The number of employees on the permanent staff of the Liquor Control Board as of March 31st, 1960, was 733, there being 701 men and 32 women.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICES AND GOVERNMENT LIQUOR STORES

New premises were occupied by the Board for use as a Government Liquor Store at the following location: 1949 Fort Street, Victoria, B.C., in Victoria Electoral District, on December 9th, 1959.

The Board was able to secure new premises with off-street parking at more advantageous locations in the following centres: White Rock, in Delta Electoral District, on April 1st, 1959, and Port Coquitlam, in Dewdney Electoral District, on January 28th, 1960.

Additional property was purchased adjacent to the Government Liquor Store at Mission for the construction of a retaining-wall.

Liquor Store hours were revised to conform with the late closing shopping hours of the community, and to extend six-days-a-week service to the public (except in areas where one-man stores exist).

In order to give added service at the Christmas season, the Board arranged that all its single-shift stores throughout the Province should remain open on December 23rd, 1959, until 9 p.m. Stores that opened for one-half day on Mondays or Wednesdays remained open to the public the full day on December 21st, 23rd, 28th, and 30th, 1959. These added hours, as in the past, proved beneficial in serving the public.
