CITY ENGINEER TO PLAN SEWERS FOR DOWN TOWN

Council is Talking of Spending $250,000 on Two Seperate Sewer Schemes For the Down Town Section---One Will Drain Between Fourth and Eighth Streets and the Other From Eighth to the Junction---Plans and Specifications Are Ordered.

Sewers,formed the subject of discussion at the city council meeting last night after the little matter of the resignations of Alderman Hilditch and Alderman Newton had been dealt with. City Engineer Davis was present, and brought for consideration the plans and recommendations for a system of sewers prepared for last year's council and shelved them as too costly.

Finances Better

Alderman Hilditch stated that while the cost was too great at that time, he believed the finances of the city today would enable this council to undertake the construction of a sewer system. About $250,000 according to Alderman Hilditch is the amount of expenditure calculated upon for sewers. The scheme placed before last city council by the City Engineer was estimated to cost $191,290. This covered the most populous section of the city as one section, and provided for sewers running at a minimum depth of nine feet six inches from the street level.

Depth Important

"This matter of the depth of the sewer pipe below the street is an important one," says Alderman Hilditch. The point is whether basements and cellars are to be drained by these sewers or whether only ground and upper storeys can ber served by the sewer system. Colonel Davis stated that he proposed to construct a system which would ensure drainage for all cellars not exceeding 8 feet below street level. The lifetime of the system proposed to the old council was put by the City Engineer last night at forty years or over. In designing sewerage for this city, Colonel Davis has found it best to divide the city up into several separate sewer districts, each served by a separate system each section covering the drainage area served by its trunk sewer.

First Two Sections

It was moved by Alderman Hilditch and seconded by Alderman Kerr last night that the City Engineer now proceed to bring in plans and specifications for the construction of a sewer to serve the district between Fourth and Eighth streets, bounded on one side by Borden street and on the other by the waterfront. Also the district between Eighth street and the Junction. Two separate systems of sewers the pipe line of which is to be not less than ten feet six inches below the level of the street grade.

BRINGS A GOOD REPORT BACK FROM THE INTERIOR

Mr. E. C. Gibbons Has Returned After a Six Week's Trip into the Bulkley Valley---Has Visited the Townsite of Houston---Season is a Little Late But Splendid Vegetable Crops Are Being Raised---Horse-raising and Grazing is Good---Settlers Are Going in

Just returned from a six weeks' tour of the country about 100 miles above Hazelton, and the Pleasant Valley district as far as the new townsite of Houston, Mr. E. C. Gibbons is able to tell of rapid work pressing on there on the construction of roads. Twelve different crews are working on the stretch between Hazelton and Houston. The road is a fine wagon road intended to serve the settlers who are pouring in steadily.

Dairy Farm Counrty

Mr. Gibbons passed many parties of settlers with their wives, childern and household gear. In every way Mr. Gibbons believes in the district as a field for the class of settlers comidg in.

"These parts," he says, "are agricultural. I believe they are most suitable for mixed and dairy farming, and the completion of the railway to this district means that Prince Rupert will draw her milk, butter, egg, and farm produce supply form here in the future. At present splendid vegetable crops are being raised. There is good grazing, and in the Bulkley Valley horse rearing has been exceedingly profitable. The great ranch there is Barratt's "Diamond D" Ranch. Here, I understand, they sold $16000 worth of hay to Messrs. Foley, Welch and Stewart. The hay was all of the fine quality grown up in the Bulkley Valley. It is certainly a great grazing, and farming country."

Late Season This

"About the beginning of August will be a great time to go up into those districts. This season is a week or two later than usual but by that time all the berry crops will be ripe, and the whole district will be at its best. In spite of the fact that the season is a little late things are coming on very rapidly, and fine crops of vegetables are assured. Some little delay and disappointment occurred through the visitation of frost early this summer, but the abundance of good flourishing vegetable growth in the gardens of every ranch there shows that the frost trouble is not really serious. In some cases, however, this season potatoes have been nipped by frost, and there are tracts where this crop cannot be satisfactorily grown.

Transportation Costly

"The great problem up river now is the cost of bringing in supplies from Prince Rupert. It costs about $50 a ton to bring in stuff from Prince Rupert to Hazelton, and to take it on again to points beyond Aldermere costs seven and a half cents per pound. The goods have to be packed in of course. Nevertheless there are numerous satisfied settlers there, and coming in. Towards the Ootsa Lake region many prospective ranchers with their wives and families are steadily going in waggons with led pack horses.

Mining Awaits Steel

"More than the agricultural resources of the district, the mining resources await anxiously the coming of the steel to Hazelton. Mining men are confident of the future of the properties on the Hazelton and Nine Mile mountains, and development work goes on in anticipation of the railway's completion. The great interest in Hazelton real estate, at present, centres around Bob Kelly's townsite there. This is considered a good thing, by Hazelton and outside investors. "

TWO BRITISH SOLDIERS ROBBED THE CANADIANS

Broke Into the Officers' Quarters and Took $500 Worth of Jewellery—Canadians Were Entertained at Windsor Castle This Morning by the King

(Canadian Press Despatch)

The visit of the Canadian detachment to the Coronation was celebrated by a couple of non-commissioned officers of the regular home detachment, who broke into the officers' quarters and robbed the visitors of about $500 worth of jewellery. They were trailed down by detectives, arrested and found guilty. This morning the pair were sent to jail for two months for the theft. After their release they will be dealt with by the military authorities.

Visit Windsor Castle

This morning the Canadian soldiers were entertained as guests of his Majesty at Windsor Castle. They were conducted over the castle grounds and laid wreaths of flowers on the tombs of King Edward and Queen Victoria. Now that the Coronation is over they will receive frequent entertainment.

TO START PLACER MINING ON THE SIWASH CREEK

Vancouver Men Will Put in an Extensive Hydraulic Plant to Work the Bed of the Siwash—Is Said to be a Very Valuable Property

Vancouver, June 29.—A syndicate of Vancouver men, including the firm of Dearing, Gordon & Co., and J. R. Crawford, have acquired the mining rights for practically all of Siwash creek below the forks.

They will install a power plant at the falls near the mouth and will put in a flume and hydraulic plant.

To work the bed of Siwash, long known to be very rich, they will have to carry the entire stream between the forks and the falls in a flume some hundreds of feet of which has already been constructed and was in use some years ago.

Siwash creek enters the Fraser river about one mile above Yale, and is connected with the Canadian Pacific by a cable ferry over the Fraser canyon. There is a narrow-guage wagon road up Siwash to the forks and there are two mines there equipped with stamp mills.

A sensational strike of free gold, running into the thousands, was made up Siwash just above the forks last November. The control of this new property, together with a bond and lease of the Marvel, which is eqipuped with a six-stamp Merrill mill, has passed to an English company, represented by N. A. D. Armstrong in the negotiations.

ROBBERS PILLAGE TRAIN FOR THE SECOND TIME

Oregon Express on the Southern Pacific Road is Held Up for the Second Time in Two Weeks—Daring Bandits Detached the Express Cars

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Eugene, Oregon, June 29.—Another daring train robbery and hold up was perpetrated by a band of masked bandits last night, when for the second time within two weeks the Oregon Express on the Southern Pacific was robbed. The robbery was daringly planned and executed.

Stopped the Train

The bandits met the train at Westford in Cow Creek Canyon and forced the driver to stop by placing obstructions on the line. While some of the number mounted guard over the train crew, the remainder ran the engine and express baggage mail cars for four miles up the track.

They forced open the registered mail sacks and carried away the letters. Afterwards they made an attempt to open the safe in the express car by blowing it with nitro glycerine. Being unsuccessful in this they made off. On the previous occasion the train was held up in the same vicinity of Douglas county. A sheriff and posse are in pursuit, but reports are very meagre.

WHY NOT HAVE REAL BASEBALL IN TOWN?

Keen Interest is Growing Among the Young Men of the City Arising Out of the Indoor Game—Teams Will be Organized and Efforts Made to Secure Park

Interest in indoor baseball is growing rapidly in the city and there is enthusiastic talk today in several quarters on the subject of forming other teams representative of various groups of live young men.

Manager E. Love of the telephone and electric light departments, believ s h can get together a cracker jack team from his departments, and once this team gets on its feet a challenge will be issued to all comers.

To have a City Hall team is also a proposal in the air at present, and members of the waterfront and railway staffs are considering their own powers in this direction. It is likely that this season may see the formation of an Indoor Baseball League here from which very quickly will spring interests strong enough to ensure proper facilities for the greater outdoor game.

Baseball enthusiasts in the city have been looking around for a possible baseball ground for quite a little while, and one or two likely places have been spotted. For instance, there is a level stretch of Government property about 350 ft. by 400 ft. between Eighth and Ninth avenues and Thomson and Lotibinere streets. Might not this block be converted easily into a suitable ground to the improvement of the property anyway, if permission could be obtained through the Mayor from the Government to use it for a season or two? The need for a recreation ground like this in Rupert is undeniable, and a little live movement on the part of the enthusiasts for sport in the city would surely achieve result.

RETAINING WALLS AND CULVERTS IN COUNCIL

Mayor and City Engineer to Communicate With Owners and Report to Council Regarding Retaining Walls—Culverts Will Come Later

By a motion carried by the city council last night it has been agreed to leave the matter of retaining walls in the hands of the Mayor and City Engineer. The motion reads: "That the matter of retaining walls where very costly and expropriation is thought of shall be left in the hands of the Mayor and City Engineer to get into touch with the owners of the property, and report back to the council."

Improves Property

The idea is that a clear explanation of the conditions should be made to absent owners and others showing that the construction of the retaining walls at these special points where expropriation may be necessary, is calculated to increase the value of the property

WILL OPEN A SIDE-SCHOOL

Room in Old School Building Second Avenue to be Opened for Small Children of Central Section. New Teacher to be Engaged.

It has been decided by the School Board of Prince Rupert to open a room in the old school on Second avenue in order that the little ones resident in the congested part of the city may not have so far to walk.

A teacher will be advertised for shortly, and alterations made on the staff in order to serve this side-school. It was not yet been decided who will be appointed to take charge of it. Owing to the gradual growth of the roll of pupils another teacher is required in any case.

The offer of a set of bird skins to be used for the instruction of the school children, which was made recently by Mr. W. Keene of Metlakatla, and left to Principal Hunter to deal with, has been withdrawn.

Accounts and the pay roll for the past month were passed amounting in all to $765.40.

The School Board meeting was held in the police court room yesterday afternoon, and Mr. W. D. Vance, the newly appointed secretary of the Board, took his place for the first time at this meeting

The Future Metropolis

"Prince Rupert has all the advantages that were lacking in the early days, and will be the future metropolis of the West. Seattle, Vancouver and other aspiring cities have almost reached their limit and the march of civilization must trend towards the shortest routes to other parts of the world. The storehouses of Mother Earth are along this northern coast, with its wealth of minerals, and your fast transportation means time, which was no object in the early days.

Rupert's Playground

"We have an adjacent island which compares most favorably with Vancouver Island as a summer resort, and which will eventually be the garden spot for your city. We have sandy beaches there, fifteen miles in length, over which fifty automobiles can be driven abreast, which will ultimately place the beaches of Florida in the shade. Our natural waterway, almost cutting Graham Island in two, runs six miles per hour each way, twice daily, and the rivers teem with fish.

"I have seen the Province, almost from end to end, and no person who casts their fortune in this part of the Province will regret it, and must appreciate the advantages one who spent over half a century can notice in this fast-growing city of yours. I have lived here as a baby, a grown child and a man, always sticking to and upholding the grandest Province in the Dominion, and I hope to end my days here. We notice the changes of the Hudson's Bay Company to the days of electricity and the aeroplane. In a few years our places will also be filled by others, but the consolation is always with us that humanity appreciates the work of the pioneers of every country and will not forget the old contingent of soldiers and their families who first hewed out the present cities and constructed the roads and highways in the days when few cared to face the dangers and tribulations of the then almost unknown land."

= THE COSY CORNER =

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

SIMPLE BUT ARTISTIC

Today's sketch shows an attractive dress of cotton material with border arranged in tunic style. The border, which is in lovely colors in floral design, is outlined with narrow black velvet ribbon. The black velvet girdle is artistically arranged and forms an attractive contrast against the delicate tints of the border.

ROYAL ENGAGEMENT

Came as a Surprise to the Whole Court

Anncouncement of the engagement of Arch-Duke Carl Franz Josef and Princess Zita of Parma came as a complete surprise to court circles today and part of the Imperial family. It is believed the marriage was arranged by the heir to the throne to prevent influence being exercised on the heir presumptive by other members of the family. The bride's mother is widowed and enormously wealthy and is a sister of Arch-Duchess Maria Theresa, who is step-mother to the heir to the throne.

A MARITAL MUDDLE

Woman Three Times Married Legally Wife of First Husband.

That Mrs. Eubank, twice divorced, is still the wife of her first husband, J. P. McFarlane, whom she married in Tacoma, Washington, is the opinion of Mr. Justice Clement. The facts came out over an application made in chambers in which Mrs. Eubank claimed the possession of a boy by her second husband Oliver. Oliver refused to give up the boy and Mrs. Eubank claimed that he had no right to hold him as her marriage to Oliver took place within six months of her divorce from McFarlane, which made the marriage illegal under the Washington law.

Mr. Justice Clement stated that after looking into the facts he had come to the donclusion that Mrs. Eubank was still legally the wife of her first husband, McFarlane. It appeared at the time she applied for the divorce McFarlane was in the Phillippines, and therefore the divorce should never been granted under the state laws of Washington.

NAMES OF NEW COLORS

This Summer You Appear Clad in "Bamboo" or You Wear "Rhubarb."

The new colors for the season, or the new names for the shades of the old colors, are charming. For instance, there is "purfum," a light lavender, the color of an odor, if there were such a thing, and we are told by the oculist that there is; "bamboo," the shade of the cured stalk of that plant; "sandalwood," the brown of that wood; "rhubarb," a green as of the first shoots of the spring sauce producer. Our old friend, Alice blue, has appeared as "claire de lune." Another exquisite shade of light blue is called "quaker lady," which will need no description to those who remember the charming little woodland flower of the name. Some of the color names are not so poetic. "Pigskin" is all right for purses, and "banana" is good enough in its place, as also is "cantaloupe" and "molasses," but who wants a gown called "molasses" brown or "cantaloupe pink" or "banana yellow?" "Blondine" is another shade which you would not choose.

Dark navy, purples, blue and deep greens, which are almost black, are in high favor, and recently some interest has been manifested in brown. Rarely has there been a season when colorings for spring promised to be more somber.

Use for Dry Bread

Don't throw away any odd pieces of bread that may be left over from a meal. Put them in an oven and when they are quite crisp break them up and roll on a board until they are absolutely small and fine. Then store in an air tight tin. They are splendid for coating anything that has to be egg and breadcrumbed before frying.

String Dishcloths

The odds and ends of string off parcels should be untied, not cut, and saved for tying up further parcels. When there is a great accumulation and the pieces are pretty nearly all of the same size it may be converted into excellent knitted dishcloths by the help of two thick knitting needles. These wear much longer than the bought ones, even when boiled over and over again. Scraps of tissue paper may be used for rubbing up mirrors, tumblers and picture glasses. It will polish as effectually as chamois leather.

Washing China Silk

When washing white china silk do not hang it up to dry. Wrap it up after wringing slightly in a piece of white material; leave for an hour and iron without drying. This prevents the silk from turnung yellow.

Grape Fruit Marmalade

Cut the grape fruit very thin, remove seeds, which boil in water and strain. To every pint of fruit add two pints of water, using as part of it the water off the seeds. Let stand overnight and in the morning boil one hour. Set aside until next day, put on to boil and meanwhile heat in the oven one pound of sugar for every pint of fruit. When the fruit has boiled half an hour add the heated sugar and boil fifteen minutes. Thr fruit must be fresh and juicy oe the marmalade will not jell.

Wise Hint

Immediately pudding cloths have been used scald them and wash them thoroughly, using soda, but no soap, and hang them up to dry. A great deal of labor is saved in this way, for if left till cold it is most difficult to wash them. Let them air well before they are put away or they will have a nasty orod when next used.

John Kling, former Chicago catcher, has been appointed captain of the Boston National League team by President Russell and Manager Fred Tenney. Kling will take charge of the team in the field, beginning this afternoon.

Claiming a foul, which was not allowed, Montana Dan Sullivan quit fighting in the third round of a scheduled six-round bout with Frank Klaus of Pittsburg, and was declared a loser by Referee Eddie Smith. Klaus had all the advantage from the start.

✿ ✿ ✿

Umpire Cook has severed his connection with the Canadian league and Deeney Hardy, who used to pitch for the Toronto Eastern league team, has been secured to take his place.

✿ ✿ ✿

Chaput, the Berlin pitcher, was overcome by the heat at a match the other day and had to be taken out of the box. Later it was found that he was seriously ill, and he is still under the doctor's care.

✿ ✿ ✿

Matt Wells, champion lightweight boxer of England, was given the decision over Pal Moore of Philadelphia at the end of 12 rounds at Boston recently. The Englishman showed no decided superiority at any time but forced the fighting throughout and kept up a constant jabbing which earned him the decision.

✿ ✿ ✿

Ralph Frary, the well known former Northwestern League umpire, has left Spokane for the National league. He will report for duty to President Lynch of the league immediately.

✿ ✿ ✿

Chicago National league players, when informed that John Kling refused to play any longer with the Boston club, to whom he was traded attributed Kling's action to a long cherished determination to play only with the Chicago cubs.

✿ ✿ ✿

Harrison, the heavy hitting infielder and outfielder, and twirler Rasmussen of the Beavers, both "finds" this season, are slated for the big leagues. Brown is said to like "Rasty's" work better than that of Gardiner who went up to the Pittsburg Pirates.

✿ ✿ ✿

A sensational shakeup in the Cornell freshmen crew which Coach Courtney has occurred. Because they broke the training rules by eating ice cream, the veteran coach ordered Murphy, No. 2; McClachlin, No. 7, and Larrowe, No. 5, dropped. The new seating of the boat was not announced tonight.

✿ ✿ ✿

Vean Gregg, who is now considered one of the finds in the American league, was sold to Cleveland by Spokane, in 1909. Gregg refused to report, and went to Portland during the season of 1910, and proved a sensation. He then went to Cleveland this spring, and has been pitching good ball for the big league club. He was won the majority of his games for the Naps, and has pitched a winning game in those lost, but in these cases the crippled team did not give hin the support required. Gregg is but twenty years old, and the Sporting World baseball sheet says that he promises to make the American league sit up and take notice. Gregg is a portside pitcher.

DAILY EDITION. THURSDAY, JUNE 29

EDITING THE CANNED DRAMA

In appointing a Board of Censors to censor the moving picture films sent for exhibition to Ontario, the Ontario Government has performed a duty that of late had been forced upon it. Obnoxious as all legislative interference is to the lover of liberty, it is very obvious that dangers lurk in the unhampered and unedited moving picture show.

This is no reflection on the value or usefulness of the moving picture entertainment. It is an outcome of the great place which the moving picture show now occupies in the world of entertainment. From the early films showing horses jumping, soldiers marching, and ships sailing, etc., the moving picture show has come to be a vehicle of drama. Whole companies of well paid actors are permanently employed in acting vivid dramas before the bioscope. One big firm advertises for plots, and many a newspaper man in the bigger cities turns over a ten dollar bill by dramatising little incidents of the street for the moving picture shows. This has opened up a new field of entertainment and with it new dangers.

A few weeks ago in Prince Rupert among a number of interesting and instructive series of drama-pictures was one that portrayed an attempted rape and a successful murder. No notice was taken of it by the police authorities. It was a child's description of how a woman split a man's head open with a hatchet, until the blood ran down his face that induced us to go and see what the subject really was. On that occasion the audience was principally composed of children. Possibly the underlying horror of it did not deeply impress them—it did not appear to do so—but no one will question the impropriety of allowing such a film to be exhibited.

Most of these films come from abroad, where perhaps the sensibilities of audiences are less keen than in English-speaking countries. The limit was certainly reached by the Parisian show house that exhibited a film showing the Caesarian operation as a special feature to the general public. The plea was advanced that it was an educational film. So perhaps it is, for the student of obstetrics, but for no other witness If mere argument that "it shows you how it's done," is sufficient to determine the educational character of a film, even the rape and murder type of picture drama might qualify as educational.

In Toronto the moving picture shows have been under a police censor for over a year with marked [benefit both to the interesting character of the films shown, and to the patronage. Parents need not question whether the subjects will be unsuited to children's minds. The character of the show is assured them. The rigorous application of the law has ensured the Toronto moving picture houses from being made the dumping ground of a lot of foreign films with little to commend them save that they dealt with highly spiced episodes.

Drama, the psychologists aver, is necessary in this age of economic struggle, as an outlet for the emotional feelings. That is why in the great cities it is patronised chiefly by the idle rich and the struggling toiler. The man or woman who is leading an heroic life, or a life richly flavored with dramatic incident, has no need to seek second hand emotion in the opera house. But for the millions who lead drab, unemotional lives some form of dramatic entertainment is needed. And the moving picture show has become the peoples' drama.

Because the moving picture show fills so large a place in the mental life of the people, and especially of the young people, care should be taken to see that improper subjects are not portrayed upon the screens.

The action of the Ontario Government will commend itself to thoughtful people who perceive the potency for good or evil that lies in the moving picture entertainment.
