U. S. SENATE CONSIDERS RECIPROCITY QUESTION

PRESIDENT DIAZ TO RETIRE FRANCHISE FOR MEXICANS

President and Cabinet of Mexico Will Capitulate to the Radical Demands—Issue a Manifesto in Which They Offer to Retire from Office

(Canadian Press Dispatch)

Mexico City, May 8.—President Diaz and his Cabinet announced today the terms upon which they are willing to vacate office. It is practically an acceptance of Madero's demands in all important particulars. The Cabinet will consider the draft later and revise it, but the text as published shows that they are willing to step out of office and grant all the leading demands of the radical and revolutionary party.

The draft manifesto announces that the Cabinet will grant to the people of Mexico a free and universal suffrage, and an election. The election is to be conducted under provisions which will prevent the re-election of President Diaz or any of the existing executive.

HALF A MILLION HELLO'S OVER RUPERT'S PHONES

New Directories Next Week—Manager Love Reports Fire Alarms Again Working and Improved—McBride Street to be Lighted Tonight

Five hundred and eighty-four thousand "Hellos" were wafted in tones ranging from the softest feminine dulcet to the roughest masculine roar over Prince Rupert's 'phones during the months between August 15th, 1910, and April 30th, 1911. There were also five hundred and eighty-four thousand polite little feminine inquiries of "Number Please" from "Central." Not a single compalint of any serious nature was received in that time. Minor interruptions of the service were few, and promptly put right, and subscribers all over are well pleased.

Fire Alarms in Order

Today Mr. Love, manager of the Light and Phone Department, mentions that the old fire alarm system throughout the city is again in working order. Properly insulated wiring has been installed, and the system so arranged as to be under control of the Telephone Department Central. This will ensure its being kept in repair. There are eighteen alarms altogether. Section Six is not quite ready yet.

Light up McBride

Two new switch boards have been installed at the power plant to control four different circuits. Section Six is now a distinct circuit by itself. New 'Phone Directories

In a few short months the 'Phone system of Prince Rupert which is second to none on the American continent, has outgrown its latest Directory. Mr .Love reports that the new directories will be available by the end of the week, and will be distributed to subscribers.

Cheyenne, May 8.—Postmaster Joseph Kingman was taken into custody this morning on charges of robbing the postal authorities. He is said to have invented a system of fraud in money orders which he had practised for the past fifteen years. He kept an account of all the moneys he stole, and spent it all on typewriters, sewing machines and oil stoves.

When arrested, his house was found to be packed with these articles from top to bottom.

LOSES SEAT BY ONE VOTE

Exciting Political Action in Great Britain

UNFAIRNESS CHARGED

Liberal Candidate at Exeter After a Week's Recount before Two Judges Loses His Seat by One Vote.

(Special to the Daily News)

London, May 8.—One of the most exciting political trials has just been concluded at Exeter, with the result that Mr. St. Maur, the Liberal member was unseated, and his opponent at the last election, Mr. Duke, K. C., was declared elected by one vote. Mr. St. Muar previously held the seat by four votes.

For an entire week the seat had hung in the balance. At any moment the loss of two votes was enough to unseat Mr. St. Maur, who was declared elected last December by a majority of four only. The invidious task of deciding whether this vote or that vote were good or bad, when so much depended on a single ballot paper, fell to the lot of Judges Ridley and Channell, and the course of the trial was of such a see-saw nature that by the last day excitement had risen to fever pitch.

When the decision became known the enthusiasm of Mr. Duke's supporters and the bitterness of Mr. St. Maur's sympathisers were unbounded, and an unprecedented encounter between Judge Ridley and the unseated member took place in the London train as it stood in the station.

Smarting under a sense of defeat, Mr. St. Maur, addressing the crowd on the platform, alluded to "unjust judges." Judge Ridley was seated in the same coach, and he rose and placed a restraining hand on Mr. St. Maur's shoulder and closed the window. Before the train left Mr. St. Maur, however, made it clear that he had no intention of retracting his words.

The "store news" in this issue would make it a valuable newspaper, even if it contained no other news.

THE WORLD WANTS MEN

Paul's Solution of the Great Problem

REV. W. H. McLEOD'S SERMON

"Socialistic Ideal Can Only be Attained by the Work of Men Inspired by the Christ Spirit' Says This Pastor.

Only by the gradually increasing number of strong and good men on the earth will this world ever attain to the ideal social state towards which mankind is striving. This is the substance of Rev. W. H. McLeod's sermon last night on "Paul's Solution of the World Problem."

"The world," said Rev. Mr. McLeod, "is waiting and hoping for men like Christ, and the world will never be satisfied until it finds such men." The Socilaistic Ideal will never be won by finely spun theories. Only men strong for good, for brotherhood, and the acuse of Christ on earth will ever bring about the ideals of those theories.

"You cannot build up the commonwealth of Canada by mere genius alone. It must be genius plus the Christ-like spirit. Cherish the great Ideal and you will live and you will live and work for it for the whole of humanity.

"This is the greatest century that ever has been for helpfulness and brotherliness. It is because of the spread of the Christ Spirit. This may be denied," said the pastor, "but I believe it."

Rev. Mr. McLeod spoke enthusiastically for the influence of the mothers in moulding for the world the type of men who will bring about the great ideal. "Thank God," he said, "for Christian mothers. That is where boys get the foundation of character.

"Let us become Godlike," he concluded, "and we shall never be discouraged in our work. Let us help up the man who is drifting down. So we shall solve the great world-problems of sin and society."

The Baptist church was thronged last night, and the brightness of the serv ce was marked throughout.

GRAHAM ISLAND SETTLERS HAVE MANY GRIEVANCES

Complain That the Island is Given Over to Coal Stakers and Absentee Owners---Want to Make a Living But Cannot---Are Angry and Discontented With the Government

The following letter has been received by the Daily News. Owing to its exceptional importance it is reproduced in full. The writer, who has spent several months travelling among the settlements on business, describes the settlers as being filled with discouragement at the way they are being sacrificed for the speculators and foreign capitalists:

A Beautiful Place

"Within eighty miles of the future terminus of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, on the line of the steamer traffic between the Orient and the Dominion, is a group of islands, indented by harbors and waterways that will find no comparison in the world. Virago, Massett and Skidegate Sounds are all sheltered from storms and are safe, for deep water vessels from one end to the other. The whole of the west side of Massett Inlet and the south shore of Virago Sound, is uninhabited save for one whaling station, recently erected at Naden Harbor. Roads and trails are noticeable by their absence, and the shore line for hundreds of miles, is in the hands of speculators 'plastered,' to use a term, with timber, coal, oil and purchase stakes.

"The soil is all that can be desired for growing fruits and vegetables; but it is a 'no-man's land' today. Hundreds and hundreds of land seekers, men of small means, desiring to make for themselves and their families a home, have spent their hard earnings in 'cruising' for pre-emptions, or places to purchase at a reasonable price; but their quest has been in vain. If they do not find 'stakes' inserted in their land, and they consider certain places available, they are met with the 'report' from the land office 'that timber, coal and other rights exist,' and they have been compelled to seek 'pastures new.'

Driven Off the Land

"'Blue print' after 'blue print' has been sold to the immigrant, on which is shown spare pieces of land; but the pre-emptor finds, on making application, that others have the ground. Men have placed their houses on pre-empted ground, cleared the land and lived on it for years, only leaving with permission, and today find that they are on timber limits. Others have paid the government for land and have been informed that the money will be returned, after acceptance. At the present time a party of surveyors are engaged in defining the lines on 180 miles of territory—and that territory is in the hands of one timber company. One man staked twenty miles, for purchase, and no surveyor ever went over the ground. Foreign capital has been used in sending out 'stakers' and cruisers,' while the men who desire to make a permanent home on the soil of their own country are driven away

The Duties of Government

"We hear the argument that the holders of the land pay taxes. That the Government of the Province can show a surplus of millions of dollars. Is that building up the country? Is a government in power to 'speculate,' or is it for the purpose of making the Province a home for the thousands who seek the wherewithal to build up the nation? True it is that the land on the Islands would support many thousands; but how many will come where so many have already gone away disgusted. We hear a great deal of the potentialities of Vancouver Island. There is no comparison between the land

DAILY EDITION. MONDAY, MAY 8

THE NEW CITY ASSESSMENT

It is not true that figures are dry reading, and can be made to support anything. Figures do not lie, though their users may. They condense into tabloid space a great fund of statement.

The assessment figures published on Saturday are of particular interest, and are worth studying, even by those who are rarely given to bothering about figures. The assessment shows where and how and to what extent the city council proposes to raise its revenues for the year.

Little difference is shown in the total between this year and last—a mere trifle of $200,000 on a total assessment of over fourteen millions. At first sight this might lead the unthinking to suppose that thetaxes will be about the same as last year. This is not so.

In last year's total the Grand Trunk Pacific was assessed for its properties a sum of approximately $7,300,000. This year they are assessed at $4,834,830. The Grand Trunk Pacific is either to be congratulated on a light assessment or condoled with for the remarkable shrinkage in the value of its lots.

The new assessment maintains the old total by putting the deficiency onto the general public to make up. The general public is to be either condoled with on a high assessment, or congratulated on the remarkable increase in the value of its properties.

The difficult thing to realise is how the company's properties could shrink so in value during the year, and the general public's properties rise so in value, both of them being jumbled up in the same town.

In the meantime, the assessment is a warning to the general public to look for an increase in their tax bills, especially to those who own Section 1 property. The rate has not yet been announced, but it cannot under the Municipal Clauses Act exceed 15 mills.

It is obvious that the assessor has had to increase the assessment to the general public in order to retain the revenue and maintain the borrowing power of the city in the face of the proposed rebate to the Grand Trunk Pacific. It savours a good deal of robbing Peter to pay Paul. Of course if Peter doesn't mind—.

Picnic Grounds

Editor Optimist,—A suggestion to the church and social organisations of Prince Rupert: "An ideal picnic ground exists at the mouth of Massett Inlet, on the Indian Reserve and North Beach. The distance is but eighty miles, from Prince Rupert and a new wharf has been erected. The first trip of the steamer Prince John would afford the wearied ones of Prince Rupert an opportunity to view the quaint village and to enjoy a day on the shores of the Inlet."

THEY FAVOR RECIPROCITY

Banquet and Speeches at Port Essington

PRAISED THEIR HOST

Mr. George Cunningham Gave Entertainment in Honor of the First Passengers to the Interior on the Steamer Port Simpson.

(Special Correspondence)

Port Essington, May 5.— Captain George Cunningham of the Port Essington Hotel entertained the passengers of the Port Simpson, tendering them a banquet on the eve of their departure for the upper country, Barney Mulvaney presiding. In a brief speech he dwelt on the important part Port Essington had played in the development of the interior, and on how much the late Robert Cunningham had done to further its interests, and how his son George had carried on the good work, In expressing his regret that the construction of the G. T. P., so essential to the interests of the interior, should leave Port Essington out in the cold, he said that the assurance of the reciprocity movement going through, would mean to Port Essington a new lease of life beyond a doubt and within the next few years she would awake to a new and greater stage of prosperity.

Mr. Lackworthy responded and expressed himself as entirely agreeing with the idea of the reciprocity agreement. It would greatly help the country.

The whistle of the Port Simpson at 3.30 a.m. caused a stampede for the boat.

A vote of thanks was agreed on to Mr. George Cunningham for his generous entertainment.

BOUND FOR IDITAROD

Delay Caused by Late Spring in North

THREE WEEKS BEHIND

Hopeful Miners Expect to Clean up $5,000,000 Worth of Dust in Iditarod This Season. Equipment Coming in Fast.

Travel to Alaska is very heavy, on account of a desire to descend the Yukon as soon as the ice breaks, in order to be early into the Iditarod diggings, where a spring clean-up of five million dollars of gold dust is expected.

The present season is much later than any for some time back and some delay will be caused to those waiting to get into the Iditarod and other points down the river. Harry Barrington, one of the oldest river boat captains, said that the present season is three weeks late.

A large amount of freight for the Iditarod is arriving. It includes part of the electric equipment to be installed at the new diggings.

There has been a persistent rumor that the rates on the White Pass & Yukon railroad will be reduced by one-third, but it is at present nothing more than a rumor, although passengers on the boats from Seattle have arrived here under the impression that the reduced rates have already been put in force.

SERGE AND SILK COAT SUIT

A few wise designers have ventured to prophesy a vogue for green and blue in the wake of the flood of red which has rushed upon us this season, and some lovely models have been made up in these combined shades. Take for example this suit. The design is exceedingly chic and the material is a diagonal serge in the new king's blue. Insert pieces in skirt and coat are green taffeta. The idea of inset pieces of taffeta is new and effective, and many be copied in self-tone silk with equally good results.

By sprinkling a goodly amount of salt over a carpet five or ten minutes before sweeping, there will be little dust raised when the sweeping is done.

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

DOWN AND OUT

"Down and out" is a phrase we use
Too oft in a heedless, careless way,
Because one battle a man may lose
"He is down and out," the scoffers say.
But many have risen to win renown
Who have felt the sting of fate's knotted knout;
It doesn't follow beacuse he's down,
That a man has also been counted out.

There's always a chance to rise again;
If a man has faith in himself and tries.
He can win the cheers of his fellow men
And some time capture the golden prize.
Today's defeat isn't worth a frown.
Keep your eyes ahead and your courage stout,
It doesn't follow because you're down
That you have also been counted out.

"Down and out!" Man is never that
If he has the courage to start again;
If Fate has humbled and knocked him flat.
He still can smile on his fellow men.
If he has the courage to hide his frown
Remember this as you go about,
Although today he is surely down
It's a mortal cinch that he isn't out.

KISSES FOR EVERYBODY

Quaint Old Country Custom—Works Also in Canada

A quaint kissing custom still exists in the pretty little Wiltshire town of Hungerford. An ancient toll is claimed by the authorities on Easter Monday from every man and woman in the town. From the men the toll is one penny, but that imposed on the women is a kiss! The custom is maintained by two beadles, who march from house to house, and levy their quaint taxes. After the bead have had their innings, every man is at liberty to embrace any girl he meets. And Hungerford is crowded with visitors on Easter Monday.

USEFUL TO HOUSEWIVES

Half a Dozen Handy Household Hints

Badly stained knoves may be made to look as good as new by rubbing on charcoal.

If a soft piece of homemade bread is rubbed on a scorch on woollen goods it will remove it entirely.

Vegetables will take longer to cook, but will be much nicer and of better color if boiled uncovered.

A tasty way of using left over boiled rice is to put a piece of butter in the frying pan and adding the rice when the butter sizzles. Fry until brown.

To make celery firm and crisp and with a salty flavor liked by most people, clean as usual and soak in cold, salty water for an hour before serving.

Eggs will keep well packed in dry salt with the small end down. Grease the shell with lard before packing, and pour melted lard over the top layer of salt.

When boiling cabbage, cut the cabbage in quarters and slip each quarter into a separate cheesecloth bag. Then when it is cooked it comes out intact.

To remove the fat from soup or broth intended for an invalid, it is not necessary to allow it to become cold, as is usually done. Instead, place a fine wire sieve on ice, until it is thoroughly chilled, and pour the liquid through this. If the liquid is partially cooled the fat will solidify on the cold wire and the broth will be ready for use immediately.

To wash chamois gloves and keep them soft, first put the gloves on the hands, using lukewarm water and pure soap. Wash in this later until the gloves are thoroughly cleansed, then rinse in clear water of the same temperature, but before taking off the gloves, cover them again with a lather of the soap. Allow them to dry in the shape.

Spokane is getting a flying start in this race for the flag, but Seattle is holding the place nicely and Vancouver is coming up at the expense of Tacoma. Tacoma may be expected to take a brace soon, and Portland will get better, so if Victoria will only get going it will be a merry scrap yet for that bunting.

Viterbo, Italy, May 8.—Sensational scenes marked the hearing of the Cammorrists trial on Saturday afternoon. Father Vit-toruu urday afternoon. Father Vittorzi, who is one of the prisoners, at th conclusion of the evidence of the informer Abbatemaggio, challenged Vittorzi to swear on the crucifix that he had not lied in his evidence denouncing the Cammorra. Abbatemaggio put the crucifix to his lips and kissed it and swore he had told the truth. Vittorzi became livid with rage and cursed the informer in Latin. The court became uproarous, and by order of the Judges the carabinieri removed Father Vittorzi from the room until his passion was subdued.

Classified - - Advertisements

One of the best services the modern newspaper gives the public is in the classified advertisement columns. There buyer and seller, employer and worker, landlord and tenant, and a host of others meet on common ground. To put this modern convenience in reach of everyone the News will reduce its rate to a nominal price of a cent a word per insertion. Minimum charge of 25 cents. Here is our Classified Advertising Column for today. Watch it grow.

LOST HIS NOMINATION

Mr. Ronald Ferguson Had an Anxious Moment or Two

In good time today Mr. Ronald Ferguson appeared at the City Hall to hand in his nomination as candidate for alderman. He was disconcerted for a moment when he found that the precious document had been either blown or spirited away. There was still time, however, for him to get a fresh nomination paper and get his supporters to sign up again. Messrs. G. W. Arnott and J. H. Thompson responded to the call cheerfully, and Mr. Ferguson had his nomination in the City Clerk's hands well before two o'clock.

Weather Notes Today

Prince Rupert maintains to perfection the fine weather record of the past ten days. Bright sunshine today with balmy winds and the harbor just ruffled with sparkling wavelets should satisfy the most capricious. Down below the wireless stations continue to report "Cloudy," or "Showers" more often than "Clear." The wireless report, however, is today more favorable though there is mist at Tatoosh and Triangle reports "Overcast."

to the south and the Queen Charlotte group. The Queen Charlottes have millions of acres of agricultural land; millions upon millions of feet of the best timber; coal and oil and minerals that will astonish the world. Three waterways cut through, with tides that afford transportation unequalled, and why are we making no progress Simply because the 'provident' government of this country cares only for the 'dollars' that find their way into the treasury and only assists those who aid them in retaining office.

How Money is Wasted

"The year that has passed will show how the Lands and Works Department 'aided' the settler in the expenditure of public funds. Between the two principal towns there is an almost impassable trail—along the beach. Further up the Inlet—at a place known as Queenstown—there is a trail that is also in a bad state of repair. Instead of building a good road between the two places it was considered 'advisable' to spend $4,000 on a short road running to the purchased land of three individuals, and non-residents. There is not one building, or clearing along this road, and it leads into a muskeg swamp. Over this road went the member for the district and the Chief Commissioner, and the wonder is that they did not 'stick' in it and remain there. True they stopped further operations; but why the expenditure at all, when other sections required trails and roads.

Settler Gets no Chance

It is possible that the argument will be used that there are thousands of acres still available on the Queen Charlotte group of islands. Where are they located? At the present time no man of sense will locate away from the waterways. The timber and brush that one must pass through is almost enough to break the heart of a 'cruiser.' There are no roads, with the the exception of the $4,000 'fiasco.' Trails there are none worthy of the name. Along the east coast of Graham Island, where the largest number of settlers are located, the food is 'packed' along the beach. It is only there the 'speculator' found no timber to stake, and coal claims are plastered on the posts along the shore line.

Speculators Paradise

Is it any wonder if the prospective settler leaves the group of islands a disgusted man? Not one sawmill running. No coal claims being developed. No land accessible through the blundering of a paternal government. Roads and trails there are none; yet this paradise that awaits but the advent of population, is given over to the speculator and to enrich the growing treasury at the capital.

Revenue Over $500,000

'It is not too much to ask that some unprejudiced man be sent to the Queen Charlotte group to examine into and report on the condition of affairs. There is a country at your very doors which is capable of supplying your market with all the requisites of living. With a forest and stream wealth that is unsurpassed; the ground and climate to support hundreds of thousands of people; with waterways unequalled for the purpose of conveying produce to the open sea, and all comparitively unknown. Producing a revenue to the governemnt that exceeds the half million mark, yet without roads or trails for the few located thereon.

Is This Right?

"Such is the condition on the islands at your door. Such will be the condition until the government and speculator have secured for themselves and their friends 'everything in sight.' It is an era of speculation and intrigue—where the poor must grow poorer and the rich become richer, despite the fact that the masses 'govern.' It is time all of the people understood the motto of the late President Lincoln who said: 'You cannot fool all of the people all of the time.' 'Vote buying' and 'vote catching' is not governing and the sooner the people wake up to their responsibilities, the sooner the present system will be obliterated.

WOULD BRIBE CONSTABLE

FOREIGNERS IN TROUBLE

Resisted Arrest Then Offered Money. Fined $10

D. Toni and G. Guseppi Had Adeventure with the Law, Toni Resisted Arrest and Constable Morrison Resisted a Bribe.

For resisting arrest and attempting to bribe Constable Morrison yesterday D. Toni was today fined $10 by Magistrate Carss. Along with a companion G. Guseppi, Toni was coming down Sixth street and both were feeling hilarious. Guseppi in particular let himself go with a run and raised quite a dust for a second or two. It was then that Constable Morrison interfered. Guseppi would have come along all right, but Toni seeing his companion in trouble rushed valorously to the rescue only to find himself gripped by the strong arm of the Law. He struggled but was persuaded to come as far as the police shack Here Toni tried the other method whispering to the constable that it would be worth quite a neat little sum to him to look the othe way while his arrests escaped With a smile Constable Morrison ushered his charges politely to their apartments in the Municipal Hotel, and this morning both appeared before the Magistrate. Guseppi for being drunk and disorderly paid $7.

I AM daily asked my opinion as to the permanent values of real estate in Prince Rupert for investment. To all such enquiries I honestly state that any Prince Rupert properties, at present valuations, are a good investment, but I advise my clients who are desirous of taking advantage of "snaps" to invest only where offerings are made at much below present market quotations.

WE are able to pick up for our clients who have ready cash for investments good properiies at from 20 to 40 per cent. below the market by careful watching of fluctuations and chances by our staff. If you have cash for investment and are looking for real bargains call in and talk it over. I can show you how to make quick profits.
