A gong will be sounded throughout the ship calling for assembly of each party at the ship's gangway fifteen minutes before scheduled hour of departure.

EGYPTIAN ADVANCE PARTY

Members wishing to omit Jerusalem, and proceed direct to Cairo, will remain on board the Empress of Scotland, which will leave Haifa at 1 p.m., Friday, for Port Said, arriving there about 6 a.m., Saturday, December 25.

Upon landing at Port Said, members will be required to pass their heavy baggage through Customs, after which they will leave by train for Cairo. Luncheon on train.

Motor cars will be ready on arrival at Cairo to convey members to their respective hotels.

Hotel cards and baggage tags will be delivered to staterooms.

BAGGAGE FOR PALESTINE

Hand baggage only may be taken to Jerusalem.

Each piece of baggage should have attached a colored tag, showing the hotel in Jerusalem to which the owner has been assigned. This enables the baggage to be transferred from ship to hotel without any inconvenience to members.

Hand baggage for the Galilee-Nazareth Optional Excursion will be transferred by the Baggage Staff from the ship to the motor cars at Haifa. Only one suitcase or one bag for each member.

TRUNKS FOR CAIRO

Trunks cannot be shipped from Haifa to Cairo via Jerusalem, therefore they are to be left on the ship and will be forwarded by the Baggage Staff from Port Said to Cairo. They should be outside staterooms by Thursday noon, December 23.

Members are advised to avoid the use of trunks if possible.

EGYPTIAN BAGGAGE DECLARATION

Declaration form is required for the heavy baggage to be despatched from Port Said to Cairo. It is to be filled in by each member having a trunk or other heavy baggage for Cairo and handed to the ship's Baggage Master, together with the keys tied to a tag bearing member's name.

It is expected this will obviate customs examination, but the keys must be available in event of Customs Officers desiring to examine any particular trunks.

Declaration form is also required for the hand baggage to be despatched from Jerusalem to Cairo. It should be filled in and handed to the Assistant Cruise Director in charge of the party on the special train and he will surrender the forms to the Customs Officer at Kantara.

The declaration forms and key tag may be obtained from the ship's Baggage Master at Cruise Office at hour to be notified.

CAIRO HOTELS

Cairo hotel cards and baggage tags for the Main Cruise Party and for the Galilee-Nazareth Optional Party will be delivered to staterooms.

Evening wear is not necessary for Palestine. Warm clothing, raincoats, rubbers or rubber-soled shoes are recommended. A hot water bag is also recommended for the Jerusalem hotels.

Egyptian money is the currency for Palestine and may be obtained at the Canadian Pacific Express Office prior to landing, also at the hotels in Jerusalem.
