This Agreement entered into this Twenty-second day of July, Eighteen Hundred and Seventy-five between Hugh Mackee, Farmer, Fraser River of the first part and Furry and Daggett, Loggers, of the second part, Witnesseth that for and in consideration of the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) paid to the said Hugh Mackee and in consideration of the covenants and agreements hereinafter contained to be kept and performed by the said Furry and Daggett, he the said Hugh McKee grants to the said Furry and Daggett, their Heirs and Assigns, the use of a ditch traversing his lot No 164 on Fraser River for the purpose of floating logs into the Fraser River and also the use of a strip ten feet wide on the east side of said ditch for a path: He further grants the said Furry and Daggett the privilege of widening the ditch to the extent of one foot and deepening and straitening it as may be required. The said Hugh McKee further agrees to allow the said Furry and Daggett to dig a ditch whereby the stream near his barn may be turned into the main or logging-ditch and to put in a gate at the present junction of the stream with the main ditch so as to raise the water in the ditch to the level of the ground, and to use the road on the west side of the said main ditch on which to convey supplies to the camp. The said Hugh Mackee further grants the said Furry and Daggett the necessary ground whereon to build a camp and other necessary buildings and the right of making the necessary roads for hauling the timber from off the pre-emption of the said Hugh Mackee and also from the timber claim leased by the Hastings Saw Mill Company to the said main ditch, and also the right of building an addition to the barn belonging to the said Hugh Mackee situated near Fraser River and a right of way from it to the road along the west side of the main ditch.

The said Furry and Daggett in addition to the payment of the sum of Five Hundred Dollars before mentioned agree to purchase what hay they may require from the said Hugh Mackee at the rate of Fifteen Dollars ($15) per ton, unbaled, delivered in good order at their hovel. They also bind themselves to put in a floodgate at the mouth of the main ditch acceptable to the said Hugh Mackee and not at any time time by their act to raise the water so as to flood the adjoining land. They further agree, at the expiration of this agreement (That is when timber is all gone) to make over to the said Hugh Mackee his Heirs and Assigns all buildings then standing on the said premises and that they will not allow any prostitute to be kept or maintained about the premises under their control.

The above Agreement to remain in force from the date hereof for the four years next ensuing, and to remain in force after that date on payment to the said Hugh Mackee his Heirs and Assigns of a further sum of Fifty Dollars ($50).

In Witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals, the day, month, and year first above mentioned.
