Information for Members

CANADIAN PACIFIC
ROUND THE WORLD CRUISE

S S. Empress of Australia

FROM NEW YORK, DECEMBER 2, 1927

Sailing Permit must be obtained at Room 135, Custom House, Bowling Green, New York, by all members who are not United States citizens.

Sailing Hour—12 noon, Friday, December 2.

Embarkation commences 9 a.m. All members to be aboard by 11.30 a.m.

Pier 62, North River, foot of West 23rd Street, New York.

Passage Ticket is to be surrendered at the pier before going aboard.

Inspection of the ship may be made on Thursday, December 1, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Baggage should be checked from your starting point through to the ship in time to reach New York on or before December 1. Be sure to have each piece distinctly labelled and tagged for the Empress of Australia. Baggage checks should be presented to the Baggage Master on the pier before you go aboard.

Trunks for Staterooms should not exceed fourteen inches in height. Large trunks may be placed in the baggage room, which is accessible daily.

Baggage Insurance is strongly recommended and may be purchased at all Canadian Pacific offices.

Clothing—Warm and medium weight clothing will be found most comfortable for about eleven weeks of the Cruise. Light weight clothing is desirable for the remainder of the time. Ladies should take plenty of wash dresses and gentlemen white wash or Palm Beach suits. Sport clothes, fancy dress costumes and a bathing suit will be useful. Ladies will find a long-sleeved sport dress of dark material useful for sight-seeing in Egypt and India. Shoes, rubbers, sweaters and raincoats should be taken from home, also an adequate supply of clothing, but the latter may be replenished at most of the ports. A sun helmet is a convenience, but this can be purchased en route. An automobile duster will be found useful occasionally. Gentlemen will find a dinner jacket will meet all ordinary requirements, as full dress is essential only for official functions. Those taking the Across India trip should have a heavy sleeping garment, as the nights are very cool in Northern India. A cloth label showing your name attached to coats, caps, hats, etc., will facilitate their prompt return when left lying on deck.

Travellers Cheques will be found most convenient. Canadian Pacific Express Travellers Cheques are issued at all Canadian Pacific offices at a nominal charge.

Foreign Currency will be sold at the Purser's Office prior to arrival at each port. If extensive shopping is contemplated, members are recommended to carry plenty of British or American currency of a small denomination (ten shilling notes or one dollar bills) for use on shore, as only a limited amount of foreign currency will be available on the ship.

Passport should be kept handy at all times.

Passenger List will be distributed in the Dining Saloon at dinner on sailing day.

Photographic Films, specially put up in hermetically sealed tins for use in the tropics, may be purchased at The Shop aboard ship.

Mail and Cables—Printed directions are being sent to all members. Extra copies may be obtained at any Canadian Pacific office.

Canadian Pacific Office in New York is in the Canadian Pacific Building at 44th Street and Madison Avenue. Telephone Murray Hill 4000.

Facilities—The Empress of Australia has every facility of the modern hotel, stenographer, barber, ladies' hairdresser, manicurist, masseur, masseuse, two surgeons, professional nurses, laundry, valet service, photographer, novelty shop, daily newspaper, etc., and is equipped with long range radio capable of maintaining communication with land at all times.

The Organizer of Entertainment will arrange a "get together meeting" shortly after departure from New York for the purpose of getting members acquainted. Bring your music, musical instruments and sleight-of-hand tricks and be prepared to take an active part in the entertainment programme.

Eyeglasses—It is advisable to take an extra pair.

Vaccination is strongly recommended. Those who have been successfully vaccinated in the past few months should carry a doctor's certificate.

Transfer to Superior Accommodation may be arranged only upon payment of the difference in fare.

Deck Chairs and Rugs may be rented at the Bureau on Deck B.

Dining Saloon Seats are assigned by the Second Steward.

Code Books—Bentley's and A. B. C. will be available for members' use.

Reports of Ship's Arrival at the various ports will be received by all Canadian Pacific offices, and we will gladly notify friends and relatives of members by mail if list of names and addresses is left at our office.

Members of Cruise Staff will wear a shield on their lapel showing their name. Consult them for information.
