Great Trek 1982

In presenting a motion requesting the U.B.C. Senate to endorse the Great Trek 1982, Ms. Stenger stated that the motion had the unanimous support of the student senators. Ms. Stenger deferred to Chancellor Clyne for comments on the history of the Great Trek.

Chancellor Clyne urged Senate to support the commemoration of the Great Trek and stated that the students were well advised to present such a motion. He also stated that, to a great extent, it was true that the University was suffering in much the same way as it had in 1923 but at that time the position was not, as a number of people thought, one of protest. Its objective had been to gain the sympathy and cooperation of the community at-large. Whilst realizing that there must be restraint because of the economic difficulties of the present time, the Chancellor fully supported the motion.

Ms. Stenger)
Chancellor Clyne)

Whereas this year marks the 60th anniversary of the 1922 Great Trek which was undertaken as a response to the Government's failure to recognize the importance of education and of our University, and

Whereas there exists a parallel in that there is a failure to recognize the value of education,

Be it resolved that the U.B.C. Senate endorses the Great Trek 1982 and encourages all members of the University community and the wider community to take part in the week's events, October 18th to 23rd, 1982.

"Enrolments and completions continue at their moderate rate as the table below illustrates:

Diploma Program in Adult Education

In September, 1980, the revised Adult Education Diploma Program consisting entirely of courses at the undergraduate level was initiated. Previously the diploma program had consisted of graduate level courses. Since this re-organization ninety students have been admitted, forty-nine of whom took one or more courses in the 1981-82 Winter Session. Four were full-time. Forty-one of these students were on the new and eight on the old program. Half of the graduates of 1981-82 were on the old program and half on the new. Since the diploma program was established in 1966, a total of one hundred and twenty students on the old program and nine on the new program have qualified for the diploma.

In an effort to increase accessibility of the diploma program to practising adult educators throughout the province, Guided Independent Study versions of several of the courses are being prepared and made available. The first of the Guided Independent Study courses (Education 328) was opened for registration in April 1982. The second course (Education 329) will be available in September 1982.

Counselling Education

The revised Diploma Program in Counselling Psychology is almost prepared and should be coming forward for approval in fall of 1982. The Department has been consulting on the requisite courses and hopes to have them ready for consideration by August.

"Diplomas in Education of the Deaf and in Education of the Visually Impaired

This university (through the Universities Council) has contracted with other western provinces to provide diploma programs for candidates from those provinces in two areas in which U.B.C. has established programs. These areas are the Education of the Deaf and the Education of Visually Impaired Children. The academic year 1981–82 was the first year of the program, but inasmuch as the signing of the contract did not occur until May 1981, there was not a full complement (eight in each program) of registrants in the other western provinces. In the diploma program for Education of the Deaf, there were two students from Saskatchewan and one from Manitoba among those enrolled. All three succeeded in completing the diploma requirements this spring."

He also stated that they were very appreciative of what the University had done to accommodate mid-career Chinese scholars through the exchange program.

Report of the Tributes Committee (in camera)

Memorial Minutes

The following memorial statements had been prepared in accordance with the custom of Senate in recognition by the University and the Senate of the late Kathleen Sally Murphy Creighton, and the late Earle Douglas MacPhee.

KATHLEEN SALLY MURPHY CREIGHTON

Sally Creighton, who died on September 11, 1982, was the granddaughter of Denis Murphy, a Gold Rush days pioneer of British Columbia, and the daughter of the late Mr. Justice Denis Murphy, the first native-born British Columbian to be appointed to the Supreme Court of this province. She was born in Ashcroft in 1903 and educated in Vancouver, graduating from UBC in 1923 with First Class Honours in English and History. She also took part in the Great Trek of 1922, and became a contributing writer of prose and verse, and later a Features Editor, for the student paper the Ubyssey.

Report of the Tributes Committee

Following graduate work leading to an M.A. degree in 1924 at the University of Toronto, she taught in the English Department at UBC, and later at the University of Toronto, where she married John Creighton in 1927. She and her husband taught together for a year at Bennington College in Vermont, coming to Vancouver in 1938 when John Creighton was appointed to the English Department at UBC. The post-war increase in enrolment saw her teaching again. At the same time she began the writing of radio scripts and broadcasting of book reviews which pointed the way to a second career when she retired from teaching in 1949, a career that later no doubt helped her to bear the loss when John Creighton died in 1977.

In the years that followed retirement from teaching Sally Creighton not only served nine years on the Senate of UBC and a term on the Board of Governors, she also steadily enlarged her activities as writer and critic and commentator for both radio and television. Her brilliance in these fields and her skills as an executive led to her becoming president of the B.C. branch of ACTRA, vice-president of its National Council, and the recipient of a life membership presented to her "for distinguished services to the performing arts". Over those years she also contributed to local and national broadcasts over CBC in the field of education, and helped as a volunteer on many charitable organizations such as the Community Chest and Red Cross, receiving the Red Cross Medal in 1946.

Such a record is witness to the creative energy and social concern, the intellectual and imaginative powers, of this remarkable woman. They were evident still in the last years of her life, when in spite of difficulties and discomfort she undertook the editorial work and indexing required to see the book of a Toronto friend through the press. Even more impressive, however, were the qualities of mind and character, the cheerfulness and courage and continuing zest for life, the wit and humour, that saw her through the last year and more of increasing pain and physical weakness. She will be widely missed and long remembered.

To her son Denis and daughter-in-law Joan, and to the members of the larger family, the Senate extends its deepest sympathy.

Dean Larkin)
Chancellor Clyne) That the memorial statement for Kathleen Sally Murphy Creighton be spread on the minutes of Senate and that a copy be sent to the relatives of the deceased.
