NO REDUCTION THIS TERM

There will no reduction of the amount required from the local hotels for licenses during this term at least.

At the last regular session of the Council Mr. McNiff appeared on behalf of the two local hotels and asked for a reduction of fees. During these hard times he thought that a reduction should be made. In fact it was likely that the hotels would have to go out of business in case this was not done.

Mayor Huff pointed out that it was not in the power of the Council to grant such a reduction as the term was already under way, and in any event only a small reduction would be possible under the terms of the act. By-Laws could not be amended by resolution. The matter would have to take its regular course.

Mayor Huff was requested to take a trip outside to attend to some municipal matters and promised to go sometime during the week.

Sundry accounts were ordered paid, and certain routine matters attended to. A number of bond buying firms had written for particulars regarding city securities, and the blanks which they submitted will be filled out by the City Clerk.

A Stranger.

The fish captured last week by Messrs. Butterfield & Mackie off Port Alberni, and presented by them to the Provincial Museum, has been identified as the White Sea Bass of California, (Cynoscion Nobilis).

It is very abundant about Santa Catalina but ranges north to San Francisco, and an occasional specimen has been taken near Victoria. The first specimen on record from those waters was taken at Sooke Harbor about 1892. It is an important food and game fish and is known in its native waters as Santa Catalina Salmon, being considered its equal in every way.

This fish is no doubt attracted to our coast by the warm Japan Current which strikes off California running north.

Pleasant Meeting.

From all accounts the mass meeting at the Port this week must have been a pleasant little affair. The meeting was called by the Port Board of Trade for the purpose of arranging some method of securing work for the men of the Port during the winter season. The various avenues along which this might be accomplished were discussed, and some resolutions passed. These will be put through the ordinary channels in due course of time, and an effort made to "start something right away."

ALBERNI HERO COMING HOME

Today Keith Gill, native son of Alberni, and hero of three of the fiercest fights the world has ever known, is expected home. When Keith gets his medal, as get it he will, on it will be bars carrying such names as Neuve Chappelle, Festubert, and Ypres; names never to be forgotten while the hearts of men vibrate to the tales of heroic deeds.

Keith Gill left us a young giant in health and strength. He will return a broken man. At his country's need he gave up much that makes life worth living to the young and strong. His honorable discharge from further service, for which he is physically unfit, closes this incident of his life, but in the hearts of those who have known him from childhood he will always remain our own brave Alberni boy, and we honor ourselves in honoring him.

WAR PROGRESS IN PARAGRAPHS

London, Oct. 5.—The news of mobilization in Greece caused great excitement in Constantinople. The government was obliged to call on the people to remain calm, declaring Bulgaria was Turkey's ally. The people were also told that the Entente Powers had sued for peace but that the Kaiser had rejected the plea.

• • • •

Petrograd, Oct. 5.—At noon today, (2 a.m. Victoria time) the foreign office stated that no answer had been received from Bulgaria; this was four and a half hours after the time ultimatum had expired. The foreign office does not expect Russia's allies will send an ultimatum.

• • • •

Russia has recalled her minister at Sofia.

• • • •

London, Oct. 6.—The King of Greece has accepted the resignation of the Venizelos cabinet according to official despatches to London.

• • • •

Eighteen thousand French soldiers have landed at Salonika, and the remainder of 70,000 are disembarking rapidly.

• • • •

German gunners have taken over the entire Bulgarian artillery.

• • • •

Petrograd, Oct. 6.—Up to noon today no reply to the ultimatum had been received from Bulgaria.

Thanksgiving.

Next Monday, October 11, is Thanksgiving Day, and the merchants, as well as other business men of the town will take a holiday to rest from their violent efforts to keep up with their orders. By arrangement all stores will be closed, so put in a stock to last over the week end, or you may find that you will do your thanksgiving on a light diet.

All those people who have turkeys hidden away for the joyful occasion are reminded that a sharp eye often saves regrets, also that there are safety vaults in the Motion Block. The Editor will undertake to attend to fowls left in his charge.

Last Call.

We have been given to understand that the Editor of the Advocate is about to take a vacation and that there will be no more local paper for a time. This brings us to a point where we have to say a last word to the public through the medium of this sheet. We suppose the Editor knows his business best, but he might have waited a little longer while we told the people of the district something more about the really superior grade of all kinds of tender and tempting meats handled by the old reliable family butcher, Mr. Rochester. Do not forget the fact when we are no longer able to remind you of it.

Looking Fine.

Messrs. J. Manuel, Geo. Roff, N. Spencer, A. Laughlin and J. Forsythe, of the Alberni Brigade, and other forces, were in town for a brief visit this week. The boys all looked fine and appear to have taken to the military life as a duck takes to water.

A Holiday.

WITH this issue of the Advocate the Editor has come to the conclusion to take a holiday. For a few months at least the Advocate will not be published. An effort will be made in the interval to get things squared up, and those who are in arrears with their accounts are requested to make an effort to help the good work by doing their best to come along with at least some part of the amounts due. There is no intention to abandon the business for any length of time, and with the first chance to put the paper on a paying basis there will be a continuation of publication. To our subscribers we extend our thanks for past favors, and assure them that we hope to be with them in the not very distant future. There may be a few that have paid in advance, and these will be attended to just as soon as the books are put in shape. There are certainly many who are in arrears. We hope to hear from these at an early date.

The job department of the business will be carried on as usual, and with a fine line of all kinds of stationery we hope to keep this end of the business in a healthy state. It has been the only department that has held its own for some time past.

We hope to hear from our friends as to any business details which we may have overlooked, and assure them that every effort will be made to adjust matters to the satisfaction of all parties.

The Advocate was started at the summit of Alberni's prosperity and the manager has just as much faith in the future of the City right now as he ever had, and our old friends will appreciate that statement as being as strong as we can make it.

It was the loss of one of the leading members of the firm through joining the colors, that put the business in a shape where it no longer pays to carry it on in its present condition. We hope to be able to announce other arrangements at an early date, but find that it will be necessary to have the time to go outside to attend to these efforts and for this reason have determined to take the holiday above referred to.

PRACTICAL POINTERS ABOUT ALBERNI

Alberni is reached by train from Victoria. Connections are made with Victoria, running through to Alberni on every other day. Passengers from Vancouver City can connect with this train at Nanaimo.

Alberni is also reached by steamer from Victoria, and in the summer months there is no more delightful trip than this up the west coast of Vancouver Island and along the picturesque Alberni canal.

The Island trunk line of the C.N.R. is now building from Victoria to Alberni.

It has been found that mixed farming pays best. On plots of from ten to twenty acres fruit growing, dairying, poultry raising, hogs and cattle will all pay well.

In Alberni will be found the usual advantages of a progressive Western Community that has faith, and the courage of its convictions. There are a number of good stores carrying a wide range of goods, schools, churches, the Alberni Advocate, newspaper, and a number of athletic and social clubs.

The climate is as fine as can be found on the Pacific Coast, taken the year round. The rainfall is less than that of the City of Vancouver, the frosts are light. There is seldom frost enough for skating or snow enough for sleighing, and when either of those comes it only lasts a few days. For the summer and autumn months there is nothing in the world to excel the Alberni weather.

There are numerous attractive opportunities for the manufacturer and investor. The Editor of the Alberni Advocate, Alberni, B. C., will be glad to take these matters up with you. Write to him for particulars.

Stop! Look! Listen!

Stop Long enough to ask yourself seriously the all important question, "Am I satisfied with the manner in which the present Government is carrying on the administration of affairs in which I am as vitally interested as anyone?"

Look Into the record of the past few years carefully, and without prejudice. Size up the present situation and the outlook for the future, if these methods are to be continued.

Listen To the voice of reason. Think of what must be behind the scenes when life-long Conservatives are deserting McBride. Study the Liberal platform and make up your mind to have a change of Government.
