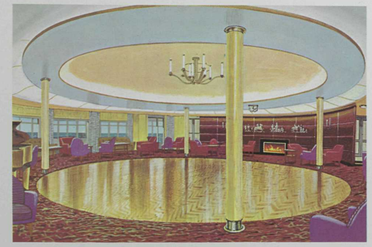
← EXPLANATION OF SYMBOLS

Empress of Canada

Domed, two decks high, the galleried Canada Room

Specially designed for cruising, "Empress of Canada" is air-conditioned throughout—even to the glass-enclosed Promenade Deck. In your bedroom you control the temperature yourself. For your comfort in travelling there are stabilizers. For your enjoyment of the unforgettable voyages between tropic ports an experienced cruise staff plans varied entertainment.



"Mayfair", intimate drawing room on the Promenade Deck

There's Broadway-type entertainment after dinner, followed by dancing in The "Canada Room" . . . afternoon tea, bridge or quiet music in "Mayfair".

St. Lawrence Club

For the pleasant cocktail hour before luncheon or dinner . . . or quiet evenings of genial conversation, two clubrooms invite you. High on the Promenade Deck the "St. Lawrence Club" is marine in atmosphere.

"Banff Club", verandah café open to the Lido Deck

Aft, overlooking the Lido Deck, the "Banff Club" is western in its decor. There is bar service in the "Canada Room" too. Public room and Deck Stewards are at your service in their areas.

Forget something when you packed? The Empress Deck shopping centre is the answer. Even to Beauty Salon and Barber Shop. Enjoy the outdoor Lido or the attractive "Coral Pool".

Barbados

Scattered about this page in lettering as carefree as you'll be on your White Empress cruise are names of the ports you can choose — 16 of them — divided enticingly from December to March in 14-day, 15-day, 12-day — even 10-day packages.

"You pays your money and you takes your choice" — and you can't choose wrongly! Every cruise catches the not too subtle charm of the Caribbean for your days ashore. Each ship offers the pleasant delights of typical cruise life at sea. You just can't go wrong when you go Canadian Pacific!

To complete the picture . . .
your magnificent White Empress!

Spacious glass-enclosed promenades and sunny open decks in graceful echelon are other enjoyable features of West Indies-South America cruises by "Empress of England".

Cruise the Caribbean— The Empress Way

The pattern of living the Empress way is the pattern of your own choice. If you like to be entertained, just sit back and let the cruise staff — headed by the Cruise Director and Directress of Entertainment — plan your activities. They'll provide a daily round that will keep you busy and interested from "elevenses" to bedtime . . . or . . . if you choose, just look at the daily programme that comes with breakfast and pick out what you want to do from the activities offered . . . shuffleboard, quoits, deck tennis, ping-pong tournaments; swimming in the Lido or indoor pool; bingo, movies, bridge tournaments, library books, comfortable deck chairs.

Look left and right for the Terrace and Cocktail Bar of "Empress of England". Both are deservedly popular with carefree cruisers.

Reminiscent of Broadway's better night clubs, The Empress Room after dinner on week nights is the scene of entertainment by professional artists, followed by dancing to one of the orchestras.
And when healthful sleep induced by sea breezes becomes irresistible, there are suites, double or single rooms . . . all air-conditioned and individually temperature-controlled that would grace a palace.
Every refinement marine architects could think of is yours to command when you cruise the Caribbean the Empress way.

What To Pack...

Your good sense tells you, of course, that summery clothes make the wisest wardrobe for your White Empress adventure to the tropics (but don't forget the New York weather before and after your trip).
Here's a brief run-through of the most popular wear on such cruises:—

On Deck: For sports or sunning, gentlemen favour country club casuals or beachwear, ladies look well in sunsuits, slacks, shorts and halters.

Dinner and Dancing: For those gentlemen who dress for dinner, black or white dinner jackets, both with soft shirts, are popular. Milady's choice can range from Paris originals to such basics as cottons or a cocktail dress. Jackets should always be worn in the restaurant—shorts never.

Ashore: Compromise between formal and informal—most of the citizens in the ports you visit dress for business—but with the tropic touch. Don't forget comfortable shoes for excursions. And pack extra film for your camera if it's unusual. Films for standard cameras are stocked aboard your Empress.

Last Word: Don't overpack with washables—your White Empress has laundry and launderette facilities, also valet and pressing services.

Your Empress and You

Any ship can cruise the Caribbean to fabulous ports of the West Indies and South America . . . they are the same islands . . . the same scenery . . . the same people . . .

But . . .

When you cruise the Canadian Pacific way . . . aboard Empress of Canada or Empress of England . . . you'll enjoy an experience shared only by the most discriminating travellers . . .

Canadian Pacific experience — half a century of giving pleasure . . . Canadian Pacific service — personal to the Nth degree . . . Canadian Pacific comfort . . . Canadian Pacific cuisine . . . These make the difference between an Empress cruise and . . . just a cruise.

Venezuela

Haiti

There's so much to do in every port . . . so much to buy . . . perfumes, hats, bags, bracelets, cameras, exotic liquors, jewellery . . . so much to see, and to hear.

Nassau

Old civilizations, more than a touch of the primitive here and there, modern architecture holding its own with beautiful construction of by-gone eras, strange rhythms, bright costumes, tropic plants, gaudy flowers, lush vegetation — all these call you from the wintry skies, the snow-filled landscapes of the North.

Six Leisurely Caribbean Cruises—Canadian Pacific Style

by

EMPRESS OF CANADA

When do you want to get away from ice and snow? December? January? February? March? Canadian Pacific offers six leisurely itineraries.

How long do you want to enjoy yourself on your Caribbean cruise? Nine? Fourteen? Fifteen? Sixteen days? Empress of Canada has the answer.

You can choose an itinerary to give you three, four, five or six ports between December 20th, 1963 and March 27th, 1964. See...San Juan, Puerto Rico; St. Thomas, Virgin Islands; Willemstad, Curacao; Cristobal, Panama Canal Zone; Montego Bay and Kingston, Jamaica; Fort-de-France, Martinique; Port of Spain, Trinidad; Bridgetown, Barbados.

Emphasis is on leisure...Empress of Canada is a speedy ship, but she'll just dawdle through the tropic seas . . . there's organized entertainment for those who want it...capably handled by the Cruise Director and Directress of Entertainment...but you won't be organized...except at the "welcome aboard" and "au revoir" cocktail parties.

You can choose from: Dancing, bingo, bridge, deck tournaments, swimming events in Empress of Canada's two pools—or, for the really indolent, inviting deck chairs in sheltered spots . . . shaded or sunny, to your taste, deeply upholstered furniture in the two clubrooms, three lounges, library and modern cinema. Even bar stools are softly padded!

Like breakfast in bed? There's the keynote for a leisured day! Lunch in shorts and halter?...or swimming trunks?...you can enjoy it on deck. Like to fuss once in a while? Try a before-dinner swim, a cocktail at your elbow as you dress and a leisurely dinner in The Carleton restaurant. Then show off your lady's gown (and your own quiet elegance) on the dance floor or at a night-club performance in The Canada Room.

WHAT TO PACK

For Canadian Pacific Caribbean Cruises by Empress of Canada—leisure is the answer to the problem of "What to pack?" What do you normally wear at your leisure? That's it! That's what to pack! You'll be at leisure from start to finish! At leisure aboard a magnificent, completely air-conditioned cruise-liner, elegant as a royal yacht and waited upon by stewards and stewardesses whose first thoughts are for your comfort.

So...leave your working clothes at home. Your best times will be enjoyed on board—so you'll want clothes for deck games, swimming, leisured hours in the sun, dancing, night-clubbing in the swank "Canada Room", dining in "The Carleton Restaurant"—just what you'd wear in summer at home or the country club.

No-One's going to tell you what to do—this cruise is your party. If you want to "dress" for dinner, do by all means. Light-weight dinner jackets, soft shirts—basic warm-weather gowns, or cocktail dresses enhance the beautiful public rooms.

The gay informality of country club casuals makes life on deck attractive ...and to soften the convention that men wear jackets and ladies wear skirts in the Restaurant, there are al fresco luncheons "topside" near the Sports and Lido Decks where clothes are very casual.

Empress of Canada has an ultra-modern laundry so don't overload with washables. "Drip-drys" are good space savers for any kind of travelling.

Pack comfortable shoes for shore excursions. Colour and black and white films are available on board for most cameras.

Six Leisurely Caribbean Cruises—Canadian Pacific Style

by

EMPRESS OF CANADA

When do you want to get away from ice and snow? December? January? February? March? Canadian Pacific offers six leisurely itineraries.

How long do you want to enjoy yourself on your Caribbean cruise? Nine? Fourteen? Fifteen? Sixteen days? Empress of Canada has the answer.

You can choose an itinerary to give you three, four, five or six ports between December 20th, 1963 and March 27th, 1964. See...San Juan, Puerto Rico; St. Thomas, Virgin Islands; Willemstad, Curacao; Cristobal, Panama Canal Zone; Montego Bay and Kingston, Jamaica; Fort-de-France, Martinique; Port of Spain, Trinidad; Bridgetown, Barbados.

Emphasis is on leisure...Empress of Canada is a speedy ship, but she'll just dawdle through the tropic seas . . . there's organized entertainment for those who want it...capably handled by the Cruise Director and Directress of Entertainment...but you won't be organized...except at the "welcome aboard" and "au revoir" cocktail parties.

You can choose from: Dancing, bingo, bridge, deck tournaments, swimming events in Empress of Canada's two pools—or, for the really indolent, inviting deck chairs in sheltered spots . . . shaded or sunny, to your taste, deeply upholstered furniture in the two clubrooms, three lounges, library and modern cinema. Even bar stools are softly padded!

Like breakfast in bed? There's the keynote for a leisured day! Lunch in shorts and halter?...or swimming trunks?...you can enjoy it on deck. Like to fuss once in a while? Try a before-dinner swim, a cocktail at your elbow as you dress and a leisurely dinner in The Carleton restaurant. Then show off your lady's gown (and your own quiet elegance) on the dance floor or at a night-club performance in The Canada Room.

WHAT TO PACK

For Canadian Pacific Caribbean Cruises by Empress of Canada—leisure is the answer to the problem of "What to pack?" What do you normally wear at your leisure? That's it! That's what to pack! You'll be at leisure from start to finish! At leisure aboard a magnificent, completely air-conditioned cruise-liner, elegant as a royal yacht and waited upon by stewards and stewardesses whose first thoughts are for your comfort.

So...leave your working clothes at home. Your best times will be enjoyed on board—so you'll want clothes for deck games, swimming, leisured hours in the sun, dancing, night-clubbing in the swank "Canada Room", dining in "The Carleton Restaurant"—just what you'd wear in summer at home or the country club.

No-One's going to tell you what to do—this cruise is your party. If you want to "dress" for dinner, do by all means. Light-weight dinner jackets, soft shirts—basic warm-weather gowns, or cocktail dresses enhance the beautiful public rooms.

The gay informality of country club casuals makes life on deck attractive ...and to soften the convention that men wear jackets and ladies wear skirts in the Restaurant, there are al fresco luncheons "topside" near the Sports and Lido Decks where clothes are very casual.

Empress of Canada has an ultra-modern laundry so don't overload with washables. "Drip-drys" are good space savers for any kind of travelling.

Pack comfortable shoes for shore excursions. Colour and black and white films are available on board for most cameras.

Welcome aboard

The officers and crew of the Empress of Canada welcome you aboard one of the friendliest ships to ever sail the Caribbean. From this point on we invite you to let your cares slip away and give yourself over to the sun and fun filled days that lie ahead . . . days you'll remember for the rest of your life. Aboard your sleek White Empress you'll find all the amenities of a first class resort hotel: elevators to take you from deck to deck; air conditioning with individual temperature controls in all cabins; broad open spaces for deck sports, promenading or just plain deck chair lounging. There are hairdressers, a barber shop, duty-free boutiques, and numerous public rooms where your favourite beverage will be served exactly as you like it — at one-third the price you'd pay on the mainland!

All meals are included in the fare, of course, and what meals! — tastefully prepared and served with White Empress flair, and in between there are mid-morning snacks, afternoon snacks and midnight buffets, with friendly stewards to make sure you get your fill.

And day and night the Empress of Canada is alive with fun and games. Dances, parties, masquerades, games in the Casino, first run movies in the Cinema, professional entertainment — it's all there for you to take as much (or as little) as you like. In short, while you're with us we want to give you the time of your life. We'd like to see you sail with us many times again.

Ports of call

Haiti, Port-au-Prince. Steeped in history and known as The Magic Island, Haiti has a distinct Creole personality. Port-au-Prince, the city of 10 million roosters is absolutely unique. Art lovers will want to see the works of Louverture Poisson and other Haitian painters at Centre d'Art.

Puerto Rico, San Juan. A popular playground, this island named by Columbus literally means 'Port of Riches'. Explore the quaint Spanish section; the famous El Morro Fortress which has guarded the entrance to San Juan Harbour since 1539. Excellent fishing; beautiful beaches; mountain scenery to rival both the French and Swiss Alps. Shop for mahogany and exquisite needlework.

Virgin Islands, St. Thomas. This Free Port is a shopper's paradise, and its capital city, Charlotte Amalie, among the most enchanting in the Caribbean. Visit legendary Bluebeard's Castle; enjoy the grand view atop the mountain. A sophisticated island with elegant hotels and spectacular beaches.

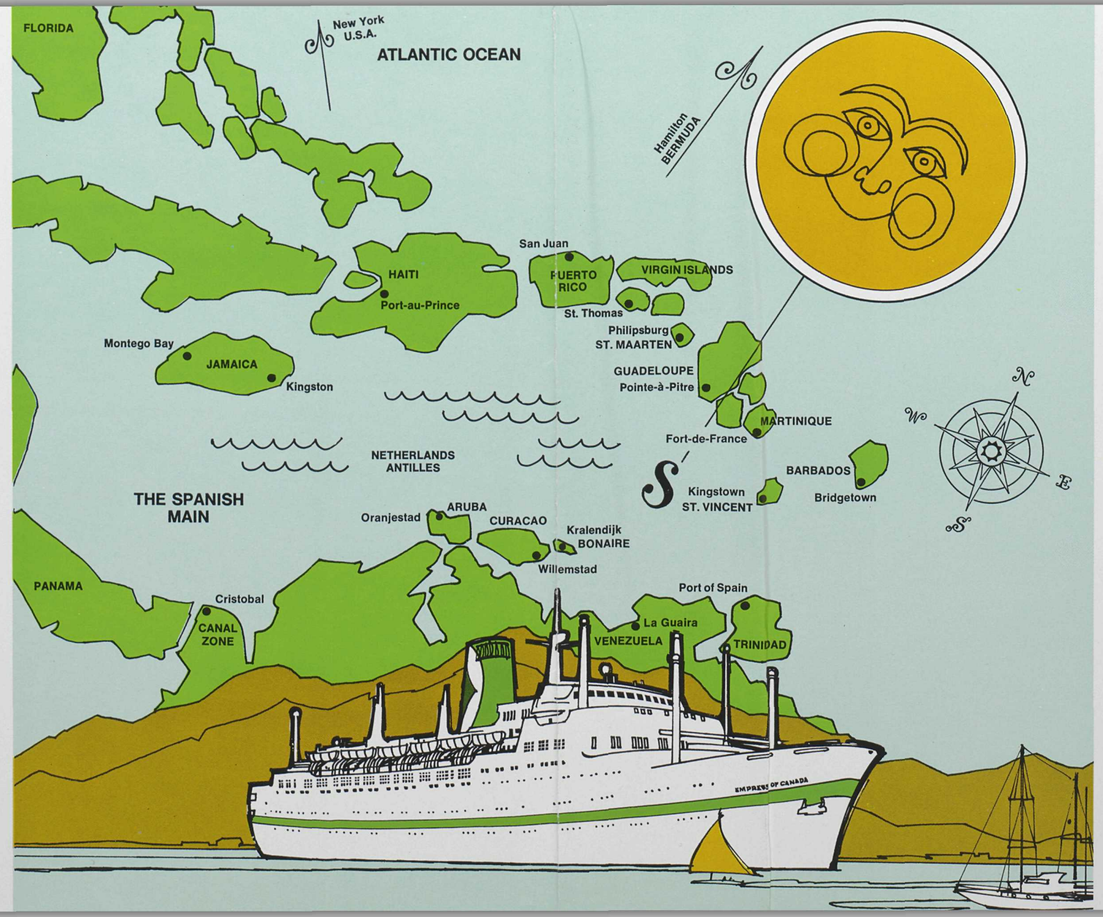
Bermuda, Hamilton. A paradise for cyclists who have the right-of-way over autos on all roads. Bermuda possesses lovely narrow beaches of pinkish-white powdery sand in an almost unbroken line along the entire south coast. Shopping is a delightful pastime in either its capital, Hamilton or historic St. George, where shops offer enticing articles of quality.

St. Maarten, Philipsburg. A land of beautiful beaches, mountainous countryside, quaint Dutch and French villages, the entire island covers an area of 37 square miles. Shopping is particularly good.

Jamaica, Montego Bay/Kingston. Forever summer, the spectacular scenery is a constant delight to the cycling tourist. Fine white sandy beaches curve to meet the gently rolling surf. Beneath the crystal clear water, vivid tropical fish provide a truly extravagant 'floor-show' as they dart in and out among the magnificent coral formations. Superb for both land and water sports.

Guadeloupe, Pointe-à-Pitre. Largest of the Leeward Islands consists of two islands separated by a narrow strait and joined by a drawbridge. Cliffs and volcanic peaks rise to heights of nearly 5,000 feet.

Martinique, Fort-de-France. A fascinating blend of French, Spanish, English and African make this one of the most delightful of the islands. Martinique is one gigantic bouquet of flowers — the Carib Indians called it Madinina, the island of flowers. The women of Martinique are famous for their traditional dress the chief feature being an elaborately ornate head-dress, a skillfully fashioned turban from a huge Madras cotton handkerchief, with specially contrived points, which have a significance they will gladly explain.



St. Vincent, Kingstown. Bathed by soft trade winds, and still unspoiled, this peaceful island is a rare gem of tropical beauty. Its breathtaking scenery includes high mountain peaks, lush valleys, beautiful beaches. Even an extinct volcano to tempt the adventurous.

Barbados, Bridgetown. England in miniature with a casual accent. Here, a tidy but picturesque landscape forms a backdrop for some of the world's finest sand and coral beaches. Listen to calypso singers, watch flying fish; see romantic ruins of a bygone era; and everywhere brilliant profusion of hibiscus and banana palms with the fruit growing upside down! Ride through the quaint streets of Bridgetown and shop for tortoise shell jewellery, island cottons, pottery, straw goods, perfume, rum.

Trinidad, Port-of-Spain. The real home of the steel band, pulsing rhythms and gentle Calypso. Perhaps the most cosmopolitan population in all the Caribbean. Wandering through Port-of-Spain, the capital city, you'll see Moslem mosques, Hindu temples, bazaars and ultramodern buildings side-by-side. Driving to beautiful Maracas Bay the roads wind among bamboo groves, banyan trees and cocoa plantations. In Port-of-Spain go shopping for British, East Indian and Chinese merchandise.

Venezuela, La Guaira. The doorstep to Caracas, is ringed with beautiful beaches. Cable cars whisk you to a mountain-top for a panoramic view of the city. A short 20 minute drive along the Autopista superhighway brings you to Caracas, the capital. Buy pearl and 22 carat gold jewellery, hammocks, straw articles, rum and 'Alpergata'. These are superbly comfortable flat-to-the-ground shoes with crocheted uppers in brilliant colours. They're worn with flowered skirt and peasant blouse for local folk-dancing festivals.

Bonaire, Kralendijk. One of the truly 'unspoiled' islands of the Caribbean, Bonaire is a great breeding place of flamingos. Literally thousands of these beautiful, elegant birds walk on their long stilts in and around the salt lake where they build their nests and find their food. The waters of Bonaire are crystal clear, with shoals of brilliantly coloured tropical fish, and exquisite coral.

Curacao, Willemstad and Aruba, Oranjestad. Two small slices of Holland reflecting the casual influence of the West Indies. Tourist attractions include a pontoon bridge, fine beaches and hotel casinos. Both colourful islands offer outstanding shopping.

Panama Canal Zone, Cristobal. On Limon Bay, this bustling seaport for the city of Colon is perched on the Atlantic edge of the Panama Canal. You'll enjoy an excursion trip across the Isthmus to view the ruins of Old Panama and the Pacific Ocean.

Selecting your cruise wardrobe

Your cruise is a time of leisure and lazing, so make sure you bring plenty of easy to wear casual clothes, light and summery, pretty and practical. Mix and match shorts, slacks, skirts in drip-dry fabrics for easy care. And, for special evenings formal dinner dress is suggested. Bring along something gay for cocktail parties and dances. Plus a light wrap or stole to slip round the shoulders for a moonlight stroll round the deck before retiring.

Make sure you have easy-fitting sandals and comfortable shoes for island sightseeing — they're a must. And a light, casual all-weather coat, just in case! But, above all, concentrate on being relaxed and comfortable. You'll be able to enjoy every minute of your cruise to the full, and if there's anything extra you need en route, the EMPRESS has a well-equipped shopping centre on board. And a Beauty Salon and Barber Shop to keep you immaculately groomed.
