Section 5—All moneys received and paid out under the provisions of this Act are shown in the statement of changes in fund balance and all assets and liabilities appertaining to the granting of superannuation allowances are shown in the statement of financial position. These financial statements are attached to this Report.

Section 8 (1)—Employer contributions amounted to $21,223,308, made up as follows:

	$

In respect of past service	1,564,292

Normal retirement age	642
Total and permanent disability	34
Death in service	37
Resumption of remarried widows' allowances	32

Transfers totalling $82,892 were received from one reciprocal pension plan in respect of two contributors upon grant of allowance.

Transfers totalling $20,656 were made to one reciprocal pension plan in respect of three employees upon grant of allowance.

Cost-of-living supplements totalling $441,261 were paid to eligible recipients of a superannuation allowance in the period July 1 through December 31, 1974. When the accumulated payments exceed 1 per cent of the average annual total of contributory salaries, cost-of-living supplements are to be financed by additional employee and employer contributions each at the rate of one-half per cent of contributory salary, with a further similar increase when the accumulated payments again exceed 1 per cent of the average annual total of contributory salaries. Projections indicate the first increase in contributions will be effective on or about February 1, 1977.

For analysis and comparative statistics, see attached Schedules 3, 4, and 5.

Section 15 (4)—Amounts totalling $141,061 were paid out of employer contributions to the Medical Service Plan of British Columbia in respect of the matching one-half share of monthly medical coverage premiums of eligible recipients of a superannuation allowance.

		$

Miscellaneous employer		10,129

Refunds on resignations included 114 employees with more than 10 years countable service who elected to receive a refund rather than leave their credits in the fund in order to receive a deferred superannuation allowance after attaining the minimum retirement age. For analysis and comparative statistics see attached Schedules 3, 4, and 5.

Section 22—Actuarial and administrative expenses paid from the Fund amounted to $210,556.

Section 27—Securities held by the trustees as at December 31, 1974, amounted to $327,450,400 par value, as set out in the attached Schedule 1. Transactions during the year (par value) were as follows:

Based on the mean of the Fund opening and closing balances amounting to $324,170,588 the net rate of interest earned during the year after charging administration expense was 6.976 per cent.

LEGISLATION

The Municipal Superannuation Act was amended at the 1975 Session of the Legislative Assembly. The more important changes are as follows:

(1) Amending the definition of "salary" to exclude retroactive salary adjustments unless approved by the Provincial Secretary.

(2) Providing for payment by the employee of up to one-half of the cost, as determined by the Commissioner, of recognition of additional service.

(3) Permitting employees who transferred to a reciprocal employer and elected prior to July 1, 1973, to have their contributions transferred to the voluntary account of that employer's pension plan to reinstate those contributions and their service under this Act.

(4) Amending the formula for calculating the highest average salary for pension purposes of persons who have been receiving benefits under an approved group disability salary continuance plan.

(5) Permitting the spouse of an employee who dies in service, being eligible for an allowance, to select a plan with or without a temporary annuity.

(6) Amending the formula for calculating cost-of-living supplements for pensioners.

(7) Authorizing the trustees to invest available moneys also in fixed deposits, notes, certificates, and other short-term paper of a chartered bank, credit union, trust company, or the British Columbia Savings and Loan Corporation.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

I have examined the statement of financial position of the Municipal Superannuation Fund as at December 31, 1974, and the statement of changes in fund balance for the year then ended. My examination included a general review of accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

In my opinion these financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Fund as at December 31, 1974, and the changes in fund balance for the year then ended, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.
