MEXICO

You'll feel the magic of Mexico the moment you breathe its perfumed air. It will weave its spell about you the very first night you dine in the moonlight, serenaded by romantic Mariachis. And wherever you go, the friendly people of Mexico will share your delight, echo your laughter. What will you do? Anything under the sun! Swim in orchid strewn pools. "Do the town" on a gay whirl through Mexico City's glittering cabarets, spectacular theatres, off-beat cafes. Visit magnificent cathedrals and palaces of the Spanish Conquest . . . ancient Aztec temples and pyramids. How about a bullfight Sunday afternoon? Or perhaps a brilliant display of horsemanship called a "charreada" will appeal to you. With a gay party, cruise Lake Patzcuaro and watch Indians fish with graceful butterfly nets. Explore the winding streets of hideaway villages and shop for jewellery, serapes, pottery in their exciting native markets. Relax and play with the fashionable "International set" at fabulous Acapulco's satin-smooth beaches, sophisticated casinos and nightclubs.

If you're in Mexico City during November, you'll thrill to opening ceremonies of the bullfighting season with parades of proud matadors in their embroidered, jewel encrusted coats, prancing steeds, impassioned music!

In December, there's the great silver fair in Taxco, with fireworks, parades, sports events and a gay Silver Ball! Every week there are colourful fiestas, made merry with guitar and marimba. Check with Canadian Pacific or your Travel Agent for the outstanding events taking place during your stay in Mexico.

HAWAII

Even the thought of Hawaii is relaxing! First, you'll want to lie in the sun and get a glorious tan. Then enjoy the thrills of surfboard riding. Explore fantastic coral gardens in sapphire seas. Learn to dance the hula, strum a guitar, climb a coconut palm! Shop for aloha shirts or gay muumuus (and don't be startled to see famous movie stars as you stroll down Waikiki's Kalakaua Avenue – you'll see them everywhere!) For unspoiled beauty, be sure to visit the Outer Isles. Don't miss Lahaina, the ancient capital of Maui or the sky-high Akaka Falls on Hawaii. See the giant fern grottoes on Kauai and travel by horseback over scenic trails that rim drama-packed Kalalau Valley. When swimming, sunning and sightseeing are done for the day, spend some enchanted evening at a luau! While you feast upon barbecued whole pig, chicken, baked bananas, fish and Kona coffee, you'll be entertained by soft Hawaiian music and Tahitian dancers in swirling grass skirts. Dance under the stars at the Royal Hawaiian. Laugh with big name entertainers at the Barefoot Bar. And when moonlight paints a silver frost on swaying palm trees, go aboard a sleek catamaran to sail the seas of Waikiki!
