THE UNIVERSITY THANKS ITS FRIENDS

The University owes much of its stature to private gifts. Research, teaching projects, scholarships and bursaries have been supported by individual benefactors, alumni, firms, students, foundations and associations. Many of the major buildings, as well as a wide variety of other projects, serve as testimony to the generosity of those who helped to build UBC.

Gifts have been made anonymously, directly, in memory of relatives, in honour of friends and by bequest. Many alumni and other donors contribute annually. During the year benefactors donated $8,384,385.

The University is deeply grateful to those who have given such generous support and also thanks the many volunteers who have helped generate gifts.

This brochure does not include the names of donors to the Alumni Fund. Provincial and Federal grants are recorded in other publications.

THE UNIVERSITY WANTS TO SERVE YOU

The University wishes to express gratitude to donors in a variety of ways.

If you do not receive UBC Reports or the UBC Alumni Chronicle we will be pleased to place you on the mailing list.

You may wish to have a list of faculties, departments, schools and institutes, information regarding a specific teaching or research program, faculty or department, or advice in seeking sources of information or answers to problems.

The results of research conducted at the University are freely available and we are eager that they should be of the widest benefit.

A variety of excellent facilities are open to the general public for conferences, social functions, workshops and seminars. They cater for ten or a thousand persons and are backed by food, accommodation and programming services.

The magnificent site, the beauty of the campus and the varied activities of its community make UBC an outstanding place to visit. We will be happy to help you guide a friend or conduct a tour.

WILLS & BEQUESTS COMMITTEE

As Chairman of the Wills & Bequests Committee I have come to know how greatly the stature of the University has been enhanced by gifts that have been made to UBC in the wills of its friends. The first bequest -- for $12,000 -- was received in 1928. The many subsequent bequests range from $50 to approximately $14,500,000 from the estates of Isaak and Dorothy Killam. This magnificent support has enabled the University to develop in fields that otherwise would remain fallow.

During the year 1976-1977, $242,391 was received from 23 bequests. Since 1928, the University has been advised of a beneficial interest in 233 wills, known amounts in 178 cases totalling over $25 million, most of which has been received. In addition, there have been a variety of bequests-in-kind in the past year including books, paintings, photographs, stamps, carvings and collections of artifacts.

The University would appreciate the opportunity to discuss with its friends, and their estate officers, intentions in regard to bequests. UBC is concerned that benefactors should be kept up-to-date in their particular fields of interest.

THE UBC MEMORIAL FUND

The University of British Columbia has established a Memorial Scholarship and Bursary Endowment Fund which it is hoped will provide a significant source of student support.

The purpose of the fund is to encourage memorial donations, and to cater for donations that in themselves would not provide sufficient investment income to provide a meaningful award.

The fund is designed to serve persons willing to leave small bequests to UBC, to serve lifetime donors and to serve corporations wishing to make gifts in memoriam.

In due course, a brochure will be produced listing the persons in whose name contributions have been received, and these brochures will be given to each student receiving an award from the fund.

In recent years there have been a number of organized in memoriam funds of sufficient amount to provide meaningful awards over a long period. For example, 408 friends of Professor Harry Logan established an annual scholarship in his name, as did 357 friends and corporations who paid tribute to Professor Leslie Wong.

However, the shrinking value of the dollar has meant that some earlier and smaller funds no longer perform the full function intended. With the permission of the donors concerned, some of these funds might become part of the new Memorial Fund and this will ensure that the names of the persons to whom tribute has been paid will remain known to future generations of students and faculty.

During the year ending March 31, 1977, several hundred donors made gifts (a number being repeat gifts) in memory of 135 persons. In many cases these gifts supported student aid.

A special feature of the Memorial Scholarship and Bursary Fund is the help it will give to individuals and small groups of donors who are not in a position to make major gifts at the time of death of a friend or relative but who may hope to make further lifetime gifts and/or to include an appropriate provision in their wills. By means of this new fund the name of a deceased person will be memorialized regularly from the time the original gift is made.

DONORS INTERESTED IN MAKING IN MEMORIAM GIFTS FOR SCHOLARSHIPS AND BURSARIES, OR CONSIDERING OTHER FORMS OF STUDENT SUPPORT ARE ENCOURAGED TO WRITE OR CALL BYRON HENDER, THE DIRECTOR OF STUDENT AWARDS, THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA, TELEPHONE: 228-5111. SHOULD MR. HENDER BE UNAVAILABLE, CALL ALFRED ADAMS, OF THE UBC RESOURCES OFFICE, TELEPHONE: 228-3917.

COMMERCE/ENGINEERING FUND

The fund was established to supplement monies from Provincial capital grants for additions and renovations for the Henry Angus Building (Commerce and Business Administration) and a new building to be shared by the Departments of Civil and Mechanical Engineering. Pledges and gifts in the amount of some $750,000 have been received and will be divided equally between the two buildings.

The work on the Henry Angus Building is complete and on February 12, 1976, there was a ceremony for the dedication of the Earle Douglas MacPhee Executive Conference Centre and the Cyrus H. McLean Audio-Visual Theatre, two special features in the building.

The Mechanical and Civil Engineering building was officially opened on May 12, 1977.

The volunteer campaign committee worked under the able leadership of Cec Hurd and Trevor W. Pilley.

OTHER SPECIAL CAPITAL FUNDS

Payments on pledges continue to be received for:

The Geological Sciences Centre Fund

The Agricultural Sciences Fund

The Law Building Fund

THE ASIAN CENTRE FUND

On March 22, 1971, steel girders from the Sanyo Corporation's Expo '70 Pavilion in Japan were accepted by the Government of British Columbia as a first gift for a fund to build an Asian Centre in Vancouver.

The leaders of the fund recommended that the building should be sited on the UBC campus so that it could house UBC's Asian-language library, the largest collection in Canada, and also serve as a research and community centre backed by the Asianists working at the University.

The University is grateful to friends in Japan and to Mr. Joseph L. Whitehead, the Fund Chairman and the committee for their sustained efforts.

It is estimated that a further $3.5 million will be required to complete the project.

THE UBC AQUATIC CENTRE FUND

Construction of UBC's new indoor pool began on December 1, 1975. Stage I construction, which provides the basic structure, was funded with a cash contribution of $925,000 from the students, a matching grant from UBC's capital funds, and a $333,333 grant from the Government of B.C.'s Community Recreational Facilities Fund. A campaign to fund Stage II construction has raised $2.6 million in pledges and direct contributions, netting a total $4.78 million to date of a project cost of $5.47 million.

Most significant to the project during Stage II fund-raising were the monies granted by government earlier this year. The Federal Government, under the auspices of the Physical Resources Development Program, granted $435,000, and the B.C. Provincial Government, through the Ministry of Education, approved a $1 million loan towards completion of the Centre. Additionally, the UBC Alumni Association contributed $100,000. Individual contributions came from separate appeals to the community, to alumni, and to University faculty. Two further appeals are currently underway; one to the University staff, and one to selected UBC alumni.

The pool will provide the most important public aquatic facility in British Columbia and a significant portion of the operating hours will be set aside for use by the general community. It will be used by the University for academic classes by the Schools of Physical Education and Recreation and Rehabilitation Medicine, and the Faculties of Education and Science. Times and admission charges will be set by a six-member management committee, with two members representing each of the following: the off-campus community, the students, and the University.

OUTSTANDING STUDENT SUPPORT

This past fiscal year students at UBC contributed $957,854 to the capital development of the University: $568,963 to the Aquatic Centre, $309.660 to the Student Union Building and $79,231 to the Leon and Thea Koerner Graduate Centre.

Since 1928, students have funded or helped fund 11 major campus buildings for more than $6 million. This outstanding support is believed to be unequalled by the students of any other North American university.

In addition, students have worked for and donated to six special building campaigns in the past decade. Each year the graduating class supports various campus activities. The class of 1976 donated $6,000 for day care, $5,000 for mental retardation and $1,000 each to student aid and legal aid.

Student Contributions to Buildings

1928:	$ 24,543	Women's Gymnasium

THE UBC ALUMNI FUND

The goal of a great university is to achieve excellence in all the areas of its activities -- teaching, research and service. For 60 years the UBC Alumni Association has been helping the University of British Columbia achieve that goal.

One of the many ways the UBC Alumni Association has helped the university is by fund-raising. Today alumni donations to the UBC Alumni Fund have developed one of the largest alumni student aid programs in Canada as well as extensive funding for other campus projects.

University of British Columbia August 1977

TO DONORS WHO MADE GIFTS IN THE YEAR ENDING 31 MARCH 1977.

We hope you will give this questionnaire your kind attention. Your reply will help us in our capacity as members of the UBC President's Advisory Committee on Fund Raising.

D.M. Brousson (Chairman), J.L. Denholme, W.C. Gibson, S. Hebenton, E.C. Hurd, A.M. McGavin, A.T. Adams

THANK YOU FOR HELPING US AND UBC TO DO THE BEST POSSIBLE JOB.

On pages 4 and 5 of Creative Giving enclosed, you will see a breakdown of gifts to UBC for the last fiscal year from individuals, corporations, associations, and foundations. In total, 3,292 donors gave $8,384,385.

This widespread and generous support suggests we are doing some things well. We want to build on these strengths.

More important, we want to know where we are not doing a good job, or could do a better job, so that we may increase our donor base as well as retain the interest of current donors.

We believe UBC is a very good university. We want it to be an even better university. In particular, we want your thoughts and advice about your financial support and how it may be put to the best possible use.

1. (a) Did you receive proper thanks for your gift?

(b) Did you receive progress reports, if requested or clearly required? (Note that special building fund reports appear in Creative Giving.)

2. Was the gift solicited ____ or was it unsolicited ____?

3. (a) If solicited, was the gift for something of prime interest to you?

(b) Would you have preferred giving to some other UBC project? (e.g. buildings for teaching, research or cultural needs; student aid; research)

4. When seeking support, UBC usually sends a letter and material and follows with a personal call. Would you prefer the personal caller to be:

(a) a volunteer? ____ (b) a university representative? ____

5. Why do you support a university? (e.g. to maintain a measure of university independence; to improve education; to develop expertise related to your interests, etc.).

6. Your donation suggests you believe private support is important to a government funded university. What are your reasons for your belief? (They may help us interest those who do not give.)

7. Has there been some service, some information you have sought from UBC? (See page 1 Creative Giving for services you may desire.)

Have you been frustrated when trying to get information or service?

8. Is there other comment and advice you care to give? (It will be most warmly welcomed.)
