F. AUG. HEINZE

Resigns From Presidency of Mercantile Bank

COPPER DROP THE CAUSE

RUN UPON STATE SAVINGS BANK AT MONTANA—HEINZE GIVES EXPLANATION OF HIS ATTITUDE—OMINOUS POSITION OF THE MARKET.

New York, Oct. 17.—F. Augustus Heinze resigned the presidency of the Mercantile bank today. E. B. Ridgeley, comptroller of the currency, has been invited to accept the presidency.

Mr. Heinze said he has not disposed of his stock in the Mercantile National bank and he added that the control of the institution will rest just where it has in the past.

Otto Heinze and company made this statement at the opening of the stock exchange today: "Arthur P. Heinze is no longer a member of the firm of Otto Heinze & Co. The firm of Otto Heinze & Co. feels itself perfectly solvent and will meet and pay all its just and legal obligations in full. The firm however, refuses to pay obligations which it does not consider legal or just, until a proper adjustment of the matter has been made. Rather than submit to such unjust demands, it prefers to permit itself to temporarily being suspended from the privileges of the stock exchange."

Following the policy of the Amalgamated copper and Clark and Phelps-Dodge interests, the Cerrode Pass copper mines in Bolivia, South America, it was announced, have reduced its output to 75 per cent. or the normal. The mines have been turning out at the rate of 24 million pounds a year. These mills are controlled by J. B. Haggin and the Hearst's estate.

F. Augustus Heinze said this morning: "The troubles of the United Copper company are internal and were brought about by differences between certain interests."

Sentiment in Wall Street before the opening of the stock exchange was divided between a feeling that the situation create by the United Copper manipulation had been cleared up, and a certain amount of uneasiness lest the failure of Cross and Kleeburg might have an unfavorable effect generally. That firm's claim that their inability to meet their obligations was due to purchases of United Copper made for Otto Heinze & Co., but not accepted by them because the name of F. Augustus Heinze was entered. In Wall Street comment it was denied that he was interested in the firm of Otto Heinze & Co. This firm is composed of Otto C. Heinze, Arthur P. and Max Schultz. F. Augustus Heinze has been a prominent figure in New York financial since the settlement of his long drawn out litigation with the Amalgamated Copper interests over Heinze and Montana properties. It was understood that he received a large sum in cash as part of the settlement agreed upon. It was soon afterwards that he became president of the Mercantile National bank, one of the largest financial houses in the city. F. Augustus Heinze is president of the United Copper company.

Late last night there was a conference on the situation at the home of Charles W. Mose, who is also heavily interested in the Mercantile National bank. At the close of this conference it was rumored that F. Augustus Heinze had agreed to resign the bank's presidency today and that he would be succeeded by William B. Ridgeley, controller of the currency. Mr. Ridgeley, however, denied that he had accepted the presidency of the bank.

A late despatch from New York says: Just before the close of the stock market this evening the Amalgamated Copper Co. which had been affected along with all the other copper companies of the world by the over production of the metal and the consequent reduction in the price, announced that its quarterly dividend had been cut to one per cent. A short time ago the stock was on an 8 per cent basis. Today's dividend, if continued for other quarters, would make the annual rate 4 per cent.

F. August Heinze, in announcing his resignation said: "In view of the difficulties in which my brother's firm finds itself, I have determined that it is proper that I should give liberally of my time to aid them in straightening out their affairs. In aid of this I have, after consulting with my fellow directors of the bank and my personal friends, and consulting as well my own personal interests as a stock holder, this day resigned the presidency, remaining, however, as a director, and have joined with my fellow directors in a request that Mr. Ridgeley accept the place made vacant by my resignation."

Mr. Heinze is the leading stockholder and a director of the State Savings bank of Butte. Despatches from Hamburg say that the failure of Haller, Soehle and company, there, with liabilities of $4,000,000, followed the announcement of the difficulties of Otto Heinze and company.

The Boston and Montana Consolidated Mining company today declared a dividend of $6 per share and an extra dividend of $4 per share. This compares with a quarterly dividend of $12 per share and $10 extra, declared three months ago.

Amalgamated sold off rapidly from 50 to 48 3-8 on the announcement of a reduction in dividends and closed at 49 3-8. The general market was considerably nervous at the close. Alarming rumors were in circulation before the market closed to the effect that other firms than Gross and Kleeburg had suffered heavily through the operations of Otto Heinze and company in United Copper. Four other firms were involved, it is said, to the extent of about a million and a half. Gross and Kleeburg allege that Otto Heinze and company owe them $600,000. Max M. Shultze, stock exchange member of Otto Heinze and company, was indefinitely suspended this afternoon for failing to notify the exchange of his insolvency.

The financial troubles growing out of the rapid decline in the price of United Copper shares, following an unsuccessful attempt to corner the stock, culminated today in the resignment of the presidency of the Mercantile National bank by F. Aug. Heinze and the announcement of the suspension of Otto Heinze and company on the stock exchange. While the firm's suspension from the privileges of the exchange became operative at once, a representative of the Heinze interests said an assignment had not been made, and that it was hoped to straighten out affairs in a short time.

The troubles of Otto Heinze and company and the failure of Gross and Kleeburg yesterday resulted directly from the generally unfavorable condition of the copper market. For months it has been understood in Wall street that the curtailment of copper production and reduction in the price were necessary; United Copper, a Heinze property, declined rapidly. Another feature of today's copper news was the temporary suspension of the State Savings bank of Butte, a city which is dependent upon the copper industry. The stock opened nervously and developed considerable weakness during the first hour, later it became considerably firmer, but at 11:30 the tendency was again downward with Amalgamated Copper especially weak.

C. P. R. IRRIGATION PLANS

NEWSPAPER MEN VISIT SECTION OF DISTRICT

AN IMMENSE ADVANCE HAS BEEN MADE

Calgary, Oct. 17 — Calgary newspaper men yesterday made a trip over the western section of the C.P.R. irrigation district to inspect the progress made in colonization and cultivation of that district. From Gleichen they took rigs and drove for several miles through the country inspecting also the new model farm of the C.P.R. Colonist company at that point. The investigation showed that since last year an immense advance has been made. Ten thousand acres were under crop this year and the results have been magnificent. Instances were found where oats went 110 bushels to the acre and barley 75 bushels. Extensive plowing is going on and fields of fall wheat are already above ground. The acreage under crop will be greatly in excess of last year.

TO CONTROL EMIGRATION

Japanese Government to Organize a Special Bureau

Victoria, Oct. 17—According to advices received by the steamer Empress of China, the Japanese government will organize a bureau of emigration and colonization. Recent action on the part of the government resulting from the protests on the Pacific coast have forced into liquidation 28 emigration companies. The government raised the indemnity which each company is compelled to furnish from $5000 to $25,000 which they were unable to raise. Another circumstance having to do with their failure is the refusal of the government to issue passports to Mexico and Peru. Emigration to Canada and Hawaii averages only about 1000 a month, which is insignificant when divided between the two countries.

Many of the newspapers comment adversely on the new bureau, which they deem a ladder on which to back down from occidental prejudice. One paper attacks the statement accredited to Mr. Ishii while in the United States recently that Japanese emigration would in the future be confined to Manchuria, Korea and Russian Siberia, saying that this territory does not offer sufficient outlet for Japanese emigration.

LAW OF LIBEL

Quebec Judge Wants a Change to Protect Public Men—Turgeon Wins

Quebec, Oct. 17—The case of Hon. A. Turgeon, minister of crown lands and forests, against Oliver Asselin, editor of the Nationaliste Canadien, was concluded in the superior court this morning, with judgment in favor of Turgeon. The case arose out of an article in the Nationaliste in which the latter accused Turgeon of perjuring himself. The minister instituted pro*ceedings for libel for $1000* on each of four separate charges. In rendering judgment the judge remarked that he regretted he could not send Asselin to jail. He said the laws of the dominion were insufficient for the protection of public men, adding that it was due to the legislature to see that the laws in this regard in this province were so altered as to afford the protection desired.

HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL CONCERT

The concert given in the Methodist church last evening was a highly successful affair from every point of view. Soon after the hour announced for the concert to commence, the church was well filled. The program as it appeared in this paper was carried out and was listened to with evident pleasure. The solos and singing was of a very high order and there were several encores.

The item that easily carried off the palm with the audience was the selection in the last half by "Bonnie Band." The local band of attractive young ladies may not get a name for careful blending and shading such qualities being only developed after long and careful training, their time and expression might even be open to criticism, but their popularity is unstinted and unquestionable. The local "Souza's Band" is an easy rival of their far famed brothers of the same name.

Mr. Patrick was a splendid help in the capacity of chairman. The ladies of the Woman's Missionary society are greatly encouraged by the splendid success of this event. The Art Bell piano used was kindly loaned by D. J. Robertson and company.

RESERVE MINE.

Dominion Coal Co's Property Will Soon be Worked Out.

Sydney, N. B., Oct. 17.—The famous old Reserve mine, a stand-by of the Dominion Coal company, which has been running for the past half century or more with practically no let up in the working of the pit, has but a few more years of exsitence. The Dominion Number One is fast working towards the Reserve on one side and the mine itself will eventually be tunnelled through to Number Four.

It is claimed that six years will be the limit that the Reserve can run. At the present rate of production it is figured that by that time all the coal in this section of the Phalen seam will have been taken out. The closing down of the Reserve mine will not handicap the coal company or its employes in any way as long before time comes for operations to cease there, the slopes at Lingan basin will be in full swing, giving an increased output to the company and furnishing employment for treble the number of men at present working at the Reserve.

PROFESSIONAL SPORT

London Oct. 17—The London intermediate Rugby football team will apply for admission to the interprovincial Rugby union, along with the Argonaut, Hamilton and Dundas clubs. They claim they cannot get satisfactory conditions under the O.R.F.U. The interprovincial is under the ban of the C.A.A.U. It may mean that many local athletes may be professionalized now or when they attempt to play here this winter.

Morrison and conductor Farrell, who were mentioned in the verdict of the jury inJuly as being responsible for the collision which resulted in the death of fireman Robert Blackburn. PRINCE ALBERT CONTEST

ATTORNEY GENERAL TURGEON NOW WELL IN THE LEAD

PECULIAR SYSTEM OF VOTING IN SASKATCHEWAN

(Special to The Daily News)

Prince Albert, Oct. 17 — Assuming that neither party has supported votes which are marked for the other party, attorney general Turgeon has made a gain of about 40 votes as the result of decisions rendered up to the present time by the court of revision in the Prince Albert city election. Neither party is sparing time or money to get voters into court, some driving over 20 miles to prove qualifications to vote. Jas. *Bar, who has been a resident of Prince Al*bert since 1869, was successful in proving his right to vote.

In order to understand the reports of last Saturday's contest in Prince Albert, and the very large number of contested ballots, it is essential to note the radical difference between the laws and regulations governing voting in Saskatchewan and those which prevail n the older provnces. *The Saskatchewan system s a relic of ter*ritorial days, which the newly constituted legislature has not yet found time the modernize. There are no voters' lists. It is presumed that every male resident being a British subject, has a right to vote. A scrutineer may challenge any voter's right to vote, without giving reasons for such challenge. The voter must then either retire from the booth or sign a statement to the effect that he is a British subject, *21 years of age, and that he has been a resi*dent of the province for twelve months and of the riding for three months. If the statement is signed and if the scrutineer still objects to the vote, the ballot is not deposited in the box in the usual way, but is placed in an envelope, marked for identification and set aside, to be counted or rejected as may be determined by the court of revision.

This court of revision is composed of the deputy returning officer and a justice of the peace nominated by him, unless the lieutenant governor sees fit to intervene and select a justice. The court is specially vested with all the powers of a court of record in the matter of compelling attendance of witnesses, etc. It must meet as "soon as may be" after a lapse of two days from the time of polling, must hear each case separately and give judgment. In the event of a disagreement between the deputy and justice, the matter is passed up to the returning officer for the riding, and from his decision, again, an appeal lies to the judge. The latter, however, is apt to be an expensive proceeding, involving as it does, a deposit, in the case of a disputed vote, to cover the cost of the successful party.

All this is independent of a recount by a judge, which is commonly demanded only in case of a very close contest and in which the validity of ballots which have been spoiled, accidentally or otherwise, is the chief question for determination.

The statutory authority under which elections for the legislature are held in Saskatchewan is chapter three of the Consolidated Ordinances of the Northwest territories. Prior to the erection of the new provinces these ordinances formed the body of territoral law and they are still in force and effect, except in so far as they have been repealed or amended by the provincial legislature.

WILL DEBATE

December Session of Legislature Mooted

DISCUSS ORIENTAL CRISIS

BUILDING OF PANAMA CANAL IS TO MAKE DIFFERENCE IN FUTURE OF VANCOUVER—MORE ARRESTS ARE MADE IN THE YUKON ROBBREY CASES.

(Special to The Daily News)

Vancouver, Oct. 17.—After considering on the ground some extensive plans of the C. P. R. for wharfs on Burrard Inlet today, vice president William Whyte stated that in the scheme preparations had been made for the erection of large grain elevators. A feature which appealed to the company strongly in this line was that with the opening of the Panama canal there was a great probability that the grain shipments of the northwest to the old country would be from the Pacific terminus. If steamers could load here direct for Liverpool by the Panama canal route the cost of trans-shipment could be obviated, making the new route much cheaper.

A despatch from Victoria states that it is understood the local house is to be convened in December. The special business of the session is said to be the coal regulations act and the university endowment bill. It is expected that the arrangement, however, is simply a method of bringing about a discussion on the Oriental question for effect on labor interests.

Vancouver, Oct. 17.—A Dawson despatch says: John F. McDonald, a Daw*son jeweler was arrested at Whitehorte* yesterday on the arrival of the steamer Selkirk from Dawson; charged with complicity in the robbery of $40,000 of Tanana gold from the registered mail in Dawson on July 29th.

This makes four arrests in the case, the first being Richard Hall who was taken here, the second George Kincaid, chief government foreman, who was arrested at Selkirk and committed suicide. Third, Tom Vaughn, held on suspicion, having a vagrancy charge against him, and the fourth McDonald. Other arrests are expected to follow. So far the plot is not all unravelled. It now develops that Kincaid lived at a great pace here for many months, spending as high as $2,000 to $4,000 nightly in the past few weeks on wine and women, giving some men $100 at a time, telling them to have a good time. Kincaid was a clever building master. He dressed fashionably.

ANOTHER ERUPTION.

Naples, Oct. 17.—A panic was caused here today owing to the sudden cessation of smoke from all the craters of Vesuvius, ac*companied by loud detonations* which usually mean a resumption of activity on the part of the volcano.

BUTTE BANK CLOSES.

Helena, Oct. 17.—A special from Butte says that because of the suspension of what are known as the Heinze Brokerage firms in New York, a run was started today on the State Savings bank in which F. A. Heinze is the leading stockholder and a director, and that the bank, availing itself of the thirty days' privilege, closed its door. None of the other banks, it is said, are affected. The deposits of the bank are about $3,500,000 and the savings department about $1,250,000. The state had about $75,000 on deposit in the bank.

WIRELESS NOW WORKING.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 17.—Today the system of wireless trans-Atlantic communication passed from the experimental stage to a practical basis and today for the first time in the world's history, wireless messages are being sent and received to and from England commercially.

Mr. Marconi himself sent over ten thousand words. The bulk of the messages were from the more important newspaper sources. One message was from the premier of Canada to the British people, while several other congratulatory messages were received from the Canadian Commissioner in London, lord Strathcona, the lord mayor of London and the duke of Argyle.

GRAIN GOES UP

Toronto, Oct. 17—Prices of grain again soared this morning at the St. Lawrence market and wheat is higher now than it has been in the last 20 years. Oats and barley are also higher than in many years. Wheat sold for $1.14, 14 cents higher than one week ago. Oats sold for 67 cents, or seven cents higher than a week ago, and barley took a jump from 70 and 75 cents, to 88 and 90 cents.

HIGH GRADE ORE

Rich Find Reported on Leader Group in Franklin Camp

(Special to The Daily News)

Grand Forks, Oct. 17—From the reports that have reached here today all former strikes and rich finds of high grade ore in Franklin camp are far surpassed by a most phenomenal strike of high grade copper ore that has just been discovered on the Leader grou, consisting of the Leader, Edna and Yellow Girl claims. It seems that right on the side of a natural bluff this high grade ore is exposed in a well defined lead, fully four feet wide, lying in a formation of granalite, the ore being found in magnetic iron. This ore is in appearance identical with that of the Maple Leaf and a recent surface assay shows its value to be $38.72 per ton in gold, silver and copper. Already fully two carloads of this ore has been taken out and is piled up on the dump ready for shipment.

Old prospectors and mining men are practically dumbfounded at this marvellous showing which has every appearance of permanency, as the lead stands nearly perpendicular as it goes down. This valuable group of claims is owned by Leo Mader and Burt Carroll, Mr. Mader owning an all interest in the Edna and Yellow Girl and a half interest in the Leader claim.

A most novel feature about this strike is that L. Mader the principal owner of this valuable group is really one of the very youngest prospectors in the district, being a mere lad without any mining experience to speak of and he is now possessed of a property which is already valued at several thousands off dollars. This group is situated just half a mile east of the Franklin hotel in Franklin City.

SOLD WHISKY TO INDIANS.

West Selkirk, Oct. 17.—It having been reported that the Indians at the "Bad Throat andMole river reservations were of late frequently in a state of intoxication, the Indian department determined to investigate, with the result that at Selkirk today before magistrate Daley James G. Christie, proprietor of the Baldus hotel at Gimli, was charged with and convicted on two indictments of selling liquor to Indians and paid a fine of $100, and $30 costs.

A SCANDAL AT CALGARY

ALDERMAN WANTS POLICE COURT ENQUIRY

CHARGES MADE THAT CITY WAS CHEATED

Calgary, Oct. 17—As an outcome of Wm. Stuart's statements at the lumber combine investigation in Edmonton yesterday, to the effect that Mr. Sereth, manager of the Riverside Lumber company, had stated in his presence that he delivered 36,000 feet of lumber to the city of Calgary for a contract and that he charged for 30,000 feet, alderman Suitor intends to have the matter threshed out before a police magistrate.

Last night Ald. Suitor said: "I propose to have all these people up before a magistrate and let them say under oath what they have said about this contract with the city. . I am convinced that the city got every foot of lumber it paid for, that it got exactly what it bargained for and that the building of the stables at the exhibition grounds by day labor saved thereby about $2000. I do not know what Mr. Sereth said to Mr. Stuart or the lumbermen's association but I do know what the lumber company delivered to the city of Calgary."

Mr. Sereth declares Mr. Stuart's evidence before the commission to be totally untrue. He said the combine attempted to prevent him getting lumber in British Columbia, but were unsuccessful.

WOMEN MISSIONARIES

Anglican and Methodist Meetings in Ontario Yesterday

Hamilton, Oct. 17—For the first time in its history the dominion board of the Wo*men's Missionary auxiliary* of the Anglican church is meeting in Hamilton. There are about 50 delegates from all parts of the dominion in attendance. Mrs. Tilton of Ottawa is presiding. After holy communion yesterday, reports were presented by the officers. They showed that there are 1200 branches with a membership of 26,230 and 222 junior branches with a membership of 6,836. Last year senior branches raised $50,000 and junior branches $3047. There are a number of foreign missionaries in attendance, some of whom addressed a missionary meetingin the Church of Ascension last night.

Woodstock, Oct. 17—Rev. Dr. Sutherland, secretary of missions of the Methodist church of Canada, addressed the Women's Missionary society in convention here last night. He declared that in so far as missionary work is concerned the Christian church hereafter must learn to plan not in parishes or in little areas, but in empires and peoples. The Chinese empire was undergoing vital changes in its political life. This, Dr. Sutherland declared would bring serious problems to the Christian missionary, for the social life of the Chinese must be raised to meet these changed conditions. The home, the speaker pointed out, was to be raised through the women of the vast empire, and it was the work of the Women's Foreign Missionary society that was telling.

CONDUCTOR ACQUITTED

Parry Sound, Oct. 17—The jury at the assises here has acquitted conductor Graham of the Grand Trunk, who was charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of fireman Alexander Rochon, as a result of the collision which occurred on Beatty's siding last May. Mr. justice Clute in discharging Graham, told him he had a very narrow escape and that the jury had taken a very merciful view of the case. Brakeman Lighthall, indicted on the same charge, was also acquitted at the request of the judge. In his charge to the jury, Mr. justice Clute pointed out the fact that the rules had been disregarded.

ROBBED THE MAILS

Toronto, Oct. 17—Horace Mountain, an employee of contractor Newell, who collects the mails in the northern part of the city, was arrested this morning by postal inspector Henderson and handed over to the police on a charge of rifling letters and abstracting money therefrom. Mountain not only robbed boxes on his own route but also took letters from other routes. He appeared before the magistrate, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary. Mountain is an English lad and is 18 years of age.

WONDERFULLY RICH

B. C. Mining Men Have Great Luck in Prospecting

Fort William, Oct. 17—A Party of seven Ontario and British Columbia mining men headed by Phillip McDonald of Greenwood, B.C., today returned from an all summer prospecting trip through the district. They bring with them stories of wonderful mineral riches of the country in which they were the first prospectors to work.

At Long lake they staked 21 forty acre claims over a huge deposit of hematite iron ore. The vein is 300 feet wide and was traced for a distance of five miles. The ore assays from 40 to 53 per cent iron. At Sturgeon lake they found free gold and brought back several nuggets of almost the pure stuff. They did not stake any gold claims. It is the intention of the party to return and take in supplies for development on the ice during the winter.

LONDON BYE-ELECTION

(Special to The Daily News)

London, Oct. 17—The liberals in convention tonight decided not to place a candidate in the field for the bye-election.

Speakers said that it would be unfair to Hyman. C. C. Gibbon announced that Hyman would return in the spring and be a liberal candidate at the general election. Alderman Gerry said that if the liberals did not nominate, the labor candidate will probably drop out. That means the election of Beattie, conservative, by acclamation.

GOOD SALARY

New York, Oct. 17—Eddy Dugan, the jockey, has, it is said, been signed to ride for Henry Payne Whitney next month. He will receive a salary of $15,000. Dugan has been steadily growing popular with the race goers this season an in many minds has displaced the "marvellous" Miller.

ON MORAL GROUNDS.

Montreal, Oct. 17.—Some time ago *the authorities of Laval university en*gaged the services of Dr. Loir as professor in the faculty of medicine. Dr. Loir is a nephew of Pasteur, and is of high standing in the medical profession. Today it was learned that Dr. Loir will not join the teaching staff of Laval. It appears that Dr. Loir has recently been sued for divorce by his wife, the case being still before the courts. For this reason archbishop Bruchesi, while admitting the talents of Dr. Loir, refused to sanction his engagement as a result Dr. Loir has been granted a year's leave of absence, that being the term of his engagement.

PUTNAM-ALLEN

The usual routine of sawmill life was broken inupon very pleasantly at Koch's siding yesterday afternoon. The interesting inovation took the form of a wedding in which Edward Wallace Putnam and Miss Maggie Bell Allen were the contracting parties. The ceremony took place at the residence of Wallace R. Putnam, father of the bridegroom. Rev. R. N. Powell performed the marriage ceremony in the presence of the immediate friends of the bride and groom. After the wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Putnam intend spending the fall and winter in B.C. and in the spring will make their home in Spokane.

Ross has also received offers to play with Kenora and the Canadian Soo. The chances of Brandon having a team this year in the senior league are very slight, and little interest is being taken in the matter.

EDMONTON BLAZE

BAD FAILURE

Big Hamburg Bank Collapsed Yesterday

MANY FIRMS ARE AFFECTED

SAID TO BE THE HEAVIEST FAILURE IN GERMANY SINCE THE FALL OF THE LEIPSIC BANK—FIRM'S CONNECTION WITH MINING THE CAUSE.

Hamburg, Oct. 17.—The oldest banking firm in the city, that of Haller Soehle and company, failed today. The liabilities of the firm ar variously estimated in the neighborhood of $5,000,000, but the Hamburger Nachrichten says this afternoon that it is informed by a banker, who is in a position to know the facts, that the liabilities will reach $7,500,000. This will make the collapse of this firm the biggest bank failure in Germany since the famous breakdown of the Leipziger bank in June, 1901. The assets of the firm have not yet been ascertained, but in banking circles the capital of the partners is declared to be $2,250,000.

Nearly all the joint stock and private banks in Hamburg are affected in varying degrees by this failure, but a number of them say that their claims are adequately secured. Among the firm's liabilities are acceptances of $3,750,000. The largest amount held by any individual seems to be $575,000, in the hands of Verein's bank. The difficulties of the firm arose chiefly from its connection with a mining company in Taplitz, Bohemia, in which much capital was locked up. In addition, the firm had interests in several coal mines in Austria and was concerned in several real estate ventures near Vienna, where it had established so-called "caumacite" works, designed to exploit a new method of developing usually high temperatures in furnaces. In connection with this enterprise was a glass factory. It is also declared that Haller Soehle and company had put considerable sums in real estate mortgages, and all these assets are hard to convert into cash, without heavy loss, but the bankers holding the paper of the firm believe the liabilities can probably be met if liquidation is not too much hurried.

Haller Soehle & Co. had been in existence for seventy-seven years and *ranked as one of Hamburg's old pat*rician houses. They had long enjoyed a very high reputation and their paper was everywhere regarded as gilt edged and was willingly discounted. Locally the credit of the house had been on a less assured basis. Two of the older members of the firm died within a rather short period. The present partners are Dr. I. C. Soehle and I. W. Leubers. Both men held positions of trust in other financial institutions of this city. Dr. Soehle is a director of the Woehsler bank and the Carbonete explosives company. It is probable that the position of the firm has been partly weakened through settlement with the heirs of the deceased members, this absorbed considerable capital. It had been known for some time in a narrow circle of bankers that Haller Soehle and Company were in a rather precarious position and yesterday one of the foremost Hamburg banks instituted an investigation of the financial position of the firm with the view of organizing a coalition of the banks.

CAMPAIGN FUNDS.

The Montreal Star, the chief organ of the conservative party, publishes a significant article upon the subject of campaign funds. It points out, rightly enough, that elections cannot be conducted without the expenditure of money and goes on to remark that failing contributions from the wealthy friends of the respective parties recourse to subscriptions from contractors and concession seekers is almost inevitable. The article is a timely one and should be taken to heart by those who so loudly talk about purity in politics and who so rarely contribute to election expense funds.

In part the Star article is as follows:

"Where does the money come from?

"That is the question which is always asked in connection with a party campaign fund. It is granted on all sides today that parties must have campaign funds. The legitimate costs of even a local election are too heavy a drain for most single purses to bear. Then we should not confine our choice of candidates to men who are rich enough to pay the expenses of a modern campaign in a modern constituency. If we did, we should exclude from public life many of the most unselfish, the most patriotic and the most capable of our public men.

"From this it follows that the parties must each have a campaign fund to finance the contests of candidates who cannot bear the heavy legitimate costs themselves. Moreover, there are certain expenses in a general election which are national and not local at all, and which should be met from a central fund. Much general literature is prepared and distributed in this way, and speakers of national reputation are now handled much as the lecture bureaus of other days managed the circuits of their "stars."

"Thus campaign funds are inevitable; but it is vitally important whence they come. A political party which is striving for power has something to offer a certain class of men which they eagerly accept as a "quid pro quo" for large cash subscriptions to the funds of that party. If the party in question should reach power, it can award contracts, it can grant concessions, it can give railway charters, it can distribute tariff favors. The consequence is that many men are willing to "gamble in futures" by paying down cash subscriptions to the campaign funds of such parties on the promise or with the hope of getting fat contracts or valuable concessions from them when they reach office.

"What, then, is the remedy for this state of affairs? How shall we protect public men of stalwart honesty and sensitive honor from the necessity of trafficking with these leeches on the body politic, on pain of going down to certain defeat at th polls? There is but one way. And that is for the citizens themselves to subscribe the necessary and legitimate campaign funds. No other pure source for them lies in sight. They must either come from the hand of the briber or from the hands of the citizens.

"We ought, therefore, in this new country to create a sentiment in favor of public subscriptions for the campaign funds of the two great parties. It is a legitimate subscription; and it should rest as a duty upon every man who feels a strong conviction that one or other of the parties should be entrusted with the government of the nation. If he does not go down into his pocket and finance the men who are standing for the principles of government and the national policies in which he believes, he exposes them to the temptation of selling their souls to men without principle, but with a vigorous interest in some promising contract or seductive government favor.

"Of course, this duty does not lie on all citizens with an equal weight. Some men have been given a stewardship over more money than others—a stewardship which compels them to take an especial interest in the good government of the nation wherein their stake lies. Upon men of wealth, this duty presses very heavily; for the prosperity of the country has enabled them to accumulate their wealth, and they can do no less than pay back to the nation some share of this accumulation in such a form as they conceive most likely to augment and continue that prosperity.

"If the day ever comes when the men of independent means in Canada fully realize that their wealth imposes upon them this duty, on patriotic grounds, of taking an interest in the affairs of the country, that day will see the emancipation of the parties from a mischievous dependance upon contractors, promoters, charter mongers, land grabbers, and other similar parasitic classes who for many years have been growing rich at the expense of the nation.

"Sir Wilfrid Laurier had the courage to say in 1896 that the bane of politics and the gravest menace to the welfare of the state was the influence wielded by government contractors. His sincerity was beyond question; and such testimony must be absolutely convincing. Mr. R. L. Borden served notice during the last campaign upon all and sundry that he would not trade promises for contributions. These men are in a position to know what a vast influence for evil the conditional campaign contribution is; and they are patriotic enough to attempt to keep their hands free from the degrading shackles it imposes.

"But where are they to turn They must have money to finance their elections or let the contest go by default. The best policy or the most patriotic proposal could not win in these times without "the sinews of war." Obviously if the high-minded and public-spirited leaders of our parties are not to be brought to their knees before the sordid traders in public charters and national franchises, they must be supported in a financial sense by the honest men—the men who are seeking no favors from any government—who believe in their cause.

"This is the most crying need which clamors today for the attention of men of wealth. Every citizen should give what he can; but—as in Great Britain—the bulk of the funds must come from the men who have much to give. Charity suggests that a rich man endow hospitals or distribute alms. Social reform begs him to found libraries or to finance rescue work. Patriotism—and what is nobler than patriotism?—commands that he rescue the public men who represent the national principles in which he believes from the cramping and corrupting necessity of depending upon selfish sources for their legitimate campaign funds.

"There are in this country men of wealth who ask nothing of governments. Yet they are men with deep-seated convictions—men who believe that it makes a serious difference which party wins in many an election. They are interested in good government just as and because they are interested in the progress and expansion of the country. Some of these men now recognise their duty and do come to the assistance of the leaders of the party with whose objects they sympathise More of them, however, should do so with a generosity that would put their party leaders in such a position that they, not only need not have recouse to the all-too-willing favor-seeking fraternity, but will be strong enough to resist their advances and refuse their aid."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Rudyard Kipling caught on to the domestic servant difficulty in this province all right. In his Winnipeg interview he referred to this question, saying that there were no white girls to do the work and adding, "A man cannot let his wife work herself to death with housework and therefore cannot be blamed if he gets a Chinaman." Kipling might have added that so long as the Chinese and Japanese are in the province to do this work, white girls will not be available. If either the Salvation Army or the prvincial government succeed in inducing white girls to come to B. C. to engage in housework, it will be only by ridding the country of the Asiatics. White girls will not attempt to compete with Chinese or Japanese and they should not be expected to.

The United States federal government has inaugurated a national crusade against the white slave traffic and secreary Straus is one of the most active workers in the movement. Recently in a speech at Washington, he went to the length of advocating capital punishment for those convicted of engaging in the traffic and he should have the support of all right thinking men and women in his endeavor to have the law so amended. Many innocent women and girls are brought to the United States under promise of bettering their conditions," said Mr. Straus, "but they are deceived and are made to lead lives of shame. This is one of the worst crimes known to man, and any one guilty of it should be hanged.

"In the past it has been impossible to break up the practice of bringing women here for immoral purposes, owing to the claim that they had been here so long that they could not be deported and they were allowed to remain. Under the new rule of assuming they have not been here three years and requiring them to produce proof, the department will be able to send many of them back to their homes. It will also help in bringing about the prosecution of agents who are engaged in this despicable traffic."

The Hospital

Thankful are They Who Escape The Surgeon's Knife

Thousands of surgical operations are performed every year in our great city hospitals upon women afflicted with serious female troubles. Sometimes the operations are successful—oftentimes they are not.

It is safe to say that certainly nine out of ten operations for female troubles might have been wholly avoided.

The most valuable tonic and re-builder of the female organism, the medicine with a record of thousands of cases literally snatched from the operating table, is

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Do not consent to an operation which may mean death until after you have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. Note what it did for Mrs. Robert Glenn, whose letter follows:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so well and widely known that it does not need any recommendation from me, but I am glad to add mine to the many which you have in its favor.

I suffered untold agonies from ovarian troubles for nearly three years, and the doctors told me I must have an operation; but I was unwilling to undergo this, and decided to try your Vegetable Compound.

I am so pleased that I did so, for it restored me to perfect health, saved me the pain of an operation and the immense bills attending the same. Please accept my hearty thanks and best wishes.

MRS. ROBERT GLENN, 434 Marie Street, Ottawa, Ont.

Thousands of women, residing in every city and town in Canada, bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills and creates radiant, buoyant female health. For your own sake try it.

FUTURE CHIEF OF BRAZIL

SPANISH ADVENTURER PAINTS AN ALLURING PICTURE

FILIBUSTERING EXPEDITION TO SAIL SHORTLY

(Special to The Daily News)

New York, Oct. 17—In an unpretentious rooming house on west 56th street there now resides a man who will soon become the president of the Brazilian republic—perhaps. Sebastian Honore Leon de Magall, who proclaims himself the future executive of Brazil, entertains no doubts as to the success of his revolutionary project. His confidence in the powers of American soldiers is unlimited. Already he has selected his little army of 500 men, all of whom were at one time enroled in the ranks of Uncle Sam's fighters on sea and land, and within the next week or two the filibustering expedition will sail for Brazil. So far as can be learned, Magall's plan is to land his army on the coast of Minas Ceraes province, at a spot known only to himself, and thence march on the capital, Ouro Preto, overwhelm it by force and then, with his 500 Yankees and a few thousand Brazilian professional revolutionists whom he exects to flock to his victorious banner, demand the capitulation of Rio de Janeiro. De Magall, who is a Brazilian coffee planter, expects then to establish himself in the presidential chair and has promised to give the Yanke revolutionists fat berths in the army and navy of Brazil. Altogether it is an alluring picture that the Spanish revolutionists paints and it is small wonder that over 2000 ambitious adventurers have offered themselves to the scheme.

The senor is a practical man, despite his rosate visions. This is evidenced by the fact that he has required each of the successful applicants for places in his foreign legion to supply his own equipment, at a cost of $15 each. In case the revolution is successful, this amount will be refunded and each soldier, in addition to the promise commission in the Brazilian army, is promised a grant of 1000 acres of rich and valuable land.

The first job which Senor de Magall has planned for his army of 500—the subjection of the province of Minas Ceraes— does not appear on the face of it as being a particularly soft snap. The province has a population of little less than four millions, and an area of 221,000 square miles, about eight times that of the state of New York. However, it is known that the government of the province is now practically in a state of anarchy and the populace would likely welcome anyone who gave promise of restoring it to its former prosperous and peaceful condition. Provincial sovereignty is supreme in Brazil and if the revolutionists should be successful in overthrowing the present provincial government the central government would be powerless to interfere. The standing army of Brazil numbers about 20,000, and these are said to be disorganized and as likely to fight against the present government as for it.

Senor de Magall has endeavored to secure the co-operation of New York bankers in his project, but has failed to arouse the interest of the financiers, despite promises of immense returns from the investment. De Malagi is insistent in his declaration that he is animated solely by a desire to make his country prosperous and well governed.

SURPRISE PARTY

Scholars of Hume School Entertain the Teachers

The teachers of the Hume school were given a most unusual as well as exceedingly delightful surprise on Wednesday night by the pupils. Being invited to one of the parent's residences for a card party, they were asked to obtain a history from the school. Uopn arriving at the school every thing was in silence and darkness when suddenly to the amazement of the teachers lamps were lit, followed by cheers and laughter. The pupils of division one had decorated the school room very prettily with flowers, and small tables for games, and last, but not least, a large table filled with eatables. Games were indulged in until 10 o'clock when refreshments were served. The very pleasant evening then concluded with a very interesting magic lantern exhibition given by one of the older boys, with his own instrument. It is difficult to say by whom the happy evening was enjoyed the most, teachers or pupils.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR CROUP—USED FOR TEN YEARS WITHOUT A FAILURE.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children had all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

HAS GREAT POSSIBILITIES

DR. WATT SPEAKS OF THE KOOTENAY CENTRAL RAILWAY.

BIG MINING AND FRUIT GROWING SECTION OF COUNTRY.

Dr. Hugh Watt, of Fort Steele, a man who has in and out of season, by every means within his power, for many years past, striven to advance the interests of his section of his country, and of the East Kootenay valley, generally, speaking last night to a representative of The Daily News, is evidently pleased with the outcome of the strivings of so many years, as shown by the declaration recently made by sir Thomas Shaughnessy, the president of the Canadian Pacific railway, that the Kootenay Central railroad is to be built forthwith.

The only fly in the ointment is the uncertainty as to whether the Kootenay Central, after leaving the valley of the Columbia and descending into that of the Kootenay river, will or will not keep to the chartered route, or whether it will run across hill and vale in an effort to enter Cranbrook district. Dr. Watt is strongly, very strongly, of the opinion that the chartered route is the only route that is worth speaking of. Unfortunately when W. Whyte, the second vice president of the Canadian Pacific made his automobile tour through the country which the Kootenay Cntral is to tap, he did not keep to the chartered route south of Windermere. Hence, although Dr. Watt does not admit the probability, or even the possibility, of the projected railway following any other route than that chartered, the point is still officially undecided.

Construction, which has already begun in so far as the grading of ten miles along the route immediately south of Golden on the main line of the C. P. R. is concerned, should be very far advanced, thinks Dr. Watt, by the end of next season, although it is hardly probable that there will be by that time a through connection made with the Crow's Nest line.

What the building of the long agitated railway will mean for the valley of East Kootenay Dr. Watt by no means underestimates. Indeed he is inclined to think that the advantages of this closed section of the country are not properly realized by the remainder of Kootenay, let alone the province. There is a large mining section, in which there are interested many Nelson men and considerable outside capital, which is now awaiting transportation. It is a certainty that the Paradise mine will ship just as soon as it is given facilities of transportation while there are many other developed properties, such as the Red Line, which will follow suit, to say nothing of many a metalliferous valley and mountain side, left unexplored for the time being by the prospector, who realizes that no claim is worth anything unless it is able to get a market or a smelter for its output.

And in another direction Dr. Watt is equally enthusiastic. This is the horticultural possibilities. Right along the valley of the Kootenay up to that of the Columbia, beyond Golden and the main line of the C. P. R. into the dimly know Big Bend country, from the boundary line with the United States to a point much further north than that where fruit is at the present grown, are patches of fine soil eminently suitable for the raising of fruit. "It is a well known fact," says Dr. Watt, "although its bearing is hardly appreciated , that the further north fruit is grown, as long as it is grown in proper soil and other climatic conditions, the finer that fruit in texture and flavor." While the doctor does not claim for his beloved valley the same fruit growing possibilities that are capable of development in the lower altitude of Nelson and its lakes, yet he does say that fruit can be grown and grown well in the East Kootenay valley. It has an altitude of 2,000 to 2,500 feet, but fruit has been grown and grown successfully, planted twenty years ago, apples and plums, of 1,000 feet above Fort Steele. What is true of the immediate country around Fort Steele is also true, Dr. Watt maintains, of the land along the valley all the way through the Big Bend until it again turns south and reaches Revelstoke.

There is one thing Dr. Watt did not touch upon and that is the vast resources of timber, well known to lumbermen, which exist in the section of the country to which the doctor has here reference.

Rossland Claims Endorsed by Well Known Real Estate Man

J. F. Langan who has just paid a hurried visit to Rossland expresses himself as much impressed with the fruit growing possibilities of that well known mining camp. He says that the fruit which he has seen exposed for sale in the various groceries around the city, the great bulk of which is grown locally, is fine in size and quality. The soil around Rossland, as far as he had the opportunity of observing it, was more than usually good and the elevation has not interfered with the growing of fruit. Some of the best fruit in Rossland is being grown at what is known as Peter's ranch, which is at an elevation of 4000 feet above sea level. The point of Mr. Langan's observations is that fruit can be grown at altitudes which heretofore have been considered by the many to be above the fruit belt.

DIPHTHERIA CASES

Type is Mild but Local Authorities are taking no Chances

Dr. Rose, provincial medical health officer, speaking yesterday upon the diphtheria situation in the city, said that he had some cases under his care. On Wednesday there were four cases quarantined within the city all of which are mild, and a fifth case outside the city limits which was of a serious nature. Yesterday a fifth case within the city was declared so that there are now six cases altogether quarantined. If any more develop it will probably be wise to close down the public schools.

Diphtheria, says Dr. Rose, is mainly a filth disease, but it is highly contagious, so that there is very little means of telling exactly how the disorder has come to afflict the city. The great trouble with the disease, quite apart from its character, is that it is easily spread. A child might hav diphtheria in so mild a form that it would be of no danger to the sufferer and have it so mildly that its presence would hardly be noticed. Still the germs would be present and that child could carry contagion, which when developed in a more susceptible subject might prove a malignant tpye. Hence, on the ground that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, it might be well, if there is any likelihood of the disease making any further advances, to close down the schols and to keep the children more or less within doors, as actual contact is necessary to spread the germ.

HOW TO CURE A COLD.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all druggists and dealers.

MAY AMALGAMATE

Rumor that Dominion and B. C. Copper Companies May Join Forces

(Special to The Daily News)

Phoenix, Oct 17—Following order received hehere from the officials of the Dominion Copper comany in New York, the company's mines and smelter in the Boundary have been closed down. Whether the low price of copper was the cause of the closing, is not stated. Rumors have been current, however, that an amalgamation of the Dominion Copper and B. C. Copper companies is in the air.

It is stated that president Warner Miller of the Dominion Copper company, with the vice-president, H. H. Neville, and possibly some other directors, are leaving New York this week and will come direct to the Boundary, when something definite regarding the plans of the company for the future will probably be made public. M. M. Johnson, consulting engineer of the company, who was here last week, left Sunday for Salt Lake City, but will return about the time that president Miller arrives.

In accordance with orders superintendent Rundberg has laid off the men employed at the company's Rawhide and Sunset properties, those at the Mountain Rose, Brooklyn and Idaho having been laid off two or three weeks ago, when the two smaller furnaces at the smelter were blown out to permit of, as stated, turning them into one larger furnace. Last week it was decided to blow out the 700-ton furnace and blow in the two smaller ones for a few days, and then place the large furnace in commission and dismantle the smaller ones, in preparation for the enlargement. This was being done when orders to stop everything were received.

[As published yesterday, manager W. C. Thomas, states that the close down is only temporary.]

The National Sanitarium Association of Canada has undertaken to publish a monthly magazine devoted to the Outdoor Treatment of Tuberculosis, and the inculcation of Hygienic Methods of Living for the people generally. The first number was issued in November, 1906.

Any one contributing one dollar a year, or more, to the funds of the Hospital will become a subscriber to CANADIAN OUT-DOOR LIFE for one year.

No Father, No Mother, No Home—Worse Than a Prisoner

GARFIELD BRACEY, BERLIN, ONT.: Enclosed please find doctor's certificate and examination papers. Hope you will secure me a place in your Sanatorium. You will notice that my circumstances is a hard one; no father, no mother, no home—worse than a prisoner. Nobody wants me on account of my disease. Hoping you will have the charity and consider my position, and give me a position at once in your Sanatorium, I ever pray.

An Orphan, without Home or Means

DR. A. E. HANNA, PERTH: I have a patient here, a young fellow in whom I am greatly interested. He has tuberculosis. He is a poor young fellow, an orphan, out of home, without any means. If we sent him up would you take him in and do the best you can for him? I know how difficult it is to accommodate all who require treatment, but this is a special case.

It is always encouraging to have a letter from friends who kindly contribute. For the convenience of those who have not time to write, the following blank may be used:

"A child's kiss set on thy sighing lips shall make thee glad.

"A sick man helped by thee shall make thee strong.

"Thou shalt be served thyself in every sense of service which thou renderest."

"DO IT NOW"

"I WAS SPECIALLY PLEASED WITH THE ATTENTION PAID TO CONDUCT THE INSTITUTION CAREFULLY AND ECONOMICALLY."—Dr. R. W. Bruce-Smith, Government Inspector Hospitals and Charities.
