EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Dreyfus trial is still the absorbing topic in France. It is stated that the Government will withdraw the charge against Dreyfus and proceed instead against General Mercier for forging documents to condemn Dreyfus.

The Nelson Miner, an Opposition paper, is candid enough to admit that "the real reason why Mr. Henderson was not opposed in New Westminster, was no doubt the fear that he could not be defeated."

Hon. A. Henderson, who was appointed Attorney-General in place of Hon. Jos. Martin, has been re-elected for New Westminster by acclamation. Where were the Opposition who boasted that the Government had gone to pieces and that a Government candidate could not be elected for New Westminster?

The Nelson Tribune says: "D. W. Higgins has left the Government party. Mr. Higgins has been leaving government parties ever since he became a member of the legislature. The trouble is, governments will not trust the genial ex-speaker any further than a cowboy can throw a bull by the tail."

According to the Inland Sentinel: "The inability of the Opposition to find a candidate to contest the New Westminster by-election, is the best reply to all the nonsense that has appeared in Opposition papers recently concerning the critical condition of the Government."

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.

I am the Mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering. Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burkick, Liberty R. I. For sale by all druggists. An Explanation.

To The Editor GOLDEN ERA:

Golden, B.C., Aug. 24, 1899.

Sir,—Kindly insert in your valuable paper the following notice in reference to the accident I met with some weeks ago in losing my four fingers of my left hand, through a freight car going over my hand.

I wish to clear the air of any evil report that may have arisen. I had been working in the sawmill here for quite a while and had to leave it through a disease called vertigo, and had been treated for the same here before the accident which, I am sure, was the cause of my misfortune. I am an Old Countryman, and have served in Her Majesty's Service. I write this to give the public a clear idea of the accident.

"Who steals my purse steals trash, but he who steals from me my good name robs me of that which makes me poor indeed."

HENRY H. THOMAS.

Troublesome to the Army.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by all druggists. Henderson Bros wholesale agts. Victoria and Vancouver.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Kimpton desire to tender their heartfelt thanks to the people of Golden and district, and particularly to the officers of the Golden Hospital and The Upper Columbia Navigation and Tramway Company for the kindness and sympathy extended to them during the illness, and since their bereavement by the death, of their late son Clifford.

MISSED BULLETS TO MEET A WORSE FATE.

Better take Life's Chances on a Battlefield Than with a Diseased Heart—Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart Gives Relief in 30 Minutes.

A man may pass through all the dangers of war and come through without a scar, only to find that disease has laid hold of him and he has an enemy more ruthless to fight. It was this way with a well-known American officer in the recent war. Heart disease developed, and he says in writing: "My ailments were palpitation, fluttering and pain about my heart. I used two bottles of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. I feel like a new man and would not flinch at facing another campaign. It's a wonderful heart specific."

ANNUAL MEETING.

GOLDEN HOSPITAL SOCIETY.

The following reports were presented at the annual meeting of the Golden Hospital Society:

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

To the Board of Directors,
Golden Hospital.

Gentlemen:

I have the honour to present herewith reports of Medical Superintendent, balance sheet, statements of revenue and expenditure, and comparative statements for year ending June 30th, 1899.

The number of patients in the hospital has been smaller than during the previous year, the decrease of in-patients being 16 for a total decrease of 85 days, as compared with the previous year.

The number of out-patients has increased 2.33 per cent, being 14 more than last year.

In reviewing the comparative statement of expenditure you will notice all items shew a decrease with the exception of salaries and wages, building and repairs, there being an increase of $395.72 in salaries, and $601.76 in buildings and repairs. Part of the increase is due for extra help for nursing and watching. $45 increase in salary as per agreement, and $48 paid on last year's account. Taking into consideration the serious cases that were treated and the number of patients at times in the hospital it would have been impossible to do without the extra assistance.

Buildings and repairs.—This shews an increase of $601.76 over the previous year. In this increase are included $1000 set apart by the Directors towards the erection of an isolated ward for infectious diseases.

The revenue account shews the large increase of $1301.27 over the previous year. The monthly fees owing to the busy season of the lumber camps have also considerably increased. In this increase of $757.32 is included $367.30 which should have been credited to 1898 account as explained by my predecessor at the last annual meeting.

The annual ticket holders and pay patients have more than doubled in number in the present year.

I would suggest that the long wanted isolated cottage for infectious diseases should now be built and that it be used as a maternity ward until such time as it may be needed for infectious cases. I would also recommend that the fence be extended from the S. E. corner to the fence adjoining Mr. Avery's property.

The manner in which the townspeople have contributed towards the hospital has indeed been gratifying.

Great credit is due to Nurse Holt's economical management and the untiring manner in which she has performed her duties.

In conclusion I beg to thank the staff and Board of Directors for their kind assistance during the past year.

I remain,
Yours odediently,
S. G. ROBBINS, Secy.

Golden, B.C., Aug. 7th, 1869.

MEDICAL SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

The Board of Directors,
Golden Hospital Society.

Gentlemen:

I have the honour herewith to submit to you a report of patients treated at the hospital during the year ending June 30th 1899.

The indoor patients numbered 75, of whom 78 were males and 7 females. There were 80 patients admitted, and 5 remaining in hospital from the previous year. 76 were discharged as cured. 3 improved (one of them was subsequently treated as an out-patient, and made a prompt recovery), 3 remained in hospital at the end of the year, and 3 died. Of the deaths one due to pneumonia in a man aged 78; one to chronic Bright's disease, and one to cerebral hemorrhage in an infant two days old.

The total number of hospital days was 1452, making an average stay per patient of 17.08 days. There were 613 out-door patients. A list of diseases treated is appended.

The cutting off of the Government grant has indefinitely delayed the construction of an isolated building for the reception of infectious cases. The need of such a building would be seriously felt by the community in the event of any epidemic.

I would suggest, for your consideration, the necessity of a separate building for maternity cases. A building used as a general hospital is not a proper place wherein to receive maternity patients.

I have the honour to be, gentlemen,
Faithfully yours,
J. N. TAYLOR.

MOTHER AND SON SAVED.

Catarrh had Pinioned Them, but Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder Cut the Cords and Freed Them from the Disease.

Mrs. W. A. Steele, 24 Inkerman street, Toronto, says: "For months and months I suffered torments from pain in my head, caused by acute chronic catarrh. I used Dr Agnew's Catarrhal Powder and found it a perfect specific. My son was also a victim of this malady for three years and suffered a great deal. Doctors could not cure him, but one application of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder gave him great relief, and it cured him in an incredibly short time."

ACCIDENT ON THE RAILWAY.

Two Men Hurt.

On Saturday morning, as the special with the Canadian Press Association was coming through the Kickinghorse Canyon, the engine struck the guy rope of a derrick in use by McGregor's bridge gang, who were engaged in repairing a bridge, at Glenogle. The result was that the derrick swung round, and A. McGregor, the bridge foreman, and Edward Soucie, who were on it at the time, were thrown down. McGregor had an arm broken and his head badly cut, and Soucie had an arm and a rib broken. The men were brought on to the Golden Hospital, Dr. Sylvester, of Toronto, who was on the train with the excursionists kindly attended to the injured men meantime. At the Hospital Drs. Sylvester and Richardson set the broken limbs and dressed the wounds, and we are glad to report that the patients are doing well.

A Long Wire.

One result of the accident to an eastbound freight 4 miles east of Donald, about one o'clock Monday morning, and which interrupted telegraphic communication at that point, was to give us an interesting example of the capabilities of the Canadian Pacific and the American Postal Telegraph systems. On receiving the report of the accident Superintendent Duchesnay, at Revelstoke, was anxious to instruct Field regarding the wrecking outfit and make arrangements for clearing the wreck. In a few minutes a direct wire to Field was arranged which enabled Supt. Duchesnay to make all arrangements direct. Considering the fact that this wire circled the continent with the exception of a few miles, it is certainly a wonderful illustration of the perfection of the C.P.R. and Postal Telegraph Systems. The wire leaving Donald passed through Vancouver, B.C., thence via Portland, Ore., San Francisco, Cal., Albequerque, New Mexico, Denver, Colerado, Kansas City, Mo., Chicago, Ill., Toronto, Ont., Montreal, Que., Winnipeg, Man., Swift Current, N.W.T. to Field, B.C., a distance of nearly eight thousand miles. M. M. Stephens at Field, and J. McMillan at Donald, operators, handled the wire, which worked to perfection.

A WOMAN'S SUFFERING.

Was Troubled With Palpitation of the Heart, Extreme Weakness and Nervous Headache.

In the little hamlet of Montrose Welland Country, resides a lady who gives much praise to the curative power of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The subject of this testimony is Mrs. Richard Hanna, an estimable lady who has resided in that locality for many years. A reporter seeking an interview with Mrs. Hanna found her willing to give full details, which are given in her own words. Five years ago I was taken ill. I attributed the trouble at the time to an injury sustained by a fall. Time went on and I did not get better. The symptoms of my complaint were palpitation of the heart, extreme weakness, stomach troubles and terrible headaches. I was very nervous, had no appetite and experienced much wakefulness at night. Finally I was compelled to take to my bed, being too weak to sit up any longer. In this condition I was treated at different times by three doctors, and took a great quanity of medicine but realized no benefit. Not one of my neighbors thought I would get well. In the meantime I thought myself that death would soon end my sufferings. One day Mrs. Smith, of Port Robinson came to see me and persuaded my husband to procure for me some of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and he purchased six boxes. After taking the six boxes I had improved very much and was able to be up, though yet too weak to walk. I sent for another six boxes and as a result considered my cure complete. I can relish food better, sleep soundly, and stand more fatigue than I could for years previous. Although I have passed the meridian of life I feel as healthy as when I was in my twenties. With great pleasure and a grateful heart I give this testimony.

The public is cautioned against numerous pink colored imitations of these famous pills. The genuine are sold only in boxes, the wrapper around which bears the words "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." If your dealer does not have them they will be sent postpaid at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

GOLDEN DIVISION.

Report of W. F. Robertson, Provincial Mineralogist.

GIANT MINERAL CLAIM.

A Crown-granted claim, 1,500 by 1,500, on the south-west side of Spillimachene Mountain, owned by W. J. R. Cowell, Assayer, of Victoria.

Lower Tunnel.—In 300 feet in limestone. At 100 feet in from the surface there is a deposit of "heavy spar," carrying about 15 per cent of galena, but as far as I could see, the deposit was of the nature of a pocket. The rest of the tunnel is in limestone, through which, here and there, are stringers of galena, "frozen" to the country rock, and in no instance of very appreciable size or strength.

Open Cut.—Above this lower tunnel to the north-west, and at an elevation of 3,825 feet, is an open cut, showing lime and heavy spar, heavily charged with galena. About 10 feet under this there is an outcropping of slate, dipping to the south at an angle of 60°, and with a strike about E. and W. (mag).

Upper Tunnel.—At an elevation of 3,850 feet, there is another tunnel, said to be in 100 feet, but now caved in. Judging from the dump, this tunnel, was run in a black shale, which does not seem to have been very highly mineralized. I noticed in the shales concretions or kidneys of zinc blende and galena, but in no great quantity.

Shaft.—Within 50 feet of the upper tunnel there is a shaft, said to be down 20 feet, but which I could not descend.

HIDDEN TREASURE MINERAL CLAIM.

A Crown-granted claim, 1,500 x 1,500 feet, owned by Henry Croft, of Victoria; a continuation of and situated above the Giant, at an elevation of 4,250 feet.

From the development done it would appear as if, at the contact between the lime and slates already mentioned, there was a deposit of heavy spar (sulphate barium), which follows the contact as far as I traced it. This heavy spar is all more or less mineralized, the mineralisation sometimes extending into the country rock. At lower points on the hill the mineralization seems to be chiefly zinc blende, which, as one proceeds higher up, changes to galena, while still higher up the mineralization seems to be chiefly copper.

(To be Continued.)

ROUND ABOUT THE MINES.

Windermere British Columbia Copper Mines, Limited, of Rossland, capital $125,000 has been gazetted.

A. Macaulay has had his claim ni Cariboo Basin surveyed by Hon. F. W. Aylmer and is taken steps to Crown Grant it.

The owners of the White Elephant Group, adjoining the Red Line, on Horsethief Creek, are reported to have four feet of solid ore.

Prospectors are beginning to go into the upper Kootenay country beyond Canal Flat. Messrs Bullman and Hardy started out a few days ago.

F. M. Chadbourne, ore-buyer for the Hall Mines Smelter, was again a visitor to Golden yesterday on his way to Windermere, where he represents extensive mining interests.

D. Granger of Canal Flat has made some locations on Finley creek, some of which are most promising. On the surface the ore is a high grade:—Prospector.

Another crowd of prospectors have gone out to Canyon Creek, the party including T. Hebson, D. McDougal, A. Logan, J. Lamontagne, H. Estell, A. MacDonald, D. Robertson, A. Vachon.

The New Golden-British Columbia Limited have bonded from D. McDougal his claim on Spruce Mountain adjoining one now held by the Company. The bond calls for $2000, This is a copper proposition.

Development work is being pushed on by the Certainty Company on the Porphyry and Iron Hill property on Canyon Creek. No. 1 tunnel is in 27 feet showing a low grade of ore all through. No 2 tunnel which is 100 feet north of No. 1, is in 30 feet, and shows between two and three feet of a good grade of ore.

Messrs. Kimpton, Starke, and Harrison, the enterprising owners of the Delphine mine on Toby Creek, have put in an excellent trail along the mountainside from the north fork to get a grade to the mine. They intend rawhiding ore out this winter. Arrangements have also been made for a pack train to come in from Argenta and the mine will shortly resume the shipment of ore.

NOT "SKINNY" FROM CHOICE.

But Shattered Nerves and Poor Digestion Pulled her Down—South American Nervine Cures the Nerves and Gives Perfect Digestion.

A lady down East, in writing of South American Nervine and what it did for her, says: "I am naturally fleshy, but la grippe upset my nerves and my digestion, and I lost forty pounds in about that many days. Friends said I was going into a decline, but I used 2 bottles of South American Nervine & my digestion is now perfect, and I am putting on flesh again. I mean to take six bottles before I quit it."

ATHALMER.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

All the principal ranches have exceptionally fine crops this season. Messrs. John Harris and Robt. Jackson's ranch, and Felix Larivee's "Sunnyside Valley" ranch easily head the list. They are both generally accepted as the leading ranches throughout the valley.

Fred West and partners have struck it rich on Horse Thief Creek.

Joe Lake is getting a large share of the prospectors trade this season. Joe is well liked among the boys in general.

Copper City seems to be all the talk at present time. It seems assured that Mulholland's syndicate have secured the coming town.

Mr. Chadbourn, ore purchaser for the Hall Mines Smelter, spent a few days in Athalmer during the past week.

C. F. Smith, of Mackintosh syndicate, spent Sunday in town.

It is said that Ed. Johnston has struck it pretty rich on his group of claims called the Virginia group, situated on Horse Thief Creek.

F. C. Lang, Recorder, arrived in town on the 17th inst., on his ore collecting trip, he was accompanied by William Taynton.

Athalmer lots are still selling and will continue to.

There are rumors of two new stores one each at Copper and Peterborough.

David Bale is pushing construction work on the Government bridge across the Columbia river.

Copper City has been purchased by Fred Mulholland representing a syndicate from Edward T. Johnston. The figure is understood to be a large one.

Harry Mitchell-Innes is pushing development work on a group of claims on Boulder Creek.

Copper lots will be placed on the market.

Peterborough town lots are also on the market.

Copper seems to be the favorite among the old timers and as a general rule among the Johnny-come-latelys. It certainly commands a grand situation, being situated on the extreme north end of Lake Windermere, and adjoins Athalmer townsite.

Death of Clifford Kimpton.

Last week Clifford Kimpton, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A Kimpton, of Windermere, was brought to the Golden Hospital for treatment, when it was found he was suffering from an attack of appendicitis. Dr. Sylvester, of Toronto, who came through with the Canadian Press Association, and Dr. Richardson operated on him. On Tuesday Dr. Brett, of Banff was sent for and performed a further operation, but still without relief, and the patient died that night of peritonitis. Mrs. Kimpton was with the deceased through his illness at the Hospital, and Mr. Kimptom came down on Saturday. Deceased was a clever and and promising lad, and much sympathy is expressed for the parents in their bereavement. The funeral took place on Wednesday, the procession leaving St. Paul's Church for the Golden Cemetery. Ven. Archdeacon McKay and Rev. M. Turner read the burial services.

The funeral was largely attended, many friends of the bereaved parents coming from Donald, their former home. The pupils of the Golden school under their headmaster, Mr. Bates, formed in procession to do the last honors to their fellow school-boy from Windermere. The coffin was beautifully clothed in flowers and wreaths contributed by Mesdames Manuel, Stirret and McMillan, and Mr. and Mrs. Pitts of Donald, Mr. and Mrs Parson, Mrs. Devlin, the boys and girls of the Golden school, the pallbarers, Mesdames Greene, Starforth, Woodley, Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Patmore. Vera Patmore, Miss Hudon.

Dr. Sylvester, who operated on the deceased, took so much interest in the case that after leaving Golden he wired daily to inquire how he was progressing. Capt. Bacon, of the Navigation Company, also went to much trouble to get the lad to the Hospital as soon as possible, leaving Windermere at 4 a. m. on the morning he was brought down.

Methodist Church District Meeting.

The financial district meeting of the Kamloops district of the Methodist church was held in Revelstoke last week, Rev. C. Ladner, of Kamloops, presiding. Revs. Laidley, Ashcroft; Neville, of Nicola; Powell, of Enderby; Westman, of Golden, and Thompson of Revelstoke; R. H. Pearson, representing Salmon Arm, and C. F. Lindmark of Revelstoke, were present; Revs. Gardiner, of Lillooet, Robson, of Vernon, and Moody, of Fairview, sent apologies for non-attendance. The financial standing of each circuit and mission in the district was thoroughly canvassed and grants of aid from the Missionary Society were recommended to the weaker charges. Kamloops and Revelstoke congregations are self-supporting, Revelstoke having agreed to assume this standing during the past year. Reports of the various missions were encouraging, and the year is looked forward to confidently on the part of the Methodist churches.

END IS NOT YET.

AT EDMONTON THE SASKATCHEWAN RISES FORTY FEET.

The River Is Still on the Rise, and Is Full of Drift, Miners' Shacks and Effects.

Edmonton, Alta., Aug. 18.—The Saskatchewan river has overflown, rising forty feet during the last twenty-four hours, and continues to rise fast. Already the bridge piers are four feet under water, and the electric light boilers are covered. Floating islands of wood are passing the town. The ferries have broken away, and no mail has arrived. Thousands of feet of lumber are adrift.

At present the water is rushing over the Hudson's Bay Co. flats. Two and a half inches of rain fell in twenty hours. The end is not yet,and the loss will be great.

The historic steamer Northwest, of the Hudson's Bay Co., has just broken from her moorings, struck the middle pier of the bridge, and gone down the river a total wreck. The river is still on the rise, and is full of drift miners' shacks and effects. Citizens on the river bank are moving out.

BANQUE VILLE MARIE.

Warrants Issued for the Arrest of President Weir and Others.

Montreal, Aug. 18.—Startling developments in connection with the suspension of the Banque Ville Marie have arisen. There was issued today warrants for the arrest of President Weir, F. W. Smith, director; and F. Lemieux, accountant of the bank, at the instance of the government.

The Canadian Bankers association met yesterday to receive a report upon the affairs of the Banque Ville Marie, prepared by an inspector from the Bank of Montreal, and one from the Merchants' Bank, but they decided to make public nothing about the report as such publicity might tend to interfere with the liquidation of the bank, and depreciate the value of some of its securities. The report only covered points of the Ville Marie bank's circulation in which other banks are naturally interested, as they would have to make good whatever amount the Ville Marie Bank was unable to. The supposition, therefore, is that there is a large over issue circulation, and on the street the amount of over circulation is placd as high as $700,000.

It is stated the different banks of Canada have nearly $300,000 of the Ville Marie bills in their possession, as the bank after suspension is said to have redeemed about $100,000. This would amount to a circulation of $400,000; when on June 30 the official returns gave a circulation of only $261,870. Whether the over circulation is really as large as this cannot be stated positively, as the bankers' association decline to make public the report of the inspectors. In the meantime the bank will not redeem any more of its bills until after Monday, when the creditors meet.

Miners Arrive With $350,000.

Vancouver, B.C., Aug. 18.—The steamer Cutch arrived from Klondike ports last night with 100 Yukon and Atlin miners on board. Purser Turner states the ship brought down $350,000 in gold dust.

The trouble over the recent seizure of six Canadian fishing boats near Point Roberts by the U. S. customs officials will probably be tested in a day or so by the release of the boats.

Lizzie Goles, a comely young woman, died in the city hospital on Saturday of cancer. Less than two months ago, Miss Goles left the home of her widowed mother in Montreal to come to Vancouver. Here she was to meet James Kelly, fireman in the Hastings mill. The young couple were to have been married shortly after her arrival. The friends she made during her short life in Vancouver were greatly shocked to hear of her untimely demise.

Reducing Yukon Force.

Ottawa, Aug. 18.—Within a month or six weeks one-half of the military force in Yukon will be back in the depots from which the men were drawn last year. There has been some talk among the men of the forces here that in case of an outbreak of trouble in the Transvaal a portion of the Canadian regulars might be despatched to South Africa, but the story meets with official denial. In case of the unnappy necessity for employing actual force in South Africa, it is quite possible Canada might contribute towards the defense of the imperial interests and it is not at all unlikely volunteers would be forthcoming, but our regular force is so small that it is felt it would be required here.

Vancouver, Aug. 17.—Much regret is felt at the death of Colin Campbell McKenzie who was superintendent of education prior to Mr. S. D. Pope, lately retired. He was one of the pioneer residents of the province and for over twenty years had lived at Nanaimo.

STANDARD BANK ROBBERY.

Ten Suspects, Arrested in Hull Alleged to Have Taken the $11,000.

Ottawa, Aug. 18.—Chief Genest, of the Hull police, claims to have solved the mystery of the Standard bank robbery, which occurred in Bowmanville last May. The suspected bank robbers are now in the hands of the Hull police. On May 13th a gang of six robbers stole $11,000 from the Standard bank of Canada. The night watchman saw six men inside and several more outside. He said he could indentify some of the men if he ever saw them again. A reward of $5,000 was offered for their capture. A gang of tramps was arrested by the Hull police some time ago, and Chief Genest believed from the records of the fellows they might be the bank robbers. He worked on the quiet for three months. The tramps were photographed and pictures sent to the bank authorities. Some of the fellows were identified by the watchman. They are James Collins, William Hastings, John Murray, William Gilmour, Patrick Ryan, Albert Lyster, James Logan, William Johnson, Richard Wilson and Thomas Clifford. The secret about the matter will only be revealed in court, when the parties from the bank are expected shortly in Hull to make a more complete identification of the men.

Engineer Causes a Collision.

Winnipeg, Aug. 18.—The Imperial Limited express from the east, which was delayed by a head-on collision with an east bound tea and silks special, arrived in the city Wednesday afternoon. The accident occurred while all on board were sleeping at 2 a.m. Tuesday. The limited was 55 miles west of Sudbury, running on schedule time, when a silk and tea special was discovered making the siding at Geneva Lake. Before the train could be stopped the two engines had crashed into each other and Dan Fairbairn, the engineer on the limited, was killed. The fireman of the express, seeing that a collision was inevitable, jumped from the cab and Fairbairn after standing in his place until the two engines were almost together, reversing the engine and putting on the emergency brake, followed the fireman's example and in some way lit on his back on the tender. He was picked up with his back broken and died within a few minutes. The special freight comprised 16 heavily laden cars and the tender of the locomotive was pitched up on top of the car behind, while two box cars behind were smashed. The locomotives of both trains were badly wrecked, also the baggage car of the limited, but the crews of the trains, with the exception of Fairbairn, escaped uninjured. The passengers on the limited say they never felt the shock. A wrecking gang was dispatched to the scene of the accident at once, but it was nearly ten hours before the trains were ready to proceed. The two locomotives and the damaged cars were left on the road.

ALASKAN BOUNDARY.

Canada Remains Firm and There Is a Lull in Negotiations.

Ottawa, Aug. 18.—With the advent of warm weather has come a lull in the negotiations of the Alaskan boundary question. At present both Lord Salisbury and the American minister at St. James are enjoiyng a rest, so there is not much of a prospect for developments before the fall. In the meantime the British foreign and colonial officers are flooded with expressions of the Canadian case and the ground on which it is based. Canada directs all her endeavors toward acquiring a settlement by a fair tribunal of arbitration. Recognizing that the time for a compromise, such as was offered earlier by her, is now past, the Canadian government will persist in the stand that neither reciprocity, fisheries, nor the bonding question, nor any other issue, can, with justice to ourselves, be taken up while the American government continues to hold an unreasonable position on this main point.

Private Dunn, of the Royal Canadian infantry, Toronto, was drowned while bathing in the Ottawa river at Rockliffe yesterday evening alongside the camp. His body has not yet been recovered

Married at Last.

London, Ont., Aug. 18.—Miss McGarvey, of Delaware, exercised the womanly prerogative of changing her mind by refusing her promised hu band at the altar yesterday.

John Hargrave is a resident of London for over fifty years, while his bride is a handsome woman, not yet 30. The banns had been three times published in St. Peter's cathedral and the church was well filled to witness the ceremony. When Rev. Father Tiernan put the momentous question to the man, he promptly answered in the affirmative. The bride amazed the congregation by answering "no, I won't," when it came to her turn to talk. Hargrave stood dumfounded, the priest looked dazed, and Miss McGarvey walked away from the altar, while the audience whispered wonderingly as it dispersed.

It was said the bride declined because her loving spouse had not completed the transfer of property to her, as had been arranged. Hargrave had a long conference with his intended and finally, an hour after the time fixed, the ceremony was solemnized. This time the bride was radiant, and said, "I will," as if she meant it.

A BIG ROBBERY.

$7,000 STOLEN FROM THE C. P. R. STATION AT JOLIETTE.

The Agent Could Not Open the Safe and the Money Was Deposited in the Cellar.

Montreal, Aug. 17.—A big robbery occurred at the C.P.R. station at Joliette last night. The station master received $7,000 by the Dominion Express Co., for the branch of the Banque Nationale in that place, but something was wrong with the safe and he could not open it. Stewart, inspector of the express company, had been notified of this mishap, and went out to find out what was the trouble. Being unable to open the safe without certain tools, which were in Montreal, he left the safe as it was until today. The station agent, for want of a better place, deposited $7,000 in the cellar, but when he arrived this morning the money had disappeared, and there was no trace of it. The station has an unlucky history. Last September $3,200 was stolen, and the station was burned by an incendiary, and in 1896, $6,000 was stolen from the safe. The guilty parties have never been discovered.

De Witt "Owing to the great possessions of Russia in Eurode and Asia it has been possible with the help of God to effect reapproachment between the people of the west and the east. Thanks to the wisdom of the Chinese government we shall, through the railways in course of construction, be united to China, a result which gives all nations the immeasurable gain of easy communication and lightens the operations of the world's trade. Through your unwearying care for the general weal, we have deemed it necessary after completing the railway, to declare Ta Lien Wan a free port during the whole period of the treaty for the merchant ships of all nations and to build a new city in the neighborhood of the said port."

Last of Four Brothers Killed.

Woodstock, Ont., Aug. 17.—Alexander Stewart, aged 92 years, was killed yesterday morning at the C.P.R. station. An engine from St. Thomas was coming down the track to the turn table. The old man, who was deaf, did not hear it and the wheels passed over him. Both legs were cut off below the knees and the body severed at the abdomen. The deceased became a resident of Woodstock in 1849 and formerly followed the occupation of a plasterer. A peculiar circumstance is that in the family of four brothers all have met violent deaths, one with the father of the four was drowned at Inverness, Scotland, another fell at Waterloo at the age of 16; Peter, a resident of Woodstock, whose family now lives here, stumbled one day and fell on a butcher knife he was carrying in his pocket.

Railway Rate War.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Tomorrow the Erie railway will announce a rate of $16.50 for the round trip between Chicago and New York. There is at present no round trip between Chicago and New York. There is at present no round trip between the two cities, the standard one way rate being $20. The rate to be made by the Erie is, therefore less than a single fare. At same time corresponding rates will be made from all intermediate points to New York. It is the general opinion that the action of the Erie will stir up the liveliest kind of a fight on rates between Chicago and New York.

Capt. Parker Takes San Mateo After Some Sharp Fighting After Maj. Cronin Had Failed.

Manila, Aug. 15.—While the 17th infantry, during last Tuesday's battle, was approaching Calulet along the road, the troops saw a group of fifty Filipinos outside the town under a flag of truce. Some, who were in white clothing, held up their hands to signify that they were unarmed. Capt. Hart, with a detachment, advanced cautiously to a point within 200 yards of them when the Filipinos picked up their guns and fired a volley. The Americans dropped into the bushes unhurt on the first movement and returned the fire. At this the Filipinos ran off.

Word has been received from Lieut. J. G. Gillmore, of the United States gunboat Yorktown, who was captured by the insurgents last April, near Baler, on the east coast of Luzon. SHOT HER HUSBAND.

Mrs. Eastwood Picks Up a Weapon and Jokingly Points It at His Head.

Rat Portage, Aug. 15.—The village of Keewatin was the scene of a rather peculiar accident yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Eastwood, who have only been married a short time, were dressing in their room about 11 o'clock in the morning, when Mrs. Eastwood picked up a revolver which her husband had left lying on a stand, and in a joking way said: "I'm going to learn to shoot." Almost simultaneously the weapon was discharged, and young Eastwood received the bullet in his head. The bullet entered the face on the left side of the nose and came out near the right ear. The distracted wife gave the alarm and Dr. Beatty was summoned. He found Eastwood in a precarious condition, but after drressing the wound he revived somewhat and the doctor has hopes of his recovery if blood poisoning does not set in. The wounded man is a son of Constable Eastwood, of Keewatin. Deep sympathy is expressed for Mrs. Eastwood who is prostrated over the affair.

Carnduff, N.W.T., Aug. 14—Last night Mr. L. J. Short attempted to murder his wife and then committed suicide at the house of Mr. Joseph Duffield, about six miles out of here. It appears that after Mr. and Mrs. Short had retired for the night they got into an altercation, Mrs. Short threatening to call for Mr. Duffield. Mr Short said, "If you do I willl shoot." Mrs. Short then screamed and he at once fired two shots, one taking effect in her neck the other in her cheek. Short then placed the revolver in his own mouth and fired, death taking place instantaineously.

A marvellous cure of KIDNEY DISEASE by using the world-famous

Mrs. P. Downs, 53 Farley Avenue, Toronto, tells of her wonderful cure as follows:

"For several years I was crippled with spinal trouble and disordered kidneys, at times the pains in the back were excruciating. I almost despaired of anything like permanent relief, as I had tried every kidney medicine I heard of or saw advertised. I was induced to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills by hearing of others who had been cured. I am not exaggerating it when I say that the result has been akin to marvellous. When I had used one box I was relieved of the severe pains in the back from which I had constantly suffered, and am today a well woman."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills positively and permanently cure the most complicated diseases of the kidneys and liver. They are the world's greatest kidney cure, and have an enormous sale in Canada and the United States. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or EDMANSON, BATES & Co., Toronto.

FOOLED THE SOLDIER BOY.

Not Used to Feminine Ways That Are Dark and Tricky.

One of the soldier boys swung along in the parade with a heart far heavier than his gun, and as he passed a balcony on the avenue and saw a pretty girl and a well dressed man there he scowled fiercely. Last fall it was far otherwise. He smiled whenever he saw the girl, and the repulsively well dressed man hadn't dawned yet. Last spring the soldier sacrificed two buttons from his blouse and had them made into hatpins for that girl. Two weeks ago he sat near her at the theater, and when she removed her hat he saw that it had been pinned on with a turquoise fleur-de-lis and an enameled violet. The girl had promised to wear them forever and ever.

The soldier boy went home and wrote her the witheringest note you can imagine. He told her that as she no longer cared for him she could no longer value the button hatpins, and that he'd like them back again. Of course, he put in a number of other remarks, some of them general, referring to the sex, and others specific and referring to her and to her conduct. She's a nice girl and an amiable girl, but that note was too much for her to endure. She sent a manservant with her answer:

My Dear Mr. Skaggs—I would be very glad to return the hatpins you ask for, but I cannot tell which ones they are. They are all so alike that I am not at all sure which ones you gave me, but I send you what I have, and you can pick out yours. Very sincerely. FRANCES.

And that's why the soldier boy scowled. Being a mere man, he didn't even dream that six of the hatpins were borrowed.—Washington Post.

A WOMAN'S PLUCK WINS.

How a Drunken Husband Was Made a Sober Man by a Determined Wife.

She writes:—"I had for a long time been thinking of trying the Samaria Prescription treatment on my husband for his drinking habits, but I was afraid he would discover that I was giving him medicine and the thought unnerved me. I hesitated for nearly a week, but one day when he came home very much intoxicated and his week's salary nearly all spent, I threw off all fear and determined to make an effort to save our home from the ruin I saw coming, at all hazards. I sent for your Samaria Prescription and put it in his coffee as directed next morning and watched and prayed for the result. At noon I gave him more and also at supper. He never suspected a thing, and I then boldly kept right on giving it regularly as I had discovered something that set every nerve in my body tingling with hope and happiness, and I could see a bright future spread out before me—a peaceful, happy home, a share in the good things of life, an attentive, loving husband, comforts, and everything else dear to a woman's heart, for my husband had told me that whiskey was vile stuff and he was taking a dislike to it. It was only too true, for before I had given him the full course he had stopped drinking altogether, but I kept giving the medicine till it was gone, and then sent for another lot to have on hand if he should relapse, as he had done from his promises before. He never has, and I am writing you this letter to tell you how thankful I am. I honestly believe it will cure the worst cases."

We will send our pamphlet free, giving testimonials and all full information with directions how to take or administer Samaria Prescription. Correspondence considered sacredly confidential. Address The Samaria Remedy Co., Jordan street, Toronto, Ont.

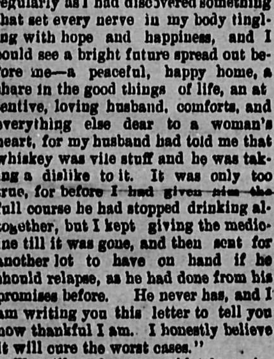
The Logical Guardian.



"You are wanted around the corner!" exclaimed the citizen, confidently.

The policeman laughed aloud.

"I know better," he replied. "When I am wanted I can't be found. Since I have been found, I can't possibly be wanted!"

Here we see how important after all it is to understand something of the formal or scholastic logic, which it has become the fashion of modern science to sneer at.

The Inclined Elevator.

"Within the next five years I fully expect to see the inclined elevator in general use," remarked a prominent New Orleans architect. "It is simply a moving floor, set at an easy angle, and the principle was adopted years ago in the familiar 'endless belt' carriers for grain. The movable floor is in two sections, one going up and one coming down, and all that is necessary is to step on board. Of course, it is not as fast as the modern passenger elevator, but, on the other hand, there is no waiting for cars, so practically there is very little difference.

Its great advantage is the impossibility of a fall or other serious accident, something that haunts most people in an ordinary lift. Moreover, it is much pleasanter. A great many persons, particularly women, are seriously distressed by the sensation of being whirled straight up or down, and sometimes it produces nausea. The incline is free from that objection. It is already coming into use in the north and has been on trial for upward of a year in France and Germany. As soon as its advantages are better known, I look to see it become as common as the telephone."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

A KISS.

A kiss! A kiss! What is a kiss?
A something light as air or thought;
Too rare for touch, for sound too soft,
And yet with more than words 'tis fraught.

Oh, delicate, exquisite thing,
Subtle thou art as radiant light!
A sweet, unsatisfying myth,
Thou mocking, tantalizing sprite.

I know not why it is we kiss;
Some things there are we never know,
Nor care to know, if only true,
That ever it shall just be so.

'Tis love's own language, low and sweet—
Friendship's content with other bliss—
The clasp of hand, the greeting eye,
But only if we love we kiss.

A moment trembling into life,
A thrill bewildering, and 'tis done;
Like all things fair and lovely here,
Almost before it is, 'tis gone.

One instant lingering on the lip,
A spell it sweeps through heart and eyes,
Pervades the soul's ethereal self
And then in sweetest mystery dies.

* * * * * * * *

Sweet spirit, all too transient here,
Await us in the realms of bliss;
Life's season past, from death's cold sleep
Awake us, angels, with a kiss.

FREED BY A SNAP SHOT.

Success of an American Amateur in a South American Jail.

A member of the Camera club tells with some pride of an incident which happened while he was traveling in South America and points out the result of it as a triumph for photography:

"It was in one of the cities of Peru, and an American acquaintance of mine who was there temporarily on business was trotting me around among the sights of the town. After we had visited most of the show places he said one day:

"'Now, I want you to see the old dungeon of a prison which they have here, but it is a place where you can't take your camera. The rules are very severe against that. I wish you could, though, for you would get some mighty interesting pictures. These people are unrelenting jailers, and some of their treatment of the prisoners is pretty mediaeval in its character. Why, they have an American there now for some alleged insult to the government, and he is kept incomunicado, as they call it—that is, in a cell removed from those of the other prisoners—and is so strictly guarded that he can communicate with nobody. They don't care much about having visitors see him, but as you pass his cell, if he happens to be near the front, you can sometimes catch a glimpse of him through the bars. His friends are trying to get him out, but none of them has been able to see him, and there is some difficulty in proving that the prisoner is really their man.'

"'See here,' said I, 'this is a chance for me. I have a small camera with me which folds almost flat—it is a device of my own—and I will guarantee that I can get it by the guards. When we are drawing near to the American's cell, you give me a sign and I will be ready. Perhaps luck will favor us.'

"Well, smuggling the camera in was easy. Even if those keepers had found it they wouldn't have recognized it as one. As we came near the 'incomunicado' cell my friend nudged me, and, without attracting attention from the accompanying guards, I prepared the machine for an exposure. A moment more and I nearly jumped at our good fortune. There, a little distance in front of me, stood my unfortunate countryman, leaning wearily against the bars of his cell and looking full at us. The guards, seeing him at the front of his cell, seemed anxious to hurry us by, but they did not do so until after my quiet and unobserved little snapshot was made. And the best part of the whole story is that the man was actually released by means of that picture. When developed and printed it was an excellent likeness, and through it his friends were able to prove his identity. Within a short time the injustice of his arrest was established in spite of the authorities, and he was free."—New York Tribune.

Spirits Helped Him.

Ole Bull, the celebrated violinist, believed that spirits helped him in his fiddling. He composed his most famous tune, "Mother's Prayer," under the "influence."

Professor J. Jay Watson, who traveled all over the world with Bull and was his devoted friend as well as companion, tells of the night when, at Mrs. Williams', he played for some 20 friends on the old Cremona violin that the master had given to him. Lucie Bull, a daughter of Ole Bull by his first wife, a beautiful young lady who died years before in Norway, materialized in plain view of all present, took the violin from Watson's hands, reverently kissed it and returned it to him.

On another occasion Watson was playing on a guitar a piece he had frequently played for Lucie when he first visited her father in their Norway home. The girl again materialized and, crossing the room, touched the strings of the instrument several times.—New York Press.

What Learning Cost Him.

Billy's father writes books, and, although Billy would never admit it, they are not at all the sort of books Billy likes. He knows, because he has tried to read them. Not long ago he heard that a new book was forthcoming.

"Is it like the others, papa?" he asked eagerly.

"Yes, my boy."

Billy sighed. "I suppose you have to keep on writing them, don't you, papa?"

"Yes."

Billy sighed again. "I suppose it is the only kind you've got in you," he said kindly, but as he turned away he added softly, "I almost wish I'd never learned to read."—Youth's Companion.

Bonheur's Humor.

Mlle. Rosa Bonheur (Rosa stood for Rosalie) was not without a sense of humor, so it is told of her that when presiding over a school of design in Paris, the pupils being girls, the artist was disgusted with the class because, imitative of their teacher, the young women had cut their hair short. "Grand Dieu," cried Rosa Bonheur, "how horrid you all look! This is not a class of boys. You silly creatures, let your hair alone and do your best so as to retain all the advantages of your sex."

A Guaranteed Asthma Cure

Clarke's Kola Compound Cures.

Some years ago this would have been considered an impossibility, but Dr. Clarke has solved the problem since completing his experiments with the wonderful Kola plant in England. In December, 1893, he found, that by combining extracts from the Kola with other extracts made from the Grendolia plant which grows in California, that the compound would cure the severest cases of asthma. Upon experimenting in one of the leading London hospitals he found that 95 per cent. of the cases were cured in from 60 to 90 days' treatment. Since the introduction of this remedy into Canada in 1895 there have been over 800 cases cured in Canada alone. Mr. R. N. Hume, C. P. R. engineer, Western Division, writes: "I have been a great sufferer from asthma in its worst form for over twelve years, and never succeeded in getting anything to help me permanently until the C. P. R. doctor prescribed Clarke's Kola Compound for me in December 1896, when two bottles entirely cured me; at least I have not since had any return of the asthma. I am personally acquainted with at least six persons who have been cured from asthma by Clarke's Kola Compound, and feel it my duty to recommend it to all who may be troubled with this disease."

A free sample bottle will be sent to any person troubled with asthma.

Address the Griffiths & Macpherson Co., sole Canadian agents. 21 Church street, Toronto, Ontario. Sold by all druggists.

Others may relieve, but Clarke's Kola Compound for asthma permanently cures.

A Vindictive Reptile.

The fer-de-lance is found on the islands of Martinique and Santa Lucia, where the natives counteract its virus with a decoction of jungle hemlock, and the basis of its grewsome reputation seems to be the fact that it does not warn the intruders of its haunts, after the manner of the cobra or the rattlesnake, but flattens its coils and, with slightly vibrating tail, awaits events.

If the unsuspecting traveler should show no sign of hostile intent, he may be allowed to pass unharmed within two yards of the coiled matadore, but a closer approach is apt to be construed as a challenge, and the vivoron, suddenly rearing its ugly head, may scare the trespasser into some motion of self defense—he may lift his foot or brandish his stick in a menacing manner. If he does, he is lost. The lower coils will expand, bringing the business end, neck and all, a few feet nearer; the head "points" like a leveled rifle, then darts forward with electric swiftness, guided by an unerring instinct for the selection of the least protected parts of the body.

And the vindictive brute is ready to repeat its bite. For a moment it rears back, trembling with excitement, and, if felled by a blow of its victim's stick, will snap away savagely at stumps and stones or even, like a wounded panther, at its own body.—Popular Science Monthly.

A Silent Rebuke.

A curly haired small boy sat in a Fourteenth street car just at the time of the day when the cars are most crowded on Thursday afternoon. A worn looking woman, evidently his mother, sat beside him. At Fifteenth street a particularly buxom woman of middle age crowded into the car. There was no seat for her, and she stood glaring at the boy. Later her displeasure vented itself in words, and she expressed herself freely to the woman who stood next her about women who let their children occupy seats while ladies are standing. The worn looking woman flushed, but made no move to have the boy surrender his seat. The buxom woman still glared and still expressed herself with extreme frankness. The boy sat still. At N street the mother rang the bell. As the car stopped she put her arms around the boy and lifted him to his feet, half carrying him to the door.

"Won't you take this seat?" she said to the buxom woman. "I am just taking him home from the hospital."

And as the car rolled on the buxom woman looked warmer than the weather warranted.

Dirt For the Dirty Ones.

"In several of the provincial towns," writes Mr. Ransome, "one finds hotels said to be conducted on the foreign principle and certain Japanese hotels have a foreign side. The European accommodation in such places is, as a rule, terrible. The rooms are dirty, the beds are rickety, the bedclothes are apparently seldom washed and the tables and chairs are seldom capable of standing on more than two legs at a time.

"When I first went to Japan I could not understand how, on the foreign side of the Japanese hotels, the accommodations could be so inferior, when the Japanese portion was kept scrupulously clean. One would naturally think that a people whose houses were so spotless would revolt at having a portion of their premises in a filthy condition.

"But, as explained to me by the landlord of one of these hybrid establishments: 'Foreigners are dirty by nature. They go about their houses in their boots, and consequently they cannot wish to have their rooms kept in proper condition.'"—Literature.

The Barber Was All Right.

"After being shaved in a Chicago hotel barber shop," said the man from South Bend, "I walked out and down the street and entered another shop and took a chair. The barber lathered and scraped me without a word, and 15 minutes later I submitted myself to a third. He lathered and rubbed as if I had not been shaved for a month, and just as he took up the razor I asked:

"'Didn't you notice that I had been shaved twice already this morning?'

"'Yes, sir,' he replied.

"'But you are going to shave me again?'

"'No, sir. I supposed you came in here to get the skin taken off and part with some of your cheek!'"—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Vaccinated the Rifles.

Orders that were issued by the German West African officials that all firearms in the hands of natives should be stamped and registered aroused much discontent. Lieutenant Eggers, in Damaraland, however, got along with no trouble. He had inoculated cattle for the rinderpest three years before, as the Damaras saw, with good results. He therefore announced that he was ready to vaccinate their rifles so as to insure their shooting straight and doing no hurt to their owners and the Damaras crowded to him to get their guns stamped.

"I never read about baseball," was the solemn reply. "How true it is," he added almost tearfully, "that this world is but a fleeting show."

"Of course. That's one way of looking at it. I've felt that way about it myself. But let me ask you something. Are you putting in your money and hustling around to make this world any better?"

"What's the use?"

"Well, you'll excuse me for questioning you. But you referred to the world as a fleeting show. I'm a theatrical manager, and I'm interested in anything in the show line. Now, I notice that you ain't in any hurry to get out of this world, are you?"

"No, I can't truly say that I am. The instinct of self destruction"—

"That's all right. You didn't pay anything to get into this fleeting show, did you?"

"Certainly not."

20 YEARS TORTURE.

A Belleville Lady, Whom Doctors Failed to Help, Cured at Last by Doan's Kidney Pills.

No one who has not suffered from kidney disease can imagine the terrible torture those endure who are the victims of some disorder of these delicate filters of the body. Mrs. Richard Rees, a well-known and highly respected lady of Belleville, Ont., had to bear the burden of kidney complaint for over 20 years and now Doan's Kidney Pills have cured her when all else failed.

Her husband made the following statement of her case: "For 20 years my wife has been a sufferer from pain in the back, sleeplessness and nervousness and general prostration. Nothing seemed to help her. Doctors and medicines all failed, until we got a ray of hope when we saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised as a positive cure.

"She began to take them and they helped her right away, and she is now better in every respect. We can heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all sufferers, for they seem to strike the right spot quickly, and their action is not only quick but it is permanent.

"I cannot say more in favor of these wonderful pills than that they saved my wife from lingering torture, which she had endured for 20 years past, and I sincerely trust that all sufferers will give Doan's Kidney Pills a fair trial."

Thousands of them die every summer who could be saved by the timely use of Dr. Fowler's Ext. of Wild Strawberry.

There is not a mother who loves her infant but should keep on hand during the hot weather a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

There is no remedy so safe and so effective for the diarrhœa of infants, and none has the endorsation of so many Canadian mothers who have proved its merits, and therefore speak with confidence. One of these is Mrs. Peter Jones, Warkworth, Ont., who says: "I can give Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry great praise, for it saved my baby's life. She was cutting her teeth and was taken with diarrhœa very bad. My sister advised me to get Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I got a bottle and it cured the baby almost at once."

HE WON HIS CASE.

And the Poor Plaintiffs Thus Suffered a Hard Blow.

"That reminds me," said a Chicago man in a reminiscent group last night, "of an old story that is good enough to repeat. Some years ago three bookmakers put up at a hotel at my home and handed a large package of money to the chief clerk. They told him that they would leave it with him every night, and were particular in saying that it was to be delivered only in the presence of all three. It was evident, you see, that they didn't quite trust one another.

"Well, a week or so rolled around, and one morning one of the trio came down rather early and called for the cash. Without thinking of the conditions of delivery, the clerk handed it over, and the bookmaker promptly skipped. His two partners were furious and brought suit against the hotel for $25,000, the amount in the bundle.

"A smart young lawyer volunteered to take the defense, which other attorneys frankly regarded as hopeless. When the trial came off he waited until the bookmakers had submitted all their evidence, and then arose with a large bundle in his hand.

"'We stand ready,' he said, 'to fulfill the letter of the agreement you have just proved. This package contains $25,000 in cash. As soon as the three owners apply for it together we are prepared to turn it over.'

"Of course the third man couldn't be produced and the case immediately collapsed. The parcel really contained an old pair of pants."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

GOLDEN is the key to the Upper Columbia Valley the head of navigation on the Columbia River, and the centre of an extensive stock-raising and ranching country, extending from the headwaters of the Columbia River in the south to Tete Jaune Cache in the north.

The important mineral discoveries recently made in the Golden and Windermere districts, together with the fact that transportation is now assured at an early date by a railway running the length of the Columbia and Kootenay Valleys, from Golden to Cranbrook, ensure great activity in the mining camps of North East Kootenay. Negotiations are also proceeding, which will ensure the operation of the Golden Smelter within the next few months.

THE GOLDEN TOWNSITE now offered forms the only land available for the extension of the building area.

Present prices are favorable to investors, who will find it to their interest to purchase before a further rise takes place.

Plans may be seen and prices and terms obtained on application to
