SLOCAN PROSPECTOR.

VOL. II.—NO 36. THREE FORKS, BRITISH COLUMBIA, SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1895. PRICE TEN CENTS.

A BLOCKADE

Over Two Thousand Tons of Slocan Ore Delayed. Stacked Up in Warehouses and at Sidings Like Palouse Wheat

ANOTHER RAILWAY NEEDED

Output Would Have Been Doubled if the District had been Provided with Proper Transportation Facilities.

For weeks past ore from the Slocan mines has been accumulating at Three Forks and at the concentrator spur faster than the Nakusp & Slocan railway can handle it. At the present time there is about 700 tons in the Slocan Star warehouse, 150 tons each in the Reco and Noble Five warehouse and 700 tons of Alamo, Idaho, Cumberland and Yakima ore at the concentrator spur. About 400 tons remain at Nakusp, making over 2,000 tons in the blockade.

As the Nakusp & Slocan, when running, moves only four loaded cars a day, the blockade is likely to last for some time.

But this is not the worst feature of the case. There is not half as much ore mined as there would be if the district had good railway facilities. The Kaslo-Slocan railway is greatly needed and its construction will be hailed as a boon to the district.

Steamer Spokane Burned.

The steamer Spokane burned about 9 o'clock Monday morning. She was lying at the wharf at Kaslo, where for months she has been used as a bonded warehouse. Fire caught from the stovepipe, the watchman having been cooking his breakfast. When first seen the fire might easily have been extinguished, but no buckets were at hand. The fire spread rapidly and was spon beyond control. Total loss. No insurance. Owned by the C. & K. S. N. Co.

Clean up.

A vigorous cleaning up of back alleys and and other places where refuse matter has been thrown during the winter should be inaugurated in every town. The statutes are explicit regarding the condition of habitable premises, and officers propose to require a due observance of them.

In one day—Monday—552 sacks were filled with ore at the Slocan Star.

A director of the Pilot Bay Smelter Co. visited the Star, Five and other Slocan mines in the early part of the week.

The railway officials say that trains will be run every day now, leaving Nakusp in the forenoon, arriving at Three Forks at 1 p. m., returning to Nakusp the same afternoon.

For health, wealth and happiness strike for 3 Forks. No more epidemics, no more terrorism, for another 40 cases of disinfects, health-restoring and disease-dispelling remedies, have arrived at Holden's Pharmacy. Do not delay. Procure at once. By so doing peace will assert his power and kind affection rule the house. Holden's Pharmacy for health, wealth and happiness. *

John Houston's trained and vigorous hand is again steering the Tribune after his two weeks' absence

Mrs. Brownrig and family, including the first baby born in Silverton, have moved to Pilot Bay.

We have for sale a few more "supplements" containing Kemp's write-up of the Slocan mines; ten cents each.

There will probably be an excursion Monday from Denver to Tenmile to view the new strike on the Kalispell.

This is the fourth issue of THE PROSPECTOR this month. The next number will be issued from Kaslo the first week in April.

Mr. Kemp's editorial supervision of THE PROSPECTOR during our absence across the boundary has been a treat to our readers and duly appreciated by them.

There is something wrong with the way through telegrams from Slocan points to Spokane are handled at Nelson. There is a hitch in the transferring that seriously impairs the usefulness of the "hither, thither, clear and quick" process.

Board and lodging $1 a day at the Pacific. *

The shortage of reading matter this week is due, first, to the pressure of legal notices upon our columns and, secondly, to going to press early, so that the press may be ready to ship to Kaslo on what will probably be the last freighting by sleds this winter.

John Regan has discovered another ledge on the Last Chance. About fifty feet from the mouth of the incline shaft he ran a tunnel into the mountain, and in twenty feet crosscut a vein carrying four to nine inches of high grade ore. The new ledge thus developed is parallel with the one upon which he has been working, but dips slightly more into the hill. He will run another cross cut to it from a point about thirty feet further down the shaft.

A Timely Warning.

Some predict the world will soon come to an end. Over this we have no control. Our ills, however, we may stay. Friend, remember sickness comes when least expected. What are you going to do about it? Are you going to wait until it overtakes you before procuring the necessary remedy? Do not hesitate. From Holden's Pharmacy secure at once remedies that will give instant relief. For coughs and colds and colds and affections of the lungs and throat the Alaskan Lung Balsam acts like a charm—a sure cure. If you have a sick headache, a sluggish liver, pain in the Kidneys, impoverished blood, use Dr. Potts' celebrated Stomach and Liver Pills—the best selling to-day. For all aches and pains use Planter's Pain Balm, an internal and external remedy giving instant relief, a curative that will prove a real friend to every household. For summer complaint, diarrhœa, dysentery, pains and cramps in the stomach use Dr. Roll's Vegetable Cholera Cordial, the never-failing and best known remedy on the market. For purifying the blood use our compound syrup of sarsaparilla, a pleasant, safe and effectual remedy.

The above remedies can only be procured from Holden's Pharmacy, 3 Forks. *

TWINS—BUT NOT ALIKE.

Extract From the Suppressed Edition.

Two copies of the Kootenay Mail, dated Revelstoke, March 9th, 1895, have been received here. One copy was issued by R. W. Northey, the editor, after he had been "dismissed," arrested and tried for trespass; the other copy was issued by the directors of the printing company after they had "fired" Northey, obtained possession of the office and suppressed the Northey edition. From the suppressed edition we learn that Northey was brought before a certain justice named Fraser on a charge of trespass. Fraser appears to be a judicial rosette who outcreases Crease.

Benjamin Henry Lee, our own Benjamin, comes upon the scene. We let the suppressed edition tell the rest:

Mr. Northey requested that Mr. Lee be allowed to act as counsel for him, which was granted.

Mr. Lee objected to the jurisdiction of the court, and claimed that there was no statute in British Columbia under which one J. P. could try such a case. The objection was overruled.

T. L. Haig, sworn, said: I know the defendant. By the instructions of the directors of the R. P. & P. Co. I discharged Mr. Northey by a letter written by Mr. Holdich, the secretary. Since then I told him that the company wished him to leave at once to arrange for another editor. This he refused to do, and I laid information of trespass to gain enforcement of the company's wish.

By Mr. Lee: Mr. Northey's refusal was civil. Mr. Northey was occupier of the room by day, by night it was shut up.

By Mr. Fraser: The company rents the office referred to. Owing to the refusal of defendant to leave the office the action for trespasss took place. In my opinion he was not then in the employ of the company.

Mr. Lee: But you have a doubt on the subject.

Witness: Yes, I have a doubt on the subject.

Mr. Fraser, in reading over the notes of witness' statement, omitted the last answer. Mr. Lee drew his attention to the omission, and again put the same question to the witness, eliciting the same answer. Mr. Fraser said he was not there to take down "doubts." Mr. Lee claimed that the admission was material evidence, and demanded that it should be inserted. Three times in reading over his notes of the evidence Mr. Fraser omitted those words. Finally Mr. Lee asked the witness to dictate to him what he meant to say.

Witness: Mr. Northey, to the best of my belief, was not in the employ of the company; but I have a doubt upon the subject.

Mr. Lee read this over to witness, who said it was perfectly correct.

Mr. Fraser, on reading over his notes, again omitted the words "but I have a doubt upon the subject."

LEE FIRED FROM COURT ROOM.

Mr. Lee: With the greatest respect for the bench, I must say that your honor is perverting the evidence.

Mr. Fraser: Leave the court.

Mr. Lee at once walked out, after which the magistrate inserted the sentence which had been omitted

After further evidence from witness Mr. Northey asked him if he [defendant] did not still own some of the effects in the office, to which the witness replied "yes."

Mr. Northey [reading the notice of discharge]: The secretary here gives me one month's notice to leave the company's employ. How, then can I be a trespasser one day after the notice is served?

The magistrate then adjourned the case for eight days.

CITY Of KASLO.

BY-LAW No. 22.

WHEREAS it is necessary to pass a general by-law for the preservation of the public health, and to regulate and govern scavengers in the City of Kaslo:

Be it therefore enacted by the Municipal Council of the City of Kaslo as follows—

1. When it is deemed indispensable for the preservation af the public health, and for the more effectually carrying into effect the sanitary conditions of this by-law, it shall be lawful for the Municipal Council to appoint a member of the medical profession to be Medical Health Officer during the pleasure of the said Municipal Council, and whose duties and remuneration shall be specially defined from time to time.

2. The Medical Health Officer shall have power to stop, detain, and examine every person coming from a place infected with a pestilential or infectious disease, in order to prevent the introduction of the same into the City.

3. Every physician shall report to the Chairman of the Board of Health or to the Medical Health Officer of the Corporation of the City of Kaslo, in writing, every person having a contagious disease, such as cholera, scarlet or typhus fever, small-pox, diptheria, or any of the grades of such disease, and his or her place of dwelling, and name, if known, which such physician has prescribed for, or attended for the first time since having such disease, during any part of the preceding twenty-four hours; every attending or practising physician thereof must, at his peril, see that such report is or has been made by some attending physician.

4. No person or persons shall bring into the City from any infected place, or from any vessel or building in which had lately been any person sick of a contagious disease any article or person whatsoever, nor shall any such person come into the said City of Kaslo without permission, in writing, of the Medical Health officer.

5. No owner, tenant, or occupant of land, house or premises within the City limits shall suffer the accumulation upon his or her premises, or deposit, or permit to be deposited, upon any lot or premises belonging to or occupied by him, of anything which may endanger the public health, or deposit upon or into any street, square, lane or highway, pond, bank, Kaslo river or Kootenay lake, any dead animal, fish, dirt or rubbish, excrement, dung, manure, offal, or other refuse or vegetable or animal matter, or other filth or offensive thing.

6. If the occupant or proprietor, or his lawful agent or representative, having charge or control of such building or premises, after having had twenty-four hours' notice from the Chief of Police, or from the Health Inspector, to remove or abate such matter or thing as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to remove or abate the same, he shall be subject to the penalties under this by-law.

7. Whenever any animal or animals shall die within the limits of the Corporation of the City of Kaslo, the owner, or person in possession of it, shall, within twelve hours thereafter, cause the carcass to be removed outside the limits of the said city of Kaslo and buried or cremated, or deposited in the Kootenay lake not less than one mile from the shore, or at some point to be appointed by the Council from time to time.

All privies with vaults or pits, any part of the contents of which are above the surface of the earth, and all other privies that are foul, emitting smells and odors that are injurious to the public health, are hereby declared to be nuisances, and the chief of police shall have power to abate the same.

8. In all cases where no provision is herein made defining what are nuisances, and how the same may be removed, abated or prevented, in addition to what may be declared such, being those offenses which are known to the common law of the land and the Statutes of the Province of British Columbia as nuisances, may, in case the same exist within the limits of the City of Kaslo, be treated as such and proceeded against as in this by-law provided, or in accordance with any other law which shall give the officer trying the same jurisdiction.

9. It is hereby made the duty of the occupant or occupants of every stable, house, hotel, saloon, restaurant, lodging or boarding-house in the Corporation of the City of Kaslo to provide a suitable box, vessel or place in which the occupant or occupants shall cause to be deposited all the offal, garbage and kitchen refuse of the premises. Such occupant or occupants shall also cause the contents of such box, vessel, or place to be taken, twice in each week from the first of May to the first of November, and once in each week from the first of November to the first of May in each year, to some place directed by the Health Inspector, and there deposited.

10. The Municipal council shall have the power to grant a license, at a cost of ten dollars, to any person, company, or corporation for clearing or removing the contents of privy-vaults, and every person, company, or corporation engaged in such business shall be deemed a night-scavenger within the meaning of this by-law, and none others shall act as such scavenger.

11. The Chief of Police shall have the power to enter upon, between the time of sunrise and the time of sunset, and examine any vault, privy or private drain.

12. The contents of any privy-vault so removed by any scavenger shall be conveyed in air-tight tanks or vessels, and shall be disposed of in such a manner, under the directions of the Chief of Police, as to cause no offence; said tanks or vessels shall be kept clean and inoffensive when not in actual use.

13. When requested the scavenger shall clean or empty any privy-vault, and remove any or all nuisances.

14. Night-scavengers shall receive five dollars for any privy-vault cleaned out or contents removed and they may demand and receive their fees for such services in advance; provided when such fees are demanded and received in advance, the work for the same must be completed within twenty-four hours of such receipt.

15. All rates and charges authorized under this by-law, unless paid, shall be collected by summary process before the Mayor or Police Magistrate, or any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction, trying the case, in the seizure and sale of the goods and chattels of the person or persons entitled by this by-law to pay the same.

16. Any person or persons guilty of an infraction of any of the provisions of this by-law shall, upon conviction before the Mayor, Police Magistrate, or any Justice or Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction in the Corporation of the City of Kaslo, on the oath or affirmation of any credible witness, forfeit and pay, at the discretion of the said Mayor, Police Magistrate, Justice or Justices of the peace convicting, a penalty not exceeding the sum of twentyfive dollars ($25.00) and costs for each offense, and in default of payment thereof it shall be lawful for the Mayor, Police Magistrate, Justice or Justices of the Peace convicting as aforesaid, to issue a warrant under his hand and seal, or in case the said Mayor, Police Magistrate, Justice or Justices of the Peace, or any two or more of them acting together therein, then under the hand and seal of one of them, to levy the said penalty with costs, or penalty or costs only, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offenders or offender, and in case of no sufficient distress to satisfy the said penalty and costs, or penalty or costs, it shall and may be lawful for the Mayor, Police Magistrate, Justice or Justices of the Peace convicting as aforesaid, or any one of them, to commit the offender or offenders to the common gaol or any lock-up in the Corporation of the City of Kaslo for any period not exceeding thirty days, unless the said penalty and costs, or penalty or costs, be sooner paid.

17. This by-law shall come into full force and effect on the 1st April, 1895.

Read a first time 16th February, 1895.

Read a second time 18th February, 1895.

Read a third time 20th February, 1895.

BY-LAW NO. 21.

For the purpose of closing and using the western portion of Water street, Kaslo City, for wharf and warehouse purposes.

WHEREAS all that portion of Water street lying west of Fifth street, Kaslo City, and across Kaslo bay, and the short unnamed street running south to the bank of said bay, more particularly shewn upon the map of the said City deposited in the Land Registry office, in Victoria, B. C., and therein numbered 393, is by its location valueless for vehicular and passenger traffic without the expenditure of a large amount of money:

And whereas the area occupied by such street can, at some expense, be utilized for wharf and warehouse purposes, which will afford much needed accommodation for the shipping of ore, and generally fill a long felt want:

Be it therefore enacted by the Municipal Council of the City of Kaslo as follows:—

1. On and after Monday, the 1st of April 1895, the whole length of Water street west of Fifth street, within the City of Kaslo, shall be absolutely closed to the public, including that small unnamed street running south from Water street across the water to the south bank of Kaslo bay aforesaid.

2. On and after the 1st day of April, 1895, the area of the closed street shall be absolutely at the disposal of the Council for the purposes hereinbefore recited.

3. It shall be lawful for the Municipal Council, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to enter into any and all contracts with any person or persons, incorporated or unincorporated, for the purpose of granting the use of the said closed area to such person or persons who are prepared to undertake and execute such works in constructing wharves and warehouses on such terms and conditions as the said council shall deem best in the interest of the citizens, and for such period of years as they shall see fit.

4. It shall be lawful for the said council to fix the grade of Water street prior to any grading works being commenced, so that the best possible elevations shall be established for ingress and egress to Front street over 5th street, 4th street and 3rd street, respectively.

5. This by-law shall come into full force and operation on the 1st day of April 1895.

Read a first time 16th February, 1895.
Read a second time 18th February, 1895.
Read a third time 20th February, 1895.

BY-LAW No. 23.

The Municipal Council of the City of Kaslo enacts as follows:—

1. There shall be established in the City of Kaslo a public pound, and it shall be located at such place and upon such premises as the Council shall from time to time by resolution appoint, and it shall be designated "The City Pound," and the keeper thereof shall be appointed by the Council, and act under the Chief of Police.

2. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to suffer or allow his, her, or their horses, mules, oxen, bulls, cattle, goats, sheep, or swine, or any one or more of them, to run at large within the limits of the City of Kaslo at any time.

3. It shall be lawful for the appointed pound-keeper to impound any and all animals mentioned in the second section hereof if found running at large within the limits of the City of Kaslo, and he is hereby required to impound such animals and detain same until the owner or owners thereof shall have paid, over and above any claim for damages for trespass and the charges over and above the penalty alone, where no trespass has been committed, the sums following, viz:—

For every horse, mule, or head of cattle, pig, sheep, or goat, the sum of one dollar, which sum shall go to the pound-keeper for his fee for impounding same.

4. Whenever any animal shall have been impounded as aforesaid it shall be the duty of the pound-keeper, daily, to furnish such animals with good and sufficient food, water and shelter, during the whole time such animals continue impounded, and for so doing he shall be entitled to demand and receive the following allowances, over and above his fees as pound-keeper, as hereinbefore provided, viz:—

For every horse or mule, per day $1 00
For every other animal 0 50

And such allowance as aforesaid may be recovered with costs by summary proceedings before the Mayor or Police Magistrate in like manner as fines, penalties, forfeitures for breach of any by-laws of the said City of Kaslo.

5. It shall be the duty of the pound-keeper immediately to inform the owner of any animal impounded of the fact, or if the owner be not known, to advertise the same in one of the local newspapers, and to cause a notice thereof, in writing, to be affixed on the pound gate and post office, and in such notice to give as nearly as possible the marks, colour and probable age of the animal, and if, after the expiration of six days from the date of such advertisement, no owner be found, the pound-keeper shall advertise the sale of such animal by public auction by posting notices giving at least three days' notice of the sale, and shall accordingly sell for the best price that can be obtained for the same, unless the owner of such animal, or some other person on his or her behalf, shall, prior to such sale, release the said animal by paying the fees and charges of the pound-keeper, and the penalty and damages, if any, and the said pound-keeper, after deducting his own charges, shall pay the damages (if any) to the person entitled thereto, and the penalty to the Treasurer of the said City of Kaslo, and if not claimed within three months after being received by the Treasurer the same shall be applied by him to the credit of the public works account. If the owner or owners of any distress taken while doing damage, or any person on his or her behalf, shall appear and dispute the amount of damages claimed, it shall and may be lawful for the pound-keeper to apply to the Mayor or any one of the Aldermen of the said City of Kaslo, who is hereby authorized and required forthwith to summons three disinterested inhabitants, householders of the said city of Kaslo and such three persons, or any two of them, shall, within twenty-four hours after notice of their appointment as aforesaid, view the ground and premises upon which the animal was found doing damage, and shall appraise the damage committed, and the determination of a majority of them shall be conclusive as to such damage, and they shall, within twenty-four hours after having made the view, give in writing to the pound-keeper a statement of the amount of damages so assessed by them, and of their lawful fees and charges.

6. The owner of any animal mentioned in the second section of this by-law, and taken running at large within the limits of the said City of Kaslo, shall pay the following penalties over and above the charges of the pound-keeper and and the damage claimed or assessed against such owner as hereinbefore provided, that is to say:

For every stallion, ($5.00) five dollars.

For every other horse or mare, gelding, colt, filly or mule, ($2.00) two dollars;

For every bull, ($5.00) five dollars;

For every cow or other head of cattle, ($1.00) one dollar;

For every boar pig, ($2.00) two dollars;

For every other pig, sheep or goat, (50 cents) fifty cents:

to be recovered before the Mayor or Police Magistrate, either upon the confession of the party complained of, or upon proof upon oath of one or more credible witnesses.

7. It shall be lawful for anyone to drive any animal mentioned in the second and fourth sections of this by-law, if found running at large within the limits of the City of Kaslo, to the city pound, and such person shall be entitled to be paid therefor the fees following:

For every horse, mule, cow, or other head of cattle, pig, sheep or goat, seventy-five cents [75 cents]; and it shall be the duty of the pound-keeper to impound the same until the pound-keeper's fees and charges, as allowed by this by-law, and the fees in this section mentioned, have been paid, and the pound-keeper shall proceed in the same manner with such distress and pay over the penalty in the same manner as directed by the ninth section of this by-law.

8. The pound-keeper shall be allowed, over and above the fees hereinbefore mentioned, the following fees, that is to say:

For posting the requisite notices, as provided by the ninth section of this by-law, [50 cents] fifty cents;

For attending for the summons and serving the same on the appraisers of damages, [75 cents] seventy-five cents;

And for every sale of distress, [50 cents] fifty cents, and no more.

9. If any person, without the authority of law and without first paying the penalty, damages and costs, takes such animal or animals, after being impounded, out of the possession of the pound-keeper, without his consent, such person shall be liable to be punished therefor by fine not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding two months, in addition to the penalties provided for an infringement of the other provisions of this by-law.

10. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the City of Kaslo to furnish each pound-keeper with a book, in which he shall enter the number and description of every animal impounded by him, with the name of the person who took or sent the same to be impounded; the day and hour on which he received the same; the day and hour on which the same was redeemed, and the amount of damages or penalties and fees paid by the party redeeming the same, or the proceeds of the sale [if any]; and each pound-keeper shall, on or before the first day of every month in the year, make a return to the said City Treasurer, in writing, of the number and description of all distresses received by him during the month preceding each return, with the names of the persons taking same to the pound; the amount received, and when the same was redeemed; and any other information he may deem necessary, which return shall be verified upon oath.

11. Every pound-keeper shall, when making his return on the first day of each month, pay to the Treasurer of the said City of Kaslo all moneys received by him during the month which are directed to be paid to said Treasurer by this by-law, and shall at all times produce his books for inspection of the said Treasurer, or of any member of the said council when so requested.

12. It shall be the duty of the pound-keeper and every member of the Police force to ascertain the name or names of any owner or owners of any animals mentioned in section three hereof found running at large within the City limits, and to lay an information before the Mayor or Police Magistrate against any such owner or owners for allowing such animal or animals to run at large within the City limits, and it shall be the duty of the Mayor or Police Magistrate to impose a fine not less than fifty cents or more than one dollar and costs for each offence, which fine shall be paid to the Treasurer for City purposes.

13. This by-law shall come into full force and effect on the 1st April, 1895.

Read a first time 16th February, 1895.

Read a second time 18th February, 1895.

Read a third time 20th February, 1895.

Reconsidered and finally passed 23rd February, 1895.
