WEDDING

Norman—Hughes

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage, Cumberland, on Wednesday morning at 8.30 a.m., when the Rev. J. R. Butler united in marriage Miss Ida Gwendoline, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hughes of 138 Maryport Avenue, to Mr. Walter Cecil Norman, son of Henry Norman and the late Mrs. Henrietta Norman of Victoria, B. C.

The bride looked charming in a smock navy blue suit with hat en suite and carried a beautiful boquet of flowers. The bride was attended by Miss Mildred Calcutt of Victoria who wore a silver grey Canton crepe dress with white picture hat and carried flowers.

The bridegroom, who was overseas from 1916 to 1919 was supported by Mr. James Denholme of Royston, B. C.

The bride has been an earnest work er in Grace Methodist Church for three years and will be greatly missed in the Sunday School, the choir, the W. H. O. Club and other church activities.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman left by motor for Vancouver and on their return will reside at 1444 Houltain St. Victoria.

The great number of useful and valuable gifts received testified to the popularity of the young couple in the community and the best wishes of their many Cumberland friends will follow Mr. and Mrs. Norman to their new home in Victoria.

LOCAL INTERMEDIATES DEFEAT ROYSTON MILL

Robertson Turns In Second Win. Hojo and Kenchy Pounded Terrifically by Local Lads.

Although somewhat disorganized through the loss of several stalwarts of last year's team who have graduated into senior company Cumberland Intermediates played their first home league game on the Recreation grounds last Sunday and whipped the Japanese Royston mill team 9—4. While not largely attended those fans who struggled up to the park viwed a real classy ball game.

Rookies No Longer

The feature of the battle was the promising work handed out by such youngsters as Bobie Strachan behind the sticks and George Hunden and Jock Stevenson in the outfield. Facing such slabsters as Hojo and Kenchy Doi the rookies did their stuff with the willow and also on the diamond. The hopes of even the most sanguine were satisfied with the display of the locals whom it was feared might not coop the bacon from the wily Nipponese in the first game until the boys got settled.

Robert Robertson, more affectionately spoken of as "Peanuts" chucked a nifty game scattering his hits and was supported by his teammates behind him like a brickwall. He hoisted himself onto a balloon in the third stanza allowing 4 hits and as many runs but soon returned to earth again. In the sixth the red flag was showed up with the bases loaded but a double kept the rubber uncrossed.

Pitchers Not Supported

Kenchy started out in great style and started a terrible strike out slaughter. But his team mates gave him about as much support as a bootlegger would receive in church. They threw over under and anywhere but the right place and registered 6 bungles during the game. Hojo rushed to stem the onslaught in the eight by pitching himself which was not where the trouble lay however and was uncermoniously slapped at even a more furious gait than was dealt his predecessor.

Game Interesting

It was a pretty content to watch. After the Japs assumed the leadership in the third inning the local crew soon caught up and secured a lead which was never in danger.

Dave Hunden officiated in the capacity of umpire, called them as he saw 'em and handled the game very satisfactorily.

STRONGHEART, THE WONDER DOG WILL BE SEEN AGAIN

The successor to one of the best liked pictures of last season has been booked for the Ilo-Ilo Theatre for an engagement of two days, Friday and Saturday. It is "Brawn of the North," a Laurence Trimble-Jane Murfin production starring Strongheart, the wonder dog, who sprang into instant favor in his initial First National Attraction "The Silent Call"

"Brawn of the North" tells a thrilling story wherein Strongheart plays the part of Brawn, a dog owned by Marion Wells. Marion takes him with her when she goes into the North country to aid her brother and fiance to develop a mine. The fiance has exposed himself as a dissolute rascal and his cruelty to Brawn leads to a fight on the trail in which the brother is killed and the fiance escapes the vengeance of Brawn by apparently drowning in an icy stream.

In seeking help, Marion meets Peter Coe. Then follows a period of happiness as they spend a honeymoon in the wilds and fortune crowns their efforts. The wolves of the country drive them back toward civilization and their sled dogs run away carrying their baby with them. Brawn goes to the rescue and then follows action as thrilling as was ever put into a motion picture.

GREAT DOMINION DAY CELEBRATION AT POWELL RIVER

The good people of Powell River celebrated Canada's birthday as usual this year and last Monday found the town across the bay crowded with visitors from Texada Island, Myrthle Point, Lund and many of the logging camps along the coast in the vicinity. About one hundred excursionists went across from Comox, Courtenay, Union Bay and Cumberland, enjoying the two hours sail on the Canadian National Steamship Prince John. The chief attraction was a Comox District League Baseball game played between teams representing Powell River and Courtenay. It was a good exhibition despite the fact that the score was seven to one in favor of the visitors. Dave Hunden pitched for Courtenay and the brand of ball he put up was responsible in good measure for the win of his team. Downey behind the bat never played a better game and his pegging to second was all that could be desired. After the first brace of innings Courtenay's infield was airtight, their fielding certainly putting a stop to the acquisition of runs by the home team. Carriveau pitched six innings for Powell River and was not hit overly hard, some of the runs obtained being made on his teammates bobbles. He was relieved in the seventh frame by Jeff Davis, speed king, who held the Cowboys scoreless untill the end of the fray. Frank Flett was on the receiving end and played his usual heady hard game. Hanson, second sacker for Powell River, was unmerciful with the willow, clouting out a couple of hits in big league style. Courtenay team won on its merits but next Sunday when Powell River plays at Courtenay, and Cumberland the team will be materially strengthened. In the field sports Courtenay won many prizes, Cummins carrying off first in the hundred yards, the high jump, third in the hop, step and jump, first with Petticrew in the three legged race and the Courtenay Relay team composed of Johnny McLaughlin, Johnny Cummins, Andy Robinson and "Smiler" Petticrew had no difficulty in winning. Some disappointment was felt that the Cumberland football team did not go with the excursionists to play a scheduled and advertised game. The return trip was begun at one o'clock in the morning and the last of the crowd debarked at Union Bay from the steamer Chilco of the Union Steamship Company at four thirty Tuesday morning. The voyage home was a most enjoyable one the time on the steamer being passed with music which was so dreamy that Professor Moody dozed off to sleep to the accompaniment of his own music .

Mrs. J. Walton and daughter Rhoda left on Saturday last for Victoria where they will join Mr. Walton, who is taking a complete rest on the advice of his doctor.

MR. BRIDGES EXPLAINS

"Westlawn" Sandwick, B. C. July 4th, 1923.

The Editor,
The "Cumberland Islander"
Cumberland, B. C.

Dear Sir:—

Adverting to your issue of June 23rd, wherein you publish an article regarding the unfortunate accident by which Miss Hardisty was so seriously injured, as misapprehension appears to exist as to the cause of this mishap, I would appreciate the favor of your affording me the opportunity of expressing my own personal views, in order that the blame which some folks appear to attach to Miss Michell may be removed.

The car belongs to me. We (Mr. Kennedy, Miss Michell, Miss Hardisty and myself) were proceeding to Campbell River. Miss Michell was driving and as stated by you the front wheel hit soft gravel, causing the car to swerve towards a stump and overturn. This occurred very slowly, and while the results are so lamentable, it was neither the result of negligence or carelessness, such as might be concluded when persons not acquainted with the facts are led to believe it was attributable to the driving of a learner.

To my knowledge, Miss Michell has driven for the past year, and is as capable as most drivers in this district. The loose nature of the roadbed was responsible for the mishap, of which a good many similar instances are on record with drivers both male and female in the same locality.

Regarding the comments made in the issue of June 30th, I am not aware who it is you allude to as having suggested the item above referred to was a pack of lies, and feel it most unfortunate that a controversy has arisen upon the subject which is sufficiently regrettable in itself, without bringing it to an unsavory argument which can but have the effect of saddening those most intimately concerned.

This was not the result of a learner's lack of knowledge or carelessness, but, as stated above, the road condition, and I will appreciate the publication of this letter as a tribute to the lady who was driving at the time, and who has been led to feel by the items in question that the accident is held against her inexperience which is certainly not the case.

Thanking you in anticipation of which I am

Yours very truly,
C. H. BRIDGES.

PASTE THIS IN YOUR HAT

Every man should recognize himself as a factor in his home town and become a soldier of the common good.

Why not; We are mutually dependent, every one of us, from the sunrise to the sunset of life, for no man lives to or for himself alone. The utterly selfish man is a misfit in the scheme of human existence, is a libel upon a beneficent providence.

As we recognize these facts the town grows and prospers. A town that believes in itself and appreciates this fact of dependence upon each other will go forward with rapid strides, because its people work together for the common good.

We have in mind two towns. In one the population increased nearly 100 per cent. during the past ten years, while another town similarly situated, only twenty miles away, has increased about one per cent. in thirty years. Why the difference? The other town is cut up into cliques and factions. Some sets won't trade or neighbor with other sets. The result is that thousands of dollars every month are sent out of that town for mail order purchases, whereas in the town first mentioned, where the people pull together, it has been estimated that the home merchants get about 98 per cent. of the trade.

Five-sixths of the timbered area in B. C. belongs to the People.

Each year, it is increasing in value as the more accessible timber is cut.

In 1922 there was received from the sale of such timber the sum of $620,000.

This helped to keep your taxes down, and to build up the Province.

THE POWER OF SUGGESTION

A new device for saving passengers trouble has been adopted by the Dining-Car Service of the Canadian National Railway. Throughout the coaches on trains to which Dining or Cafe Cars are attached, little dodgers are now distributed before each meal, with several suggestions for a suitable combination of dishes. These dodgers are printed in both English and French. This gives the patron of the Dining-Car a little time to decide upon what he will order later, and eliminates the tiresome necessity of studying a large menu-card. If the traveller is accustomed to set a limit of price upon his meals, there is no need whatever to exceed it. The prices for a complete menu for Breakfast, Dinner and Supper are most moderate, ranging from 35 cents to $1.25. Having made his choice according to pocket-book and appetite, upon entering the Dining-Car, the traveller will find himself served as quietly and satisfactorily as he would be in any well-appointed home.

One way to attract a committee of ladies to your office is to neglect your regular morning shave.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

Minimum price of first-class land reduced to $5 an acre; second-class to $2.50 an acre.

Pre-emption now confined to surveyed lands only.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is non-timber land.

Partnership pre-emptions abolished, but parties of not more than four may arrange for adjacent pre-emptions with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims.

Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 5 acres before receiving Crown Grant.

Where pre-emptor in occupation not less than 3 years, and has made proportionate improvements, he may, because of ill-health, or other cause, be granted intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim.

Records without permanent residence may be issued, provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $360 per annum and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained in less than 5 years, and improvements of $10.00 per acre, including 5 acres cleared and cultivated, and residence of at least 2 years are required.

Pre-emptor holding Crown Grant may record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm, without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted land.

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesites, title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions.

For grazing and industrial purposes areas exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or company.

The scope of this Act is enlarged to include all persons joining and serving with His Majesty's Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under the Act is extended from for one year from the death of such person, as formerly, until one year after the conclusion of the great war. This privilege is also made retrocative.

No fees relating to pre-emptions are due or payable by soldiers on pre-emptions recorded after June 26, 1918. Taxes are remitted for five years.

Provision for return of moneys accrued, due and been paid since August 4, 1914, on account of payments, fees or taxes on soldiers' pre-emptions.

Interest on agreements to purchase town or city lots held by members of Allied Forces, or dependents, acquired direct or indirect, remitted from enlistment to March 31, 1920.

Sub-Purchasers of Crown Lands

Provision made for issuance of Crown grants to sub-purchasers of Crown Lands, acquiring rights from purchasers who failed to complete purchase, involving forfeiture, on fulfilment of conditions of purchase, interest and taxes. Where sub-purchasers do not claim whole of original parcel, purchase price due and taxes may be distributed proportionately over whole area. Applications must be made by May 1, 1920.

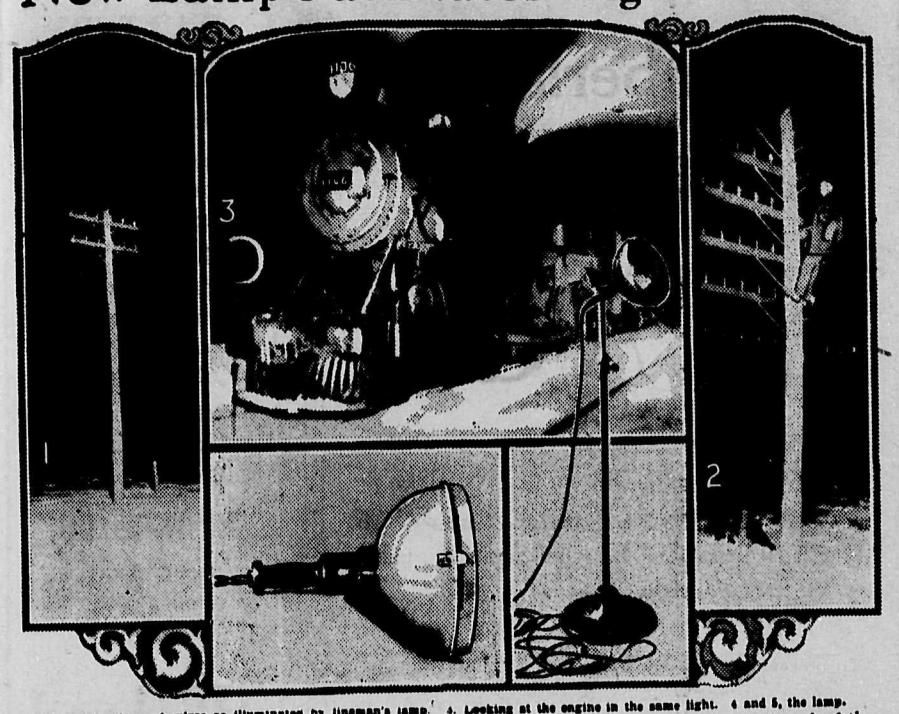
New Lamp Facilitates Night Work



1 and 2, views of wires as illuminated by lineman's lamp. 3. Looking at the engine in the same light. 4 and 5, the lamp.

IN the past interruptions to telegraph service caused by damage to outside wires could only, in the majority of cases, be rectified by daylight, when the damaged section could easily be located. There is no doubt this was a disadvantage which delayed the recovery of interrupted services. Where the trouble may have been anywhere along the line between points some 20 to 100 miles apart it was not possible to take care of the interruption especially at night. To overcome the disadvantage due to night interruptions to its wires, the Canadian Pacific Railway Telegraphs provided a special electric light and all the linemen on the System were equipped with it, enabling them to successfully take care of interruptions and do their work at night as well as by day. The special light is provided with its power from the locomotive dynamo turbines with which all Canadian Pacific locomotives are equipped.

The special light in itself is of simple construction, the power is derived from the dynamo turbine from the locomotive which provides electricity for the illumination of the headlights and cab lights. A headlight globe is used and an especially designed reflector throws a beam sufficiently strong to allow working operations at a distance of 600 feet. The conducting wire attached to a socket in the cab of the locomotive is of sufficient strength to enable the operator to work any place within two car lengths of the locomotive. There is also a semi-permanent stand to which the lamp can be attached for the convenience of men working at night on bridges or, in fact anywhere that requires a steady flow of light. The lamp can also by interchange of globes be used where there is a domestic current, but not with such good effect.

As there is so much that can affect the Telegraph System, such as fire aurora, lightening, snow, wind and rain, the advantage of being able to locate the source of trouble cannot be overestimated and time and time again, when the lines have been seriously damaged during the night, it has been found that the electric hand lamp, which is now used throughout the System, has been of great benefit. During the past winter when the service experienced a considerable number of interruptions the lamp was often used during snow and sleet storms and not in one instance is it known of its having failed to meet all services put upon it. There is no doubt that the perfection of this lamp has been a decided progressive step in telegraph maintenance at night

CANNED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES ARE NOW STANDARDIZED

Housekeepers run practically no risk of getting a poor quality of canned fruits or vegetables if they will be careful to order by quality grade. All canned goods put up in the larger factories must conform to legal standards, and these are shown on the label of the can. The system of standardizing canned fruits and vegetables is explained in the May-June number of the Agricultural Gazette by C. S. McGillivray, the Chief Canning Inspector o fthe Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.

The four legal standards of quality for fruits and vegetables are—"Fancy Quality," "Choice Quality," "Standard Quality," and "Second Quality."

In addition to general standards for vegetables, specific grades have been established for canned peas. These are as follows: Size No. 1, size No. 2, size No. 3 and size No. 4. The size is determined by the opening in the sieve through which the green peas will pass.

Canned fruits are graded for quality and syrup. In grading for syrup, the terms "Heavy Syrup," "Light Syrup," and "Without Sugar" are employed. If the packer so desire, he may substitute the words "Packed in Syrup .....½ Sugar," (stating the percentage of sugar in the syrup).

The terms denoting quality and grade must appear upon the main portion of the label in plain type of a size not less than ⅜ of an inch in height. Thus, in the case of peas, the label must indicate the quality and size of the peas contained in the can, thus—"Fancy Quality, size No. 1". In the case of fruit, it must indicate the quality of the article as well as the consistency of the syrup so far as sugar content is concerned, thus—"Fancy Quality—Heavy Syrup."

The declaration of net weight on certain sizes of containers is not required, as these sizes have been standardized. These sizes are known as size 1's, 1½'s, 2's, 2½s 3's, and 10's. The minimum net weight of both liquid and solids as packed is defined for each of these sizes. Sizes not standardized must show on the label the net weight an dthe drained weight.

"The vamp" says an ad, "is of unfinished kid." All the kid vamps we have seen impress us as being raw, but we can see their finish.

Canada Confident of the Future

CANADA is endeavoring to regain her after-the-war stride in the midst of many difficulties, — debt, deflation and depression being some of them.

Quack remedies and academic theories beset her path on every side. Some suggest that our debt worries can best be eased by going further into debt. Others preach blue ruin, decry their own country and indulge in mischievous propaganda generally, while still others look for a new social order or some miraculous sign to indicate a better coming day—all this in apparent forgetfulness of the fact that just as there was no royal road to win the war, there is now no royal road to pay for it or regain our former buoyancy, vigor and confidence.

Some are leaving Canada hoping to escape taxation, only to find there is no escape anywhere. In seeking for easy remedies too many of us overlook the fact that the greatest remedy is honest, hard work faithfully and intelligently performed, accompanied by old-fashioned thrift.

It takes time, it takes patience, it takes grit. But every Canadian knows in his heart that Canada is coming through all right.

Our Experience Proves It

Look back over the path Canada has trod. The French Colonists, cut off from civilization by 3,000 miles of sea, faced a continent—a wilderness—without the aid of even a blazed trail. They had to fight savages, frosts, scurvy, loneliness and starvation.

The United Empire Loyalists subdued an unbroken forest in one generation, growing their first wheat amid the stumps and snags of the new clearing.

The Selkirk settlers came to Manitoba when the prairie was a buffalo pasture, and grew wheat where none had grown before and where those who knew the country best at that time said wheat would never grow. To-day the Canadian prairies grow the finest wheat in the world.

In proportion to population Canada stands to-day among the wealthiest nations in the world, with average savings on deposit per family of $800. Canada's foreign trade per head of population stands amongst the highest of the commercial nations, being $192 per capita in 1922-23, as compared with $135 in 1913-14, the "peak" year before the war.

New Opportunities for Canada

In Canada, although prices in the world markets fell below war level, our farmers reaped last autumn the largest grain crop in Canadian history, and Canada became the world's largest exporter of wheat, thus in large measure making up for lower prices.

Last year, Great Britain, after an agitation extending over thirty years, removed the embargo on Canadian cattle, and a profitable and practically unlimited trade is opening up for Canadian stockers and feeders.

"The 20th Century belongs to Canada"—if Canadians keep faith.

The next article will suggest practical opportunities for profit making on our Canadian farms.

THE RAVAGES OF THE POULTRY RED MITE

(Experimental Farms Note)

Few keepers of poultry realize the full extent of the injury done by red mites. With the warmer weather the mites flourish and multiply until the poultry buildings become infested with these pests, and the harm is done.

The red mite is the most dangerous of the external parasites that attack fowl, and if allowed to spread unchecked far worse losses might accrue than breeders imagine.

These parasites are most injurious to young chickens and brood hens. The persistent loss of young chicks and the failure of hens to bring off good hatches are often due to the irritation caused by the unsuspected presence o fthe red mite.

The attacks of boards of mites weaken and predispose the fowl to many maladies, as well as materially reducing the yield of eggs.

Some prominent scientists are convinced that the bite of the mite is venomous and that even worse disaster might result than merely weakened condition brought about by the sucking of the blood.

Undoubtedly many cases of disease and debility occurring in the late spring, summer and autumn are directly attributable to these pests; therefore information that will render easier their recognition and extermination should be of interest at this season.

Many people are unaware of the presence of appearance of the mite. They may not visit their poultry houses at night, and the parasite is nocturnal; it dislikes light. The adult is seldom found on the fowl in the day time, but emerges from the deposits of filth and dirt that have accumulated in the cracks and crevices of the house and fittings, and climbs to his roosting victim to gorge himself with blood.

In cold weather the mites are practically dormant, and are seldom seen; but the advent of summer will bring them forth in their myriads, and un*less vigorous methods are taken to* check their activities, in some cases the death of the infested fowl will follow, or the whole flock will become generally anaemic and unproductive.

The presence of the mite may be readily detected by a close examination of the roosts and nest boxes. The practice of running one's hand along underneath the roosts once a day is advisable, as some parasites all adhere and can be seen and felt distinctly.

Immediate extermination is vital, and steps should be taken at once to rid the building of all material that will harbour and protect the mites. Fittings should be removed, dirt and filth brushed out with a stiff broom, and the inside of the building and furniture thoroughly saturated with a powerful germicide by means of a spray pump or brush.

Some of the coal tar by-products used as sprays vary in efficiency when used in economical strength solutions; but where the mites are evident in small batches and only in places, these insecticides may be applied with a brush in their full commercial strength.

A five or ten per cent solution of carbolic acid is very effective, but not without danger as a spray. It can however be recommended if proper precautions are taken.

The most economical and effective preparation is a five to ten per cent solution of coal oil and soap suds, which should be applied twice with an interval of two or three days between applications.

The Cost of the Lowest Bid

The electric equipment of a home to-day, no matter how simple that home may be, is a scientific problem and warrants a few minutes attention and study.

Electricity is constantly making life easier, more convenient and more comfortable for everybody and, as the world is grasping the place of electricity in the home, soon it will be the exception for a house not to be thoroughly equipped for every phase of electrical service.

Considering the importance of the electrical equipment of the home, nothing should be left to chance. The wiring should be right, illumination properly provided for, electrical outlets conveniently placed and the materials and appliances should be what experts have decided is necessary for a safe, dependable and permanent job. In other words, your equipment ought to be standard.

Your electrical installation requires a specialized knowledge just the same as your heating or plumbing installation. The heating engineer or the sanitary engineer knows better than you do what your house requires. In these cases, if you are wise, you select a man whom you know to be qualified in every respect to give you a satisfactory installation at a fair price.

There has to be a man who knows, and the community has to have some means to find him. The man who knows electricity, so far as it applied to the modern household, is the qualified electrical contractor, who is in close touch with the latest practise in electrical wiring.

For the BEST installation go to Cumberland Electric Lighting Co., Ltd.
