CARS NEEDED

Transportation for donors to the Blood Donor's Clinic in Langley, is needed desperately. Anyone having cars available next Monday October 22 between the hours of 1:30 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. are asked to call Haid's at 856-3215 or the Aldergrove News 856-8170. Any donors who have no means of transportation should contact either of these numbers.

The recent typhoon, Freda makes us realize how dependent we have become on utilities. How helpless we are without electricity. The News Office had to close it's doors Saturday. This was only one instance where the reliance on electricity brought matters to a complete halt.

Some of the country folk were luckier than we who dwell in town. They had their own light, wood, coal, or oil for heat and cooking. However my sympathies go out to the poor folks who were faced with the predicament of having their out-house turned upside down.

The resourcefulness of some people really amazes me. Some folks who were cut off from their usual water source used their swimming pool water to feed the stock until the storm damage had been repaired. Just goes to show the value of having a swimming pool in dear old Grove.

According to estimates the new grader, which travels at 28 miles per hour, should be about due to haul into Fort William anytime. Must be nice to have such a speedy piece of machinery. Too bad it hadn't dropped it's blade on the way through Aldergrove!

The storms of the weekend gave little heed to anyone and many a person suffered from it. Abe Friesen had a pear tree, his pride and joy, it gave its first yield of several buckets when Dame Nature in her relentless fury brought an end to Abe's dreams of succulet desserts in future years.

One of our citizens spent the stormy night outside gathering papers off the main drag. The gesture was nice but I think Cor prefers dry cleaning to street cleaning.

The puzzle has been guessed. The correct answer was 'Maracas' a Latin American musical instrument. Scott Agrignon guessed it. This week the puzzle will be a cinch so let's hear the guesses. It is now back to the one week deal of a year's subscription new, or renewal.

Can you imagine the roots of a tree dwarfing some people. We saw a picture of it dwarfing a certain someone. Seems impossible but it's true. There is a picture to prove it!

CROSSLAND ODDY

Two Man Posse Routes Rustlers

Shadows of the old West came back to reality last week for John Wellman, Langley, and Mark Shuster, Otter Road, Aldergrove, when some cattle they had purchased were found missing, from Gibson's barns on Thursday morning.

Wellman and Shuster had purchased 5 head of cattle on Wednesday and had put them in Gibson's barns to be picked up the following day. Upon arriving at the barns it was found that the cattle were missing. Both men, with their ire raised, set out to track down the 'ornery varmits'.

After an intensive search of the countryside (range), the two trackers finally traced their cattle to a field on South Berry Rd. Not being as bloodthirsty as the olden day cattlemen, Shuster and Wellman notified the R.C.M.P in Langley City who picked up the miscreants.

Arrested on a charge of theft of cattle are Thomas Brooks and William Fletcher both of the Langley District.

The cattle were recovered in a field belonging to Brooks.

TYPHOON DEVASTATION

Dingley Elected President Of Aldergrove Chamber

The meeting was opened by Dr. S. P. Findlay, who announced that due to to the interruption of the regular meeting on October 1st it would be a continuance with the dispensing of the reading of the minutes and other business completed at the last meeting.

Correspondence was read with a letter being received by the Chamber from the Red Cross Society concerning the Blood Donors Clinic in Langley City. The Society requested the support of the Chamber in their drive. The Chamber unanamously voted their support.

A letter from the Totemland Society was read to the Chamber. They requested the Aldergrove Chamber support them in their stand to display Totemland on licence plates in preference to the proposed B.C. the Beautiful which has been strongly suggested. It was stated that the historical significance of the Totem poles was the most applicable manner in which to draw attention to B.C. The Chamber voted to endorse this as the term Beautiful was general.

Word was received that the St. Martin Glee Club Singers, from Olympia, Washington, were seeking the support of the Chamber in staging a concert in the Aldergrove High School auditorium, Saturday December 8th The Club suggested the Chamber be responsible for the selling of tickets and they would supply their advance billing and advertising. The Chamber and Club would operate on a 50—50 net profit basis. The Chamber decided to sponsor the Club on these basis.

Mr. Frank Frizzell, who attended the Associate Chamber of Commerce meet in September at the Royal Towers Hotel in New Westminster, gave his report on the meeting to the Chamber. Mr. Frizzell reported that many plans and resolutions were discussed and adopted and that the meeting proved very

Typhoon Freda, raged through British Columbia last weekend leaving in it's wake complete havoc. Lives were lost, communications were destroyed, power was cut off and property damage mounted to millions as the typhoon gave vent to it's fury and ravaged this coastal portion of the province.

In the surrounding areas on Saturday morning after the storm abated, people found themselves faced with the bleak prospect of loss of their entire means of living. Some of the hardest hit were the poultrymen who found themselves without facilities to maintain their flocks.

Home owners were faced with repairs and the disheartening sight of hours of labour lost to the wiles of fickle Typhoon Freda.

Listed here are only a few of the reports which have come in and there are many more unknown up-to date.

The Elmer Bankz lost six of their pups of blooded stock. Fences and wires were blown down, and many an anxious moment the Bankz experienced until their fences were back up and their breeding stock safe.

D. Friesen had the roof of his chicken house blown away and 4,000 Broilers were lost due to exposure.

The Oasis sign blew down and the door was torn from it's hinges.

Telephone communications and power was cut off for many hours, some of the repairs still have not been completed..

Shingles were torn off many homes, including Aldergrove Lumber Co. and TV aerials twisted to look like figures of fantasy.

The Reynolds were in the process of building a barn. The portion erected was literally scattered throughout the countryside.

Smolne's garage damaged beyond repair and all fences blown down.

Schroters property loss of $500 or more, facing probable future loss.

Daisy Dell Poultry on LeFeuvre Road were forced to haul water pail by pail, 250 or more for their layers. All members of the family were pressed into the job of saving the poultry.

These are only some of the damages left after the storm. Many were far greater than these, some of the fortunate had slight damage, but the extent of the damage will never be fully assessed. This storm made men realize how insignificant they are against a storm such as this.

Helen Hagnes to Make Musical Debut October 30

By Margaret Green

A young lady who has grown up in this area and is attending school in Abbotsford district, will make her musical debut at the Queen Elizabeth Playhouse in Vancouver on October 30th, 1962. She is Miss Helen Hagnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hagnes, Trans-Canada Highway, R.R. 2, Aldergrove. Helen is being presented by her teacher, Mr. Douglas Stewart, in a violin recital. Her accompanist will be Margo Cross.

Besides an impressive list of recent awards for her violin playing young Miss Hagnes manages to attain "A" rating in her studies at junior high school. She first won musical awards for piano and voice at the early age of 7 or 8, in Fraser Valley festivals. Then she switched to the violin and continued to win trophies in this new field of music.

Since 1960 her awards have been as follows: 1960—First Place in violin class under 12; 1961—the same in the under 14 group and repeated in 1962 in the under 16 class. In 1960—1961 she won the Margaret McCraney Ferguson Junior Championship Cup. In 1960, 1961 and 1962 she won the Margaret Stewart Memorial Trophy for the highest marks in all string classes. Red Shield Appeal Starts

The Salvation Army's annual appeal for funds is complete, according to Captain E. Deering Campaign chairman. The general canvass will begin on Monday next, October 22nd.

National Objective for the 1962 Red Shield Appeal is $2,861 152.00 This is the amount needed to meet the deficit incurred in a year's operation of more than 100 social service institutions. Local quota is $4,000.00, the campaign chairman stated.

Special committees have already gone into action, Captain Deering revealed, and all workers believe this year's appeal will be the most successful yet.

Father Sorel Appointed St. Ann's New Pastor

The Reverend Father Oswald F. Sorel arrived in Aldergrove recently to take over the St. Ann's Catholic Church parish. He replaces Father Bohnenberger who was transferred to Hope.

Father Sorel was born in Southbridge. Mass., U.S.A., and he and his family moved to Connecticut where he spent the rest of his youth. He was educated in the St. Mary's Parochial School and the Putnam High School in Putnam, Conn.

After leaving school, Father Sorel worked at different jobs until the outbreak of war. He joined the United States Army and saw action in North Africa and Italy. He was discharged in 1945.

Upon receiving his discharge, Father Sorel began his studies for the priesthood at the Sacred Heart Seminary outside Quebec. He went on to take Phylosophy in Montreal and graduated in Theology from the Laval University in Quebec.

Father Sorel was ordained in June of 1957 in the Arch Diocese of Vancouver. Upon his ordination he served as curate to St. Joseph's Powell River; St. Patrick's Vancouver; Precious Blood, Cloverdale, the Holy Rosary Cathedral, Vancouver. Father Sorel's first pastorate was at St. Joseph's in Squamish.

It is Father Sorel's wish that he can serve the parishoners and aid and adminster to their needs. His one other wish is, that should there come a day when his duties to his parish permit, he will find an opportunity to visit his aging parents back in Putnam, Conn.

Father Sorel has only just arrived in his parish. However parishoners and residents of the area were deeply impressed by his sincerity and ability to brighten the day with his jovial disposition.

TWO INJURED—Six vehicles and a power pole were damaged in an accident at 12:45 a.m. Sunday morning out near Aberdeen Road on the Trans-Canada Highway. Two cars, one driven by Dorothy Baker, Vancouver, and a car owned by George Omelaniec, Aldergrove, were involved in a collision. The Omelaniec vehicle took to the ditch and snapped off a power pole before damaging four other parked cars. The Omelaniec and Baker cars were extensively damaged. The power pole was completely snapped off and the four parked vehicles were damaged from light to heavy extent. It is estimated that more than $6,000 damage resulted from the accident. Omelaniec and an occupant of his car were the only ones who sustained injuries. They were taken to the M.S.A. Hospital where they are being held under observation. The Matsqui Municipal Police are investigating the accident.

THE ROAD OF NO RETURN—ALMOST

It was with a deep sigh of relief that I returned to Aldergrove last Thanksgiving Day. Indeed, I had something to be truly thankful for. I was alive and able to appreciate the fact that my family was also alive, with no thanks to the B.C. drivers.

Last week in the "Around Town" column I mentioned that there was no doubt B.C. has the world's worst drivers. Perhaps I should clarify that statement.

Having an invitation to attend a turkey supper in Chilliwack, my family and I took off in happy anticipation of spending some time with relatives and share the traditional turkey supper However, no sooner had we hit the pavement than what started out as a happy event proved to be a harrowing trip with death staring us constantly in the face for some thirty miles.

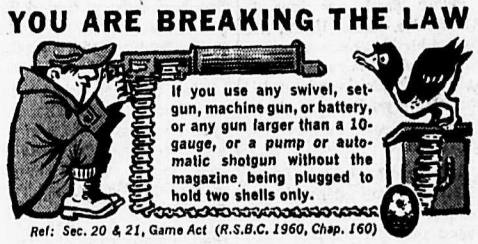
Drivers with no care or concern and a heavy foot on the gas, made it their aim to see that we never reached our destination. They pulled out of oncoming traffic to pass, where it was only a matter of good fortune, that seems to tag the foolhardy, they were able to squeeze back in. They attempted to pass on curves, solid lines and any other hazardous place that was available. We were faced time after time by the onrushing maniacs whose want, it seemed, was for our destruction. It was only by luck and alert driving on the part of our driver that we didn't make gory headlines.

Now, is there any question as to the statement of B.C. having the world's worst drivers? Not all B.C. drivers are like that, but they seem more plentiful than in other parts of the country.

These drivers should be banned from the roads. This should not be as punishment to them but to save the innocent who usually seem to get the worst of it.

Now can you see why I have reason to complain? Can you realize the relief of getting back home? For the people who do these rash and stupid manoeuvres there is no cure but banishment from the highways for life. The potential danger of their driving is as bad as an attempt on another person's life in any other manner.

YOU ARE BREAKING THE LAW



Ref: Sec. 20 & 21, Game Act (R.S.B.C. 1960, Chap. 160)

Mather Comments

By Camille Mather, MLA, Delta

On Thursday, October 4th, the new Education Building was formally opened on the UBC Campus by President of the University, Dr. John MacDonald, who in his speech warned against ease of living and intellectual laziness.

I am sure that there is more than one of the older generation looking back on the days when he was a young man and deploring the activities, or apparent lack of activities of today's youth. However, would it not seem odd if man did not take advantage of the tremendous aids to lighten back-breaking and endless drudgery, resulting in men and women growing old and worn out before their time?

Take the farm, for instance—would any farmer willingly go back to milking 20 or 30 cows by hand—not make use of the excellent machinery to sow the crops—harvest and store the produce of the field and meadow? One of the great projects of the 'have' countries is to provide the underdeveloped lands with equipment so they no longer have to scratch the earth with a stick to grow the foodstuffs they need. And what of the farmer's wife? Must she go back to coal oil lamps—carry all the water—do without electricity—engage again in the endless wash days when the laundry was done by hand?

In the Industrial field there would be a great outcry if the perfection of mechanical assistance was to be denied. Most of the work in large hydro plants, telephone stations, gas and oil refinery layouts, is done today by a handful of men—the rest by machinery. The reason, of course, is that it is cheaper and saves money.

It may just as well be said that we should give up our cars and go back to bicycles—only, of course, bicycles are also so-called modern inventions. What about automatic washers, dryers, floor-polishers, and all the aids to good housekeeping? And what would happen to the manufacturers if no one bought these gadgets? No indeed! Man's ingenuity has produced these skillful pieces of equipment, and I, for one, am only too grateful to use as many as I can.

Up to less than fifty years ago it was considered that a person who did not have an independent income was unable to give full care and attention to either being a scholar, a poet, an historian, or take part in politics. It was considered an advantage not to have to work and to be able to devote full time to the important subject at hand. I believe that "the honest peasant" who worked from dawn to dusk and was portrayed as an honest, happy man, because he loved work so much, was a ruse designed to make the poor labourer satisfied with his lot.

It may be that Dr. MacDonald's fear is that with all the labour-saving devices people will not have enough to do to occupy the leisure time that the machine will provide. This may be a valid concern—and what remains is for education to assume a degree of importance never before ever imagined—of making education a vital factor in our lives.

New Baptist Church Opens on Mt. Lehman Rd.

The Gospel Missionary Association is sponsoring the beginning of a new church in this area, the Faith Baptist Church. Help . . . and Hope for Bill

Dogged by ill-fortune, culminating in unemployment, Bill had to apply for assistance. It was his first time in a Salvation Army Welfare Office and he did not relish the thought of asking for help. But he had at home- a few stern rooms—a wife almost sick with worry, and four children who could not understand why daddy did not go to work. For that matter neither did the father, but he had to accept reality.

The Salvationist talked to him, at the same time sensing that here was a man well worth assistance. Gradually there unfolded a story fraught with tragedy; the desperate struggle to provide rent and clothing and food, to say nothing of the hundred-and-one-things which need to be purchased in a normal household. But, he felt, his was not a normal household any more, so with a sense of shame intermingled with relief, he had approached the "Sally Ann" well known in the war years.

First of all was offered that service which is, perhaps, the most important—the chance for a man or woman to talk out their problems with a worker who knows the answers. Yes! something could be done for them: a generous food order; clothes for the children and a warm coat for the wife, and help with the pressing problem of rent.

When a man realizes he has friends, he has certainly renewed strength of purpose. Bill went out to look for work again.This time he got it!

Council Jottings

An offer to sell 6 acres of gravel land in the vicinity of the Gray and McIvor Roads was made to the municipal council. It is to be inspected by a committee with the idea of purchase.

Frank Brown, a one-man delegate from the Langley Fire Dept. appeared before Council recommending the purchase of a new International truck, for 4,110, to carry the water tank removed from the recently wrecked tanker truck.

The 3 used trucks inspected varied in price from $2,300 to $3,000.

Councillor Roberts, "It is usually poor economy to buy most used trucks—just added expense, after some use, soon adds up to the difference in price of a new truck, plus the possible unreliability of a used truck at the time of need."

A committee headed by the Reeve was named to investigate the matter and given the power to act.

Mr. D. A. Thompson appeared before municipal council to present a petition signed by twelve residents. The petition requested that Warner Road between Jackman and the Bellingham Highway be "re-located, re-constructed, and hard surfaced as soon as possible.

Council referred the matter to the supt. of Public Works for his consideration and placing on the list of work to be done next year.

Erosion of McLarty Road and the Reeve, Supt. Merrell and 2 councillors to investigate the trouble immediately.

The Provincial Comptroller of Water Rights has requested the Salmon River Dyking District to prepare a new assessment roll.

The Court of revision will be held in the municipal hall, Murrayville, B.C. on Thursday, Oct. 25th 1962 at 10 a.m.

If you wish to appeal your assessment, please submit a letter outlining the reason for your complaint to Mr. E. B. Bloedow, Assessor, in advance of the above date.

Two representatives from the B.C. Telephone Co. appeared before the municipal council, at their last meeting, at the request of Councillor Booth, chairman of the Public Utility Committee.

They were asked to explain why their company closed their Langley Office.

They stated that the main reason was that practically all business, other than collections, could be handled over the phone, and this could be supervised more efficiently from their New Westminster office.

Whalley is now the centre for lower Fraser Valley problems, repairs, etc. There is a similar branch at Abbotsford and at Chilliwack, but it is likely that the Abbotsford branch may be closed in the near future.

There is a better grade of service by having the telephone staff under direct supervision and control in a centre.

All information and trouble calls made by the public are free.

The dial supervisors are being picked from employees who have worked in and are familar with local Fraser Valley Centres and local problems.

Asked why the small local telephone directory was now used instead of incorporating the small areas into the Vancouver directory or one similar to it, the company representatives stated that the bigger book requires a longer time to compile and publish, therefore it cannot be kept as efficiently up to date.

It takes longer to find a certain number amongst the much greater numbers listed in the bigger books required to serve a greater area. Directories for other areas if required, will be supplied free upon request, and a Vancouver Directory will be supplied free to those having an average of 10 long distance calls per month.

A list of proposed projects to be presented to the municipal council for 1963 expectations was presented. Among these were the preparing of lanes for paving, sidewalk from the Trans-Canada Highway down Jackman to the New Post Office, suitable signs depicting the whereabouts of Aldergrove on the Highway, and a stop sign at the corner of 29th by the United Church.

The Installation of Officers Banquet was set for Nov. 12 at 7 p.m. sharp. Mayor Beth Wood was forced to decline an invitation as guest speaker due to Armistice Day commitments and it was decided to search for other entertainment.

A motion to send delegates to the Lynden Washington Chamber of Commerce was passed. The reason for this was to discuss plans for the Aldergrove-Bellingham Highway. However it was decided that they should ascertain the plans of the Government on this first, so they would have something concrete to take to Lynden.

The election of officers followed with the vice-presidency being left vacant until the nominating committee could select someone for the position. The officers for the 1963 slate were:—President, Art Dingley; Recording Secretary—Mrs. K. Lehman, Corresponding Secretary—A. B. Rose, Treasurer—Frank Frizzell.

Directors—J. Legault, A. J. Sorenson. J. Nachbar and M. Stacey.

Barkerville Moves to Fort Langley For Douglas Day

Two of the communities which played an important part in the development of this province during the days of the Gold Rush will again be linked on Douglas Day. The Annual Celebration of the founding of B.C. on November 19th, 1858, will feature a portion of the very successful programme which was staged at Barkerville this summer as part of that community's centenary. This revue will be presented to the guests at the banquet to be held in the Community Hall at Fort Langley which will again be attended by Premier W. A. C. Bennett and members of the Provincial Cabinet.

Following the adoption of the Douglas Day Act this celebration became province-wide and has received official recognition. The Provincial Cabinet has participated in the programme each year by holding a Cabinet Meeting at Fort Langley in the restored "Big House" where James Douglas was sworn in as the first Governor of B.C. This annual visit to Fort Langley is another indication of the Government's desire to preserve the history of our great province.

This year a troupe of children from Langley will present a pageant of welcome to the Premier and his Cabinet upon their arrival at Fort Langley.

One of the highlights of the Douglas Day celebrations each year is the table of honour, in the centre of the banquet hall, which is reserved for pioneer residents of the area. Many of these honoured guests can remember the events which took place when this area was the centre of commercial and administrative activity for this province. The link they provide with the people and events of the past is respected and appreciated by the community which they call "home."

BOY SCOUT APPLE DAY

Some 2,000 Wolf Cubs and Boy Scouts in uniform will be out in force on Saturday, October 20th offering the public a "Boy Scout Apple" for a donation towards Scouting.

Boy Scout Districts in the Surrey, Delta, Langley and Abbotsford areas hope to raise funds to provide administrative services, training for adult leaders and equipment and camping facilities for the boys.

The work is carried out by several hundred unpaid volunteer leaders both uniformed, drawn from the membership of Scouting sponsors such as Churches, Service Clubs, P.T.A. groups and other community organizations.

The Movement has a closely supervised training programme for boys aged eight to eighteen years, designed to develop character and leadership and guide them through their formative years to manhood and citizenship.

Ten Commandments of Hunting Safety

With big game and bird hunting underway in B.C., the Honourable Earle C. Westwood today listed the ten commandments of hunting safety. The Minister urged sportsmen to get behind the Hunter Safety Week being observed October 1st to October 6th and said that the difference between happy hunting and tragedy may lie in the ideas behind the following points:—

1 Treat that gun with respect due a loaded gun.
2 Watch that muzzle! Carry your gun safely; keep safety on until ready to shoot.
3 Unload guns when not in use: take down or have actions open; guns should be carried in cases to shooting area.
4 Be sure barrel is clear of obstructions, and that you have ammunition only of the proper size for the gun you carry.
5 Be sure of target before you pull trigger; know identifying features of game you hunt.
6 Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot; avoid all horseplay.
7 Never climb a tree or fence or jump a ditch with a loaded gun; never pull a gun toward you by the muzzle.
8 Never shoot a bullet at a flat, hard surface or water; at target practice be sure your backstop is adequate.
9 Store guns and ammunition separately, beyond reach of children.

Afternoon Wedding Held In Aldergrove United

On October 6th, at 3 p.m., in the Aldergrove United Church, a wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Faris, uniting in marriage, Miss Margaret Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Black of Aldergrove, to Mr. Frank D. Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hughes of West Vancouver.

For this special day, the bride selected a floor length, full-skirted nylon organdy gown, appliqued diagonally across front, from shoulder to hem. The dress featured lily-point sleeves, fitted bodice and a scoop neckline.

Resting on her head, was a shoulder length veil, held in place, by a little tiara of leaves fashioned from tulle and sprinkled with tiny pearls. Her bouquet was of bronze and yellow mums, accented with golden wheat.

The bride's attendants, Miss Christine Wilson, maid of honour was attired in princess style bronze peau de soie, with little short matching veil, carried a yellow bouquet of mums.

Miss Jean Hughes was the bride's flower girl, and was charming in a full skirted yellow gown, with matching headdress. She carried a little bouquet of bronze mums.

For his best man, Mr. Hughes chose Mr. Allan Bennett, and the ushers for this occasion were Mr. Bob Hughes, brother of the groom, and Mr. Norman Black brother of the bride.

The organist was Mrs. M. McIntosh.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the United Church hall, served by the Ladies of the United Church.

The guests were received by the bridal party and the bride and the groom's parents.

The bride's mother was gowned in a brown and yellow printed silk, and yellow accessories with a corsage of yellow roses.

The bride's table was decorated with small bouquets of fall flowers and white wedding bells, in the center of the table and flanked by tall candles, was a three tier wedding cake.

Master-of-ceremonies for this occasion was Mr. Norman Black.

A toast was proposed by Mr. A. H. Funnell, of Halcourt, Alberta, and was responded to by the groom.

On their return home, they will reside in Vancouver.

Out-of-town guests to the wedding were Mrs. J. M. Milligan and Miss M. Barnet of Fergus, Ontario, Miss Marilyn Kuhles of Los Angeles, California. Many other guests from the surrounding area were also present.

Better and Easier Cattle Grub Control Possible

The systemic insecticides Ruelene and Co-Ral not only give better cattle grub control, but the job of application can now be easier than ever before.

According to the G. B. Rich, entomologist at the Canada Department of Agriculture Research Station, Kamloops, and Provincial Entomologist C. L. Neilson, extensive research and field tests in B.C. as well as others across Canada and the U.S.A. have shown these materials to be safe, effective and easy to apply. Beef animals and non-lactating (but not within 28 days of freshening) dairy animals may be treated and only one treatment is required.

Tests to date have shown Ruelene to be the more effective material in B.C.

Treatment should be made any time from late September through to mid November. Both Ruelene and Co-ral may be applied as high pressure sprays or Ruelene may be used as a pour-on

If materials are used as sprays, the neck, back, sides, shoulders and hind quarters are all that need be treated, but the skin must be wetted and not just the hair. When Ruelene is used as a "pour-on" it is simply mixed in a pail and applied with a measuring cup according to label instructions. It is poured along the back line from the base of the neck to the tail-head. No expensive equipment is required.

In addition to grub control, this single treatment with systemic insecticide normally provides effective louse control. However, in some cases of habitually lousy animals the "pour-on" treatment is not always effective and spray should be used.

Egg Marketing or Egg Control Board?

By ARIE de RUITER

This is the 9th of a series of articles written to promote support of the B.C. Egg Marketing Board

Taking for granted that a substantial majority of the B.C. Egg producers want production or marketing controls, or both, which seems to be the case, under what name should the Board operate?

So far I have, and likewise nearly everyone who discusses the Board, called it the B.C. Egg Marketing Board. Is this correct or should we look for a different name to more accurately describe and express its true workings and purpose? I believe we should.

The word "Marketing" means only one thing and taken as such, this word does not do justice to what the Board is meant to be. The word "marketing" means the act of buying or selling in the market. There is no other explanation for the word "marketing" and if we do not want the Board to market our eggs, we should not call it a Marketing Board.

Furthermore, we do not need, neither do we want a Board to market our eggs. The established marketing outlets are doing a fine job of processing and distributing our product to the B.C. consumers, whether they are wholesalers or producer venders. It would upset the egg market to a great extent if the producers took control of the market by way of their Board.

Therefore, hands off the egg business, leave it with those who know it and have made it their business for many years.

Consequently, the Board should NOT be known as the B.C. Egg Marketing Board for this name is deceiving and gives the wrong impression

In the foregoing articles, an effort has been made to explain what the Board is for and what it is expected to do.

Those who have taken the time to read up on the subject will agree that at no time mention has been made of the Board wanting to market eggs. This would be strictly against the wishes and interests of the producers and we must make sure that we'll not be dragged into a situation where the Board could take over the buying and selling (marketing) of our product. Reports reaching us from Australia indicate that their Egg Marketing Board got the producers into no better position than they were before they had this kind of "protection". Interstate jealousy, politics and the scramble for highly paid positions on the Board are said to be the reason why the Australian Egg Marketing Board is not working out very well for the producers. Their plight can be a warning to us. we should be watchful and not make the same mistakes. What we DO NOT want is egg marketing controls. What we DO want is production and price controls, including the power to gather and dispose of surplus eggs. The one cannot be effective without the other, as will be clear from previous articles. The Board will therefore have to be named according to its function. A fully descriptive name would be "the B.C. Egg Production, Price and Surplus Control Board." A suggestion fo a short and simple name is "B.C. Egg Control Board". This should adequately describe it. It will be necessary to explain why the B.C. Egg Marketing Scheme, on which the Powers of the Board are vested, bears that particular name. The answer is quite simple. The scheme provides for the Board, to delegate its powers to market eggs, to agencies. In everyday language this means that the Board lets the wholesalers and producer vendors handle the eggs, exactly the way they do now. They can buy from any producer they wish, at the same time a producer can sell to any wholesaler he wishes. This has been one of our great privileges in the past and this is one right we want to protect. Under the scheme, the producers choose their own wholesalers, individually and collectively. First: each producer can, as an individual, ship his eggs to any wholesaler and second: producers can, as a group, headed by the Board, delegate wholesalers to handle their eggs. It is in the interest of the producers that all existing wholesalers are licensed to buy and sell eggs. Producer vendors are a somewhat different category who will be licensed to cover their particular position in he industry. They represent a large percentage of the egg producers and are to no small degree responsible for keeping egg consumption at a high level. Producer-vendors should never get second consideration when the Board starts to operate for they are:

2 Without exception, family operators.

Direct or indirect, the producer-vendor has contributed much to the well-being of egg producers in general and should have every consideration when controls go into effect. Egg producers often complain about certain wholesalers buying eggs outside of B.C. while supplies are available in sufficient quantities at home. There has been no way to stop imports from coming into the province and there probably never will be, until such time that a Board can act on behalf of the producers. Negotiating with wholesalers about the advisability of bringing eggs into B.C. when we don't want them is only one of the many ways in which a Board can help the producers to get a better average price for their product.

Next Week—How to get better Egg Prices.

SEA FARMING

With exploding populations pressing on land resources nations are turning to the oceans for new sources of food and minerals, says the Western Weekly Supplement. In the United States the president has asked Congress to double its appropriation for oceanographic research. "Our very survival may hinge upon it," Kennedy said. The riches of the sea are beyond dispute. Theoretically the seas could provide food for billions of people as well as minerals in fabulous abundance. Ocean water is a dilute solution of almost everything. The oceans contain vast quantities of manganese, silver, uranium, cobalt, and enough gold to make every man, women and child on earth a millionaire many times over. "The problems to be solved concerning the oceans are clearly more urgent than those of space," seports a National Academy of Sciences committee headed by Dr. Harrison Brown of the California Institute of Technology, who envisions sea farmers fencing off fish pastures. putting down fertilizer for the plants on which fish feed and growing rich crops of plankton for human consumption. In future years acquaculture may rival agriculture in the world' economy.

Carrying a bone in his mouth, a dog crossed a river on a narrow bridge. He saw his own image reflected in the water and decided that it was another dog with a bone larger than his. Consumed with envy, he opened his mouth to grab the other bone and lost his own.

NAVY LOG

By ANDREE

The officers and men of HMCS Aldergrove have regretfully said goodbye to their vigorous and erudite R.C. Chaplain, Father Karl Bohnenberger, who left last week to take up his new pastorate in Hope, B.C. The new R.C. Chaplain Father Oswald Sorel will take Father Bohnenberger's place. We extend to Father Sorel a hearty welcome and hope that his stay may be pleasant and productive.

On Thursday, October 8, there will be a Sea Cadet inspection at HMCS Aldergrove, with a reception to be held afterwards. Then on Friday, the officers of the station will entertain their ladies at a mess dinner in the newly-renovated wardroom.

Lieut.-Cdr. and Mrs. G. E. Godbout were hosts last weekend to old friends and former neighbors from Quebec City, Mons. and Mme. Oscar Dorval. The two couples then visited Vancouver and Victoria together and the Dorvals went on to Seattle and California, while the Godbouts returned home Thursday evening. After having extolled the glorious climate of the West coast to Mons. and Mme. Dorval, the Godbouts were quite embarrassed by the ravages of typhoon Freda!

Petty Officer Lloyd Milton has arrived home from a six months' tour of Frobisher Bay, just in time to start another winter.

Welcome to new arrival Leading Seaman George Burmeister, formerly of HMCS Skeena.

Several of the station's best hunters went shooting over the weekend—as the old joke goes, they shot expertly but Providence was merciful to the animals.
