. H. Paver of Bradner reported one from her garden weighing in at 7 lbs. and 6½ inches in diameter not to mention a 16 inch length. Anyone top that?

No correct guess last week. I didn't think it would be so easy to top Millies record of just a few minutes

The winner this week if guessed will get one year subscription to the paper new or renewal. Plus one to give to a non-subscriber.

More than thirty Abbotsford merchants attended an organizational meeting held last Wednesday.

The meeting voted to continue the meetings each month at 12:15 to discuss retailing problems.

Arrangements were completed for the first get together by Jake Warkentine, Harold Lock, R. Haffey and J. Bartlemen all executive members of the Chamber of Commerce. It was stressed that persons attending the meetings need not be Chamber members although the Chamber is sponsoring body of the committee.

Items discussed at the meeting included off street parking for downtown shoppers and types of promotion.

Almost 2,000 Attend Student Presentation of Folk Opera

Scene from Aldergrove Secondary School's Belbriggan Bay

by Loyd McIntosh

The presentation of Belbriggan Bay by the Aldergrove Secondary School, saw almost capacity crowds each night of the three nights it was shown. Almost 2,000 persons flocked to the school auditorium to see this opera, one of the best ever presented.

The story of Belbriggan Bay was based on a fishing village in Newfoundland. The teachers and students, who played the parts of the maritime coast residents, were almost exact in their enactment. A visit to one of the remote fishing villages, in that area of Canada, would give a duplicate impression as depicted by the actors. Much credit is due to the teachers and students who entered into the presentation with wholeheartedness. Not only the actors but those who worked behind the scenes, the directors, the ones who promoted the idea and last but not least by far, Leonard Woods and Joan Buckley who made this presentation possible by providing the authorship, deserve every plaudit for a successful presentation.

The low bid for printing of 1000 booklets of the Plumbing By-law was $880.

At present, anyone applying for a plumbing permit, is given one of these books free.

Some of the municipal councillors questioned this expensive open handidness and said a charge should be made to help defray the cost.

Councillor Booth—"Why should we print these books at all, licensed plumbers now do most of the work, others could get the necessary information at the municipal hall."

The matter was tabled for furthur consideration.

Mr. Oscar Oilinger, Aldergrove Motel operator, appeared before the municipal council asking for a tourist grant of 10c per capita from Langley municipality. The money along with that from other municipalities and cities is used to advertise and draw tourists to the lower B.C mainland from the eight other provinces and the U.S.A.

This municipality gave $155 last year. The provincial government will match a grant up to $48,000.

A decision to see what other neighbouring municipalities such as Matsqui, Maple Ridge and Sumas intend to do will be carried out before a commitment is made.

EDUCATIONAL GRANTS OR OUT

Last week I was approached by a young university student who requested my signature in support of a petition for sufficient provincial grant for higher education. In addition to this, there was literature in abundance, mailed to me by the Ubyssey.

It was the general consensus, in these articles that the universities were not getting a fair grant from our provincial government. In their refusal, the province was placing a stumbling block in the path of education on a higher plain.

Far be it from me to fail to endorse this campaign for the furtherance of education. Even I, with my limited capacity for thought, can forsee the result of failure to increase grants to our universities. It should be evident to our provincial leaders, who are reputedly the cream of intellect, that only through assistance from our governments, can we provide sufficient facilities to keep up with the rest of the world.

We may say that we worked to finance our own education. However, this is a poor argument. We worked to get as far as we have in order that our children would find the going less rough. By looking back on our own trials to obtain some goal and putting it up as a basis for our children, is a dog-in-the-manger attitudes.

It is the duty of every citizen to back these students in their aims to obtain added education so they can provide a better world for their children in turn.

New "Compact" Bottle Makes First Appearance

The convenient "compact" new beer bottle will make its appearance in British Columbia April 3rd, the Brewing Industry announced today. Commencing with Vancouver, this new bottle will replace the long-neck bottle throughout the province within approximately a week.

The changeover from the old to the compact bottle will complete a program of long-term research by the brewing and glass industries to design a better bottle for beer. The result is the compact bottle which offers many advantages over the long-necked bottle.

It is three inches shorter, weighs less and is slightly greater in diameter than the long-neck bottle, but it holds exactly the same amount of beer— 12 ounces

Because of its reduced height, the compact bottle stores more easily in home refrigerators and licensed premise... and tips less readily. The improved design ensures faster chilling.

With the compact bottle will come a new look in beer cartons-25 percent smaller, neater and easier to carry and store. They are lighter, too. A case of 12 new bottles weighs approximately 2 pounds less than 12 of the old.

The Brewing Industry of British Columbia emphasized that the compact bottle is a returnable bottle. They also stated that adequate time would be allowed customers to return the long-neck bottles for refund.

The reception by beer drinkers of the compact bottle, which was introduced in Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime provinces some months ago, has been excellent, the Dominion Brewer's Association has said. Careful studies of consumer reaction carried out by the Brewer's Association showed beyond a doubt that there was a broad consumer satisfaction with the compact shape of the bottle and the convenience produced by the neater and lighter weight cartons in which it is packaged.

A MESSAGE FROM F. H. "TOBY" JACKSON

Your Choice in this Riding is Between the Liberal Party and the NDP

DO YOU WANT

- More work, more jobs, more industry in Delta, Langley, New Westminster, Surrey and White Rock?
- Pensions rising on a definite plan to provide retirement at 65 on half pay?
- Family allowances until high school graduation?
- Financial help for vocational and university training for our young people?
- Re-training on the job for workers threatened by unemployment because of automation?
- A medical care plan for all Canadians?

THESE ARE THE THINGS I BELIEVE IN AND STAND FOR

They are measures I will fight for as Liberal policy. The Liberal Party is the only party that can do the job.

The NDP even last year could get the support of only 19 of the 265 ridings in Canada. Its leader could not get elected in his own riding in Saskatchewan.

The NDP cannot possibly form a government. Therefore the NDP cannot take practical action to help you.

The Liberal Party WILL take practical action. The measures we want—you and I—are in the Liberal Program. The Liberal Program is a definite, practical plan of progressive action in the four years of the next Parliament you elect.

The Liberal Party is the only party that can form a majority government. As your representative at Ottawa, I WILL BE ABLE TO GET THINGS DONE.

If you have any questions, I hope we can meet during the campaign and I will try to answer them.

GOLDRUSHER TOO WAS FIT TO HIKE

ed. note: With the 'Langley Walk' and J.F.K.'s fitness programme. we thought we should include an experts opinion on walking, which we stole from the White Horse Star.

Minneapolis people are foolish to walk long distances today when they don't have to, says a man who passed his physical fitness test in 1897.

George Kemme, 90, has license to comment on the hiking craze He walked 600 miles from Dawson City, Y. T., to Dyea, near Skagway, while in the north for the goldrush.

Necessity was the only reason he made the hike. Facing a winter of food shortages in the prospecting town of Dawson, Kemme hiked on the frozen Yukon River and over to Dyea on the Lynn Canal. "I didn't have the money to buy a dog sled and dog teams, but I did have good legs and good feet," he said.

The trip took 38 days and when Kemme started out his pack weighed 100 pounds. In old newspaper clippings Kemme is called "the first man ever to walk out of Dawson."

He lived on boiled rice and bacon and encountered temperatures from 40 to 60 below. One of the biggest problems was finding paths among the 25-foot high ice masses which had formed on the river.

Legislative Report

By Camille Mather, M.L.A. Delta

The business of the Legislature was carried on last week with the completion of the Estimates of Health Services, Mental Health and B.C.H.I.S. This was a fairly contentious department and gave rise to much questioning, some criticism and some praise.

Several members debated on the lack of hospital beds and especially beds for those chronically ill. Facing any illness is an emotional as well as a financial drain and when nursing and medical services run into weeks and months the situation can become a serious economic problem.

The Mental Health Services were the subject of much discussion. The trend is toward more open wards in our large mental institution of Essondale, and there is encouragement of voluntary admission to Crease Clinic. The establishment for some years of the Mental Health Centre in Burnaby has been of great assistance in treatment before admission to an institution becomes necessary.

There was a strong feeling that early recognition of mental illness, and greater preventative measures are vital to halt the increase of mental breakdowns in our Society.

The refusal of the Minister of Health to give information on the number of children on the waiting list for Woodlands was hotly challenged. It is suspected the list of names has increased to more than 800. This is a tragic situation to parents and to families who find it almost impossible to cope with the severely retarded child in the home.

Generally speaking the B.C. Public Health program is satisfactory. The control of T.B., comprehensive polio innoculation, and the many well baby clinics throughout the Province have done much to prevent or control the incidence of disease. To my thinking this is an example of what can be accomplished by the application of the principles of a comphrensive Medical Care Plan.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

We question the wisdom of the B.C. Cabinet's policy regarding the Govt. Liquor Store in Brentwood, Burnaby.

As there are several modern Govt. liquor stores nearby, why has Canada's LARGEST and ONLY self service liquor store been forced upon this small community?

Surely it is the duty of the Premier and his Cabinet to protect our homes from the liquor traffic.

Why has the Premier and his Cabinet Ministers ignored our signed petitions and refused to meet a delegation?

We believe this matter deserves IMMEDIATE ATTENTION.

Good Neighbors

ed. note: I am sure the people in Burnaby will go to bat for we residents of Aldergrove. It would be an idea gesture, on their part to recommend to Mr. Bennett and Company to force a Liquor store onto us. I am sure we would be able to suffer the indignities.

Langley Rotary & Harris Win Soccer Championship

Before a crowd of approximately 120 spectators, Otter Merchants and Langley Rotary battled it out last Saturday for the championship of the Langley and District Juvenile Boys' Soccer Association competition.

It was a game of excitement and thrills for the crowd and one of strong defense versus keen and virile attack as far as the players were concerned. In the first half of the game, Otter had the advantage of the downhill slope of the ground but were not so dangerous as the Rotary boys who missed scoring chances on one or two occasions. At half time there was no score but Otter were quick to settle down to the attack, as Peter Braun, Joe Wright and Terry Brett invaded Rotary territory. However, the strong defense of David Geary and Glen Jacobson, plus the fine goaltending of John Hruby, kept the Otter team from scoring. Terry Brett came very near it once or twice as the ball came winging over from right to left.

Five minutes from the end of the game, with still no score, a break came for the Rotary team as centre half Doug Hughes took the ball and pushed it up the middle to David Horton, and then within a few seconds Hughes capitalized on Horton's play, by crashing home the winning goal.

Councillor Eric Flowerdew was somewhat reluctant to present the Langley Advance Trophy to the Rotary team, as he is an Otter man himself, however, he was quick to congratulate both losers and winners.

In the afternoon, the championship of division B was also settled as Harris Shop Easy defeated Langley Lumber, one goal to nil. This too, was an exciting game, made all the more so by the fact that on an adjoining pitch, Glenwood, the second team in the division was trailing Shop Easy by only one point and any major upset in the results could have given Glenwood the trophy.

Glenwood beat Milner, two goals to nil but had to be satisfied with the runner-up position in the league.

Mayor John Condor presented the Fred Dams Trophy to the Shop Easy team and to the losers his remark was that in losing, they had gained humility.

In other games, Aldergrove Firefighters went down by eight goals to Willoughby.

Now that league play has finished, the teams go into a knock-out competition and the two divisions will hold separate contests. In the draw made last Saturday, Aldergrove A will meet Otter in Langley, Langley Pinky meets West Langley, Rotary meets Fort Langley, and Langley Athletic gets a bye. In Division B, Aldergrove Firefighters will meet Glenwood at Langley, Shop Easy meets Willoughby and Murrayville at Milner.

At the conclusion of the competition a six-a-side contest will be held. This is a one day affair for the Gardiner Pharmacy Trophy.

... Susie's Sallies ...

by ADA MAE DUECK

Let's start the day by congratulating the MEI basketball team on their well deserved victory. It is a feather in the cap of the entire Valley to have our teenagers achieve top honors in any of the sports fields. The boss of my house asked me after the game the other night if I had ever played basketball. Did I ever. I was the worst guard in basketball history. I played volleyball too and badminton, still play tennis, all very badly. It seems that I can only do one thing well or at least consistently. That is talk, either with my tongue or typewriter.

Read in Susies scrapbook that a remedy for that foggy feeling is a minute or two at the open door or at a window, taking in long deep breaths of good spring air. There are some days when I would have to spend so much time at the window would likely catch pneumonia. Do you ever have days like that, I find they usually occurr on Monday when the horse balks at having to get back into harness.

Words of wisdom from Susies Scrapbook say that if some people got their rights they would complain of being deprived of their wrongs.

I almost hate to say anything but we at the office seem to have licked the nicotine habit. Jack walks around with a pipe between his teeth but never has anything in it, I think that is supposed to be a secret but you won't tell will you?

Oh! I wouldn't want people to think I have forgotten the Irish, wherever you are. In case you read this, as you said you would. I tried to get the paper printed in green ink this week but didn't succeed. I think my mother is a leprochaun, her birthday was on March 16th, and a more mischievous, sprightly person you have never met. She is even little too, that is a sore point with me as I am a good four inches taller and thirty pounds heavier than her. Being a big girl takes a lot of getting used to, I haven't quite made it. But back to mother, I'll even tell you how old she is, seeing as how I am giving away secrets. (You are braver than I thought.) She is 45 years and four days. Her youth used to be a bone of contention with my brother and I. When we were in school we used to be ashamed of her because she had no grey hair, we didn't think she was as smart as other mothers. She could run faster, play marbles and baseball better than other mothers though, and still can. The only thing she never could do despite hours of practice, was ride a bicycle and now it doesn't matter any more.

Canada's whole future as an independent world power depends on YOUR vote . . . we must be free to make our own decisions on nuclear policy . . . we must continue our economic growth . . . we must have a strong, effective government with a clear mandate to guide Canada through the most momentous years in her history.

Under your Conservative government, even hampered by Opposition parties wilfully "playing politics", Canada has continued to grow . . . and grow stronger. In 1962 our export trade shot up 7% . . . our gross national product rose 8% . . . our personal income increased 6%. We have, thanks to firm Conservative policies, the fastest growing, healthiest economy in the Western world.

NATURE'S SCRAPBOOK

When Bison Roamed B.C.

The bison or buffalo is usually associated with the sweeping plains or prairie country and it is not generally known that these animals once occupied the extreme northern parts of British Columbia. The northern bison were larger and darker than the plains bison. According to "Wildlife Review", they are known to have ranged as far west as Atlin Lake in the extreme northwestern corner of our province. Plains bison roamed in uncounted millions on the grasslands of our North American plains in Indian times and their ruthless slaughter stands as one of the great wildlife tragedies of history. The plains bison penetrated into southeastern British Columbia in areas where mountain passes and alpine meadows extended into the province from Alberta.

Top Ranking Industry

Wood and wood products are big business in Canada. Their out put is equalled in importance only by agriculture and outranks mining production by two to one. Net value of the Canadian forest products industries exceeds two and a half billion dollars. Our forest industries annually account for over 250,000 man-yearr of employment, in the woods, in sawmills and in wood using operations. The annual payroll is over 1¼ billion dollars and some 8,000 firms are involved.

Grow Your Own

If radishes in your area are hard to come by at certain times of the year, grow your own. Fill a planter with potting soil, sprinkle a few seeds over the surface, then cover with ¼ inch of soil and keep slightly moist until seeds sprout. Keep plants cool and in sun for best growth.

WIFE DECIDES TO VOTE

"Have you decided who you are going to vote for?" I asked my wife over the breakfast table.

"Oh! yes." she said. "I am going to vote for Bennett and Gaglardi, I think they're fine, even though everyone picks on them."

"Look darling." I said reprovingly. "I've told you a hundred ruddy times that this is a federal election, not a provincial. Bennett and Gaglardi are not running this election, just Diefenbaker, Pearson, Thompson and the NDP whoever the leader of that party is, I've forgotten, I think it's Douglas."

"Well I won't vote for Diefenbaker," she explained. "Every time he makes a speech I feel I must say 'Amen' when he is finished. He should have been an Evangelist or something like that, besides he didn't honor his committments, so it said in the paper and they should know shouldn't they?"

"Have you thought about voting for the Liberal party?" I suggested. "Mr. Pearson is the leader of that . . . You know, the Nobel prize winner who wrote a book on peace."

Isn't that the man who got fifty thousand dollars just for writing a book on peace and now wants us to have atom bombs and missiles in Canada. Why that man is nothing but a chamelon, always changing color if threatened." said she, busily munching a well buttered piece of toast. "Besides, I don't mind the atom bombs as long as they keep them in Montreal, it's always cold down there isn't it?"

"Yes." I said very patiently. "It does get cold in Montreal, but we were talking about the election, remember?"

"Oh!" said she, putting three heaping spoons of sugar in her coffee. "Oh! I'd forgotten."

"Well!" I said "How about the Social Credit party and Real Caouette?"

"Who's Real Cute?" says the spouse, "Bennett and Gaglardi own the Social Credit party, not Cute."

"Sorry." I said hastily swallowing the porridge in my mouth. "Mr. Caouette is the leader of the federal Social Credit party, not the provincial. Why can't you get that into your head? At least, he is the provincial leader in Quebec, the leader is Mr. Thompson, at least he is supposed to be, I think. Suppose we just vote for the NDP. Mr. Douglas is the leader of them. You remember him, don't you."

"No I don't." she said as she looked for the last piece of toast, which I had just consumed. "Did you eat it?"

"Pig." she said and rose from the table to put more slices in the toaster. "Pig."

"Well!" I said "We must decide for whom we are going to vote although it may be a waste of time to vote for anyone. What do you think we should do, Light of my Life?"

"I don't know what you are going to do," she said. "Me, I am going to vote for Mr. Bennett and Mr. Gaglardi. I like them best."

Construction of an average frame home consumes approximately 12,000 board feet of lumber.

LETTER FROM OTTAWA

WALTER L. GORDON

OTTAWA MARCH 1963

A PROGRAM FOR MORE JOBS

Dear Friends:

The great challenge in the next few years is the need to provide jobs for those who haven't got them now and for the hundreds of thousands of students who will be graduating from our schools and universities.

There is no easy solution to this problem. Higher tariffs are not the answer. Free trade is not the answer. What is required is a hard-headed pragmatic approach, industry by industry. This in brief outline is the Liberal Party's program:

1. — First of all we must strengthen and encourage secondary manufacturing industry in Canada. A Department of Industry will be established at Ottawa to work out, industry by industry, ways of producing more goods in Canada either for export or the domestic market. It will do this with the help of management and the trade unions concerned.

2. — Our problems must be examined and dealt with regionally as well as nationally. If a Liberal Government is elected this will be done through a federal agency for area development. This agency will be responsible for seeing that special consideration is given in all plans for economic expansion to those parts of the country that are in trouble.

3. — A new Liberal Government will establish a Municipal Development and Loan Fund. With the approval of the provinces concerned, its purpose will be to provide the municipalities with funds at moderate rates of interest so that they may get ahead with needed public works and services. This is greatly preferable to keeping people on relief. And in the long run, it probably will not cost as much.

4. — Fourthly, there is the problem of providing capital for new developments and for the expansion of existing plants. Where this can be done by private sources in the usual way, it will be so much the better. But when this proves to be impossible for one reason or another, then an alternative must be found. For this purpose, a National Development Corporation will be created by a new Liberal Government which will assist in the expansion of all kinds of productive industry.

5. — New discoveries and new technology can greatly benefit the human race but such development means that some industries become obsolescent. As a result, some people lose their jobs. Many others become fearful because their jobs may be less secure than they once were. After the war, tremendous efforts were made to train and re-train people for jobs in civilian life. The same thing is needed now.

6. — Finally, a new Liberal Government will work with other countries of the free world — including our friends in Britain and in the United States — in seeking ways to expand trade. This is essential for a great trading nation like ours in which one out of every five Canadians is dependent on exports for his job.

These are six points in a comprehensive program for the expansion of Canadian industry and the provision of more jobs. One more ingredient should be added to make this program effective. And that is a government that knows where it is going; is prepared to make decisions and has enough drive and energy to press its policies through to a conclusion. A Liberal Government with Mr. Pearson at its head will be that kind of government.

Yours sincerely

W L Gordon

Arie de Ruiter Resigns Strikes Out on His Own

The B.C. Egg Producers Association is presently without a vice-president and secretary due to the withdrawal of Arie de Ruiter, who handed in his resignation shortly after the March 12th general meeting.

The News is informed that he does not expect the Association to accomplish what it's primary purpose was, the institution of a B.C. Egg Marketing Board. There is not too much opposition it is very active and united The supporters are not displaying the same faith in what they believe in, which would indicate that the Egg Producers are not ready for an Egg Marketing Board.

Mr. de Ruiter was the main organizer of the Association, which started when the Minister of Agriculture insisted on such an organization last fall, before he would allow the Egg Producers to have a plebiscite for or against an Egg Control Board

In his letter of resignation to the president of the association, de Ruiter states that he would be able to serve the industry better if he was relieved from his post.

He has already started to work on one of his personal ideas, the institution of an "Over and Short" Egg Reporting System. Egg dealers from all over B.C. will report to him, by mail, once per week, advising what their situation is as to surplus or shortage of eggs. The information is compiled and listed in an "Over and Short" Bulletin, which will be mailed to all of those who report. Others, such as producers feed stores, hatcheries, etc., can subscribe to the Bulletin if they wish. When the new egg reporting system is in full operation, everyone in the industry will know where to get B.C. eggs when he is short and vice versa. The overall picture, as a result of the system, would be very helpful in keeping egg prices at a higher level, de Ruiter claims.

He first discussed the system with a number of wholesalers and producer vendors, who support him unanimously and is now organizing all of the province.

KITCHEN NEWS

There are chores galore in your kitchen, but an attractive environment, culinary short cuts and efficient, good looking utensils can go a long way to taking most of the work out of meal preparation.

A few flowers or a plant, for example, achieve an atmosphere of springtime the year 'round. Straw mats come in a rainbow of colors and are an easy and inexpensive way to add bright accents. And a bowl of fresh fruit creates an appetizing lift for both the palate, and eye.

For that quick, refreshing cup of tea, there's a brand new, small whistling tea kettle that looks as cheerful as it sounds. Revere Ware designed the new utensil in a handy, 6-cup size perfect for boiling water for a few cups of tea, instant coffee or bullion. It's finished in gleaming stainless steel, with efficient copper bottom for fast heat, and has a push button spout for cool, comfortable pouring. Moderately priced at about $4.50, this kitchen accessory makes a thoughtful and lasting gift, too.

Double-duty utensils, such as casseroles and double boilers, save both storage space and work. With this in mind, Revere Ware has designed a versatile new steamer-inset which doubles as a colander. Finished in easy-to-care-for stainless steel, the convenient 3-quart size fits into a 4 or 5-quart sauce pan, and is ample for the preparation of family-size quantities of fresh or frozen vegetables.

If you have a tiny kitchen, a wall pegboard for pots and pans frees cabinet space and saves bending and stooping. Or put a condiment shelf over the stove. You'll also find that good lighting makes a small room seem larger, and eases that cramped feeling by keeping you from working in your own shadow.

EGG RECIPE

EGG AND MACARONI CAKE
2 eggs (for 2 people)
1 cup boiled spagetti or macaroni
1 tsp. chopped onions
2 cut up tomatoes
Butter, oil or fat
1 tsp. chopped parsley

METHOD

Beat eggs vigorously, stir tomatoe, parsley and raw onion with macaroni. Put some fat in pan. Raise heat to temperature hotter than for omelette. Pour mixture in quickly over pan so it is distributed evenly. Pierce here and there to allow grease to trickle beneath. When one side is cooked turn over and cook other side. Grated cheese sprinkled over can also be added.

Accident Vaccine?

WELL, NOT EXACTLY. Ten years ago, polio was a major killer of youth; today, vaccine has made the disease a comparative rarity. But, even when polio was claiming lives by the hundreds, traffic accidents were killing more people under 25 than any other single cause of death—and they still are.

Do we have an accident vaccine?

No. People can't be vaccinated against accidents, but the toll can be reduced through the teaching of correct driving habits—and safety habits—to our teen-age population at the formative stages in their lives.

This is what the automobile insurance business does through its sponsorship of the National Teen-age Safe Driving Championship—the culmination of a coast-to-coast series of safe driving competitions involving more than 30,000 young drivers in 225 Canadian communities each year.

LANGLEY BRANCH NO. 21

A farewell supper was given last Monday, for Canon T.E. Harris by the Executive Members and Past Presidents of the Branch. "Tommy Harris has been our Padre for 17 years and we are indeed sorry to be losing him.

Until recently we had been giving in these notes the names of all local vets known to be in the hospital, but we now give names of Legion members only. The change met with the approval almost unanamously at the monthly meeting last week, They will all, members and non-members, still be visited and recieve gifts out of Branch funds. The fact is that more than half of those applying for advice and assistance in pension matters etc. are not Legion members, and sooner or later we and other branches will have to consider whether the 25 percent of vets who are Legion members can go on carrying the 75 percent who are not.The remarks do not of course apply to the Poppy Fund which is available and will always be, for the relief of distress, without any discrimination.

Comrades Jim Marriott and John McComb are in Shaughnessy. George Wood is in the Langley Memorial Hospital, and Van Hedlund continues to make progress in the Pearson.

Comrade Roy King has been awarded his 25-year badge, but so far he has not been able to come along and have it formally presented to him at a General meeting.

Comrades F.L. Foster, C.A. Avison, W.J.F. Emslie and S. Tyers were initiated last week by the President. We welcome also new Comrades W.J. Willey, E.G. Cronk, J.A. Powell and G.R. Southam, who has returned to the fold.

We still have too many 1963 membership cards in the office We will mention again that Gordon Tout will take your dues and give an official receipt if is inconvenient to come to the Legion. He will also accept all the pocket books you can spare for Shaughnessy. A word of thanks is overdue for all the help he gives us in this way.

We hear that a new Branch of the Legion is being formed in Aldergrove and we wish it success. We hope, however, that its membership will be recruited mainly from the 75 percent of vets who are not already Legion members, rather than by transfer from other branches. We have many keen members in the district whom we cannot afford to lose, amongst them our No. 1 Poppy and raffle ticket seller, who would not like us to mention him by name.

ABBOTSFORD BRANCH NO. 15

—by E.M. Edwarrd

At the general meeting, Thurs., March 14th, the membership moved further financial support to carry on the Junior Olympic Training Plan which was so successful, from a cold start, last year under the able management of Comrade John Bryde of Sumas and other willing helpers. Branch voted to send John Bryde and Dick Peters of Matsqui to the J.O.T.P. Clinic. being held in Victoria April 15, 16 and 17, sponsored by Royal Canadian Legion and directed by Geoffry H.G. Dyson the dynamic ex-chief of the National Coaches to the English A.A.U.

The latter has been signed to a five-year contract and is expected to get the J.O.T.P. over the top in short order. His headquarters is in Ottawa but he will conduct clinics throughout the country, at which interested parties learn to get the best out of the young aspiring athletes and get them started on proper training programes. As may well be expected help will be most acceptable from any interested parties, as this program is not restricted to Legion members in any way.

The meeting also instructed the delegates to the forth-coming zone meeting to cast our representative vote in favor of granting the charter to the Aldergrove Branch, now in it's formative stages. We would like to congatulate the Comrades who have done the initial organization at Aldergrove. We feel sure that in years to come that Aldergrove will benifit to a high degree, community-wise, from the efforts of a Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion.

Besides the internal veteran work, the Abbotsford Branch has contributed, among other efforts, perennial softball and soccer programmes, involving many local children. Our representatives actively assisted the Red Cross, Cancer Society, C.N.I.B. etc. and established the first local pipe band to fill a need in the community.

This is the type of benifits you may expect by supporting your local Branch of the Legion, for by and large veterans are community minded. If they had not, they would not have been veterans to begin with.

As days grow longer, plants getting more sunshine should receive more water, but they still should not be overwatered.

THE FIFTH COLUMN

By Joanne Moeller

Well, Belbriggan Bay, is now in the past I am happy to say, though, that it was a huge success, each and every member of the cast, the band, Mr. and Mrs. Bunt, Mr. Featherstonhaugh, and everyone else who had anything to do with production should be given the fullest credit for this. Our warmest thanks goes to Mr. Leonard Woods and Miss Joan Buckley who wrote the play and composed the music for the entire operetta.

The annual staff has just passed another of their deadlines (they made it!) and are now relaxing for perhaps a day before they begin running about again. Being the sponsor of such an undertaking must be a terrible headache, not to mention how the editor must feel. But think of the finished product, then you'll realize that all your work was for something.

P.E. examinations are over at long last, sometimes it seems they may last forever. Of all the many things we are required to do, I think that jump-squats are by far the worst and I know many who hold an identical opinion.

Easter examinations begin officially on March 29 and continue over to the end of the next week. An ordinary week is very short, I've found, but there's something about exam week that seems to double the time. Go ahead, Beryl, and push him and his exam into the lake, see where it gets you.

I'd like to write more but I really don't see where it will get me, especially when there is nothing else to say. Nothing except the fact that you had better start studying, unless you feel there is no need, or no use.
