"GOVERNMENT LIQUOR ACT AMENDMENT ACT, 1929."

At the 1929 session of the Legislature amendments to the "Government Liquor Act" were passed in respect of the following sections:—

73. Repealing subsection (2) of this section, which provided for search without warrant.

117. Repealing subsection (2), which provided, by deduction from the profits, for the expenditure incurred under the "Mothers' Pensions Act."

118. Repealing, and re-enacting as follows:—

"118. (1.) The net profits remaining from time to time after providing the sums required for purposes of the Reserve Fund shall be paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

"(2.) An amount equal to twenty-three per centum of the net amount so paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund under subsection (1) shall be apportioned and paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the several municipalities in the Province in proportion to the aggregate number of days attended by pupils enrolled in the public schools of the respective municipalities as ascertained and certified by the Superintendent of Education; but as between two municipalities comprised in whole or in part within a united school district, the apportionment shall be based on the aggregate number of days attended by such pupils resident in each municipality respectively.

"(3.) The Minister of Finance may from time to time prescribe the method by which the population of any municipality shall be determined for the purposes of this section."

GOVERNMENT LIQUOR STORES.

New stores were opened at New Denver and Burns Lake on June 2nd, 1928, and September 12th, 1928, respectively.

The store at Alice Arm, which had been reopened after the winter of 1927, was finally closed on December 12th, 1928.

Continuing the policy of providing adequate and suitable store premises, the store at 602 Robson Street, Vancouver, was closed and reopened at 820 Howe Street, where a new building had been specially erected and designed for the Board's requirements in handling the night store business; the store at 808 Pender Street West was also closed and reopened at 833 Pender Street West in more commodious and suitable premises. In both cases leases were entered into by the Board. (See Appendix C.)

In the rural districts the same policy of improvements when opportunity offers is being pursued.

STOCKS.

The value of the stocks of liquor on hand at March 31st, 1929, amounted to $1,383,172.39, an increase of $8,295.19 over the inventory figure for the preceding year.
