LEGISLATION

The Civil Service Superannuation (Amendment) Act, 1968, makes provision for amalgamating the Retirement Fund with the Civil Service Superannuation Fund and improves the general level of benefits. Among the more important changes are the following:—

(a) Amalgamation.—The Civil Service Superannuation Fund and the Retirement Fund were combined in the name of the Civil Service Superannuation Fund, effective April 1, 1968, and revenue or expenditure under Part II of the Act from this date is to be credited or charged to the Civil Service Superannuation Fund.

(b) Benefits.—In respect of a superannuation allowance granted on or after April 1, 1968, on the 2-per-cent formula, there is a modification in the reduction factor when the retiring employee becomes entitled to a benefit under the Canada Pension Plan or the Old Age Security Act of Canada. Whereas formerly the reduction was calculated as 1 per cent times years of service after April 1, 1958, times average annual salary, in future it will be calculated as seven-tenths of 1 per cent times years of service after January 1, 1966, times average annual salary. In both cases the maximum average annual salary used does not exceed the year's maximum pensionable earnings under the Canada Pension Plan.

(c) Death and Disability Benefits.—An improvement in the 2-per-cent formula calculation in that the service credited to the employee is increased to a minimum of 25 years, or by the number of years which is the difference between the attained age and the age of 55, whichever is the lesser.

(d) Pensioner Bonuses.—Provision for a supplementary allowance to persons in receipt of a superannuation allowance granted before April 1, 1966, calculated as a percentage of the amount of the allowance payable from time to time, using a base of not less than $100 per month as a minimum and not greater than $300 per month as a maximum, and having regard to the effective date the original allowance was granted, as set out below:—

	Per Cent
Allowance granted on or before March 31, 1964	10
Allowance granted between April 1, 1964, and March 31, 1965	7
Allowance granted between April 1, 1965, and March 31, 1966	4

These bonuses became effective May 1, 1968, and are paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

W. H. FORREST,
Superannuation Commissioner.
