LILLOOET DISTRICT COMING TO THE FRONT

Vancouver Civic Market Manager Visits Lillooet and Arranges for an Exhibit to be Sent to that City

Lillooet is at last coming into its own, and the many tons of fruit which usually falls to the ground every year and is wasted, is to find a market instead.

The outcome of Alderman Woodside's visit to our district a few days ago has given the Lillooet farmers and growers the opportunity they have been waiting for for years.

Mr. Woodside took to Vancouver so good a report (and some samples of the Lillooet district produce to substantiate that report) that the Alderman of that city became convinced of the possibilities here. It was stated that if the railway rates were low there would be no reason why fruit and vegetables could not be shipped to Vancouver, also that it was only a seven hours journey from Lillooet to Vancouver.

The Civic Market Committee of Vancouver, decided to send Market Manager H. A. Edgett to Lillooet and authorized him to interview the officials of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway with the view of obtaining advantageous terms for the ranchers.

Mr. Edgett arrived here this week and in an interview with the "Prospector" stated "that he had approached a number of the farmers and growers of this district with regard to sending a representative exhibit of the Lillooet district produce to the Vancouver market, and that the farmers and growers recognizing the opportunity they had waited for for years, heartily responded to the idea, and an exhibit will be shipped to Vancouver this coming week.

It is the intention of Mr. Edgett to place the fruit and produce, sent from here, in the Vancover market and make a special exhibit of it to the consuming public. There is, on an average, nine thousand visitors and buyers in this market on Wednesdays and Saturdays so it will readily be seen what an advantage this exhibit will be, not only to the farmers and growers. but to the whole community.

The perishable goods will of necessity be sold right away, but the less perishable will be held for exhibition as long as is deemed necessary.

Mr. Edgett also stated that he had interviewed the Pacific Great Eastern railway officials and that they were more than willing to co-operate with the farmers and growers of this district, and will do all in their power to facilitate the transportation of their porduce.

The Vancouver Civic Committee, with Mr. Edgett as their representative, and Alderman Woodside of Vancouver, have given us an opportunity, and are still working to our mutual interests. It is now the duty of every farmer, grower, and citizen to do their utmost to help forge this district ahead and place it in a position second to none in the Province as a first-class quality producer of foodstuffs.

We are convinced that when the Vancouver consumers become aware of the quality of our fruit and produce, they, like their Aldermen, will rise to the occasion, with the ultimate result of a good, steady, demand for the fruits and produce of the district of Lillooet.

Apply Now

The Hon. Minister of Lands announces the publication of another booklet in the series of phamplets issued for the information of lumber consumers thruout the world. Entitled "How to finish British Columbia Wood," the pamphlet places before architects, builders, wood - finishers, and home-makers the possibilities of the various woods when used as interior finish. Instructions for the surfacing, staining, varnishing and painting of such woods as Western Hemlock, Red Cedar, Douglas Fir, Tamarack, Mountain Pine, and Spruce are given, and attractive illustrations show some typical interiors, in office, home, and public building construction. The information given in this booklet is intended to be of real value to home builders and others interested in wood-working, and advantage should be taken of the opportunity to obtain a copy.

The booklet will be mailed free of charge upon application to the Forest Branch, Victoria, B.C.

The stable on Main street, opposite the Court House, and owned by M. R. Eagleson, is being taken away. A new fence will be erected around the property in the near future.

Industrial Commissioner

Dr. Christie,
Chairman Entertainment
Committee, Lillooet, B.C.

Dear Sir:

On behalf of the Vancouver visitors I wish to thank you for the hospitality extended to us during our all-too-short visit to Lillooet. We had heard favorably of your town before-hand, but we were all much impressed by its possibilities and the kindness shown us will be in our memories for many a day. We appreciate too, as Canadians and British Columbians, the cordial reception that you gave to the visiting Australians, and were proud of the whole-hearted way in which you entertained them. Will you please express to the others of your Committee and to the Citizens our thanks and our best wishes for the success of Lillooet town and District.

Yours sincerely,
J. Reginald Davidson,
Commissoner

IN memory of Edward Williams late of the Bank of British North America in this town, who met a glorious death in France fighting for his King and Empire.

"The influence of light and some of its various manifestations."

Everybody cordially invited.

No telegraphic news this morning.

The war news this week is of a character to exhilerate the most pestimistic, also to strike a bad chill into the heart of the most optimistic enemy. Grand successes and advances are being made by the Allies on all fronts.

Jack Eagleson left for the coast this week on business.

Do not forget the meeting in Santini Hall tonight. It is duty to be there.

J. B. Tiffin passed through towg this week on the way to his ranch, on the Lillooet-Ashcroft road.

P. B. Lewis has secured a new automobile, it is a 45-h.p. 6c. McLaughlin - Burich car. Pete says she is a "beaut"

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hargraves, of Soda Creek, arrived in town recently and who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Adams, returned home this week.

Loo Chittick, local tonsorial artist, who has been on a visit to the States arrived home Wednesday. He says it feels good to get back into the mountains again.

Amongst the names of the visitors this week we notice that of G. G. Heather, taxidimists of Vancouver. It will be remember that this is the firm who mounted the Stanley Park cougar which caused so much excitement in Vancouver city.

The hunting party under the guidship of Tom Manson, assisted by Mose Taylor and Sam Paul, returned to town this week. The bag consisted of two rams, two bear, one goat, and a quantity of grouse.

Mr. T. E. Eastman of New York, their hunter, rsported good sport, and intends to return.

Wedding

A wedding took place on Wednesday morning in the Methodist Church, the happy couple being Miss R. G. Dowker of Lillooet, and Mr. P. R. Guthrie of Westminister. Rev. J. B. Butler read the service. Mr. Faulkner officiated at the organ.

The bride was dressed in a white silk voile with satin trimmings; the bridal veil being trimmed with pearls, and a pearl necklace.

The bride was given away by her father.

Helen Manny of Lillooet who acted in the capacity of flower girl, was prettily dressed in white silk voile, trimmed with silk lace.

After breakfast at the Victoria hotel, where a number of friends accompanied them, the newly married couple left for the coast via Lytton.

The usual good wishes were expressed for their happiness, by their many friends.

The Fool and Our Forest Dollars

Goodbye to the fool with the empty gun;
Forgotten his bid for fame,
Though he kills his friend, it only counts one,
And that, nowadays, is tame.

The fool who playfully rocks the boat
Is on the front page no more,
He may rank high with the fools afloat
But his glory is gone ashore.

There's the fool with women, the fool with wine,
And the fool who games with strangers,
And the joy-ride fool (who does well in his line
By combining these ancient dangers.

But they're all still down in the primer class,
Mere novices taking a flyer,
Compared with the prize-taking criminal ass,
The fool in the woods with fire.

A few hearts break for the deeds they've done
In their pitiful amateur way,
But fire slays dozens where they slay one
And scourges a state in a day.

For the ruined home and the smokeless stack
And the worker unemployed
Know a hundred years shall never bring back
The things that his match destroyed.

Meat Market Proprietor — Perhaps so, mum, but that meat came from a prize lamb, and it may have been petted too much.
