A ROMANTIC STORY.—The arrival at Paris of the German poet, philosopher and patriot, Gottfried Kinkel, has reminded a correspondent there of an adventure of the stormy times of 1848 in Germany, in which Kinkel, and Carl Schurz, well known in this country as soldier, politician and journalist, were engaged. When the revolution broke out Kinkel was a professor, and Schurz, then not twenty years old, a student at Bonn. Both took prominent parts in the struggle, both were captured, tried and sentenced, the professor to imprisonment and hard labor for life, and the student to be shot. Schurz escaped across the French frontier, but could not leave his friend and teacher in his dreary confinement. He disguised himself in rags and returned to Prussia as an organgrinder, begging his bread by day, and visiting the friends of liberty at night, and thus travelled many hundred miles, only to find that Kinkel's prison had been changed, and that he was confined in the fortress at Spandau. Schurz now changed his tactics, and had recourse to stratagem. Late one night a carriage, escorted by four dragoons, drove through Spandau to the fortress, and an officer in the uniform of a colonel of the royal guard delivered to the director a letter bearing the official seal of the Minister of the Interior at Berlin It ordered him to send the prisoner Kinkel at once in charge of the bearer of the letter, to the citadel of Madgebourg. Kinkel was awakened, securely ironed and placed in the carriage. It traveled rapidly all night, the escort of the dragoons and the magic words 'the King's service,' insuring prompt relays of horses everywhere. In the morning the prisoner was taken out, and found himself not at another prison, but on the sea shore, close under the guns of an English vessel, to which he was immediately transferred. On her deck he found his wife and children, and in the colonel who had borne him away, he recognised his friend and Carl Schurz in a new disguise. The dragoons, it is needless to say, were confederates in the plot. Kinkel has since resided in England and France, unable to revisit his own country; but Carl Schurz has since then been back at leisure and without disguise to his birthplace, unmolested by any one; for although a condemned felon, he was a diplomatic representative of one of the most powerful of nations, and bore as his safeguard a commission signed by the President of the United States—A. Lincoln.—Boston Advertiser.

FACTS vs. THEORIES.

"Give me a place to rest my lever on," says Archimedes, "and I will move the world." "Give me pure and unadulterated drugs," says Medicus, of the olden time, "and I will cure disease."

In one sense, both of these learned pundits were the veriest charlatans. They knew there was no place to rest their lever on, either to move the world or cure disease. Mechanism was in a backward state, and the medical profession was but another name for sorcery, and all the adjuncts of magic filters and charms of the "evil eye," &c.

But these latter days have borne unto us something more than even superstition and its crew ever dreamt of in their maddest philosophy. In these days of practical science, what was theory of yesterday is fact to-day, and all the old time notions become as bubbles in the sun, and burst and break with every breath we draw.

Let Archimedes shoulder his lever and we will find a resting place for it to move the world. Let mine ancient Medicus pant and toil no more for the drugs he so sorely needs, for we have them at our hand, ever ready to serve them at his beck.

Refined in the laboratory of Dr. Maggiel, the finest materials known in the medical profession are obtainable by any one. His Billious, Dyspeptic, and Diarrhœa Pills stand unrivalled, and his Salve operates with magical effect upon burns, scalds, and all sores and ulcers of the skin.

In fact, we think MAGGIEL'S Pills and Salve are the wonder of this century, and we are happy in the thought that many others of our brethren of the craft agree with us. We would earnestly counsel that all families provide themselves with Dr. Maggiel's Preparations at once, and keep them ready at hand, so as to use them at the most opportune time and as occasion serves.—Valley Sentinel.

THE GREAT REMEDY OF THE AGE.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

The effect of the Ointment on the System

To the very core and centre of all diseases which affect the human body, this remarkable preparation penetrates. It disappears under the friction of the hands, as salt disappears when rubbed upon meat. The unguent performs its healing errand rapidly, safely, and without pain. Simple eruptions, open sores, hard tumors, scrofulous developments of all kinds, abcesses, cancers, old wounes, and, in fact, every species of inflammation and suppuration, whether in the skin, the flesh, the glands, or among the muscles, can be arresteb in its destructive course, and permanently cured without danger by rubbing in this inestimable Ointment.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Sores, and Ulcers.

In many Hospitals in Europe this celebrated remedy is now used for the cure of old wounds, sores, and ulcers; in Spain and Portugal, and in many parts of Italy, the first Physicians regularly prescribe its use. It is a sovereign remedy for bad breasts and bad legs; and likewise for all skin diseases. It is to be found in the chest of nearly every sailor, soldier, and emigrant.

Imprudencies of Youth;—Sores and Ulcers.

The above class of complaints is surely removed by nightly fomenting the parts with warm water, and then by most effectually rubbing in this Ointment. Persons suffering from these direful complaints should lose not a moment in arresting their progress. It should be understood that it is not sufficient merely to smear the Ointment on the affected parts, but it must be well rubbed in for some considerable time two or three times a day, that it may be taken into the system, whence it will remove only hidden sore or wound as effectually as though it were palpable to the eye. Bread and water poultices, after the rubbing in of the Ointment, will do great service. This is the only proper treatment for females in cases of cancer in the stomach, or for those who suffer from a general bearing down.

Piles, Fistulas, Strictures.

Blotches, as also swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Ointment be used freely, and the Pills be taken night and morning as recommended in the printed instructions When treated in any other way these complaints only dry up in one place to break out in another; whereas this Ointment will remove the humor from the system, and leave the patient a vigorous and healthy being. It will require time, aided by the use of the Pills, to ensure lasting cure.

Diptheria, Bronchitis, Sore Throats,

Any of the above class of diseases may be cured by well rubbing the Ointment three times a day upon the skin covering the throat, chest, and neck of the patient. The unguent will soon penetrate the pores and give immediate relief. To allay the fever and lessen the inflamation, eight or ten Pills should be taken night and morning. The Ointment will produce perspiration, which is so essential for removing fevers, sore throats, and those oppressions of the chest which arise from Asthma, Bronchitis, and other causes.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following Cases:

Bad Legs	Corns (Corns)	Rheumatism
Bad Breasts	Cancers	Scalds
Burns	Contracted and Stiff Joints	Sore Nipples
Bunions	Elephantiasis	Sore Throat
Bite of Moschetoes and Sand-Flies	Fistulas	Skin diseas
coco-bay	Gout	Scurvy
Chiego-foot	Glandular Swellings	Sore heads
Chilblains	Lumbago.	Tumors
Chapped Hands	Piles	Ulcers
		Wounds

UNLICENSED BROKER.—A. J. Welch, a gentleman from the vicinity of Bow Bells, was fined $30 in the Police Court yesterday for doing business as a broker without a license. It seems that he played smart upon a legitimate broker, and by pretending to be desirous to purchase a saloon, got the address of a man who wished to sell out. He then went to the saloon, and telling the owner that a friend of his might be induced to purchase the place, got an offer of $100 commission. The sale was effected, the purchaser paid the money, and Welch got his $100. A week later the buyer found out that he had bought "a pig in a poke," and learning how the transaction had been brought about, had the unlicensed broker Welch arrested, convicted and fined. Welch made $70 by the transaction, after all, through the leniency of the Court in imposing a fine of only 30 per cent. of the amount he had received, and will probably take out a license now to do business in his own name.—S. F. Alta.

BASE BALL.—At a meeting of young men at the Gymnasium, View street, last night, a Base Ball Club to be styled the "Olympic," was organized, and the following officers elected: President, Mr. Gillan; Secretary, Mr. E. McQuade; Directors, Messrs, T. Fowlis, Jos. Davies and R. H. Adams, jun. The rules of the National Base Ball Club of New York were adopted. The club already numbers 24 members, and will, doubtless, be a success.

SPECIAL MAIL—H. M. S. Sparrowhawk will sail for San Francisco this evening at six o'clock to bring up the mails which were not sent up by the Active. The Sparrowhawk will steam all the way down and back, having taken on board a full supply of coal for that purpose. She will also carry down a mail from this colony. We understand important despatches were expected by the Active's mails.

ACCIDENT TO THE ANDERSON—The steamer Eliza Anderson broke her rock-shaft this morning when about half way across to Port Angelos, and was obliged to put back to Victoria. The damage was trifling, and was speedily repaired, when the steamer again started for her destination.

SURGICAL—Dr. Dickson to-day extracted the bullet from the shoulder of the man who was recently shot at Cadboro Bay. It had entered behind the shoulder, passed through the bone, up over the shoulder and around in front of the neck, lodging at the top of the breast bone.

DEATH OF A VICTORIAN.—We regret to learn, from a private letter, that Mr. Geo. Hunter Cary, formerly Attorney-General of this colony, died in London on July 15th, after a long and painful illness.

BOATING IN SAN FRANCISCO.—At the annual regatta of the San Francisco rowing club, we observe the four-oared boat Neptune entered. This is the craft which was built at Alberni, and beat all the Bay City boats last year.

QUICK RUN—The schooner Minerva, which sailed from this port on the 21st ult. for Honolulu, was spoken on the 27th in lat. 27, lon. 130, having thus made a run of nearly 1200 miles in 6 days!

LARGE SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—Messrs. J. P. Davies & Co. held a large sale of real estate to-day of property in various parts of the city. The auction room was crowded, and much interest evinced in the sale. The following were the prices obtained for some of the principal lots: Lots 58, 59 and 60, Oakland estate, 7¼ acres, with house, &c., $1100; lot corner of Pandora and Quadra streets, $375; 2 lots adjoining, $210 each; lot 4, with brick house and improvements, $1530, to Mr. W. Farron; lot 15, on Mason street, with building, $375. Other lots in the same neighborhood brought from $65 to $85. The stmr Cariboo sold for $1600.

WIFE BEATING—Charles Gullion was to-day ordered to find security to keep the peace for six months, himself in $100 and two sureties in $50 each, in default to be imprisoned for two months.

DEATH—Our exchanges announce the death of Mr G. B. Mathew, Colonial Secretary of British Honduras, formerly Registrar of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

THE STEAMER ACTIVE sailed this morning at 7 o'clock for New Westminster. She will sail for San Francisco on Saturday at 4 p.m.

Europe.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—The following is additional news by the steamer City of Boston:

The London Daily News of the 1st instant says, Confederate bonds, which have of late been altogether neglected, are in demand at an advance. They opened at 4¼ and closed at 4½. It is surmised that accounts may have arrived favorable to the Philadelphia Convention. It is difficult, however, to see how the prospects of bondholders can thereby be improved, since an absolute condition has been made and agreed to that the war debt of the South shall be totally repudiated.

A strange rumor comes from Rome to the effect that a conspiracy to poison the Emperor of the French at Vichy, was discovered before he left that place Poison was to have been given in a potion which the Emperor was accustomed to drink after his bath. It is asserted that a man named Valentire was to have carried the design into effect, but when it was discovered through a warning letter sent by one of the conspirators in Rome to the Emperor, Valentire committed suicide.

A French newspaper thus announces the failure of the Archduchess Carlotta's conditions with Napoleon. The Empress Carlotta has paid her last visit to the Emperor, and there is no longer the slightest doubt that he has lately announced to the Princess with extreme regret his irrevocable resolution not to subscribe to any of the arrangements which she has come to propose as the means of aiding the dynasty of Mexico. It is now certain that the Empress of Mexico will not again return to that country, and that Maximilian will soon join her in Europe after having abdicated.

LONDON, Sept. 10—The Eastern question seems to be looming in the future.

Russia shows signs of moving once more to obtain control of Danubian principalities, and probably eventually of Constantinople. The Porte has determined to recognize Prince Charles, of Hohzenzollern, as Emperor of the Principalities.

VIENNA, Sept. 10—Evening—Orders have been issued by the Minister of War declaring that regiments of the Austrian army named after the King and Princess of Prussia, Duke of Baden, and some others, shall cease to be so named.

Cariboo.

We have copies of the Sentinel to Sept. 3rd, from which we extract the following:

PRESENTATION.—On Saturday, Sept. 1st, a number of the friends of Dr. David Brown met at the Cariboo Library, Cameronton, and presented him with an address on the eve of his departure for his native land. The Doctor is a young man whose kind and obliging disposition and courteous demeanour, apart from his professional attainments, have earned for him the respect and esteem of a large circle of friends during his residence on this creek extending over a period of more than three years. His friends desirous of expressing some mark of their friendship for him as a man and a citizen delegated Mr. John MacLaren to present him with a complimentary address, signed by over 150 of the most respectable residents of the creek.

ACCIDENTS—Mr. M. C. Davis was thrown from his horse in Stout's Gulch and badly bruised. Mr. E. Tuomey met with a similar accident, near Richfield, and was very badly bruised. A young man named Thomas McMinimie, a native of Belfast, Ireland, was crushed to death on California creek by his claim "caving" on him.

DONATION.—Messrs. Clarkson & Co. have presented a handsome copy of Burns' complete works to the Cariboo Library.

WINTER.—The first snow storm fell on Aug. 31st, to a depth of six inches.

WILLIAMS CREEK.

The Camp Co who washed up for week 63 ozs.—The Morning Star Co. washed for 4 days 22 ozs.—Cariboo Co. for week about 70 ozs.—Never Sweat Co. had a dividend of $100 to the share for the week.—Caledonia Co made wages for week.—Last Chance Co. cleaned up for week about 90 ozs.

GROUSE CREEK.

The Heron Co. cleaned up for week ending yesterday 145 ozs.—Short Bend Co. are making $24 a day to the hand out of their open cut.—Full Rigg Co. had got into slum and water; the bed rock still continued level.—Discovery Co. are taking out at the rate of 35 ozs from the set of timbers, but are greatly annoyed by big boulders which they have to blast. —Ne'er do-Well Co continue to take out good pay; on Saturday they washed up 20 ozs.

CEDAR CREEK.

Mr. D. McMartin, who left this creek on Friday last, informs us that the Discovery Co. continue to take out good pay their ground averaging them from 6 to 11 ozs a day. The only other company that had got to washing was the Borealis, who were making good wages. It is Mr. McMartin's opinion that the creek for a distance of 3000 feet from the mouth up will pay about $50 a day to the hand. All were busy getting out lumber and making every preparation for working their claims

About 10 days before our informant left, a company had started on a prospecting tour to the head of the lake, taking with them two weeks' provisions.

THEFT.

One thousand dollars were stolen from Martin's saloon, Cariboo, on the 29th ultimo. Half the money belonged to the saloon keeper and the balance to Ned Buckley, Marks and other parties. Buckley lost about $240. Two men named John Elliott and James Pearce were arrested on suspicion of being the guilty parties.

The Wimbledon Rifle Meeting.

The grand national rifle contest at Wimbledon terminated on July 21st. The great feature of the occasion was of course the struggle for the "Elcho Shield" between the "eights" of England, Scotland and Ireland, and the sons of Scotia have again carried off the highly prized honor. The Times, in giving an account of the match, says: At the first of the ranges yesterday England led by three points, and Ireland was 16 points behind the Scotch. But at the 900 yards distance Scotland not only recovered lost ground, but attained a lead which was never effectually disturbed. They shot magnificently, surpassing their own aggregate score of last year by no less than 119 points. 1,051 was the Scotch total last year; it is now 1,170. Mr. Malcolm, at the three ranges of 800, 900, and 1,000 yards, had an average of centres, and yet his was the lowest score obtained in the eight to which he belonged. The highest score among the Scotch marksmen was that of Mr. Wilkin, who made a total of 156 points. Mr. Miller, with a score of 153 in the English Eight, and Mr. Martin in the Irish Eight with 150 points, were the foremost among the representatives of their respective nationalities. The following are the detailed scores:

ENGLISH AFFAIRS.

The English papers are full of the reform demonstrations in Hyde Park and elsewhere, and the question has arisen between the Reform League and the Government whether the people have a right to use the public parks for the purpose of holding political meetings. Mr. Walpole, Home Secretary, denies the right, on the ground that the parks are for popular recreation, and that political meetings would tend to interfere with that recreation. The Home Secretary is, however, ably answered by a member of the League, and required to show by statute or constitutional law the authority given to the Government to preclude the people from assembling in the parks for any purpose that is not in itself unlawful. The Home Secretary can adduce no such proof, but promises the League every assistance in arriving at the constitutional right of the question. In the meantime, and until the matter has been decided by a court of law, he assumes the authority of prohibiting political gatherings in the parks, although he has no desire to see any damper thrown on the constitutional right of holding public meetings or political demonstrations. The matter was warmly discussed in the House of Commons, and was taken up in the House of Lords. In the latter body Earl Shaftesbury proposed, in the event of the Courts of law upholding the views of the Home Secretary, that Government should erect buildings or fit up public places in which the inhabitants of London could assemble, without let or hindrance, to discuss political questions; and Lord Derby expressed himself in favor of some such scheme.

It appears that the great objection urged against holding such meetings in Hyde Park was that the place is in the immediate vicinity of the aristocratic portion of the metropolis, and that should disturbances take place the mob would be sure to vent its indignation on the palatial residences of the higher classes. In every riot that has yet taken place in Hyde Park the neighboring streets and squares have come in for their share of demolition; but it unfortunately happened that it was due principally to the inimical actions or views held by the aristocracy generally that the mob had reason to assemble for purposes of demonstration. When the riots in reference to Grosvenor's Sunday Liquor bill took place, the residences in the fashionable parts of London were fiercely assailed, and the Grosvenor party in Parliament were obliged to capitulate. It is indeed not the first time that a London mob has achieved a political victory, when reason was by the Government ignored. "Destroy the comfort of the aristocracy," said Douglas Jerrold, on the occasion just alluded to, "and you will drive them into surrendering." The carriage-drives were interrupted, the carriage inmates hooted at, and aristocracy, as Jerrold had correctly anticipated, gave way. The position assumed by Mr. Walpole, therefore, may safely be put down to a desire to preserve to the higher classes their luxurious drives, rather than to see that public recreation is not interfered with. Primrose Hill is offered by the Government to the Reformers in lieu of the Park; but the same argument which closes the park to political meetings would close up Primrose Hill. There is, however, this important difference—at Primrose Hill the mob could only annoy the common people, whereas at Hyde Park, the creme de la creme might be rudely hustled or interfered with.

On the 26th July, in the House of Lords, we find that Earl Carnarvon moved the second reading of the "British Columbia Bill." Whether this is the "Union Bill," or a new bill, we cannot, in the absence of anything but rumor, say. If it be the Union bill, that measure must have passed the House of Commons, and, as it had on the 26th passed its second reading in the Lords is, it is safe to say, law by this time. It was stated some time ago, however, on good authority, that the Union bill had been withdrawn. We have no other guide to place before our readers on the question than the following from the Times report of the proceedings in the House of Lords on July 26th:

BRITISH COLUMBIA BILL.—The Earl of Carnarvon, in moving the second reading of this bill, briefly sketched the history of the colony up to the time that the discovery of gold there caused a rush of miners, whose influx necessitated some variation from the mode of Government which up to that time had prevailed, and it was to provide permanently for the civil government of the colony in the changed circumstances that had resulted from the discovery of gold that this bill was introduced. The bill was read a second time.

THE LONDON RIOTS.

Exciting Scenes in Hyde Park--Collision between the People and the Police.

The London Times of July 24th says :

The great demonstration in favor of parliamentary reform has not terminated so peacefully as its promoters anticipated. When it became known that the police had received instructions to prevent the meeting being held in Hyde Park a notice was forwarded by the "Demonstration Committee" to the various sub-committees, to the effect that the members were to march in procession to the Park and if prevented from entering it were to form four deep and proceed by way of Grosvenor Place, Victoria street, and past the Houses of Parliament to Trafalgar Square. The notice also alluded to the circumstance of the police acting under orders of a Tory Government, and concluded by exhorting those to whom it was addressed to show by their peaceable and orderly conduct that they were determined to have manhood suffrage and the ballot. In accordance with previous arrangements processions were formed shortly after five o'clock yesterday afternoon in the different metropolitan districts included within the operations of the Reform League. The preliminary proceedings at Clerkenwell Green were almost an exact counterpart of what took place at the other starting place. At 4½ o'clock, about 50 persons were collected round an empty wagon, near the drinking fountain. This crowd gradually increased, until at 5½ o'clock some 200 or 300 people were collected round the wagon, which was taken possession of by the leaders of the expedition, who were distinguishable by their wearing red sashes and other badges of office. A Mr. Coffee commenced the proceedings by delivering a speech in which he denounced the conduct of the Government in giving orders to close Hyde Park against the advocates of reform, and declared that the Reform League were fully determined to have the question tried whether the parks were the property of the crown or of the people who paid for them. He trusted however that the people would go quietly and use no violence whatever. No amount of advertising, he observed, could have made the meeting so generally known as the notice which had been issued by Sir Richard Mayne. After some severe remarks on the aristocracy in general and the Earl of Shaftesbury in particular, Mr. Coffee concluded among general cheering by declaring his belief that if the people did not get the right of voting the sooner they left the country by millions the better. Some other speeches were delivered and then the audience formed in procession and, preceded by a drum and fife band, marched through Hatton Garden Holborn, and thence along Oxford street to the Marble Arch.

BATTLE AT THE MARBLE ARCH.

Meanwhile vast crowds had collected in the neighborhood of Hyde Park. A force of foot and mounted police, numbering 1,600 or 1,800, was here assembled under the direction of Sir Richard Mayne and Capt. Harris, and at 5 o'clock the gates were closed. Before the hour a considerable number of people had collected inside, in order to witness what was about to take place, and these were permitted to remain there. Outside, the throng was, as might be supposed, much greater. Masses of people had assembled at all the approaches. The Marble Arch was the centre of attraction, and for an hour or two previous to the proposed commencement of the demonstration the traffic was seriously impeded. The windows and balconies of the neighboring houses were also crowded with spectators. Shortly after 7 o'clock Edmond Beales, Lieut.-Col. Dickson, and other leading members of the Reform League, in a line of cabs which headed the Clerkenwell, Islington and other processions, advanced to the Arch, and the Sub-Committee having succeeded in making a clear passage, Mr. Beales and his friends went up to the police, who were drawn up in line, staves in hand, some of them being mounted. The crowd immediately closed in, and endeavored by an "ugly rush" to effect admission. The police used their staves freely to defeat this attempt, and it is stated that both Mr. Beales and Col. Dickson were struck in the scuffle. At any rate, after being refused admission and having thus raised the question in the form they desired, they went back to their vehicles, and with some difficulty managed to make their way through the crowd in order to proceed to Trafalgar square, there to hold the meeting, according to the programme which had been laid down.

THE CROWD FORCE THEMSELVES INTO THE PARK.

Printed bills were distributed among the various detachments as they came up from Clerkenwell, Southwark, Finsbury, &c., directing them not to attempt to force an entrance into the Park, but to proceed to Trafalgar square. It is much easier, however, to collect throngs of people than to keep them in leading strings when collected, and a large portion of the masses were not disposed to follow implicitly the instructions of their leaders. The gates, it is true, were strongly fortified, but to throw down the railings seemed a feasible undertaking, and it was promptly attempted. The police, indeed, hastened to every point that was attacked, and for a short time kept the multitude at bay; but their numbers were utterly insufficient to guard so long a line of frontier, and breach after breach was made, the stone work, together with the railings, yielding easily to the pressure of the crowd. The first opening was made in the Bayswater road, where the police, rushing to the spot, prevented for a time any considerable influx of people; but they could not be ubiquitous, and along Park lane especially a great extent of railing was overturned, till in the end the crowd entered ad libitum. A good deal of scuffling attended these incursions. The police brought their truncheons into active use, and a number of the "roughs" were somewhat severely handled.

THE WOUNDED.

Upon inquiry at St. George's Hospital it appeared that as the result of the previous night's disturbances there were seven serious cases, one that of a sergeant of the A division, suffering from a pike stab in the ribs; a printer suffering from lacerated wounds on the head and body from a policeman's truncheon, and the other five of a similar character. The number of cases relieved, but not sufficiently severe to be kept in the hospital, were very considerable, and in nearly every case the injuries have been received from the truncheons of the police.

MILITARY CALLED OUT.

About 8 o'clock a company of the Grenadier Guards and a troop of the Life Guard entered the Park, but it was then too late to prevent the influx of people: for, though the gates were still jealously guarded, breaches had been effected in every direction in the palings, and the military, who were loudly cheered by the crowd, confined themselves to manœuvres, the only effect of which was to oblige the mob occasionally to shift their position. The numbers in the Park were by this time very large, and although of course there were a considerable number of 'roughs,' who look on the police as their natural enemies, many of the persons present appeared to be quiet and respectably dressed people, who had simply been attracted by curiosity, and showed no uproarious or even any political proclivities. Speeches were made at various spots, one of the orators being a Miss Harriet Laws, who delivered a very fervid address on the political and social rights of the people.

THE REFORM LEAGUE AND THE GOVERNMENT.

The Government, by the Right Hon. Spencer Walpole, the Home Secretary, have this day agreed with the Council of the Reform League, to facilitate in every way their obtaining a speedy decision, either in Parliament or in a Court of law, as to the right of the people to hold public meetings in the parks, and it is earnestly requested that in the meantime, and until the question is decided, no further attempt be made to hold a public meeting in Hyde Park, except only on next Monday afternoon, July 30th, at 6 o'clock, by arrangement with the Government, and it is further earnestly requested that all persons will abstain from disorderly acts, and do everything in their power to preserve the peace and protect property.

One act of beneficence to the needy, one act worth all the abstract sentiment in the world.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

PILLS & SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

Life-Giving Pills

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and reinvigorates the ailing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A VERY FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle aged they will prove most invaluable, as a remedy, specific and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to vigor and make youth ever

An Eternal Spring!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show in one glorious fact the magic that made it fair.

THESE FAMOUS REMEDIES

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back, and hold aloof, diseases that mock triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

For Billious Disorders

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills.—Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

For Cutaneous Disorders

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

THE ONE THING WANTED.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

The Blood.

These famous pills are so composed that they operate wholesomely on the stomach, the liver, the bowels, and other organs; by correcting any derangements in their functions whereby a steady supply of pure materials for the renewal of the Blood is furnished, and a constant abstraction of effete products is effected. This perfect circulation thus becomes the very fountain of health and life, and overcomes all form of disease wherever its situation.

General Disorders of the Liver and Stomach.

All who ever indulge at table, either in eating or drinking, should take about ten of these famous pills at bed time, from which will result a clear head and good stomach the following morning. Thousands of Ladies are always complaining of sick headaches, want of appetite, want of energy, and want of strength, to correct all these evils, three or four of these Pills should be taken twice a week, when they would give the invalid the health and appetite of a ploughman.

Females of all Ages and Classes

Obstructions of any kind, either in young or those between forty and fifty--the most critical period of life—may be radically removed by using these Pills according to the printed directions which accompany each box. Young persons with sickly and sallow complexions may have the bloom of health restored by this corrective, which purifies the blood and expels all gross and impure humors from the system. Beware then of the critical age from forty to fifty, as it sends many thousands to premature grave,—these Pills should be taken at that period of life two or three times a week

Want of Strength and Energy.

Persons of sedentary habits, or those troubled in mind, working in Factories or Coal Pits, who cannot obtain that amount of fresh air and exercise which nature requires, suffer from weakness and delility, lowness of spirits and want of appetite. All such should take a dose or two of these Pills every three or four days, as they act gently and effectually on the system and impart vigor and energy to the body, which is always followed by a good appetite, sound and refreshing sleep, and a high flow of spirits.

For the Cure of Dropsy.

The efficacy of Holloway's Pills in Dropsy is extraordinary. They act with such a peculiar effect upon the system, that the fluids causing this direful complaint, are perceptibly carried off and prevented from any further accumulation. The sufferer regains a buoyancy of spirits and rejoices in a completely renovated constitution. It is indispensably necessary that the Ointment should be most effectually rubbed into the complaining parts during the whole course of treatment.

Children and their Ailments.

In no country in the world are more children carried to an early grave than in Great Britain. Coughs, Measles, Scarlatina, Fevers, and other diseases attack the little sufferers, and death, but too often, follows at a rapid pace; yet if at the first stage of these complaints, parents were to have recourse to Holloway's Pills, all danger would be avoided, for the stomach and bowels would be gently but effectually cleansed by this mild aperient; the depraved humors corrected and the secretions duly regulated. A perfect cure would soon be effected, and the little patient restored to sound health.
