B.20 Butler, Mrs Josephine No 1

British, Continental, and General Federation for the abolition of Government regulation of prostitution.

27, Great George Street,
Westminster, London.
and 348, Park Road, Liverpool.

26th February 1877.

Dear Miss Nightingale

The Committee of the Federation desire me to request you to do us the honour of giving your name as a member of the Committee of honour of the Geneva Congress of which I enclose a prospectus. Your acceptance of this will not entail any work or responsibility; it only means your adhesion to the principles of our Federation. The comittee of Honour includes men and women of all nations. We hope that you will be able to come to Geneva, where we shall have a great gathering.

Believe me, Yours very truly

Josephine E. Butler.
