NEW WESTMINSTER CITY GAOL.

Chaplain's Report.

Acting for the Rector of Holy Trinity, at present absent in England, I have visited the Gaol, alternately with the Rev. A. H. Sheldon, on Saturday afternoons during the past year, and at other times when called for.

With scarcely an exception the prisoners have willingly attended the services, and on all occasions presented a reverent and attentive demeanour.

Composed, however, chiefly of the class of inveterate drinkers, they are peculiarly hard to touch, and I grieve to say that the cases of reformation after the expiration of their sentences are few and far between.

In some instances of repeated conviction, imprisonment has become so much a matter of course that the sense of punishment seems to be lost, and I am very strongly of opinion that these cases ought to be exceptionally dealt with.

The workshop is still the only place in which services can be had, and it is as ill-adapted as ever to the purpose.

I have to acknowledge the courtesy of all the officials invariably.

A. W. NEW WESTMINSTER.
