"GOVERNMENT LIQUOR ACT AMENDMENT ACT, 1930."

At the 1930 session of the Legislature amendments to the "Government Liquor Act" were passed in respect of the following sections:—

Section 2. The definition of "liquor" was struck out and a further definition was substituted therefor. The definition of "sale" and "sell" was amended and the definition of a "veterans' club" was added to the section. The definition of "wine" was added to the section.

Section 3. This section was amended to provide for a special price for pure grain alcohol for sale to hospitals in receipt of Government aid and to the University of British Columbia for use for scientific purposes.

Section 7. Amended to include "a veterans' club licence."

Section 12. Amended by adding thereto subsection (2) re persons using false or fictitious names and furnishing false or fictitious addresses in making application for a permit.

Section 26A was enacted to provide for veterans' club licences.

Section 35A was enacted to provide for a permit to manufacture wine, and the sale of same to a wine company.

Section 36A was added in respect of persons purchasing liquor from a Vendor under a false or fictitious name.

Section 39 was amended to include "a veterans' club licence."

Section 40 was amended by repealing subsection (2) thereof and re-enacted.

Section 50A was amended to include "veterans' club licence."

Section 52 was repealed and re-enacted, having reference to advertising, canvassing, etc., to come into force on January 1st, 1931.

Section 53 was amended to include "veterans' club licences."

Section 55 was repealed and re-enacted to provide for the sale of liquor by any person to the Government through the Board only.

Section 63 was repealed and also provides for the cancellation of existing warehouse licences. This amendment came into force on Proclamation by the Lieutenant-Governor on August 11th, 1930.

Section 63B was enacted to provide for distillers' and brewers' licences.

Section 71 was enacted to include section 63B in connection with penalties.

Section 75 was amended in respect to the seizure and forfeiture of liquor.

Section 76 was amended in respect to the seizure of liquor in conveyances and the forfeiture thereof.

Section 78A was enacted to provide for the closing of certain premises by order of a Justice.

Section 86 was amended by adding subsection (2) in respect of unlawfully keeping liquor for sale.

Section 92 was amended by adding subsection (3) thereto in respect to the burden of proof.

Section 102, providing for the constitution of a Board of one member, was repealed, and re-enacted providing for a Board consisting of three members.

Section 103 was repealed and re-enacted, having reference to tenure of office of Board.

Section 104 was repealed and re-enacted in respect to the appointment of staff.

Section 105 was repealed and re-enacted in respect to the purchase of liquor.

Section 111 was amended in respect to providing reports to the Attorney-General.

Subsection (2) of section 118 was amended by adding thereto the words "The aggregate amount apportioned and paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund pursuant to this subsection in any year shall not exceed one million dollars."

Subsection (1) of section 119 was amended to provide for the making of regulations subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

Subsection (2) of section 119 was amended by adding clause (vi), which provides for the prescribing of regulations in respect to veterans' club licences.

Subsection (2) of section 119 was further amended by repealing clause (x), and substituting therefor a further clause (x) providing for the prescribing of regulations for making returns by distillers and brewers.

Subsection (2) of section 119 was further amended by adding clause (z), providing for the prescribing of regulations in respect to wine companies and wine-storage companies.

Section 33 of the "Government Liquor Act Amendment Act, 1930," provides that the amendments to sections 102, 103, 104, 105, and 106 of chapter 146 shall come into force on August 23rd, 1930.

GOVERNMENT LIQUOR STORES.

The policy of securing adequate and suitable store premises was continued, and new premises have been provided at the following points: Cumberland, Campbell River, Courtenay, Duncan, Hope, Ladner, Lillooet, Merritt, Vernon; 230 Hastings Street East, Vancouver; and 634 Humboldt Street, Victoria. In all cases leases were entered into by the Board. (See Appendix C.)

On June 12th, 1929, a store for the sale of all classes of liquor was opened in the town of Creston.

The Government Liquor Stores at Telegraph Creek and South Westminster were closed on June 14th and 15th, 1929, respectively.

STOCKS.

The value of the stocks of liquor on hand at March 31st, 1930, amounted to $1,373,530.83, being a decrease of $9,641.56 over the inventory figure for the fiscal year immediately preceding.

SALES.

The total sales of $16,498,692.62 shows an increase over the previous period of $1,365,759.87. A classification of the sales is as follows:—
