THE CRESTON REVIEW

Vol. XV. CRESTON, B. C., FRIDAY, MARCH 30, 1923 No. 8

Alice Siding

School closes on the 29th for the ten-day Easter vacation, which Principal Lalleymond will spend here.

Guy Constable got back on Sunday from Vernon, where he has been on Co-Operative Growers business for the past three weeks.

Owing to some wishing to attend the final meetings of the Rev. F. A. Robinson at Creston, this week's Social Club hop had to be postponed from Tuesday until Thursday night.

Road boss Tom Harris already has the drag at work on the Alice Siding roads getting the ruts levelled up before putting on the scraper.

Jas. Compton was around this section Wednesday getting signatures to the Union five-year contract, and was having one hundred per cent. success, everyone signing that he called on.

Gordon Smith, who has been near Pasadena, Calif., for the last three months, got back at the end of the week, and will spend the summer in the Valley.

Cattle are again grazing on the flats, although the range food has to be supplemented by occasional feeds from the stack.

The weather the first four days this week was real springlike, Wednesday seeing the mercury up to 60 shortly after dinner.

Canyon City

The school is due to close on Thursday for the Easter vacation with operations to resume on the 9th of April.

The present fine weather is bringing out the frost and roads are in very poor shape for travelling. Dad Browell is busy with drainage operations to get rid of the water and get the graders on the job.

The planers are still in operation at the big mill and in spite of poor hauling there is considerable shipping of rush orders a car of cedar going out on Friday destined for Toronto, Ontario, use.

Birth—On March 26th, to Mr. and Mrs. Matt. Clayton, a son.

Rev. J. H. White, D.D., superintendent of B.C. Methodist Missions, will preach anniversary services here on Sunday afternoon at 3.30. He will speak at Lister at 11.30.

Strawberry and Raspberry Crates

Orders for Strawberry and Raspberry Crates must be in the hands of the manufacturers within the next few days in order to guarantee a supply for this season.

Each grower is requested to send in at once an estimate of the crates he will require for Strawberries, Raspberries, Red and Black Currants and Blackberries.

Purchases will be based on these estimates and the Union is unable to guarantee to supply crates to those who fail to send in an estimate.

Creston Fruit Growers Union, Limited

Everywhere is heard satisfaction expressed at the turn the local fruit marketing situation has taken and with Mr. VanAckeran on the Union directorate Canyon is assured this district will get every consideration it is entitled to.

The trustees of the Methodist church take this means of expressing their thanks to all who either by donating money or labor have made it possible to erect the substantial addition that has just been completed to the church.

Miss Jessie Hickey was guest of honor at a social evening at the Pochin home on Wednesday hight, the affair being a miscellaneous shower which was well attended by her lady friends who remembered with a nice lot of useful and ornamental remembrances on the occasion of her approaching marriage within the next few weeks.

The feature of the short business session of the United Farmers on Saturday night was the request of the residents of the Calgary Heights district that the department be asked to secure the land necessary to give a diversion to do away with the heavy grade on the road in from the school, the residents in that area being willing to do the work free once the desired right of way is laid out.

Kitchener

Real estate is booming in and around Kitchener, several properties having changed hands in the past few days.

Kitchener is surely getting ready for the expected boom this summer

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, who have been working at Schonnert's camp, have gone to Creston where they will reside in future.

Mr. Castonguay, who has been trapping in this section all winter, left for his home at Creston on Sunday.

Mrs. Lionel Forrester is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Castonquay, at Creston.

G. A. Hunt has just completed his timber contract with the Sash & Door Company.

Miss Lyda Johnson was a Creston visitor here between trains on Sunday.

Miss Ellen Andeen, who has been a patient in Cranbrook hospital of late returned at the end of the week, and was amongst those present at the baseball dance on Saturday night.

F. V. Staples was a business visitor here on Sunday and closed at least one motor car sale during his stay.

There is quite an exodus of prairie men who have been working at Kitchener all winter, hiking back to get ready for spring farm work. However, the influx of new comers keeps both hotels filled to overflowing.

The Sash & Door Company sawmill was closed down for a few days this week, while the machinery was getting a thorough overhauling.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Driffil and D. A. McDonald were week-end visitors with friends at Creston, returning on Monday.

It is confidently expected that all three of the Kitchener sawmills will be operating this summer and between the mill operations and logging it looks as if at least 200 men will be on the local payrolls.

A benefit dance was held in Hunt's Hall on Saturday night the proceeds from which will go toward the purchase of an outfit for the 1923 Kitchener baseball team. After meeting expenses about $70 was realized.

Although the snow is not quite all gone yet the baseball bug is buzzing around and just now things look rosy for the fielding of a ball team that will at least be equal to the best at Yahk and Creston. Considerable of the necessary funds to outfit the nine were secured at Saturday's night's dance and a likely looking site for the diamond and grounds has been spotted. With the prospect of two hundred men working here this summer baseball should prove a very popular sport for all.

Union Contracts Well Signed Up

Things are again quite normal in the local fruit marketing situation, following a three day visit to Creston of D. W. Sutherland, organizer for the Co-Operative Growers, who was here from Saturday to Tuesday, his mission being to secure the signatures of Creston growers to the official contract of the Co-Operative Growers.

He had several sessions of the Union directors, and after wire communication with Vernon Mr. Sutherland was finally in a position to state that the special terms asked by Creston would be conceded, but it was stipulated that it would be necessary for Creston growers individually to sign the Co-Operative contract, on the back of which provision would be made to assure the terms asked for being given

The directors, however, felt that it would be suicidal to circulate Co-Operative contracts in view of the distinct prejudice that has been exhibited toward them, and so no effort was made in that direction.

Before leaving on Tuesday Manager Staples and Mr. Sutherland had agreed on a rough draft of the contract the Union will sign on behalf of the local growers to ensure co-operation between Creston and the Co-Operative, and the finished contract was sent to Vernon on Wednesday.

Following the departure of Mr. Sutherland the signing up of Valley growers on the Union contract has been going on most successfully, the Review being informed that up till noon Thursday contracts accounting for 75 per cent. of the desired local tonnage had been turned in.

Contracts will be available for signature at the Union and also Staples Fruit Company, and it is expected that growers will make it a point to visit either of these and sign up not later than Saturday noon. Two or three people have volunteered to circulate contracts but no campaign for this purpose has been organized. Any rancher who has not been visited by one of these volunteers must not feel that he has been overlooked or that his tonnage is not essential. One hundred per cent. for united selling effort is the point at which to aim and each individual is asked to do his part by coming into town and signing.

Local and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Driffil of Kitchener were week end visitors with Creston friends and report that a move is already on foot to have a baseball team at Kitchener this year, and to go into a league made up of Creston, Yahk, Kitchener and possibly Wynndel.

Const. Clark, who has been on the R.C.M.P. force here for the past few months, has been transferred to Alberta, and left for Lethbridge on Monday. He was a most unassuming but efficient officer and a favorite in social circles, whose departure will be regretted by a host of friends.

Creston will continue to have united church services for at least another month. At a meeting of the board of managers on Monday night invitation was extended the Methodist to continue their usual evening worship at St. Stephen's until such time as Rev. Mr. Knox is able to resume pulpit work. The invitation has been accepted. Due to over crowding the Methodist Sunday School will meet at the Methodist church each Sunday morning.

The annual Masonic ball on Friday night at the Grand Theatre was the social event of the season, with some sixty couple present to enjoy the hospitality of the officers and members of Creston Lodge. The floor was in excellent shape and the music by Mesdames Foreman and Lister and Al. Lidgate was of the best, as was also the supper which was served by caterer Norris. Messrs. Bundy, Norris and W. R. Long, the committe in charge of the affair certainly deserve every credit for their successful effort in providing a good time for such a large assemblage.

R.W. Bro. Geo. S. Baker of Fort Steele, D.D.G.M of District No. 8, paid Creston Masonic Lodge an official visit on Wednesday night. The second degree was conferred on a candidate and the district deputy was quite fulsome in his commendation of the work done by W.M. T. W. Bundy and the other officers. The visitor also found the lodge in all its appointments in a very high state of efficiency. At the close of lodge adjournment was taken to the Norris restaurant where the customary banquet was served and the usual round of toasts very heartily received.

The two and a half weeks of evangelistic services in St. Stephen's Church, which have been carried on by Rev. F. A. Robinson and Miss Niven, soloist, and Miss Grunert, pianist, under the joint auspices of the Methodist and Presbyterian congregations, came to a close on Wednesday night. For the first two weeks splendid attendances were in evidence each week night, whilst on Sundays the edifice was taxed to capacity to seat the evening crowds, particularly. Both speaker and musicians were well received and much lasting good is sure to follow their efforts in Creston.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Quist left at the first of the week for Metiskow, Alberta, where they intend to again make their home for some time, at which point two of their sons are farming on a very large scale. Mr. Quist, particularly will certainly be missed from Creston. During at least five years of residence he has taken a foremost part in United Farmer effort, and has been very prominent in Methodist Church work, taking charge of the bible class, singing in the choir, and on occasion taking the services throughout. Mr. Quist's experience in both business and agriculture made him a particularly useful citizen in a community such as this, and the departure of Mrs. Quist and himself will be regretted.

Creston G.W.V.A. have arranged with the Ted Williams Novelty Entertainers to hold a dance in the Grand Theatre Ballroom, on Monday week, to help raise funds for the local organization. The orchestra, which is composed of five musicions, who all play two or more instruments, has been playing for the Veterans in Calgary since last November, and is going to England for the 1924 British Empire Exhibition as it is the best jazz and novelty in the west at the present time. We feel sure that everyone will get out and help the boys as they certainly deserve every success for arranging to give all the pleasure of hearing such a combination of musicians and entertainers.

Wynndel

Mrs. Grady got back on Tuesday from Spokane, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hook.

Land clearing is now the order of the day, both C. O. Ogilvie and Matt. Hagen being busy in that particular line.

The ladies' Aid hopes that all will turn out for their bazaar and sale of cooking on Saturday, 31st.

There will be a meeting of the local Co-Operative Fruit Growers' Association transaction of regular business on Monday night.

E. Butterfield was a business visitor at Nelson a few days the latter part of the week.

Miss Phyllis Foxall has returned from Willow Point, where she had spent a few days, the guest of Mrs. Greenwood.

Messrs. E. and A. Andestad were observed on Tuesday exercising their ability to drive the Chevrolet car which they purchased last fall.

"Big Ben" Hannem has returned to Wynndel, and has taken on his old job with the Winlaw firm.

O. J. Wigen left on Tuesday on a business trip to Appledale.

Harry Bathie, jr., is again with us, and we understand that he will remain for about a month doing some necessary spring work on his ranch.

Erickson

Gerald Timmons, who has been at his home here for the past three weeks, returned to work at Cultus Creek at the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Adams, and young son, Jim, were week-end guests of Mrs. Adams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Attwood. Mr. Adams left for home on Monday.

Roy Telford received the unwelcome intelligence by wire on Friday announcing the death of his brother, Sandy, which occurred at Guelph, Ontario, that morning. Residents with a good memory will recall a visit the deceased made here about eight years ago.

School closes for the Easter vacation on the 29th and will be closed until the 9th. Miss Green will spend the vacation at her home in Kaslo.

Erickson figures prominently in the newly-elected directorate of Creston Fruit Growers Union, three of the seven members hailing from here—Frank Putnam, R. J. Long and E. E. Cartwright.

Word has just come from Eric Craigie that he is located permanently near Los Angeles, Calif., where he has gone to work as a carpenter's helper.

Milt Beam is expected back from the Corn Creek section in a few days, as with the snow pretty well gone trapping is at an end. The season has been quite a successful one for mink and skunk, but so far no cougar have been taken.

The surprise party squad invaded the E. A. Penson home on Friday night, but due to several of the younger members being absent at the Mason's ball the evening was spent in purely social fashion and the innovation was very much enjoyed by all.

Mother and Her Baby Are Relieved of Eczema

Mrs. Peter A. Palmer, Salt Burn, Sask., writes:

"Dr. Chase's Ointment has completely relieved me of eczema and piles. I also used this Ointment for my baby, who broke out in eczema. A few applications were all that was necessary in her case. Dr. Chase's Ointment has been worth a hundred dollars to me—before using it I had spent a great deal more than that in unsuccessful treatment from doctors. We have also used Dr. Chase's other medicines, the Nerve Food having restored my health after suffering from severe nerve trouble when a girl."

MOTHER! MOVE CHILD'S BOWELS

"California Fig Syrup" is Child's Best Laxative

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little stomach is upset, tongue coated, or if your child is cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, a teaspoonful will never fail to open the bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation poison, sour bile and waste from the tender, little bowels and gives you a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

Belgian King Will Lay Foundation Stone at Zeebrugge Mole

The work of restoring Zeebrugge harbor has been quickened within the past month or two, in readiness for the laying by the King of the Belgians, early in April, of the foundation stone of the memorial to the ratings of the Royal Navy who fell in the fight for the Mole. The salving of the ships sunk to bottle up the "U" boats is almost completed, and the breach in the Mole itself has been repaired. Zeebrugge is now clear for the ferry service. In regard to the memorial, an Anglo-Belgian committee, under the presidency of Lord Emmott, are spending 500,000 francs on the column, surmounted by St. George and the Dragon, which has been designed by M. Dupont, the Brussels sculptor, and will be set up near the Mole as a symbol and a landmark to the seamen of the world.

WINTER WEATHER HARD ON LITTLE ONES

Our Canadian winters are exceedingly hard on the health of little ones. The weather is often so severe that the mother cannot take the little one out for an airing. The consequence is that baby is confined to overheated, badly ventilated rooms; takes cold and becomes cross and peevish. Baby's Own Tablets should be given to keep the little one healthy. They are a mild laxative which regulate the stomach and bowels and thus prevent colds. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

First Underground Railway

London's Tube, Sixty Years Old, Has a History

Days when London's underground railway was used by women in crinolines and men in the top hats and side whiskers of the mid-Victorian period, are recalled by the fact that the Metropolitan Railway has celebrated its diamond jubilee.

The original Metropolitan Railway, which was opened on January 10, 1863, ran from Farrington Street to Bishop's Road, Paddington, 3¾ miles. More than 30,000 people were carried on the opening day and almost as many on each succeeding day.

There was much opposition to its construction. It was asserted that its tunnels would collapse, that the vibration would make the houses above it uninhabitable, and that passengers would be asphyxiated by fumes.

So much resistance was offered to the construction of Regent's Park that the tunnel had to dip in order to pass under a subway running from Park Crescent, under the Marylebone Road to Park Square.

There were many other engineering problems to be solved. The Fleet Ditch sewer (which the railway crosses three times), had to be diverted. During the work of construction the sewer burst at Farringdon Street, causing great damage. All obstacles were overcome, however, and today the tunnels, built 66 years ago, and cased in rings of brick eight deep, are firmer than when they were built.

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. Better Conditions Needful In Order To Make Rural Life Attractive

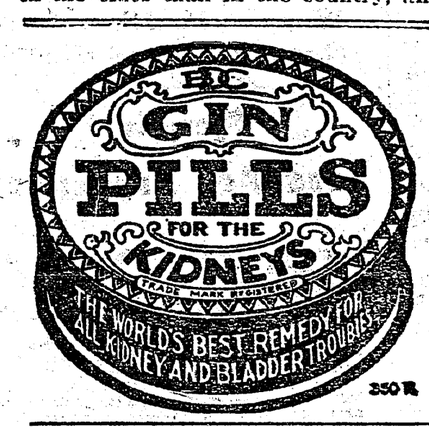
I would emphasize the fact right here, Mr. Speaker, that this is the problem we have to solve today in Canada. When you have made the countryside a good place to live in and have helped to make rural homes happy and prosperous, I have no difficulty in believing, you will have gone a long way towards solving your industrial problems. I really believe that people have attempted to build up the country from the wrong end; they have tried to build it up from the industrial, instead of from the rural, point of view. The development of the natural resources of the country is the first duty that lies at the hands of the Government, and nothing can be done in this direction by herding people into large cities. I might go on for quite a while stating just what was the trouble with the countryside, but I may tell you that one of the first things we have to take into consideration is the lack of remuneration. You cannot get people to stay anywhere or undertake any work if they are not going to receive adequate remuneration for their labors. In bygone years it has not taken the young people in the country districts very long to learn that more remuneration and better conditions were to be found in the cities than in the country, and consequently they have sought them. We cannot blame those people; they did just what was natural, and what others would likely do again. Perhaps every dweller in the rural districts will agree with me in what I am about to say; at least I know it is true of my own particular district, where I am well acquainted. Look over that district and pick out the best homes and the most intelligent people, and in the great majority of cases you will find that the brightest and best of the children have left the countryside and gone to the cities. I am not going to attempt to solve the problem which that state of affairs presents I am simply pointing out what is a fact, and I should like the Government to take notice of it and endeavor to find some remedy.—Robert Forke (Brandon).



May Lead to Controversy

Bill Amending Canada Temperance Act to be Discussed

The bill amending the Canada Temperance Act, of which Senator Casgrain gave notice to the Senate some days ago, will probably give rise to considerable controversy. The aim of the bill is to provide for the abolition of licenses to manufacture intoxicating liquor in provinces wherein the sale thereof is prohibited.

The bill provides in part that upon receipt by the Secretary of State for Canada of order-in-council passed by any dry province, requesting that no licenses be issued for the manufacture within that province of any intoxicating liquor other than for sacramental or medicinal purposes, or for manufacturing for commercial purposes other than as a beverage, or such other intoxicating liquor as may be lawfully sold in the province, the governor-in-council shall cease to issue such licenses after March 31, 1924.

New Brunswick Man Cannot Say Too Much in Favour of Dodd's Kidney Pills

He Advises all Persons who Suffer from Kidney Disease to use them.

Pine Ridge, N.B.—(Special).—From all over New Brunswick reports are coming telling of the popularity of Dodd's Kidney Pills as a remedy for all forms of kidney trouble.

In every place, however small, there appears to be at least one person who is prepared to say that he owes his health to the great Canadian remedy. Mr. Edward Chandler, a well-known resident here is one of them.

"I have taken ten boxes of your Dodd's Kidney Pills and cannot say too much in their favour," Mr. Chandler states. "They are worth their weight in gold and I shall advise all who suffer from kidney disease to use them."

Dodd's Kidney Pills have become a family remedy because people have tried them and found them good. They help Rheumatism, Lumbago, Diabetes, Lame Back, Heart Disease and Urinary troubles, because all of these are either Kidney Diseases or are caused by the kidneys failing to do their work.

Appreciates Gift of Vimy

Canada's Gratitude to France Expressed by House of Commons

By formal resolution, the House of Commons has expressed its gratitude to France for the gift to Canada of 250 acres of land on Vimy Ridge where a monument is to be erected commemorating the exploits of Canadian soldiers in the war. Leaders of all parties united in the expression of heartfelt thanks.

It was the purpose of the Battlefields Memorial Commission to erect eight monuments, three in Belgium and five in France.

"Vimy Ridge stands as one of the world's great altars of sacrifice," declared Mr. King. "In addition to marking the site of the great battle, the monument would serve as an indication of the enduring friendship between the French and the Canadian people."

Hon. R. J. Manion spoke as one of those who was at Vimy Ridge on April 9, 1917, and desired as a returned soldier to be associated with the Premier and others who had spoken in the acceptance from France of this gift. No better site could have been chosen for a monument for the Canadian troops who fell in France.

Big Irrigation Projects

Two Large Undertakings to be Carried Forward This Year

This year will see two large irrigation undertakings in Southern Alberta brought to a stage where the land will be "under the ditch" with water being delivered to the farmer's land. The larger of these projects is the Lethbridge Northern Irrigation district, comprising some 220,000 acres of land, of which 105,000 acres are irrigable. In general terms this project lies between the Old Man and Little Bow Rivers, west and north of Lethbridge, and extending as far west as the pioneer town of MacLeod. The smaller is known as the United Irrigation district, and lies in the foothill country west of Cardston, and about 25 miles south of MacLeod. This project is of 24,000 irrigable acres The two projects will bring 130,000 acres of land under the ditch or the equivalent of almost six townships. Both projects were built during the past two years, under the Alberta Irrigation District Act and the financing was made possible by the guarantee of the districts six percent. bonds by the Provincial Government.

In an address before the annual meeting of the National Trust Co., W. E. Rundle states that twenty-five years ago the total yield of the field crops of the three prairie provinces was 62,000,000 bushels. Last year the estimate shows 800,000,000. In 1893 the population in the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta was 400,000, now it is slightly under 2,000,000. Twenty-five years ago wheat production was 32,000,000 bushels. Last year it was 375,000,000 bushels. In 1901 the western live stock numbered 1,620,000 while in 1922 it counted 8,200,000 head. Twenty-five years ago the savings deposits for all Canada totalled $140,120,000 while today the prairie provinces alone show savings of $200,000,000 and the people there have bought $210,000,000 worth of Victory Bonds.

The Canadian Pacific Railway

WILL FIND

Farm Help for Western Farmers

TO BE OF SERVICE to Western Canadian Farmers and help to meet their needs in securing competent farm help, the Canadian Pacific Railway is prepared to utilize its widespread organization to provide such help from a number of countries.

The CANADIAN PACIFIC Railway will now receive and arrange to fill applications for male and female farm help to be supplied from Great Britain, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Switzerland and Norway, in all of which countries the Company has representatives who have farmed in and are familiar with Western Canadian conditions and who are now in touch with such men and women ready and anxious to come to Canada.

THE GOVERNMENTS of the countries above mentioned have expressed their willingness to aid the emigration of this class of their peoples. In order to fill such applications satisfactorily and bring the help to the farmer at the proper time and with a clear understanding of the requirements and obligations of each, a printed "Application for Help" form has been prepared which can be obtained from any C.P.R. Station Agent or offices listed below.

The Company will make no charge to the farmer for this service nor will the farmer be required to make any cash advance whatsoever towards the travelling expenses of his help to the nearest railway station. The information necessarily asked for in these application forms, which will be held in strictest confidence, covers the following points:—the kind of help required—male or female—married or unmarried; date required and for how long; nationality desired; monthly wages offered; kind of work offered, etc.

CRESTON, B.C., FRIDAY, MAR. 30

Would Prevent Drainage

Some three years ago when the Rossland and Trailinterests showed their first open hostility toward Kootenay Flats reclamation most everyone was at a loss to know what L. A. Campbell, head of the West Kootenay Light & Power Company, had at the back of his head in forcing the Associated Boards of Trade of Eastern B.C. to modify a resolution along oldtime lines so as to inform the authorities at Victoria that drainage should not be undertaken if "present or future industrial possibilities of the river below Nelson would be therby endangered."

Last week, however, Mr. Campbell played the card he had up his sleeve, and the joker is none other than an application from the power company asking the provincial water authorities to give Mr. Campbell and his associaties power to increase the capacity of their plant at Bonnington by works on the river that will assuredly raise the level of Kootenay Lake, and make Kootenay Flats drainage quite impossible.

It is very gratifying to learn from despatches from Victoria that Hon. T. D. Patullo, minister of lands, informed Mr. Campbell that the further water privileges desired would not be granted until the department's engineers had surveyed the river very thoroughly to learn just to what extent reclamation would be jeopardized.

While there may be no significance at all to the apparent concern shown toward flats drainage, the view prevails here that much importance should be attached to this detail in connection with the refusal of the water rights asked for. The administration has always sponsored a policy that where the industrial and agricultural interests conflict preference shall in all cases be given agriculture.

Within the past two years much has been accomplished by both the provincial and Idaho authorities to finally decide whether drainage can be accomplished, and at what price, and the alacrity with which the department at Victoria trots out Kootenay Flats reclamation on such an important occasion can at least be intrepreted as indicating that the lands department still has hopes of getting on with drainage, and not in the very distant future mayhap.

Certainly the idea of having the Kootenay Lake level increased will not appeal to the Idaho authorities, and the international feature of the question is one that cannot be ignored.

Last year Drainage District No. 1 successfully put some 3000 acres of Kootenay Flats land near Bonners Ferry under cultivation by the expenditure of a couple of hundred thousand dollars, spent mainly in dyking effort on the Kootenay.

Any raising of the lake level would, in a high water season, completely ruin their huge investment, and the drainage district shareholders can be counted upon to look after themselves.

But there is a silver lining to every cloud and the bright side to the present incident is that the power company officials will, undoubtedly, bring every pressure to bear to have their application for greater water privileges granted, and in that way, possibly, give us a quicker decision as to drainage than might otherwise have been the case.

Salvation Far from Free

In connection with last week's article on all the round desirability of a united Protestant church in Creston the Review has been favored with several communications.

To publish them all would be wearisome, and lest we should be accused of playing favorites we have decided to publish none of them.

However, we certainly appreciate the wholehearted commendation that has been given our effort in this connection, and the more gratifying is the appreciation in that some of it comes from quarters wholly unexpected of being interested in the matter.

One of our correspondents expresses the fear that some people may be under the impression that the present system is giving them their religion cheap, and the figures submitted in this connection are at least interesting.

He has it that the three churches combined are now raising locally not less than $2500 for ministers' salaries, along with another $500 which is given in what is termed the "loose collections," and when to this added another $1500 which he believes is a reasonable estimate of the total money raised by the three ladies' aid societies, you get a grand total of not less than $4500 which Creston alone gave in one way and another for its religious instruction.

Taking these figures to be correct, and it must be admitted that they look reasonable, and assuming that "the right man" for Creston could be had at $2500 per annum, with another $500 allowed for running expenses, it will be noted that Creston unnecessarily expended about $1500 of its own, as well as taking about another $1800 unnecessarily from the home mission societies, to do work that one man could the more effectively do in every direction.

Financially, as well as spiritually and socially, Creston's three Protestant houses of worship would seem to be not only a poor investment for local funds, but also an unnecessary menace to the less favored humans of the world who perish for lack of the gospel whilst Creston needlessly spends its substance in riotous religion living, and still, in heathen lands, "The harvest truly is great and the laborers are few."

Domestic Pack

The Review bespeaks the attendance of all who like a friendly game of cards or a dance—or both—at the Easter Monday night whist and dance in the Parish Hall for the benefit of Creston Valley Agricultural Association. This year considerable extra revenue will be required as in 1923 the first payment falls due in connection with the purchase of the five-acre fair grounds, whilst in addition the directors are hoping to put on a full two-day fair. If you are not a card or dance enthusiast you can still lend financial aid by taking a chance on the sheep that is being raffled for which a few tickets are still available at 50 cents each, and can be had from Managers Allan and Bennett of the local banks, Geo. Johnson or the Review, at which latter place the lucky ticket will most likely be had.

We again direct attention to the fact that Saturday, April 7th, is the last day to have your name enrolled on the provincial voters list at the usual spring revision. If you have just come 21 years of age, or if you are a British subject and have resided in British Columbia six months, and Creston Valley one month you are entitled to have your name on the list. We have quite a good supply of the necessary registration forms and no matter whether you are Grit, Tory or Progressive we will be pleased to see that your name gets on. Whilst it is not expected there will be an election before the end of the year one can never tell, and as there is no expense attached to enrollment all interested should give the matter immediate attention.

That the united church is not bad one is well illustrated at Fernie. Five years ago that town had four Protestant churches, not one of which was able to pay their minister even a "living wage." The Presbyterians and Methodists figuring they might as well hang together as they assuredly would have separately, got together and striking evidence that their united effort has meant something to that town was given at Christmas when two of the town's business men turned in their check for $3000.00 each to help along the good work. Gifts of this magnitude are not made to unsuccessful causes—at least not in these times at Fernie.

Synopsis of Land Act Amendments

Minimum price of first-class land reduced to $5 an acre; second-class to $2.50 an acre.

Pre-emption now confined to surveyed lands only.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is non-timber land.

Partnership pre-emptions abolished, but parties of not more than four may arrange for adjacent pre-emptions with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims.

Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 5 acres, before receiving Crown Grant.

Where pre-emptor in occupation not less than 2 years, and has made proportionate improvements, he may, because of ill-health, or other cause, be granted intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim.

Records without permanent residence may be issued, provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $300 per annum and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained in less than 5 years, and improvements of $10.00 per acre, including 5 acres cleared and cultivated, and residence of at least 2 years are required.

Pre-emptor holding Crown grant may record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm, without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted land.

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesites; title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions.

For grazing and industrial purposes areas exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or company.

Mill, factory or industrial sites on timber land not exceeding 40 acres may be purchased; conditions include payment of stumpage.

Natural hay meadows inaccessible by existing roads may be purchased conditional upon construction of a road to them. Rebate of one-half of cost of road, not exceeding half of purchase price, is made.

PRE-EMPTORS' FREE GRANTS ACT.

The scope of this Act is enlarged to include all persons joining and serving with His Majesty's Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under this Act is extended from for one year from the death of such person, as formerly, until one year after the conclusion of the present war. This privilege is also made retroactive.

No fees relating to pre-emptions are due or payable by soldiers on pre-emptions recorded after June 26, 1918. Taxes are remitted for five years.

Provision for return of moneys accrued, due and been paid since August 4, 1914, on account of payments, fees or taxes on soldiers' pre-emptions.

Interest on agreements to purchase town or city lots held by members of Allied Forces, or dependents, acquired direct or indirect, remitted from enlistment to March 31, 1920.

SUB-PURCHASERS OF CROWN LANDS.

Provision made for issuance of Crown grants to sub-purchasers of Crown Lands, acquiring rights from purchasers who failed to complete purchase, involving forfeiture, on fulfilment of conditions of purchase, interest and taxes. Where sub-purchasers do not claim whole of original parcel, purchase price due and taxes may be distributed proportionately over whole area. Applications must be made by May 1, 1920.

GRAZING.

Grazing Act, 1919, for systematic development of livestock industry provides for grazing districts and range administration under Commissioner. Annual grazing permits issued based on numbers ranged; priority for established owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management. Free, or partially free, permits for settlers, campers or travellers, up to ten head.

COMMENCING April 2nd The Review will inaugurate a new policy in connection with Pay Reading Notices

In the past the plan has been to charge up the nominal half-dollar or six bits—according to length.

So long as payment is made in advance these charges appear to be satisfactory all round.

But of late there is a tendency, particularly with church organizations, to have these notices charged, and "duns" mailed.

And, worse still, on more than one occasion we have had to wait three months or more before payment was made.

The Review hates bookkeeping, but if people insist on having credit in cases of this sort they must pay for it in future.

With the issue of April 6th the rule will be to CHARGE DOUBLE PRICE for all Pay Notices on which accounts have to be mailed at the end of each month.

People who have occasion to telephone Pay Notices must settle for same before the end of the month.

Did God Foreknow

By T. M. EDMONDSON

Eternal God, I come to thee
In faith, and true sincerity;
To clear my mind, where there is doubt,
As crystal rays reflect the light.

That I within may clearer feel
I now before thy presence kneel;
Unworthy, yet before thy throne,
My one desire I here make known.

Tis said that thou dost all things know,
That happens in this world below;
That stars in their immensity
Were made and ruled—controlled by thee.

One thing that most perplexes me;
If thou dost all things know and see;
If thou didst all things so create,
So pure, so wonderful and great.

And knowst all our thoughts to be
from time to immortality;
Then why we creatures, steeped in sin,
So vile without, impure within.

Or why this world of sin and hate
When we were made so high and great;
When God, by his creative hand,
Designed the man to till the land.

He gave him power to rule on earth
All things that do increase by birth;
And like unto the God of heaven
His image unto man was given.

But in yon Eden's garden fair
Sin cursed and wounded the first pair,
And brought unto the human race
The sinful seeds that bring disgrace.

Methinks a court in heaven was heard
And thus this sinful brach repaired.
When all the nations to be born
Might find redemption through his Son.

When men forsake the way of truth
And from their God do keep aloof,
And in their evil course pursue
They argue this that God foreknew.

And on this argument they live.
Not on repentance and forgive;
When carnal minds are evil bent
And for their sins will not repent;

But will their evil thus pursue
Tis not a case that God foreknew.
Nor can you Him in truth deride
And spear afresh the Master's side.

If you can only prove to me
That all eternal light might see;
That God in heaven has not ordained
A single soul to be declaimed.

I would climb by faith to highest heaven
And win the prize for the forgiven.
When I say to you, "O wicked man,
For your foul deeds I will you damn,

If from your wickedness you flee
To yonder cross of Calvary.
The evil that I promised you
I cannot, shall not will not do."

When Nineveh was in dire straits,
Because of sin within its gates,
Here Jonah's voice was heard proclaim
Yet forty days and you'll be slain.

This message he had heard from God,
Who'd saly with His afflicting rod.
The men of Nineveh believed
That Jonah's god would not deceive.

And from the greatest to the least
Wore sackcloth, both of man and beast,
And cried with faith's most earnest prayer
And found God's mercy meet them there.

Twas not a case that God foreknew,
For merciful He is, and true.
So to the Jew and Gentile race
There is prepared in heaven a place.

Where throngs of angels from God's throne
Have guilded man, when all alone,
The holy spirit pleads for you,
With pitiable groanings, it is true.

Then why or how could you construe
That you were lost and God foreknew.

Needlework Prizes 1923 Fall Fair

Below will be found a list of the articles on which prizes will be given at Creston's 1923 fall fair. The list is somewhat shorter than last year, the committee in charge having cut off a number of sections on which prizes were offered a year ago, but in which there was no competition. A few sections have been added, notably that for cut lace work, fancy pillow case and child's sweater. By lessening the list it is hoped to be able to pay more substantial prizes, the directors having assured that every possible special prize will be diverted to the needle-section. The list:

Handmade nightdress.
Woman's workdress, plain.
Buttonholes, six, on garment.
Darning on worn sock.
Towel, with crochet.
Corset cover yoke, any kind of crochet, not made up.
Collection crochet work, five pieces.
Pair pillow cases, with crochet.
Sofa cushion, made up.
Collection fancy work, five different kinds.
Work apron of colored material.
Man's shirt
Handmade rug, any kind.
Fancy tea apron, hand made.
Tea cosey
Fancy pillow case.
Child's Sweater.
Cut lace work.
Pin cushion.
Boys shirt waist.
Baby bonnet, hand made.
Ladies' sweater, knitted, in wool, with sleeves.
Piece of embroidery.
Piece crochet, any other kind.

It is hoped that the ladies' will make use of their spare time for the next few weeks making up articles for this year's fair, which promises to be the best yet held due to it coming almost two weeks earlier than last year and should thus increase the display in the flower class, whilst in the canned goods section there is quite a few additions to last year's list of awards.

WILDER ANTHONY

Canadian Rights Arranged With Publishers, F. D. Goodchild Co., 266 King St. West, Toronto.

Wade nodded. Ten minutes later he was in the saddle and headed for the mountains, just as dusk began to fall. The cool night air, blowing against his face as he reached the higher levels, was delightfully refreshing after the heat of the day. He took off his hat and opened the neck of his shirt to the breeze, which revived his energies like wine. He knew that as he felt, so his horse felt, and he was glad, for the animal would have to make a fast, hard trip. At the crest of the first hills, before dipping into the valley, he turned for an instant in his saddle to look backward over his trail toward the twinkling lights of Crawling Water in the distance below.

He had covered some five miles of his journey, to no other sound than the occasional note of some bird, when his quick ears caught the thud of a horse's feet on the trail ahead, with now and then a sharp clatter as the animal slipped on the stones. Wade slowed his horse down to a walk, and eased his Colt in its holster. He expected to meet some harmless wayfarer, but, under the circumstances, it was just as well to be prepared for trouble. Soon, however, he smiled to himself, for whoever rode toward him, made too much noise for any but a peaceful mission. The other horse, too, had been slowed down and the two riders approached each other with such caution that the rancher finally became impatient and pressed forward recklessly.

Out of the night the stranger came on, still slowly, until a turn in the trail brought them face to face.

"Don't shoot!" said a woman's contralto. "I'm a friend."

"Dorothy!" Wade ejaculated, at once recognizing the voice, although he could not see the girl distinctly in the darkness. "In Heaven's name, what are you doing out here?"

"Is it you, Gordon?" In her relief, she laughed softly as she pulled her pony up side of him. "I was a little scared for a second or two. I've awfully bad news, I'm afraid," she added, immediately serious. "I've been trying to find you. I went to the hotel and they told me you'd gone somewhere."

"Miss Rexhill and I went to call on you."

"You did? If I'd only known. I've been clear out to the ranch."

"Is Santry there?" In his anxiety he forgot momentarily the loneliness of her long ride. "They say some of Jensen's men have been shot up; and I'm anxious to find out what Bill knows."

"That's just what I want to tell you. I heard of the shooting before I left town. Whoa, Gypsy!" She reined up her pony, nervously, for it would not stand still. Wade seized the animal's bridle and quieted it. "I don't know if he's there or not," the girl went on. "I couldn't see. The ranch house is full of men."

"Men? What men" Wade demanded sharply.

"Race Moran's crowd. They went out to arrest Santry. The Sheriff is with them. I heard part of it in town, and that's why I tried to find you." Wade groaned. "I peeped in at a window, and when I could see neither you nor Santry I slipped away without being seen and took the old trail back because it was shorter."

"Lord, what a mess!" Wade ground his teeth savagely. "Poor old Bill was all alone there and they must have surprised him. But I don't see why Barker didn't mention the posse when he told me of the shooting?"

"He didn't know of it, probably. They left town very quietly. I happened to be out back of the house and I heard one of them talking as they rode by."

"Good Lord!" Wade's head dropped. "I told Bill to stay at the ranch, and he promised me . . ."

"I don't believe he shot Jensen at all," Dorothy declared, with spirit. "Yes, it was Jensen himself and one of his herders. Both in the back—killed."

"Bill Santry never shot any man in the back," Wade declared, in a relieved tone. "If you're sure of the facts, Santry will come clear all right."

"It's just a devilish scheme of Moran's, that's all, to put it on you and Santry. I'm sure it is. He hates you both. Whoa, Gypsy!" She reined the little mare in again. "No, it's all right, Gordon. I can manage her," she remonstrated, as he reached for the bridle once more.

"So that's their game, eh? By Heaven, I more than half believe you're right." His face grew ugly with rage. "Dorothy," he continued grimly, "thanks are useless. You're a brick, that's all. Do one thing more for us, will you?"

"Anything," she replied simply, her eyes shining with devotion to him, but he was too overwrought to read them in the darkness.

"When you get back to town get word to some of the men for me. You may meet them on the way out, if not they'll be around the barn. Tell them to meet me at the big pine, on the old trail."

His horse had grown restless and now he allowed it to have its head; he was moving past her when she clutched his arm.

"Gordon!"

She loved him dearly, too dearly to let him know how well until he should speak, if he ever did speak; but above them was the starlit sky and over them hovered the wondrous spirit of the Western night. Her pulse was beating, too, to the call of danger, and despite the control which she had over her nerves, she was just a bit hysterical beneath the surface. She knew that ahead of him was a little army of hostile men, and already that day two men had been killed. So, tremulously, she held on to his sleeve, until she stopped him.

"What are you going to do? You can't do anything alone against so many. They may kill you."

Her sympathy was very sweet to him and he warmly squeezed the little hand which had held him back.

"Don't you be afraid, little girl," he said tenderly. "I shall not get hurt if I can help it."

"Wait until the others come, won't you?"

"Surely," he answered readily, touched by the anxiety in her voice. "I'm going to look around—just as you did—on the quiet. You wouldn't hold me back, where you went in, now would you?"

"No—!" She smiled a little into his face.

"That's the stuff! Then I'm coming back to the big pine, and you'll send the boys there. They'll not put Santry in jail if we can prevent them. They've played their last card tonight. It's war from now on."

"All right, Gordon, I'll go." Her voice was full of courage again; the moment of weakness had passed. "Remember now, take good care of yourself."

"You bet," he retorted cheerily, and as her mare moved ahead, he caught her arm as she had caught his. She went quite limp in her saddle and swayed toward him, but he merely added: "You're a wonder, Dorothy."

He released her then, and with a wave of her hand she disappeared into the night. Not until she was beyond recall did he realize that he might have kissed her, that she had wanted him to kiss her, for the first time since they had known each other. He sat in abstraction for several moments before he shook the reins in his hand and his horse sprang forward.

"I've kissed one girl to-day," he muttered aloud, "and I reckon that's enough."

Mrs. Holmberg Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her

Viking, Alta.—"From the time I was 15 years old I would get such sick feelings in the lower part of my abdomen, followed by cramps and vomiting. This kept me from my work (I help my parents on the farm) as I usually had to go to bed for the rest of the day. Or at times I would have to walk the floor. I suffered in this way until a friend induced me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had very satisfactory results so far and am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends. I surely am glad I tried it for I feel like a different person now that I don't have these troubles."—ODELIA HOLMBERG, Box 93, Viking, Alta.

Letters like this establish the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. They tell of the relief from such pains and ailments after taking it.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills in this country, and thousands of voluntary testimonials prove this fact.

If you doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Cobourg, Ontario, for Mrs. Pinkham's private text-book and learn more about it.

RUN-DOWN, NERVOUS?

Weak Women can Find the Help They Need

St. Thomas, Ont.—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a grand medicine for women who are at all nervous, weak or run-down, or who suffer with womanly ailments. I have not only taken it myself and been greatly benefited but I have known of many others who have been benefited, and in no case have I ever heard one word of condemnation against Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, but always praise."—Mrs. Sarah Burke, 103 Scott St.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes women happy by making them healthy. A great many women in every part of Canada owe their good health of today to this famous Prescription.

Rheumatic Pains

Are relieved in a few days by taking 30 drops of Mother Seigel's Syrup after meals and on retiring. It dissolves the lime and acid accumulation in the muscles and joints so these deposits can be expelled, thus relieving pain and soreness. Seigel's Syrup, also known as "Extract of Roots," contains no dope nor other strong drugs to kill or mask the pain of rheumatism or lumbago; it removes the cause. 50c. and $1.00 bottles at druggists. 11

Voyage of Adventure

Schooner Fitted Out For Scientific Research Will Sail From London

A 2,000-ton schooner is being fitted out for a ten months voyage of adventure and research in little known parts of the world, by the Scientific Expeditionary Research Association, an English Association of scientists of all classes. The vessel probably will sail from London in July. She will take 50 passengers, and already the applications are in excess of this number.

From London the tentative route is to the Canary Island, Isthmus of Panama, Galapagos Islands, Easter Island, then westward to a series of islands within the tropics, and back through the Panama Canal.

GENERAL DEBILITY FOLLOWS INFLUENZA

The After Effects Often More Serious Than the Disease Itself

No reasonable precaution to avert an attack of influenza should be spared. The disease itself often proves fatal and its after effects among those who are spared, make the life of the victim one of almost constant misery. Ask almost any of those who have been attacked by this trouble what their present condition of health is and most of them will answer: "Since I had the influenza I have never been fully well." This trouble leaves behind it a persistent weakness of the limbs, shortness of breath, bad digestion, palpitation of the heart and a tired feeling after even slight exertion. This is due to the thin-blooded condition in which the patient is left after the fever and influenza have subsided. This condition will continue until the blood is built up again, and for building up the blood and strengthening the nerves nothing can equal a fair treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The value of this medicine in cases of this kind is shown by the statement of Mr. Edward J. McGuire, Pembroke, Ont., who says:—"In the fall of 1918 I was attacked with the influenza—and not in a mild form either. I was confined to my room for three weeks, and although the influenza subsided I did not regain my health. As a matter of fact I seemed to be growing weaker. I had no appetite, was subject to fainting spells and my feet and ankles were badly swollen. The doctor told me that my condition had developed into a serious case of anaemia, and although I was under his care for over two months I was not improving in any way. At this stage one of my friends advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I was loath to do so, as I began to think my case hopeless. However, I was finally persuaded to try them, and by the time I had used two boxes there was no doubt they were helping me. I continued taking the pills until I had used a dozen boxes, when I found that every symptom of the trouble had left me and I was again enjoying the best of health. I returned to my work and have ever since been in good health and feel that I owe it entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I think that anyone who is suffering from the after effects of influenza, or any form of anaemia, should give this medicine a fair trial."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Build Russian Navy

The workers of Soviet Russia have pledged themselves to bring the navy to a state of efficiency equal to that of the army, and in some cases they have agreed to furnish funds for ship construction. Another result of the week's campaign in behalf of the Russian navy has been the enlistment of more than 2,000 men for the naval service.

"COLD IN THE HEAD"

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

have no equal as a remedy to strengthen the heart, invigorate the nerves and build up the run-down system.

Mrs. C. Vanhorn, Eckville, Alta., writes:—"About a year ago I had heart trouble. My husband didn't dare leave me alone, and often had to stay up at night with me. I would just feel kind of faint and my heart would seem to stop beating. I would just faint away, and it would sometimes be an hour before they could bring me back to life. Someone told me about Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I got three boxes; I took them and felt much better, so continued all Winter, and now I never feel any such faintness. I surely do appreciate the good they have done for me."

Household Hints

Valuable Recipes For the Busy Housewife

Filling

3 eggs, ½ lemon (juice and rind).

½ cup sugar, ½ cup chopped almonds.

½ cup chopped Sun-Maid raisins.

Stir yolks with sugar, add raisins, almonds and lemon. Beat whites to a froth, fold into mixture and fill in dough like pie filling. When baked and cooled cut into small cubes.

Cocoanut Balls

1 tablespoon condensed milk.

1¼ cups shredded cocoanut (¼ pound).

4 tablespoons Sun-Maid raisins.

8 tablespoons walnut meats (¼ pound in shell).

Put the condensed milk into a small bowl and stir in a cupful of the cocoanut, which should be chopped, the raisins, which have been ground and chopped, nut meats. Shape into balls the size of marbles, roll in the remaining cocoanut. Honey may be substituted for the condensed milk.

Horse Has Long Swim

How long can a horse swim? A Boston runaway plunged through an open drawbridge at the mouth of the Charles River and spent thirty-six hours somewhere under the network of piers and bridges but finally appeared headed for the open ocean and still swimming stoutly. He was then caught and rescued. Though he contracted a slight fever from his long immersion in the cold water he recovered.

Tanlac Brought Mrs. Stewart Relief Just As She Was About To Go To Hospital

"For four years before I took Tanlac I never knew what it was to have a well day," recently declared Mrs. Mary Stewart, North Albert Street, Regina, Sask.

"It all resulted from a spell of the 'Flu,' which left me almost a nervous and physical wreck. A good night's rest I rarely ever had and many a night I could not close my eyes in sleep at all. I felt so tired and worn out all the time I simply dragged myself through the day. To tell the truth I was so weak and nervous I couldn't pour a cup of tea or dip up a spoonful of sugar without spilling it.

"I lost thirty pounds in weight and felt so miserable I had about made up my mind to give up and go to the hospital. I also had rheumatism all over my body and my legs pained me so bad at times I could hardly walk. Since taking Tanlac my troubles are gone and I have regained twelve pounds of my lost weight. I eat and sleep like a child and feel fine. I just think Tanlac the grandest medicine on earth."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 35-million bottles sold.
