Canadians Repel the Boers.

LONDON, June 29.—11:58 p.m.—The war office has received the following from lord Roberts: "Pretoria, June 29.—Paget reports from Lindley that he was engaged on June 26th with a body of the enemy, who were strongly reinforced during the day. A convoy of stores for the Lindley garrison was also attacked on June 26th, but after a heavy rear guard action the convoy reached Lindley in safety. Our casualties were 10 killed, and four officers and about 50 men wounded.

"The fight reported yesterday was under lieutenant-colonel Grenfell, not Dreiper. Brabant came up during the engagement. Total casualties of the two columns were three killed and 23 wounded.

"On the previous day, near Ficksburg, Boye's brigade was in action with a body of the enemy. Our casualties were two officers killed, four men wounded and one man missing.

"Methuen found yesterday that the Boer laager near Vach Kop and Spitz Kop had been hastily removed in the direction of Lindley. He followed the enemy 12 miles and captured 8000 sheep and 500 head of cattle, which the eneny had seized in that neighborhood. Our casualties were four men wounded.

"Hunter continued his march yesterday towards the Vaal river unopposed. Many farmers along the line have surrendered.

"Springs, the terminus of the railway from Johannesburg due east, was attacked yesterday morning. The Canadian regiment, which garrisoned the place, beat off the enemy. No casualties are reported.

"Lieutenant North reported missing after the attack on the construction train, is a prisoner of the Boers."

Ryan Got the Verdict.

CHICAGO, June 29. — "Syracuse Tommy" Ryan easily gained the verdict over "Young" Mahoney of Philadelphia before the Fort Dearborn Athletic club tonight after six rounds of rather slow work. Ryan who was in splendid condition apparently completed outclassed Mahoney. Ryan evidently did not try for a knock out, but contented himself with tying Mahoney in knots and outpointing him.

BUBONIC PLAGUE LESSENS

Report From Australia.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—The steamer Moana arrived from Australian ports via Honolulu today. She brings reports from Sydney to show that the plague situation in that city is improving. The daily average has decreased to less than two cases a day. Melbourne, which had been thought to be about free from the disease, had a new case on the 4th of the month. The total number of cases at Sydney up to June 6th, was 272, of which 96 had been fatal. During the week previous to the departure of the steamer there were 17 new cases admitted to the hospital, the deaths for the same period numbering three, which is the lowest rate since March. There were 86 patients in the hospital when the steamer left, which is much less than the recent average.

During the past three weeks the authorities have been offering to inoculate people with serum, but the Sydney people do not take to it as those of Honolulu did. In the whole population, only about 7,000 persons applied for treatment.

During May 19,448 rats were killed in Sydney, making a total of 24.158 rats killed since April 13. The cleaning up of the big Australian metropolis still continues. Twelve hundred scavengers were at work under government auspices.

A Japanese newspaper announces that Dr. Kitasato, the discoverer of the bacillus of bubonic plague, has invented a new preventive serum.

America May Stand Aloof.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Relative to the interesting story that an international accord had been arrived at as to the pro-tempore settlement of the Chinese troubles, state department officials say that while the United States might acquiesce to such an agreement if the European powers and Japan have come to an understanding on the basis set out, the result should be welcomed by all who have no selfish designs to satisfy. But it is not possible to predict what the official attitude of the United States to such a combination will be.

A Portentous Resolution.

OTTAWA, June 28.—[Special to The TRIBUNE.]—In the house today Bell moved a resolution which took the speaker hours to read, setting forth that Ogilvie's investigation into Yukon affairs was not sufficient and that a judicial enquiry should be held. The debate was carried on all day and evening.

Situation in Colombia Graver.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 29.—A private telegram received here today from Colombia says the situation at Carthagena and Savanilla is very grave, that fighting is proceeding and that the foreign residents are leaving hurriedly.

Russian Admiral in Command.

SHANGHAI, June 29.—It is officially announced that the Russian vice-admiral, Alexieff, will take command of the allied forces in the north.

Oregon is Ashore.

SHANGHAI, June 29.—It is reported that the United States ship Oregon is ashore 50 miles north of Chefoo.

HARD FIGHT AGAINST ODDS

Seymour's Relief Expedition.

LONDON, June 30.—3 a.m.—The adventures of the hard fighting allies under admiral Seymour; their reaching Anting, 12 miles from Pekin; the direction to retreat; the capture of rice and immense stores of modern arms and ammunition, affording material for a strenuous defense until relieved—all this is told in a dispatch from admiral Seymour, received by the admiralty at midnight, which runs as follows:

"Tien Tsin, June 27, via Chefoo, June 29.—1:05 p.m.—Have returned to Tien Tsin with the forces, having been unable to reach Pekin by rail.

"On June 13th two attacks on the advance guard were made by the Boxers who were repulsed with considerable loss to them, and none on our side. On June 14th the Boxers attacked the train at Lang Yang in large numbers and with great determination. We repulsed them with a loss about 100 killed. Our loss was seven Italians. The same afternoon the Boxers attacked the British guard left to protect Lofa station. Reinforcements were sent back and the enemy were driven off with a hundred killed. Two of our seamen were wounded.

"We pushed forward to Anting, and engaged the enemy on June 13th and June 14th inflicting a loss of 175. There were no casualties on our side. Extensive destruction of the railroads in our front having made further advance by rail impossible, I decided on June 16th to return to Yang Tsun, where it was proposed to organize an advance by the river to Pekin.

"After my departure from Lang Yang two trains left to follow on were attacked on June 18th by Boxers and Imperial troops from Pekin, who lost from 400 to 500 killed. Our casualties were six killed and 48 wounded. These trains joined me at Yang Tsun the same evening.

"The railway at Yang Tsun was found to be entirely demolished and the trains could not be moved. The force being short of provisions and hampered with wounded, compelled us to withdraw on Tien Tsin with which we had not been in communication for six days and our supplies had been cut off.

"On June 19th the wounded, with necessaries, started by boat, the forces marching alongside the river. Opposition was experienced during the whole course of the river from nearly every village, the Boxers when defeated in one village retiring to the next and skilfully retarding our advance by occupying well selected positions, from which they had to be forced often at the point of the bayonet, and in face of a galling fire, difficult to locate.

"On June 23 we made a night march, arriving at daybreak opposite the imperial armory, above Tien Tsin, where, after friendly advances, a treacherous heavy fire was opened while our men were exposed on opposite side of the river. The enemy was kept in check by rifle fire in front, while their position was turned by a party of marines and seamen under major Johnson, who rushed and occupied one of the salient points, seizing the guns. The Germans lower down silenced two guns and then crossed the river and captured them. The armory was next occupied by the combined force. Determined attempts to retake the armory were made on the following day unsuccessfully.

"We found immense stores of guns, arms and ammunition of the latest pattern. Several guns were mounted in our defense and shelled the Chinese lower down. Having found ammunition and rice we could have held out for some days, but being hampered with large numbers of wounded, I sent to Tien Tsin for a relieving force which arrived on the morning of the 25th. The armory was evacuated and the forces arrived at Tien Tsin on June 26th. We burned the armory."

Big Klondike Cleanup.

SEATTLE, June 27.—The gold received at the United States assay office since July 1st, 1900, amounts in value to over $1,000,000. From information now at hand it is possible to make the certain prediction that the receipts of the office during the month of July will amount to over $3,000,000. The receipts for June were today increased by the deposits brought down on the steamer Rosalie, which arrived from Skagway Tuesday evening.

CITY LOCAL NEWS.

All the down town streets are being made presentable for the celebration, and if Mat Kelly does not do a good job, his name will never go on the pay roll again as foreman.

In the case of Regina vs. Walker, a prisoner awaiting trial on the charge of wounding with intent, the defendant's counsel, W. A. Galliher, has secured an order for his release on bail. Walker was set at liberty yesterday.

The one band of athletes that are always ready for action is the hose team of the Nelson fire department. When a full team cannot be got, those who are ready run. They are the kind of sports that give a town a good name.

R. B. McCammon, C. P. R. agent at Rosebery, is in the city en route to the East on a vacation. G. B. Chandler is the relieving agent.

G. A. Taylor, manager of the Merchants Bank of Halifax at Victoria, arrived in the city last night to relieve George Kydd, of the local branch, who leaves on Sunday for his vacation.

Some clothes were picked up about 16 miles below Slocan City containing the membership cards in the Silverton Miners' Union of Lawrence Knewnassei and Joseph Maine, and it is feared that their owners were drowned. Anyone who can throw light on the matter will confer a favor by communicating with the officials of the Silverton or Nelson Miners' unions.

The work of fixing up the bicycle path was completed last night and now there is a good track right out to Roberts' ranch. The hospital authorities were thinking of enclosing their land, which would have shut off part of the path, but they have not done so as yet, and meanwhile the route is the same as last year.

Ex-alderman H. B. Thomson arrived in the city last night from 150-Mile house to take in the celebration and look up old friends. He says that the Cariboo country is a little quiet at present, though the hydraulic propositions are turning out very well.

A good story is told of Charlie Greenlee of New Denver, who is prospecting in the Monashee district at the headquarters of the Kettle river. Charlie prides himself on his skill as a hunter, and on Sunday morning he started up the Monashee mountain for deer. After being out for a couple of hours he succeeded in bringing down John Hodges' pack horse. Greenlee immediately sought out the owner and paid over $30 upon the condition that nothing further should be said.

Services will be held in the Methodist church on Dominion Day at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. The pastor will preach in the morning. In connection with the evening service Mrs. Rutherford will sing Rudyard Kipling's famous hymn "Recessional." Professor E. O. Odlum of Vancouver will be present if possible and deliver an address.

On Wednesday next the annual examination of teachers in this district will be opened at the central school, the presiding examiners being principal Soady and E. B. Paul of Victoria. The examination lasts a week and about 30 candidates are expected to write.

The syndicate of Nelson men who took up the placer stretches on the North Thompson river and Jamieson creek have at last succeeded in making a turn. The ground has been turned over to some Liverpool men who will put in a $50,000 dredger. The terms of the deal call for a $20,000 payment the bulk of which is cash. The first installment of the purchase price is expected in Nelson within the next few days. Among those who are in on the deal are R. S. Lennie, A Ferland and H. R. Bellamy. They will make a good cleanup.

CRUEL WORK IN PRETORIA

Kruger Afraid to Move.

LONDON, June 29.—Outside of minor conflicts in the Orange River Colony, showing continued Boer activity in the Senekal district, the telegrams from South Africa merely indicate preparations for, it is hoped, the final operations of the tediously prolonged war.

A Capetown dispatch reports an attempt by the Boers to blow up the artillery barracks and magazine at Pretoria. It is added that an artilleryman, who frustrated the attempt by withdrawing a lighted fuse, was killed by a Boer whom the soldiers afterwards attempted to lynch.

The British authorities are deporting large numbers of Hollanders to Holland to be dealt with by their own government for not observing the state of neutrality declared by the Netherlands.

President Steyn is reported to be at Bethlehem consulting with general Dewet.

Sir Alfred Milner, the British high commissioner, has notified the government to pay the interest on the Free State six per cent loan due July 7th on condition that there is no liability for further interest.

Capetown reports that president Kruger is still at Machadorp, afraid to move for fear the bridges are undermined.

St. Joseph's Schools.

St. Joseph's schools, which were opened by the sisters a few months ago, bid fair to hold their popularity in Nelson on account of the substantial knowledge which is there imparted and the evident progress made by the children already admitted. The institute is now affiliated to the University of Cambridge and pupils desiring to graduate through that college are prepared for examinations held annually in December. Applications for entrance to these examinations should be made to the sisters early in September so as to allow them ample time to communicate with the secretary in London. It is hoped the new building will be complete when the children return after the summer holidays and the sisters will then be able to accommodate a large number of girls. Accommodation is also made for a limited number of little boys up to the age of ten so as to convenience parents living out of the city. The new schools will rest on a stonework foundation with wood frame, 85 by 53 feet, and a tower three stories high. The plans are in the hands of architect Curtis, through whom a complete description of the building will be given later. The schools are under the direct management of the sisters who have had wide experience in educating and training children and hold certificates from the education department, London.

A Mine Reported Sold.

It is reported that the Monashee, a good mine over in Yale district that was discovered over twenty years ago, has been sold for $25,000 cash. The ore is free-milling gold, and although the mine has not been developed to any great extent, it is said to be a promising property. In the early days its owner, a Mr. McIntyre, made a deal by which he managed to erect a small mill at the mine; but because of the out-of-the-way location of the property and other causes, the mill was not successfully worked.

ROWING RACES BEGIN TODAY

Dominion Day Sports.

The first of the Dominion Day celebration sporting events takes place this afternoon when the two first heats of the scratch four-oared race will be pulled off. The first race starts at 3:30 p.m. between Winter's and Hislop's crews, which are made up as follows: Winter, stroke; Hickling 3; Beaven 2, and Curtis, bow, and Hislop, stroke; Percy, 3; Clark 2; and Farwell; bow. The second heat is between Ford's and A. F. Proctor's crews, and will be rowed immediately afterwards. Ford's crew consists of Ford, stroke; McCrae 3, Wetmore, 2; and Harvey, bow. Proctor's crew is still a mystery. He has announced that he will bring down a crew of C. P. R. men, but no one has the least idea as to who they are.

On Monday Beer's rifle crew will row the winner of the first heat this afternoon, and the Hudson's Bay crew the winner of the second heat. The finals will be rowed later on the same afternoon.

There has been considerable speculation on the result and pools have been freely sold in the Office saloon, and more will be sold this evening on the result of the semi-final and final heats on Monday. So far Winter's crew is a slight favorite in the betting, with Ford's crew pressing them hard for first place, and it is probable that those two crews will compete in the finals on Monday. Proctor's C. P. R. crew is the dark horse, but has received very little, if any, support in the betting, as the speculators consider that no matter how good they may be the fact of their not having been out at all for practice cuts away all chance of winning.

The Vancouver four duly arrived at the Hume hotel yesterday. They took their boat down to the lake intending to go for a spin, but were prevented by a squall suddenly blowing up. They will, however, be on the lake today. The crew is made up as follows:

The trades' procession on Monday will be very well attended and unusually interesting. There will be a large number of decorated floats, to which the wholesalers will contribute more floats than last year, and the procession will be a big one. It may be repeated here that some of the wires are only 16 feet from the ground, so that the floats cannot safely be more than 15 feet in height.

A feature of the procession will be the number of societies taking part. Nearly all the labor unions will be out with banners and badges, and several of the secret societies will also parade. Two if not three bands will also be in the procession.

The following prizes have been appropriated by the general committee:

Industrial floats—First prize $75, second prize $30.

Children's floats—First prize $15.

Best turnout of any society or union—First prize valued at $25, second prize valued at $15.

Most original and grotesque turnout—First prize $15.

Best groomed and bedecked team of horses, whether attached to a float or not—First prize $10, second prize $5.

The fire department's racing team left yesterday afternoon for Greenwood to compete in the races there today. The team will comprise Steele, captain, Campbell, Douglas, Thompson, Dill, Partridge, Chambers, Houston, Henderson, Bradley and Foote, George Nunn having been unable to go at the last moment owing to pressure of business. The wet test will be run this morning and the hub-and-hub race after lunch. The members of the team are in excellent condition and confident of success.

Several city employees were at work yesterday clearing stones of Baker street and otherwise improving the grounds over which the sports on Monday are to be run. A number of wheelmen have been training for a few days for the bicycle races and some of them have developed considerable speed. It is expected that Cassidy of Rossland and McIntyre of Greenwood, both fast men, will take in the bicycle events.

T. R. Springer, stroke; H. E Springer, 3; C. B. Worsnop, 2; and A. D. Scott, bow. R. P. Woodward accompanies the four as manager.

Hudson's Bay Stores

The Tribune.

COLONEL PRIOR of Victoria appears to be greatly grieved over the failure of the Laurier government to introduce legislation along the lines of the Natal Act, or increase the head tax upon Chinese to $500. So much has been said concerning the Natal Act, by the Conservative press, that one would almost be led to believe that it was some reform which the Conservative party had been endeavoring, for some time, to wrest from an unwilling government. Much as the Conservative politicians might desire to create this impression they will hardly succeed. It is not so many years ago since the Conservatives had it in their power to apply such restrictions upon Chinese immigration as they thought best. The best they would do was the imposition of a tax of $50 per head. This the Laurier government has since doubled. Neither of the political parties are entitled to much credit for the manner in which they have dealt with the Chinese question, but upon the face of their performances, it must be conceded that the Liberals have done just twice as much as the Conservatives to keep the Chinese out. The Natal Act is one of the reforms which has yet to be won; and when it does go upon the statute book the province will not owe its existence to either of the great political parties.

PREMIER MACDONALD'S prohibition measure is now before the law amendments committee of the Manitoba legislature and those who are opposed to any and all kinds of prohibition are now engaged in shooting amendments into it. During the first session some forty-nine amendments were made, each with a view to restricting the prohibitive features of the measure and the work was not then half completed. As the bill stands now officers of churches may secure an unlimited supply of wine for sacramental purposes, but until some further amendment is made, every member of the congregation who partook of the wine in the church would be liable to arrest.

WHILE it cannot be said that the Liberal party has redeemed its anti-Chinese promises by doubling the head tax upon Chinese immigrants, they have nevertheless done something. In the other provinces where the evils of Chinese competition are unknown it is difficult to secure any support for measures looking to the exclusion or restriction of Chinese immigration. British Columbians will find it difficult to believe that a member of the house of commons should compare the action of the Laurier government, in increasing the Chinese head tax to $100, with the policy of Mr. Kruger of the Transvaal or the heads of the Boxer organizations in China. Yet this thing happened. Mr. Edwards of Russell took this position, and there were many who supported him. Mr. Edwards' idea was that being a free trader he should, to be consistent, be a free trader in Chinese as well as everything else. The anti-Chinese movement has to overcome more forms of objection than almost any other class of legislation. It has to meet political, commercial and even religious opposition, and from men who consider the issue only in the abstract.

THOMAS R. MCINNES is treading on dangerous ground when he justifies his action in dismissing the Semlin government, by the circumstance that no members of that government will appear in the next legislature to condemn him. Since Thomas himself has been relieved from office, Charlie Semlin's statesmen can pay their respects to McInnes as well out of the house as in it.

THE Vernon News, which is said to be owned by Price Ellison, member of the legislative assembly for the East riding of Yale district, and the Kamloops Standard, which is a supporter of F. J. Fulton, the member-elect for the North riding of Yale, do not like the make-up of the Dunsmuir government. Well, every one of the members elect could not be given a portfolio, and the three members from the great district of Yale like the four members from the great district of West Kootenay must have patience. Seven members, if they vote as a unit, can get pretty near what they want—except cabinet positions for all seven.

IN MEMORY OF CRONJE.

Private Cecil McKenzie, of the first contingent of Royal Canadians, in writing from South Africa to Mr. S. T. Bastedo, deputy commissioner of fisheries, sends with his letter a number of interesting curiosities in the way of jackets, hats, buckles and buttons, says the Toronto Star. The most valuable is an Orange Free State buckle, which is now valued at £3 10s.

The most interesting, however, is a funeral notice in memory of the departure of Cronje. On the first page of the black-edged card are the words "In Memoriam." On the second page,

"Tho' taken away from a world of strife,
He leaves a Steyn behind him."

On page three is the sad announcement: "In remembrance of Cronje, who succumbed to an attack of Bobs on Majuba day, February 27, 1900," with a small quotation, "Not lost, but gone before—to St. Helena."

On page four is this verse:

"No more will Cronje roam the veldt,
In exile he doth yearn;
For justice unto him is dealt,
As many more will learn."

How Helena Won.

"Let me tell you something funny about the capital of Montana," says Victor Smith. "In 1892 the competition rested between Helena, Anaconda, Butte City, Bozeman, Great Falls, Deer Lodge and Boulder, without a decision. In 1894 it was reduced to a match between Helena and Anaconda. Marcus Daly was for Anaconda. W. A. Clark was for Helena. Anaconda seemed to have the best of it, when Clark's genius prevailed. He made no attempt at bribery. He just said to every voter he could lay hands on: "'If you want a dead cinch, I'll give it to you. Go and bet $5,000 at even money or any odds you please that Helena will be the capital. If you lose, I'll make good the $5000. If you win, you return my $5000 and keep the winnings." Needless to say Helena was chosen. And the arrangement did not cost Clark a cent."

Advantages of the Royalty.

There are more ways of making money off a Klondike claim than working it. A story is told of a miner who had a claim in Dawson that did not turn out as profitable as was expected. Not to be baffled, he devised a scheme for making money out of it. He went to the gold commissioner and announced that he wished to pay his 10 per cent royalty on the product of his claim for a year, which he said was $60,000. The commissioner accepted the $6,000 royalty and gave him the usual receipt, stating what it was for, with the number of the claim, location, etc. One day an Englishman came along looking for a good thing for for some people who had money to spend. He asked Mr. Blank, among others, what he had to sell. Mr. Blank told him he didn't know exactly but he would show him his goods. Then, in a casual way, Mr. Blank showed the Englishman his receipt for royalty on claim so-and-so. "And, you know," he said with a wink, "a man isn't paying royalty on more than he can possibly help." The Englishman, thinking he had a good thing, took the $6000 receipt, looked over the claim in a general way, and ended by buying it for $150,000. So at least the tale runs, says the Canada Gazette.

THE BANK OF BRITISH COLUMBIA NELSON

Is now prepared to issue Drafts and Letters of Credit on Skaguay, U. S., Atlin, B. C., and Dawson City, N. W. T.

Dogged by Detectives.

PHILADELPHIA, June 28.—Broken in health and spirits, ex-governor W. S. Taylor of Kentucky started for Niagara Falls tonight. He was accompanied by Mrs. Taylor, and four detectives followed close at their heels. Two of the officers represent the state of Kentucky and bear warrants for the arrest of Mr. Taylor upon charges growing out of the assassination of governor Goebel. The other two were employed by Mr. Taylor to guard his person. His stay in this city was devoid of personal pleasure. He accepted but one invitation and denied himself to everybody who called upon him at the hotel where he made his headquarters. He came here to attend the Republican national convention as a delegate-at-large, after being assured that no requisition calling for his enforced return to Kentucky would be honored. The strain is telling upon both governor and Mrs. Taylor. All the time they were in the city their rooms were closely guarded and Mrs. Taylor answered every rap upon the door. She denied herself to all callers, and was on the verge of collapse several times. It is understood that Mr. Taylor will not be surrendered to the Kentucky authorities by governor Roosevelt and that he will be immune from arrest until he shall return to Indiana, where he is now making his home, or until such time he shall return to Kentucky of his own volition.
