At the Gateway Ports of the World

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC spans the world. Not only does it operate over 20,000 miles of railway in Canada and the United States, and large fleets of steamships on both Atlantic and Pacific Oceans: its ships also cruise the oceans of the world each winter and completely circumnavigate the globe. This they do, carrying notable companies of men and women aboard and demonstrating and advertising Canada to the world.

During the winter of 1927-28, five great cruises will take place:

Round the World—approximately four months, visiting 26 world ports and 20 countries.

To South America-Africa—a new "Cruise of Contrasts" 104-days. 16 countries. Stop-over in Europe if desired.

To the Mediterranean—a delightful 64-day cruise to the blue waters and tropical countries of the "cradle of civilization."

To the West Indies (two cruises)—each of a month's duration to these beautiful islands and the tropical mainland of South America.

The sailing dates are from December 2nd to March 1st. The management—Canadian Pacific throughout.

All Canadian Pacific agents can give you beautiful interesting booklets and all particulars: or write to the Steamship Passenger Department, Canadian Pacific Railway, Montreal.
