Clearing Right of Way Starts on New Line

New Westminster, March 7.—Actual work has been started by the Northern Construction Company in clearing the right of way for the Lulu Island branch of the Canadian Northern railway. Explorer's Widow at Wellington

Wellington, N. Z., March 1.—Lady Scott, widow of Captain R. F. Scott, the British explorer, who lost his life on the return trip from the South Pole, arrived yesterday from San Francisco on the steamer Aorangi. She was met at the pier by her brother. Lieutenant Bruce, and Commander Evans of the Terra Nova.

Lady Scott controlled her feelings. She said she learned of her husband's death by wireless while aboard the Aorangi.

Dr. Friedmann May Come to Canada

Ottawa, Feb. 28. In the House this afternoon, A. K. MacLean, of Halifax, asked the government to send an official representative of Canada to New York to confer with Dr. Friedmann in regard to his cure for tuberculosis. MacLean suggested that if possible Friedmann should be induced to come to Canada and give, under government auspices, a demonstration of his cure here.

Premier Borden said the government already had the matter under consideration and if expert advice warranted the step suggested by MacLean, the government would take prompt action.

Prospector Kills and Eats Companion

Edmonton, Alta., Feb. 28.—With an account of how he had killed and eaten his companion, Len Lemieux, scrawled on the door of his cabin, trappers arriving here today told of the finding of the body of Henry Leclaire, a prospector, five miles north of Mile Fifty-Three, B. C. The remains of Lemieux's body, which had been hacked to pieces with a hunting knife, were found nearby. Leclaire was frozen to death.

It is supposed the men, while prospecting, were overtaken by a blizzard and, unable to reach a settlement, lay down to die.

Many Persons Injured

Hanover, Ont., Mar. 6.—The Grand Trunk Pacific express from Stratford jumped the track near here today, several coaches being derailed. The accident was attended with serious results, three passengers and seven of the train crew being badly injured.

England Threatened With Railroad Strike

London, Mar. 7.—A threat to tie up the whole railway system in England has been made by the railwaymen's Unions. The dismissal of a guard, by one of the leading railway companies for an alleged petty offence, is the cause of the trouble. It is reported that an investigation by the directors of the Company will be instituted and that a general strike will be averted.

U. S. and Mexican Troops Clash

Mexican Force Fare Badly.

El Paso, Texas, March 6.—An exciting encounter occurred today, on the border in the neighborhood of Douglas, between American troopers and Mexican soldiers.

It is claimed that the Mexican's opened fire on a small party of American officers.

The American troopers attacked and a running fight ensued, the Mexican's beating a hasty retreat. During the encounter four Mexicans were killed with but one American trooper slightly wounded.

President Wilson Inaugurated

Immense Crowd Witness Ceremony.

Washington, March 5.—Over half-a-million people where present to witness the inauguration of President Wilson.

The parade presented a magnificent scene and was by far the largest in the history of the Capital.

Latest Additions to Cabinet

Late despatches state that the latest additions to the Wilson Cabinet include the following:—Secretary of Interior, Franklin K. Lane, of California; Secretary of Agriculture, David F. Houston, of Missouri; Secretary of Commerce, W. C. Radfield of New York; Secretary of Labor, W. B. Wilson, of Pensylvania.

Highwayman Captured After Exciting Chase

Much Shooting With Little Damage

Vancouver, Mar. 6.—Caught in the act of holding up a woman, an Italian named John Matilio was captured last night by constable Knox. Matilio showed considerable speed and a running fight ensued during which thirty shots were fired. It was probably only due to faulty mechanism in the holdup man's gun that constable Knox still enjoys good health as the highwayman attempted to shoot Knox in the head at close range when the cartridge jammed in his gun.

Germany to Spend large Sum on Army and Navy

Berlin, Mar. 7. The Government intends appropriating the large sum of two hundred and fifty million dollars for increases in her naval and military forces.

Constantiople, Mar. 6.—A Turkish cruiser attacked a number of transports engaged in conveying troops to the seat of war. Three Greek ships were sunk all on board losing their lives.

Several other transports conveying Servian soldiers were seriously damaged but succeeded in making their escape.

Complete Deadlock in House of Commons

Both Sides Stand Firm on the Naval Question

Ottawa, Mar. 7.—The deadlock which has arisen over the Government's proposed vote of thirty-five million dollars to Great Britain for the construction of three Dreadnoughts still continues. Both sides of the House are determined to stand firm. The Liberals threaten that unless the Government gives way the discussion will be continued until Saturday night. The Government declares that there is absolutely no possibility of an adjournment unless the opposition consents to allow the particular clause under discussion to go through.

Intense Excitement Prevails

For the first time in the history of the House no attempt is being made to discuss the point at issue, both parties being loud in their declamation of each other.

Intense excitement prevails and it is feared that some disorder may occur unless either side make some concession soon.

Auto Collides With Car

Vancouver, Mar. 6. An auto colliding with an inter-urban car was responsible for the death of Mr. Davidson, manager of the Royal Transfer Company.

To Voters

Notification has been received by the Executive of the local Liberal Association that the Provincial Government has cancelled all existing voters list, and that until the 7th April is allowed for persons to have their names registered.

All persons eligible to vote should have their names registered without delay.

The crew of the Bella Coola Cannery are busily engaged making preparations in expectation of a large pack this summer.

On the arrival of the Capilano with tin-plate, can making will commence immediately.

It will be a surprise to many to see how busily employed the new telegraph line has been kept and the Courier does not hesitate to say that the business to be done by a Bank in this district would be an even greater surprise to the few doubting Thomases in our midst.

In regard to a Bank, doubtless this will be deemed worthy the notice of our newly-formed Development League.

The local saw-mills are working full time in expectation of a large demand for lumber which this spring will bring forward.

When you help the Courier, you help Bella Coola and necessarily yourselves. Subscribe for your friends in Europe or the States and do your share to advertise Bella Coola Valley.

Mr. R. A. Teebay has been spending a few days down the Inlet with Mr. Herbert Sutherland, whom he is assisting in the building of a summer residence.

"Salus populi suprema est lex."

SATURDAY, MARCH 8, 1913.

A Noble Vision

We call attention to the following from the Sydney (Australia) Morning Herald:

"We have no wish to intervene in the political controversies of sister dominions, but we feel that Canada's only satisfactory manner of joining in Pacific defence is tne establishment of a local naval unit, co-operating with the other Imperial Pacific forces. The question of the control of these contingents is most important, but not difficult of solution, since there is a general disposition to accept the admiralty's advice of utilizing the available ships to the best advantage, and with the least delay in times of stress."

Here is the noble vision outlined by Sir George Reid speaking in London recently:

"Our young navy is going to fly the white ensign. It is stationed in the south seas and has the Australian flag at the jack staff, but the white ensign at the peak. I cannot help thinking that the anxieties of British statesmen will be vastly diminished when Australia guards the southern seas, when Canada guards the North Pacific and North Atlantic, when India and South Africa guard the eastern seas, and when Great Britain guards the heart of the Empire and, of course, adds largely to the guardianship of the trade routes of the Empire."

How humiliating that the government's policy precludes Canada from taking her share in this magnificent scheme.

Upon Australia, and we believe New Zealand, will devolve the heavy task of protecting Britain's interests on the Pacific.

THE ESTIMATES

An error in the provincial estimates as printed, made it appear that the appropriations for 1913-14 were $12,769,010. The correct sum is $17,838,266, as follows: Public works, $9,691,600; other services detailed, $5,069,010; miscellaneous, $3,086,410. The estimated revenue is $10,336,085. This seems to leave a deficit of $7,500,000.

Some Little Known People

BY SPHINX

There is, for many people, something alluring about the unknown or the problematical, and pleasure is often to be had by speculating as to the whole truth of but scantily known facts.

The comparatively recent discovery by the explorer Stefanson, of the actual existence, in the far north, of a race of white Eskimos, is a case in point.

For a number of years the existence of these people had been hinted at in various rumors, and now they have actually been located.

The question arises as to whom these people are, whence came they, and how did they originate? At present this is a matter of speculation. Certain it is that their mode of life is extremely primitive, although this is in part due no doubt to the climatic and other conditions under which they live.

The probability is that they are descendants of some early explorers of European origin. It has been proved beyond a doubt that the old-time Norsemen penetrated with their ships to the shores of Greenland and Labrador; it is not unreasonable to suppose that some of them may have settled in Northern Canada and gradually wandered westward, becoming in time separated from their own countrymen, and in the course of time may have intermingled with the aboriginal tribes, and so by degrees have lost their original identity.

There is a remote posibility that there may have been a few survivors of the ill-fated Franklin expedition, who may have fallen in with some Eskimo tribe, and inter-married with them, though this is doubtful, or they may have originated from some entirely unsuspected source.

Possibly, when fuller particulars of these people have been gathered, as to their mode of life, traditions, characteristics, and so forth, their origin may be definitely ascertained, until then however, we can but speculate.

Leaving the frozen North, and passing to the tropics, we find again rumors of the existence of a white race said to inhabit the scarcely explored and almost impenetrable country about the sources of the Amazon River.

The actual existence of this latter race has hardly yet been proved to satisfaction owing to the difficulty of penetrating the dense forests in that part of the world.

Supposing them to exist however, who are these people, and what is their origin?

Possibly they may be the descendants of the Incas of Peru, who may have fled before the advance of the early Spanish conquistadors; or again they may be actual descendants of Spanish or other European explorers.

With the gradual exploration and opening up of the hitherto waste places of the earth, many facts which have formerly been merely rumored, proved or disproved, and what is a matter of surmise to one generation, becomes one of common knowledge to the next.

Rt. Hon. Walter Long says Mr. Borden's navy fight has been "gallant and successful." How is that for praise when we don't contribute a man?

Huerta is now the man of the hour in Mexico. In no other country is the expression "man of the hour" so literally true.—Vancouver Sun.

Reciprocal Trade Still Beckons

If a case need be made for Reciprocity, it is surely made in the evidence given before the Agricultural Committee of the Dominion House of Commons by the representatives of the British Columbia fruit-growers'. Mr. Douglas, of Strathcona, we read, said he had been much struck, "when in Vancouver recently, to see no British Columbia fruit, but all Washington fruit," offered for sale and consumption. Mr. W. S. Foggo, a director and member of the British Columbia Fruit-grower's Association, promptly explained that this was due to quicker delivery from Seattle, and also to the very natural fear excited and entertained among Vancouver fruit-dealers that huge American consignments of fruit would arrive that could be sold more cheaply than the home product. There had been more of such consignments this year, he said, than ever before. Mr. Foggo explained that in Saskatoon, a part of the Canadian Northwest market, whither the British Columbia grower naturally looks for disposal of the goods he produces, there were seventy-three cars of consigned American fruit on the tracks in one day. Moreover, we read, Mr. Foggo pointed out that the duty on American fruit coming into Canada is 13 cents a box, whereas the American duty against Canadian fruit entering the States is 25 cents a box. In other words, as the tariffs now stand, Canadian fruit, in the fight for the market against fruit grown in the United States, has to overleap a barrier almost double in height that which is interposed against the entrance of United States grown fruit into Canada.

It is all very well for the Borden Administration to relegate the meeting and the dealing with practical difficulties of this sort to the adroit and resourceful Mr. Burrell. Mr. Burrell is well known in British Columbia, and, no doubt, it is to Canada's advantage that he should become better known in Provinces far removed from that in which he resides. It is all very well that the electors of British Columbia and of Canada should be led to realization of the fact that tariffs, duties, and fiscal barriers of every variety, are merely artificial as to national progress wooden limbs, which are to be discarded as soon as the natural members whose place they temporarily take are developed sufficiently to carry their own weight of responsibility in the body politic but beneath, beyond, before all such reflections lies commonsense perception of the fact that reciprocal trading with the Republic of the south, conceived and carried out on statesmanlike lines, would involve an adjustment of tariff that would make the dumping in Canada of inferior grades of fruits grown in the neighboring States of the American Union a business impossibility.—Vancouver World.

A ROUGH ESTIMATE

Italy has a characteristic financial scandal on its hands. The cost of building a new palace of justice at Rome has developed from an original estimate of $1,500,000 to $12,000,000. The first use it should be put to would be the trial and conviction of the alleged grafters.

CRIPPEN'S HERRING FISHERIES

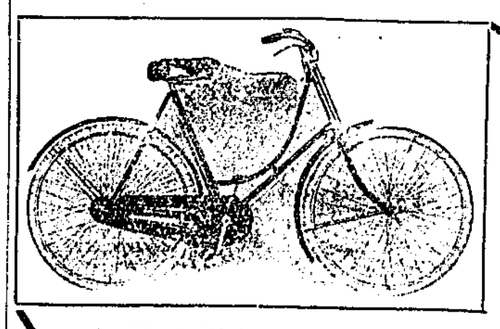
There are many people in Bella Coola who have kindly remembrances of the visit of Mr. Lionel Crippen, perhaps better known throughout the district as Dr. Crippen.

It will be of undoubted interest to these people to know that Mr. Crippen is the promoter and managing director of a company whose business is the salting and smoking of herrings. A large and expensive plant is at present under construction, which, when completed will have a tremendous capacity.

The company's exhibit at the recent exposition in Vancouver elicited considerable interest, and the delicious product has already found a place in the markets of the world. Don't fail to try Dr. Crippen's new departure in tasty breakfast foods.

Jack Johnson Barred

Ottawa, March 1.—The Commissioner of Immigration has issued orders to all immigration agents between Canada and the United States to refuse admission to Jack Johnson, the heavyweight champion pugilist, should he attempt to enter Canada.



There's a Difference in the Price!

AND A BIG DIFFERENCE, but there's no practical difference in the value and efficiency of these Cycles. Some were damaged in transit, some are simply "shop-soiled" and some have been out on hire a few times only, but all are offered at BIG REDUCTIONS. Let us know your requirements and we will send particulars.

DON'T FORGET That the expenditure of $10 cash at Plimley's entitles you to a ticket which will share in the drawing of a $1,500 "Overland" Auto.
