Foreword

This little Handbook is the recognized authority on all matters of which it treats. To those who would gain an insight into the many phases of student life and organization it is indispensable, since it covers a wide range of topics of interest to all undergraduates.

Upper classmen expect the new students to familiarize themselves with the existing organizations, because in no other way can the newcomers fit themselves for their responsibilities as members of a corporate body which is largely self-governing. By this means the in-coming students can best preserve the worthiest traditions of their predecessors, and at the same time prepare themselves to make a fuller contribution to future developments in student activities.

In helping to attain these ends, the Handbooks of past years have been most valuable. This little volume, by carrying over into the present many of the best features of previous editions, amply justifies its publication. I heartily commend it to the careful consideration of all students because the purpose which its editors had in mind has been achieved.

L. S. KLINCK,
President.

Organization of the Student Body

The Students' Council is the governing body, its nine members being elected by the students late in the Spring term. This body meets every Monday night during the term to discuss all motions for student welfare. The Presidents of the Men's and Women's Undergraduate Societies, the Presidents of the Men's and Women's Athletic Societies and the President of the Literary and Scientific Executive, represent definite bodies of student opinion. These members bring up matters relative to their own subsidiaries, but are expected to know and discuss matters outside their own spheres.

Each of the subsidiary clubs submits a budget early in the fall to its own governing body, which in turn submits it to the Council through the club president. Budgets are then allotted by Council. In addition to club budgets, special grants may be made at the discretion of the Council.

Each club has its own executive, which is elected by undergraduates interested in the activities of that club.

The Publications Board is a semi-independent body, having no representation on Council, though the Editor-in-Chief holds an "A" position.

EARL VANCE

PRESIDENT, ALMA MATER SOCIETY

To the Men and Women of the Class of '35

Kla-how-yah, Class of '35! You are now members of the University of British Columbia and of its student organization, the Alma Mater Society. The Students' Council extends to you the sincere greetings and the best wishes of the Student Body.

You tread on ground that is sacred to the Alumni, the Student Body, and the Faculty of this institution. Guide your footsteps that they may never bring harm nor disrepute to that which you will soon learn to cherish.

You have been entrusted with the safe-guarding of a past whose glory is unblemished, and a present whose achievements are many and honored. The upbuilding of the future is in your hands. The past and present challenge you to mount higher on the stairway of achievement. Will you accept this challenge or lay it idly aside? We watch jealously to see if you will accept our ideals or replace them with better ones.

The highest ideals of development, both of the individual and of the community life of the University, are only realized when every student participates in some phase of student activity. Choose the activity in which you are most interested and to which you are best suited. Students here are judged by their individual accomplishments rather than by their pedigree or their bank account.

You can do as you like about your work; no one will make you do it. But be honest with yourself, and remember why you are here. Your success in College depends on you alone. Class of '35, "Tuum Est."

EARL VANCE,
Pres. A.M.S.

NOTICE BOARDS—Notice Boards are placed in every University Building and in the space between the Arts and Auditorium Buildings. Students are at liberty to use them; care must be taken, however, to see that the notices are neat. The official Student Council Notice Board is on the South stairway in the Auditorium Building.

UBYSSEY — The "Ubyssey," published on Tuesdays and Fridays, is distributed in the Common Rooms.

TELEPHONES—Pay phones are installed in all the University Buildings. Toll is 5 cents to the city exchange.

MAIL—Mail is received twice daily on the campus. The Letter-Rack for clubs and societies is at the head of the south stairway in the Auditorium Building. General Student Letter-Racks are situated in the lower hall of the Arts Building. The official address is: "The University of British Columbia, West Point Grey, B. C."

UNIVERSITY EMPLOYMENT BUREAU—The objects of the Employment Bureau are to provide students with summer employment, to provide part-time work for students during the Winter Session, and to help students in obtaining positions after graduation. This service is for employers seeking help and for students desiring employment. Those who know of positions vacant are requested to notify the Bureau. Correspondence should be addressed to "Employment Bureau, Registrar's Office."

THE BOOK STORE—The Book Store, which occupies a room in the Auditorium Building, is prepared to supply all the text books required for the various courses offered in the University, also such articles as note books, loose-leaf sheets, fountain pens, drawing paper and instruments. During the Winter Session the Book Store is open Monday to Friday, from nine to five o'clock, and Saturday from nine to one.

THE LIBRARY—During the session the Library is open on week days from 8:45 a.m. to 9:45 p.m. except on Saturdays, when the hours are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Further information regarding the Library is posted on the notice board in that building.

UNIVERSITY HEALTH SERVICE AND FIRST AID DEPARTMENT—Exists for the purpose of the prevention of communicable diseases, to render first aid in case of accident or sudden sickness, and for the general well-being of the student body, who are at liberty to seek advice about health matters. Students can help the service materially by observing the following:

1. Rules governing Medical Physical Examination: Students who have not been examined by the University Medical Examiner within the last five years will report immediately to the Health Service and secure an appointment, which must be kept on the date and at the time assigned. Students who do not conform to the above regulations will be reported to the University Health Committee.

2. Vaccination against smallpox will be performed free of charge, for students who cannot otherwise secure it. All students are advised to be vaccinated.

3. Illness, however slight, especially of a communicable nature, such as the common cold, must be reported when the student becomes ill, not after recovery, and the student must report to the Health Service before returning to classes.

4. Exposure to infection: In the case of a student being exposed to infectious disease at the residence of the student or elsewhere, report must be made over the telephone for advice as to procedure. In no case may the student return to the University before receiving advice from the Health Service.

5. Athletic students sustaining injuries. Students must report to the Health Service as soon after sustaining injuries as possible. Failure to so report will result in no recommendation being sent forward to the Council in case Medical treatment is necessary, and in no case will the Health Service be responsible or undertake to treat an injury where a student has unsuccessfully attempted to treat the injured part over a period of time, before reporting. A signed authorization from the Health Service is necessary before students may obtain treatment for their injuries, and apply to Students' Council for financial assistance.

The above applies to any student attending the University; the Medical service is not available to any other than athletes.

THE STUDENTS' DIRECTORY

The Students' Directory contains the name, Vancouver and out-of-town address, and the telephone number of every student registered at the University, the address and telephone number of each fraternity on the campus, and the telephone numbers of the various offices about the University. The Directory will be published, with the full co-operation of the students, early in November; a small fee will be charged. Students are urged to fill in their addresses and telephone numbers on the card marked "Information for Students' Council" when registering, or if unable to do so then, to do so at the earliest possible moment.

Historical Sketch

In 1890 the Provincial Legislature passed an Act establishing a body politic and corporate named "The University of British Columbia." No material progress was made, however, until 1894, when an Act was passed which permitted the affiliation of high schools in the Province with recognized Canadian Universities.

In 1899 Vancouver High School was affiliated with McGill University in order to provide first year work in Arts, and took the name of Vancouver College. First Year work in Arts was offered by Victoria High School when it became Victoria College by affiliation with McGill University in 1902. In the same year Vancouver College undertook the Second Year in Arts.

In 1906 an Act was passed incorporating the Royal Institution for the Advancement of Learning of British Columbia, which in the same year established at Vancouver the McGill University College of British Columbia. In 1915 the University of British Columbia was opened and the McGill University College of Vancouver and Victoria College which was part of it, ceased to exist.

Definite steps to establish the University were taken by Dr. H. E. Young, Minister of Education, in 1907, when he introduced a "University Endowment Act." This Act was followed in 1908 by an Act establishing and incorporating the University of British Columbia and repealing the old Act of 1890-91. This Act, with its subsequent amendments, determines the present constitution of the University.

A site commission, appointed in 1910, recommended the vicinity of Vancouver and in the following year the Point Grey site was granted to the University. The grant now consists of 548 acres at the extremity of Point Grey. The waters of the Gulf of Georgia form more than half the boundary of the University campus. A tract of some 3,000 acres of Government land immediately adjoining the site and lying between it and the City of Vancouver has been set aside by the Government in order that University revenue may be provided by sale or lease.

The first Convocation, held on August 1st, 1912, chose Mr. F. L. Carter-Cotton as first chancellor of the University. In March, 1913, the Liutenant-Governor-in-Council appointed as President of the University, F. F. Wesbrook, M.A., M.D., C.M., LL.D. On April 4th, 1918,

Dr. R. E. McKechnie, the present chancellor, was elected. On the death of President Wesbrook, October 20th, 1918, L. S. Klinck, Dean of the Faculty of Agriculture, was appointed Acting President, and on June 1st, 1919, President.

From its opening in 1915 till the summer of 1925, the University carried on its work in temporary quarters on part of the site of the General Hospital in Fairview.

Construction work was commenced on the Science Building at the Point Grey site in 1914, but was interrupted because of war conditions. Work on this building was resumed in 1923 shortly after the great Student Campaign. The Science Building and Library, as well as nine other buildings, were completed and ready for occupancy in the fall of 1925.

The inauguration of the new buildings was held on October 15th and 16th, 1925, on which occasion honorary degrees were granted by the University for the first time.

Three publications are undertaken by the Publications Board: The "Ubyssey," the "Totem" and the "Handbook."

The "Ubyssey," now on a firm financial basis, enters its sixth year as a twice-weekly journal. It appears every Tuesday and Friday noon throughout the session, except in examination weeks.

The "Ubyssey" is the University newspaper, dealing with the current events of college life. It is managed entirely by students. A Literary Supplement published twice a year is open to contributions. The Publications Board is affiliated with the Pacific Intercollegiate Press Association, and exchange news from other colleges in Canada and United States is featured.

The "Totem" is the University Annual, the traditional publication to the graduating class. A special staff prepares this annual, its editor being a member of the Senior or Junior year of any faculty.

The "Handbook"—this is it.

New Eligibility Rules

ATHLETICS—

New eligibility rules were found necessary by the loose and inexplicit manner in which By-law No. 16 of the Constitution of the Alma Mater Society of the University of British Columbia is drawn up.

The need of some sort of rules will not be questioned by any one as the essence of University life. A high scholastic standing is necessary and if we are to have students representing us as a University, they should not be deficient in this respect. However it is not the desire to make athletics exclusive, but to eliminate that undesirable type of Undergraduate who attends University without scholastic achievement as the main motive, so that a place on a team means both athletic and scholastic proficiency. With this in view the following change to By-law No. 16 concerning athletics is submitted.

1. Students of first year shall not represent the University in more than one athletic activity until they have obtained a standing of 50% or more in the Christmas examinations.

2. Repeating, partial and unclassified students may participate in one athletic activity until the fall mid-term examinations. If at these examinations or any other subsequent set of examinations during the year an average of 55% is not obtained, then these students may not participate further until such percentage is obtained.

3. Students of all years may not proceed further with any athletic activity if they fail to obtain an average of 50% in the mid-term or Christmas examination. As soon as an average of 50% is obtained the activity may be resumed in the case of having failed previously.

4. All students must carry at least nine units to represent the University in any athletic activity.

5. Students asked to withdraw at Christmas who return in the Spring to a partial course may not represent the University in any athletic activity.

6. The method of enforcing these rules shall be: The President of Men's Athletics, or his appointee, shall obtain a list of all men playing the various sports and submit it to the Faculty Committee on Student Affairs. This committee shall recommend to Students' Council the withdrawal from athletics of those students who have not come up to the required standards as outlined above. The final decision on this matter shall rest with the Students' Council.

MEN'S UNDERGRADUATE SOCIETY—

1. No student shall hold a "B" office in any class executive work whose general scholarship average is less than 50%.

2. The class executive of the Freshman year shall not be elected until after the Christmas examinations.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD—

1. No student shall hold a "B" office on the Publications Board whose general scholastic average is less than 50%.

FOR CLUBS UNDER LITERARY AND SCIENTIFIC EXECUTIVE—

1. No freshman shall engage in any major activity of the Debates Union or the Musical Society during the first term should he or she obtain below an average 50% in the mid-term examinations or during the second term if he or she obtains an average below 50% in the Christmas examinations.

2. No freshman shall be eligible for the Players' Club unless he or she obtains an average of at least 60% in the Junior Matriculation examinations and he or she shall be automatically disqualified for membership during the remainder of the session should he or she obtain an average of less than 50% in the Christmas examinations.

3. No student shall be a member of the above clubs unless he or she is registered for at least nine units.

4. No student shall remain a member of the aforementioned clubs should he or she fail to obtain an average of at least 50% on any set of examinations nor shall he or she be again eligible until he or she has again obtained an average of 50%.

The method of enforcing these rules for clubs other than those coming under Men's Athletics shall be: The president of the organization concerned, or his appointee, shall send a list of those concerned to the Faculty Committee on Student Affairs. This Committee shall recommend to Students' Council the withdrawal from the organizations of those students who have not come up to the required standards outlined above. The final decision on this matter shall rest with the Students' Council.

Kla-How-Yah!

In the Chinook jargon, "Kla-how-yah" is the single word of welcome and is, therefore, equivalent to any friendly greeting in English. "Kla-how-yah" was adopted at the University to become the traditional salutation among its students; but, although the word and its purpose have been recognized and accepted by students, the greeting has never been employed generally. It was, however, incorporated two years ago into one of our yells, and efforts were made at the same time to make the use of the word popular among undergraduates. "Kla-how-yah" is too rich in association with the early history of our province, too appropriately ours, in a word, too British Columbian to be lost to us. Greet fellow-students with "Kla-how-yah;" it takes the place of an introduction.

Freshman Initiation

The Initiation will be held on the campus. The following is a tentative program, subject to change:

Regulations:

1. The period of initiation will approximately last until the end of the second week of the first term and will end by a night of hazing.

2. Placards, displaying the bearer's name, must be worn up to and at the Frosh Reception.

3. Green berets must be procured and worn by both men and women. These are procurable at the Curator's office at a nominal sum. The period during which these must be worn is not yet definite but will probably be the same as for the placards.

4. All Freshmen must carry a copy of the Handbook.

5. Freshmen must attend all Alma Mater meetings called for Freshmen.

6. At these meetings full information regarding initiation will be given. The heads of the various Varsity organizations will address the Freshmen as fellow students.

7. Freshmen Class Elections will not be held until after the results of the Christmas examinations are known.

8. The Initiation Committee will act as a court before which Freshmen desirous of being excused may appear.

The same committee will also function as a court to enforce regulations.

9. The hazing "ceremonies" will be performed by the Sophomore Class.

The initiation program, it is hoped, will help to make the Freshmen realize that once the hazing is over they are then men and women of the University and create a certain "esprit decorps" among everyone. Any "horseplay" on either side will be severely dealt with. Watch the "Ubyssey" for dates.

STUDENTS' BOOK EXCHANGE

(Kenneth M. Beckett, Manager)

The Book Exchange was organized on our campus last spring, and is operating for the first time this year. Its purpose is to effect the exchange of second-hand books between students registered at the University in a manner more convenient and certain than the haphazard method of individual lists and notices. It operates under the supervision of Students' Council, and is directed by a manager appointed by Council. The office of the Exchange is located in the basement of the Arts Building, in last year's Totem office. As the Exchange was instituted for the benefit of students, they are urged to make full use of it; those with second-hand books for sale to place them in the hands of the officers of the Exchange, and those seeking books to inquire there. Watch the "Ubyssey" for announcements.

Valedictory Gifts

The practice of presenting to the University a valedictory gift from the graduating class was instituted by the Class of 1919. Their gift was the "Arts '19 Scholarship," of the value of $150, awarded annually until the session 1926-1927, when the final award was made.

Other valedictory gifts were as follows:

1920—Relay Cup.

1921—Portrait of Dr. Wesbrook.

1922—$300.00, to be used for some University purpose later to be determined.

1923—Art collection.

1924—$443.96, for the purpose of providing an addition to the Art Collection begun by Arts '23.

1925—Addition to Arts '23 Art Collection.

1926—Trophy Case.

1927—Medical Equipment in Health Department Office.

1928—Wesbrook Memorial Seat (in front of the Library).

1929—Stone Seats in front of Library.

1930—Chancellor's Chair.

1931—Collection of documents and records connected with the early history of British Columbia.

Undergraduate Societies

The Undergraduate Societies comprise the Women's Undergraduate Society, the Men's Undergraduate Society and subsidiary class organizations.

Membership in the Undergraduate Societies is conferred automatically on all students at the University. The Women's Undergraduate executive is composed of President, Vice-President, Secretary-treasurer, President of Nursing, representative of Agriculture, and Vice-Presidents of the other class organizations. The Men's Undergraduate executive, is composed of President, Secretary-treasurer, and Presidents of the Arts Men's, the Science and the Agriculture Undergraduate Societies. The class presidents are members of the Undergraduate Society of the faculty to which they belong; thus the class organizations are connected with the Undergraduate Societies.

The duties of the Undergraduate Societies are mainly social; also, the president of each society is a member of a standing committee on discipline, (see By-Law No. 31 of the Alma Mater Constitution).

The Presidents for this season are: Women's Undergraduate Society, Dorothy Myers; Men's Undergraduate Society, J. W. Thomson; Arts Men's Undergraduate Society, Russ. Shane-man; Science Undergraduate Society, Harry Thorne; Agriculture Undergraduate, W. A. Taylor.

Social Events

Since the purpose of this book is to deal with the "other" side of college, it is well to give the student some idea of the nature and approximate dates of the main events on the social calendar.

FROSH Reception—A dance given in honor of incoming students. The Freshmen are expected to mingle with members of the upper classes. Introductions are not necessary. One ticket only is allowed to each undergraduate. Takes place about the second or third week of the fall term.

UNDERGRADUATE BALLS—Each faculty is allowed to give one general dance during the year. Tickets are available to all undergraduates of all faculties as long as they hold out. The Arts Ball is held about the middle of November. The Aggie Ball takes place about the end of January and the Science Ball about the middle of February.

CLASS PARTIES — Each class of each faculty is allowed to hold one class party during the year. Members only of the class holding the dance are admitted. Class fees pay for these dances.

BASKETBALL DANCES—Several times a year the Basketball Club holds informal dances in honor of visiting basketball teams. The dances are informal and open to all students, admission generally being 50 cents.

TEA DANCES—Some classes and clubs hold Tea dances during the year, especially after a big game. A small admission fee is charged.

ANNUAL VICTORIA INVASION—This is the major event on the social calendar. The Invasion takes place during the Christmas vacation. Athletic contests are arranged for all teams with Vancouver Island teams. Two dances are given for U. B. C. athletes—one in Victoria High School and the second the following night at the Empress Hotel. Victoria College plays the part of host for the Invasion. Special boat and hotel rates are arranged.

MUSICAL SOCIETY CONCERT—Each Spring the Musical Society gives a concert in the Auditorium, to which the public is invited. An admission fee is charged.

CHRISTMAS AND SPRING PLAYS—Late in the Fall term the Players' Club presents four representative plays in the Auditorium for students only. Admission is free. The Club also presents a Spring Play late in the Spring term which is open to the public. An admission fee is charged.

HOME COMING — The Annual Home Coming Week-End is celebrated early in November. It is intended to bring the Alumni into closer contact with the students and includes various entertainments in honor of the graduates.

HI-JINX—An annual fancy-dress party for women students only. The Women's Undergraduate Society takes charge of all arrangements. A small admission fee is charged. Takes place during February.

CO-ED'S BALL—A dance arranged by the Women's Undergraduate Society to which the women students invite the men. Takes place during the latter part of February.

VANCOUVER INVASION BY VICTORIA—The return visit paid by the students of Victoria College. Athletic contests and a Basketball Dance are held.

The Honor System

"The Alma Mater Society depends upon the honor of the individual student for the maintenance of discipline and order on the campus."

Members of the Alma Mater Society shall at all times endeavor to uphold the honor and good name of the student body and the University as a whole. They shall cooperate with the Student and University authorities in the maintenance of order and the protection of buildings, grounds and properties within the University precincts. This is to include fire regulations prohibiting smoking in the halls of the University buildings.

Athletics

It is the aim of the Men's and Women's Athletic Association to promote clean sport, and to prevent the unhealthy condition resulting from indoor work of the student. There are coaches for all sports, who give their time voluntarily and who have been star athletes. They respect our ideals and sportsmanship to the fullest. They have been carefully selected with the influence which they have on their athletes in mind; they only ask for your co-operation and support.

The University does not seek to train star athletes, but to develop young and inexperienced athletes. There are many different sports and teams of all calibre in each sport; the places on teams are given without any favoritism or prejudice; nationality, age, experience, pedigree, bank roll, past records, etc., do not mean a thing; the place is open for the best man. There is an opportunity for everyone who is physically fit, and we are anxious for you to take advantage of this—it is to your interest and ours. To those of you who are not capable of active physical participation, we offer positions managing these teams. This is an excellent stepping-stone to executive work.

Here we allow freshmen the opportunity to play on any team on which they can win a place. The Freshman classes in the past have had men on the first teams in every sport; that is the challenge that they leave. Watch the notice boards for the first practice and get out to it.

Membership in the Men's Athletic Association is automatically conferred on all men students in the Alma Mater Society. The executive of the Association, composed of the presidents of all branches of sport, is responsible for the organization, supervision and administration of athletics for men.

The Association has been recognized as a local board of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada. Any athlete intending to play on any outside team must obtain written permission from Men's Athletics; if such is not done, the athlete is liable for suspension from all amateur athletics.

To encourage a man to stick to the sport he is best suited for, we give our highest athletic award to an athlete who measures up to a certain standard in that sport. However, most of the Big Blocks go to the Major sports, the small letters to the Minor sports, and the plain letters to the Sub-Minor sports. The second team in a Major sport has rating of Minor sport, while the third team in a Major sport and the second team of a Minor sport have Sub-Minor rating.

The sports are classified into four groups as follows, due to achievement and interest shown:

(a) Major: Basketball, Canadian Rugby, English Rugby, Track.
(b) Sub-Major: Soccer, Swimming.
(c) Minor: Badminton, Golf, Grass Hockey, Ice Hockey, Rowing
(d) Sub-Minor: Boxing, Fencing, Gymnasium, Outdoors, Skating.

BIG BLOCK CLUB

(James Winters, President)

This Club is entirely separate from the Awards Committee, membership being automatically conferred to holders of the U.B.C. Big Block award. Its aims are to bring about a unity of spirit and effort for the furtherance of Varsity sport and to keep in touch with preparatory schools in order to advise prospective athletes for University sports. An attempt will be made to inaugurate Presentation Day into Big Block Day by holding a dance.

BASKETBALL

(Lorne Falconer, President)

Four teams are fielded in City leagues by the Basketball Club. Some of these teams also make trips into the Interior, over to the Island and down to Washington. Regular practices will be held in the Gymnasium.

CANADIAN RUGBY CLUB

(John McLean, President)
(Roy MacDonald, Vice-President)

Canadian Rugby is one of the major sports on the campus and fields three teams in competition in the city leagues. Last year the Senior team lost the Lipton Cup in the Big Four League, and the Hardy Cup in the Intercollegiate Championship. The Second team lost the Senior City League by one game. The Junior team was most fortunate and won the Junior B. C. Championship. Last year a training camp was started and proved to be such a success that it will be held again this year at Bowen Island. The camp is for pre-seasonal training and lasts about two weeks. This year the Club intends to enter the same number of teams and hopes to be more successful in the results.

ENGLISH RUGBY

(C. G. MacIlmoyl, President)

The major events of the Club's activities are the McKechnie Cup series, the Miller Cup series and the Intermediate and Freshman series. On entering the McKechnie Cup league the University won the trophy for three consecutive years, lost it in 1926, won it again in 1927, and in 1928 and 1929 and 1930 lost it again to Vancouver "Rep."

The Club is very fortunate in securing the services of experienced players as coaches for its teams.

Practices will be held as follows: Seniors and First Intermediates—Wednesday at 3 p.m.; Second Intermediates and Frosh—Tuesday and Thursday at 3 p.m.

TRACK CLUB

(Ralph Thomas, President)

Track at the University is one of four major sports, and with the possibility of Canadian Olympic tryouts being held in Vancouver, and the completion of the Stadium, it is expected that competition in track and field will be particularly keen during the coming year. Turnouts will be held on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons under the supervision of the Club's coaches.

The season will open on Wednesday, October 7, with the Varsity-Frosh Meet as part of the Initiation Program. At this meet, all at the University for the first time will be classified as Frosh to compete against the rest of the University. A week later the Arts '30

Road Race will be held, the course of which is four times around the Campus. Arrangements are being conducted to send a team to the Western Inter-Collegiate Championships, should suitable material be available. Meets are also being planned with the V.A.C. and local Y.M.C.A. for October 21 and November 4, respectively. At the Invasion on January 2 a relay race will be held against the Victoria "Y."

The Cross-Country on February 3 will open the Spring season. It will be followed on February 17 by the historic Arts '20 Relay; the course is from the Fairview Buildings to Varsity, and every class enters a team of eight runners. February 24 and March 2 are the dates for the Inter-Faculty and Inter-Class meets. On March 19 a return meet against the College of Puget Sound will be held on our oval, and in connection with this a practice meet may be held previously with some ex-High School Club. The five-mile Dunlop Road Race on Good Friday will complete the year's activities.

SOCCER

(E. H. King, President)

The Soccer Club fields two teams each year, one in the second division of the V. & D. League and the other in the Junior Alliance. The Club is gradually climbing back to its former proud position and at the close of last session was raised to the rank of sub-major sport.

The senior team finished in a good place in the league last year while the Juniors occupied a higher rung than ever before. All men interested in soccer are requested to communicate with the president through the letter rack.

SWIMMING

((Phyllis Boe, President)

The Swimming Club is an organization for men and women. Its purpose is to give those interested a chance to improve their swimming or to learn how to swim. A tank is engaged for at least two practices a week and an expert coach is provided. Competition is offered with local clubs, on the Victoria Invasion and probably this year at Banff and Saskatchewan. There is also an inter-class meet in November for the Allan & Boultbee Trophy.

GOLF

This Club was organized in 1926. Its activities include a match with Victoria College, a Handicap Tournament before Christmas and an Open Tournament after Christmas. The completion of the new course on the University campus should strengthen the position of this sport.

MEN'S GYMNASIUM CLUB

(Arthur Dobson, President)

This Club is open to all men students of the University. It purposes to give all men organized physical training. Classes in the Swedish system of gymnastics, which includes apparatus and floor work, are held weekly in the Gymnasium under an experienced instructor.

ROWING

The Boat Club is now in its ninth season and is one of the largest athletic clubs in the University. It has no quarters of its own, but arrangements are made with the Vancouver Rowing Club to use their premises. An interfaculty race will be held in the Christmas term and races with Brentwood College, Vancouver Rowing Club and the University of Washington take place in March.

BADMINTON

(Ian Campbell, President)

The Badminton Club enters teams in the Vancouver and District League; teams are also sent to Victoria during the Invasion and to other places whenever possible. An Annual Tournament is held in the Spring for the championship of the University. Practices will be held in the Gymnasium.

FENCING

The Fencing Club is a Men's and Women's organization open to all interested. It is proposed to have an instructor come out to the Gymnasium for beginners and for those who desire further lessons. There is a cup for competition within the Club, and if enough talent is forthcoming, there will be a meet with the University of Washington.

ICE HOCKEY

The Ice Hockey Club enters only one team in the Junior league. This Club has the credit of winning the B. C. Senior Amateur title in 1921. The Club visits Victoria on the annual Invasion and meets a team from Victoria on the return Invasion.

GRASS HOCKEY CLUB

(Sidney Semple, President)

The Club has entered two teams in the Mainland League for the past three years. Other activities have included trips to Vancouver Island where games against Victoria and Duncan have been held. Comparatively few students come to the University who have played grass hockey before; the second team is therefore composed largely of "green" material. The club is anxious to obtain new members and all students who would like to try out should get in touch with the president.

OUTDOORS CLUB

Bill Osborn, President)

A Club for those students who are interested in mountain climbing and skiing. Hikes are held nearly every week of the Fall term. During the Spring term the Club's cabins on Grouse Mountain are the headquarters for skiing activities on the Plateau and neighboring ridges.

TENNIS

(Reginald Price, President)

Phyllis White, Vice-President

The U.B.C. Tennis Club, to be reorganized this Fall, is open to both men and women students. A small fee will be charged, and the proceeds used to keep the equipment of the excellent courts in first-class shape. An active program is planned for this session, including an efficiently managed tournament in the Fall term, with cups for each of the finalists; one or possibly two dances; matches with Faculty members, and intercollegiate competition in the Spring.

BOXING CLUB

(Ernest Brown, President)

This Club has been formed for the purpose of promoting inter-faculty and intercollegiate boxing and also to coach inexperienced men. Two turnouts a week are held and two coaches (one for men up to 135 pounds and the other for those over 135 pounds) will instruct. A statement of physical fitness must be handed in by each applicant. There will also be a small fee for coaching expenses. Meets are arranged in Washington, Victoria and locally. Boxing is regulated and governed by intercollegiate rules; weights range from 112 pounds to 175 pounds and over.

LIABILITY FOR ATHLETIC INJURIES

The University Authorities, the Alma Mater Society, or any subsidiary club or organization do not assume any responsibility for the payment of damages, doctors' bills, or hospital expenses resulting from injuries to players or participants in athletics. Any compensation shall be deemed to be a voluntary contribution at sole discretion of Students' Council.

All applications for this voluntary contribution must fill out an Accident Report Form immediately, in order to receive a hearing of their request. These forms may be obtained from the University Health Service Department, Auditorium 306, the office of the Graduate Manager, Auditorium 303, or from doctors selected by Council. Further, the applicants must be attended by those doctors selected by Council.

INTER-CLASS ATHLETICS

The Governor's Cup, donated for inter-class athletics, is competed for during the entire year by the various classes. In this way all students able and willing to take part in athletics are enabled to show their ability and help their class in a really tangible way.

The big athletic, intra-mural event of the year has always been the Arts '20 Relay Race. Each Spring every class turns out a team of eight men to compete for the cup.

The Arts '30 Inter-faculty Road Race will be held in the Fall term. This race is run entirely on the campus, and each team consists of eight men.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

(Isabel MacArthur, President)

The Women's Athletic Association, like the Men's, confers membership automatically on all women interested in the association and in the individual clubs. General meetings of the Association are called periodically for the purpose of discussing problems of women's athletics. The Executive consists of: President, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer, presidents of the subsidiary clubs and athletics, and representatives from the various classes. The Executive is the only medium between the various athletic clubs and the Students' Council.

WOMEN'S BIG BLOCK CLUB

(Mary McLean, President)

The Women's Big Block Club was organized on the campus last December for the purpose of maintaining a high standard of athletics among the women students, and also of assisting freshettes in the selection of a suitable athletic activity. The Club also serves the purpose of linking together the various major sports. The qualification for membership is that members are Big Block winners, graduate Big Block holders being honorary members.

The constitution of the Club deals mainly with letter awards for women, this being identical with the W.A.A. constitution. The Awards Committee of the Club has power of suggesting outstanding students for the Big Block award, the final decision being left to the W.A.A.

BASKETBALL

(Muriel Clarke, President)

This Club enters two teams in the City league. The Senior "A" team is considered a Major team and members receive Major awards. Regular practices will be held in the gymnasium. Exhibition games are held with visiting and local teams.

GRASS HOCKEY

(Beatrice Sutton, President)

This is the only outdoor sport for women at the University. Two teams are entitled in the Lower Mainland League, and matches will be arranged with Victoria College and Duncan. Regular practices are held on the campus. All equipment is furnished by the Club.

GYMNASIUM CLUB

(Jean Campbell, President)

The purpose of this Club is to give physical training to girls by means of exercises, apparatus work and aesthetic dancing. The Club will meet under the supervision of a trained instructress, on Thursday afternoons from 4 to 5 in the Gymnasium. Any woman student is eligible for membership.

INTER-CLASS ATHLETICS

The Spencer Cup for inter-class athletics corresponds to the Governors' Cup in Men's Athletics. The relay Cup is also competed for in the annual meet. Under the supervision of the executive of the association, competitions are held in Basketball, Swimming, Track and Hockey.

TRACK.

In conjunction with Men's Track Club, an inter-class meet is held in the Fall term, the feature trophy being the Arts '25 cup.

NOTE—See Men's Athletics for information regarding Badminton, Fencing, Skating, Swimming and Tennis for women students.

Literary and Scientific

THE LITERARY AND SCIENTIFIC EXECUTIVE

Membership is limited to twenty elected members of the two upper years, who are responsible for the program of the reading of prepared papers, followed by informal discussion bearing on the topic. The Club executive includes a critic whose function it is to criticize the style of the author and the way in which the paper is read.

(J. Sumner, President)

Formed under the auspices of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, this Club purposes the study of International Affairs. Selected publications are sent out each year to form a permanent library. Students who show a genuine interest in the purpose of the Club and who have completed their Freshman year are eligible for membership.

(Robert Brooks, President)

The Musical Society exists for the purpose of furthering an interest in and an appreciation of music at the University. Its members are given an unusual opportunity for expressing and developing vocal or instrumental talent. The chief activity of the year will be in the production of a light opera, which will be presented in the spring. An English madrigal group will also be organized and will contribute to the noon hour recitals, which are given periodically throughout the session. Admittance to the Society is by private tryouts conducted early in the Fall term. A nominal membership fee is charged to cover activities not budgeted.

FRENCH CLUBS

Three clubs, L'Alouette, La Causerie, and La Canadienne, have been organized for the purpose of encouraging fluency in the French tongue, and promoting interest in French life and manners. Fortnightly meetings are held throughout the session, the programs consisting of games, songs, lectures, conversation and refreshments. Members are chosen mainly from the two upper years, and a few vacancies are reserved for Fall applications.

PLAYERS' CLUB

(Alice Morrow, President)

The Players' Club is probably unique in the field of amateur theatricals in Canada. Founded a few weeks after the opening of the University in 1915, it is today one of the most active campus organizations, leading the way in dramatic activities. Excellent facilities for fininshed performances are available on the Auditorium stage, part of the equipment of which was contributed by the Players' Club.

Membership is limited to seventy, sixty of whom have passed competitive tryouts; the ten as a result of technical skill. A prize of $50 is offered to the student submitting the best play suitable for the Club's annual Christmas Performance.

The annual Spring Play has become a

A few vacancies are reserved for Fall applications.

GUIDE CLUB

(Jean Whitbeck, President)

Girl Guides who come to the University feel it almost impossible to participate actively in Guiding during their attendance at the University. Interest in Guiding then lags until at the end of four years the Guides know very little of the work and development of the movement, and when they have the opportunity do not take up the work again. It is to prevent this that the Club has been organized. Meetings will be held once a month, when talks will be given on Guiding in general. The Club is open to all Girl Guides, but at present is limited to a membership of thirty.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN MOVEMENT

(Andrew L. Broatch, President)

2. Study groups on problems of modern life;
3. Occasional week-end discussion camps;

G. M. DAWSON GEOLOGICAL DISCUSSION CLUB

This Club meets every two weeks during the season to present and discuss papers on geological and mining subjects. An outside engineer is secured for each meeting to speak on some problem with which he is familiar.

Qualifications for membership are:

One summer's work on a geological survey and two courses in geology; or four courses in geology. These courses need not be taken before membership but must be taken before the end of the first year of membership.

LITERARY FORUM

(Kathleen Crosby, President)

The Literary Forum, formerly the Scrap Book Club, whose members are women of all years, was last year able to conduct an entertaining and instructive program consisting of literary papers followed by discussion, criticism of plays, and light impromptu debating and public speaking. The Club will engage in similar activities this year.

HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE CLUB

(Jean MacNaughton, President)

Its object is to make those taking Household Science acquainted with each other and to promote interest in the subjects of the course. All those who are taking the course are asked to join in order to help to establish the Household Science course on this campus.

CANADIAN OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

(Com. Officer, Col. H. F. G. Letson)

The corps offers a three-year course in Military Education. The training requires attendance at lectures and drill parades which are arranged so as not to interfere with academic work. An annual camp is held at Victoria during the Christmas vacation. The Rifle Association, now a permanent organization, is open to corps members, who may take part in various service and miniature range competitions and Dominion matches.

CHEMISTRY SOCIETY

(Alan H. Cameron, President)

The object of this Society is to create an interest in matters pertaining to chemistry, rather than to supplement the knowledge of the class-room. It affords students an opportunity of reading and listening to papers on all phases of the science. Membership is limited to those students taking Chamistry III or higher. Throughout the year, however, there is normally an open meeting every month at which prominent outside chemists and members of the Faculty speak. To these meetings all those interested are cordially invited.

FOREST CLUB

The aim of the Forest Club is to create interest in forestry in all its phases. Instructive and interesting lectures are given by prominent members of the lumbering industry, forestry profession and the faculty. Papers are also read by the student members. Although primarily intended for Forest Engineering students, the Club is open to all interested in forestry.

AGRICULTURE CLUB

(Langford Godfrey, President)

The object of the Club is to create interest in the various phases of Agriculture. A series of noon-hour lectures is arranged, and evening meetings are held every two weeks. Public speaking is encouraged by an annual oratorical contest, and by minor debates throughout the year. Interest in livestock is stimulated by an annual judging competition taking place at the Experimental Farm at Agassiz. The feature event of the year is the Club banquet, held in the spring, at which trophies are presented for the oratorical contest, and for the livestock judging competition. Membership is open to all students interested in Agriculture.

CLASSICS CLUB

The Classics Club was formed for those members of Upper years who are interested in classical subjects. The Club meets every three weeks during the term when students give papers on various aspects of the Greek and Roman civilization. Two papers are delivered each evening, and discussion, led by the members of the staff of the Classics Department, follows.

MATHEMATICS CLUB

(Frank Waites, President)

The Mathematics Club was founded for the purpose of discussing problems and methods that are not included in the curriculum. Papers are given by professors and members, who number twenty-five, and are chosen from students of the two upper years and graduates. Meetings are held fortnightly.

LAW CLUB

(George Wheaton, President)

The purpose of the Club is to provide an introduction to the study of jurisprudence for all students interested in law. Meetings are held fortnightly, and usually take the form of mock trials, in which every member participates in some capacity. Quite frequently a speaker secured from among the practising lawyers and judges of the city gives an address upon some of the aspects of law. The Club has made a beginning in acquiring a collection of law books. The ultimate aim is to work for the establishment of a Law Faculty at U. B. C.

SOCIETY OF THOTH

(St. John Madeley, Grand Scribe)

The Society of Thoth, founded in 1926, is an honorary journalistic Society. It is devoted to the discussion of topical subjects that lie outside the field of other University Clubs. In addition, the Royal Egyptian Ballet of the Society gives an annual performance.

THE CHESS CLUB

(R. Fordyce, President)

The Chess Club was founded in 1926 in response to the interest displayed in the game. Tournaments are held during each term and matches with other clubs are arranged. The feature event is the annual Handicap Tournament.

THE PHYSICS CLUB

(Arthur McCulloch, President)

The aim of this Club is to enable students of Physics to hear papers on the latest developments in that subject, and to provide them with an opportunity to gain experience in the preparation and delivery of such papers. In order that these ends may best be attained, three short papers on different subjects are usually delivered at each meeting. Membership is open to all students taking one or more Physics courses.

Fraternities

It is probable that you already know something about fraternities; but insofar as fraternity life plays so large a part in the life of the college, it is well to know something of the fundamental workings of their organizations.

Fraternities have existed at U.B.C. for a number of years, and have become an integral part of the life of the campus. They are essentially social organizations among the men and women each group having from 15 to 35 members. Membership comes through what is known as a "bid." This is an invitation, unsought, which comes from that particular group which believes you to be most suited for them and they for you. You will perhaps be invited to a fraternity house or two for a meal or for some other "rushing" function. Do not misunderstand these invitations. They simply mean that that group is looking you over. Look them over too. It is much more important to you that you join the group with which you are going to be happy than it is to them that they get you to be a member.

Men's fraternities are governed by an Inter-Fraternity Council, and women's by the Pan-Hellenic Association, which bodies are made up of representatives from each fraternity and a member of Faculty. All fraternities are subject to the control of Students'

Council through the media of these two bodies; and for the maintenance of discipline in respect to "rushing," etc., these bodies are entirely responsible. They have formulated sets of rules governing the "rushing" of men and women during a certain season. These rules outline the obligations of both fraternity and man or woman in this matter. Make it your business to know these rules. Reserve your decision till the expiration of the period of grace which follows the rushing term.

Fraternity life is successful only when it is a mutual experience of give and take. You should know before you "pledge" what you are to give and what you may expect to receive. Ask yourself some such questions as these before you make your decision: What kind of reasons are advanced for my joining this fraternity? Are they in keeping with the motives which have controlled by life? In what forms of social and campus life does this fraternity engage? What are its standards and practices regarding profanity, gambling, drinking? What is its scholastic standing? What are its costs?

Some of you may not be asked to join a fraternity. If you are not do not bemoan the fact and think that you are a social failure. There are many non-fraternity men and women on our campus, some of whom are leaders among their fellows. Fraternities are wholly personal. It is by no means a slam not to be asked to join. Whatever you do, do not turn anti-. That leads only to discontentment. Mutual co-operation is the rule at our University, for it is only in this way that the greatest service can be rendered to the institution.

Points of Interest

THE MEMORIAL WINDOWS—The Canadian Jubilee Memorial Windows are one of the most recent additions to the Library. They are situated near the western end of the main concourse, but may also be viewed from the hallway below. Presented to the University by an unknown donor, the windows were unveiled on November 28, 1928, by the Honorable S. F. Tolmie, Premier of British Columbia.

WAR MEMORIAL—Inside the main doorway of the Science Building are erected two war memorials—one "to commemorate the supreme sacrifices and willing services of the members of the 'D' Co'y 196th Battalian, C. E. F. Western Universities in the Great War, 1914-1918;" the other "in honor of the B. C. reinforcing platoon, 196th Western Universities Overseas Battalion, C.E.F."

THE SUN DIAL — The Sun-Dial with its oblong face and engraving of the Cairn and the Lions is a familiar object to all visitors of the Botanical Gardens. It was presented to the University in 1926 by B. S. Hartley, Professor of Mathematics, who designed it especially for the position in which it now stands.

FLAG POLE—The University flag pole is at present being seasoned in a shed south of the Scientific Building.

It is of British Columbia Fir, and when erected will take its place among the four tallest flagpoles in the world.

THE BURNETT COLLECTION—The library of the University contains a collection of curious relics, rated as the most complete representative Polynesian collection in the world. The collection was made by Dr. Frank Burnett, who, during a period of 35 years, sailed around the cannibal islands in the South Pacific.

Among the exhibits are figures of Polynesian gods, native implements, several skulls, and samples of native dress. Bill Tansley superintends this museum of relics.

STAMP COLLECTION—The University stamp collection comprises the postage stamps of Canada and the early British North America colonies; it contains many interesting stamps, dating from the time of Queen Victoria to the present day. This collection is not yet complete, and all new contributions will be welcomed. Those interested may have access to the collection through the Registrar.

TOTEM POLES—The Totem Poles now situated in the Botanical Gardens were presented in 1927 by the Alumni Association. They are from the Musquiam Reserve, Point Grey, and are the last two of the tribe. The pole on the right is the Capilano Pole, a carving of the celebrated Capilano Chief; on the

PAINTINGS IN THE LIBRARY—The series of paintings by John Innes which hang in the library represent early scenes in the history of British Columbia.

GEOLOGY MUSEUM—The Geology Museum is located in the southern wing of the Applied Science Building. It contains valuable and interesting collections of material illustrative of both the physical and historical branches of geology and new additions are constantly being made.

THE CAIRN—The Cairn was first set up as a memorial of the province-wide campaign in 1922, when a group of enthusiastic students marched from Fairview to the new University and dedicated the Cairn. Only a skeleton of the present University stood then.

The Cairn service for Freshmen, which was inaugurated in 1928, has become a tradition in the University.

Undergraduate Exchange Scheme

Through this scheme the National Federation of Canadian University Students hopes to most effectively serve the fundamental purposes for which it was formed. The scheme offers an opportunity to Canadian university students, without extra expense to themselves, to receive a year's study at a university in another part of Canada.

Briefly speaking. the Exchange Scheme provides that each university, through its selection committee of a member of faculty and two students, shall nominate, upon application, any number of students not exceeding one per cent of the enrollment. The only prerequisite is that the student desiring to take advantage of the scheme must have completed at least two years of study and be representative in a general way of the student body.

Through the cooperation of the various university authorities in promoting this national scheme, it is provided that exchange schools are exempt from tuition fees, which, except in extreme cases, is more than sufficient compensation for the railway fee involved in effecting the exchange. The Junior Member on Council is our representative on the N.F.C.U.S. and can give full information respecting the Exchange Scheme.

Graduate Manager

This system of management was adopted at the close of the session of 1928-1929 by the Alma Mater Society on the recommendation of the Finance Committee which was appointed by the Students' Council to investigate conditions of the Alma Mater Society.

The Graduate Manager is a paid representative of the Students' Council, carrying out the wishes of the Council in all activities in regard to finance. He is the only officer who can issue requisitions for equipment and supplies. The executives of clubs and societies are expected to give him their full co-operation.

Curator

The Curator is the keeper of all the athletic equipment of the Alma Mater Society. He is in his office in the south-east corner of the Gymnasium at certain hours as posted and all equipment must be obtained from him and returned to him at the end of the season.

NOTE.—No bills will be honored by the Students' Council unless they are covered by purchase order from the Graduate Manager. The business houses of the city have been informed of this ruling and it will be rigidly observed by Council.

Songs

Alma Mater, guardian of our youth,
Fair is the laurel wreath that crowns thy brow,
Friend of our country and the friend of truth
Thy children hail thee now.

Alma Mater, daughter of the years,
The great of other days are with thee yet;
Speak thou their high faith in our duller ears,
Forbid us to forget.

Alma Mater, watcher of the hours,
Thou lookest on the mountains and the sea,
And rulest in the might of other powers
In loftier majesty.

Alma Mater, feeder of the flame,
High hopes and noble purposes are thine—
On us, whose pulses quicken at thy name,
Grant that the light may shine.

Alma Mater, mother of our love,
Many the paths we tread in future days—
Yet naught that time shall bring can e'er remove Thy memory or thy praise.

Told in song and story,
Lead on out for U. B. C.

Onward, onward!
This is the battle cry
Forward, forward!
For our hearts are high.

Sons of story olden,
On to glory golden,
Win the fight for U. B. C.

HAIL TO THE GOLD AND BLUE

Sons of our Alma Mater,
Gird you against the foe,
Count not the cost but fight boys,
And on to Victory we'll go.
Hearts that are never weary,
Hearts that are brave and true,
Glorious the cause and worthy,
Hail to the Gold and Blue.

When in thy halls we gather,
May hope attend our way,
When from thy courts we wander,
Let faith and truth alone hold sway.
Go forth in exultation,
Ever our pledge renew,
Source of our inspiration,
Hail to the Gold and Blue.

Here's to Good Old Rum

Here's to good old rum,
Drink 'er down, drink 'er down.
Here's to good old rum,
Drink 'er down, drink 'er down.
Here's to good old rum that puts you on the bum,
Here's to good old rum, drink 'er down.

(CHORUS)

Rolling home—dead drunk,
Rolling home—dead drunk,
By the light of the silvery moon,
Here's to good old rum, drink 'er down.

Hi! Hi! The Varsity

It is the work of all the land
To build up now what they began;
So join with us and lend a hand
To build the future Varsity.

(CHORUS)

Hi! Hi! the Faculty,
The Students of the U.B.C.
Hi! Hi! the Varsity!
We're working for the future.

There Is a Tavern in the Town

There is a tavern in the town, in the town,
And there my dear love sits him down, sits him down,
And drinks his wine 'mid laughter free,
And never, never thinks of me.

(CHORUS)

Fare thee well, for I must leave thee,
Do not let the parting grieve thee,
And remember that the best of friends must part, must part.
Adieu, adieu kind friends; adieu, adieu, adieu;
I can no longer stay with you, stay with you;
I'll hang my harp on a weeping willow tree,
And may the world go well with thee.

The Senior

I'm tired of walking uphill;
I long for an automobile;
When I get a jag on,
I need a gas wagon;
I'm tired of walking uphill.

I'm tired of living alone;
I want a wee wife of my own;
Someone to caress me,
To wash and undress me,
I'm tired of living alone.

I'm tired of living alone,
I want a wee sheik of my own.
Balloons and jazz sweater,
The louder the better,
I'm tired of living alone.

As a beauty I am not a star;
There are others more handsome by far;
My face I don't mind it;
For I am behind it;
The people in front get the jar—some jar.

Come in all your fighting trim,
Come in all your strength to win,
Come and show your spirit for the Blue and Gold.
Come and shout your war-cry out
With all your power and might,
And whate'er we do, we will all be true
To our cherished University.

Here's to dear old U.B.C.,
Here's to dear old U.B.C.
Hearty are the men who wear the Blue and Gold.
We'll send across the land our ringing
cry. (Rah! Rah!)
Hail to dear old U.B.C.
Her fighting spirit cannot die.
Even when our luck is gone,
We'll carry on for U.B.C.

Vera Peters, Arts '33.

My Girl's a Hullabaloo

My girl's a hullabaloo,
She wears the Gold and Blue;
She goes to Varsity too
Just like the others do.

(CHORUS)

And in my future life
She's going to be my wife.
How in the world d'ja find that out?
She told me so.

She goes to all the games
Just like the other dames,
I fork out all the change
Just like the others do, etc.

When we go walking
She does the talking,
I do the squeezing,
She does the teasing, etc.

As we grow older
She will grow bolder,
And she will hold her
Head on my shoulder, etc.
