CONSULT CURRENT SAILING SCHEDULE FOR TOURIST THIRD CABIN SAILINGS

CHILDREN'S FARES, See Column 1, Page 9.

For sailings from Quebec, Tourist Third Cabin passengers are provided with first class rail ticket Montreal to Quebec.

Fares to Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Faroe Islands and Continental Fares via England include transportation of baggage across England, also board and lodging while waiting for first available connection.

To compute amount for a round trip ticket, when passenger is returning on a ship taking a different rate to the outward one, charge one half of each round trip rate.

Eastbound—Forwarding from landing port to destination shown on ticket.

Westbound—(a) European forwarding from point shown on ticket to port of embarkation; (b) European Consular vises obtained in Europe; (c) Sanitary expenses; (d) Board and lodging at westbound embarkation port not exceeding 5 days.

N.B.—No refund will be made if expenses covered by the above, or any part of them, are not incurred.

Inward passengers returning to Quebec on ships which terminate at Quebec are provided with free first class rail ticket via Canadian Pacific Railway from Quebec to Montreal. When ships terminate at Montreal, passengers are carried on the ships to Montreal or are furnished free rail tickets via Canadian Pacific Railway Quebec to Montreal at the option of the Company.

Inward passengers arriving at Saint John must provide their own inland rail transportation.

Time Limit.—Tourist Third Cabin round trip tickets will be good for twelve months from date of outward sailing shown on outward portion of ticket. Westbound portion will be extended on payment of an additional 10% of the total amount of round trip passage.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Westbound Embarkation As embarkation may be the day prior to advertised sailing date, passengers should enquire of Local Agent time of embarkation. At Hamburg passengers usually embark at 4 p.m. on the day prior to scheduled sailing date, and tickets should be so endorsed.

Passports Passengers must hold valid passports or necessary documents of the country to which they belong. Passengers travelling through countries of which they are not citizens or subjects should obtain the vise of the Consuls of such countries wherever necessary. Passengers in transit to Continental Points via Great Britain do not require British vise.

Deposit of $20 is required to be paid when securing reservation; one-half this amount for children. Balance of fare to be paid on delivery of ticket, not less than three weeks before sailing date. No accommodation will be considered as engaged until such deposit has been made.

The Company will not be responsible for passage money or deposits paid to agents unless the Company's official receipt is given.

Cancellation Should passage be cancelled after deposit receipt, passage order, or ticket has been issued, and notice given at least three weeks before sailing, the accommodation will be placed on sale, and if resold, a refund will be made of the amount paid, less expenses incurred.

When cancellation is made too late to resell the accommodation, or when passenger omits to notify the Company of cancellation until after the ship has sailed, the Company reserves the right to demand a forfeiture of the amount paid.

Refunds will not be made until particulars have been obtained from agency issuing deposit receipt, ticket or order, and will be made to original purchaser only.

United States Head Tax Under the United States Immigration Laws, all passengers except U.S. citizens entering the United States are required to pay the sum of $8—provided that children under sixteen years of age who accompany their father or their mother shall not be subject to said tax.

Head Tax collected in connection with prepaid orders must be plainly entered thereon.

Refunds on Prepaid Orders Refunds on Continental prepaid orders are subject to cancellation fee of ten ($10.00) dollars per adult and five ($5.00) dollars per half fare, and cannot be made until the actual order is produced by purchaser.

Canadian Revenue Tax Agents in Canada must collect from each eastbound passenger, in addition to ocean passage rate, tax as follows:—

When ocean passage rate is.....$10 or under.....No Tax
When ocean passage rate is over $10 and up to $40 inclusive.....$1
When ocean passage rate is over $40 and up to $65 inclusive...$3
When ocean passage rate is over $65.....$5
Endorse amount on ticket.

United States Revenue Tax Agents in United States must collect from each eastbound passenger in addition to ocean passage rate, tax as follows:—

When ocean passage rate is.....$10 or under.....No Tax
When ocean passage rate is over $10 and up to $30 inclusive.....$1
When ocean passage rate is over $30 and up to $60 inclusive...$3
When ocean passage rate is over $60.....$5
Endorse amount on ticket.

Cherbourg Embarkation and Debarkation Port Charges will be collected at time of booking on all Tourist Third Cabin, Eastbound and Westbound cash and prepaid business as follows: Tourist Third Cabin $2.00

Charges will be collected only from passengers destined to, or originating at Cherbourg by direct steamship. They will not be collected from passengers en route to or from interior points in Continental Europe routed via Cherbourg, nor will they be collected from passengers to or from Cherbourg via British ports.

Both embarkation and debarkation charges must be collected at time of booking on round trip business.

Children between 1 and 10 years will pay half the above amounts—Infants nil.

All contract tickets and prepaid certificates must be endorsed, in the case of Westbound passage: "Embarkation charge $....collected": and in the case of Eastbound passage, "Debarkation charge $....collected."

Tourist Third Cabin passengers may rent deck chairs from deck steward at a charge of $1.00 each. Steamer rugs may be rented at a charge of $1.50 each.

Baggage can be checked from all points in Canada and many points in United States through via Canadian ports to port of landing, thereby saving inconvenience at port of embarkation of claiming and arranging transfer from railway station to ship. Baggage should be plainly and securely labelled with labels supplied by ticket agent issuing steamship ticket. "Not wanted" or "Hold" baggage will be placed on board and stored separately. "Wanted" baggage will be kept for delivery to cabins, or if too large for cabins, for delivery to the baggage room. Passengers from points where checks are not obtainable should see that baggage is transferred to steamship dock at port of embarkation. The strap check (that portion attached to baggage) should show name of ship and date of sailing, as well as name of port of embarkation.

As a means of identifying baggage from which labels may become detached, passengers should have their name and address prominently placed inside as well as outside baggage.

Umbrellas, walking sticks, canes, steamer rugs and small articles should not be attached to the outside of baggage, and no liability will be assumed by the Company for damage to or loss of such articles.

Baggage Insurance.—The Company takes every reasonable care of baggage, but their liability is limited and passengers are recommended to fully protect themselves against possible loss, damage or pilferage by insuring baggage for a sufficient period of time to cover journey. Policies covering baggage against risks of transportation and navigation, including theft and pilferage, can be obtained from any Canadian Pacific office at following reasonable rates:—

The STANDARD Collegiate Tour

YOU sail from Quebec or Montreal and disembark at Southampton; then motor through Winchester to Oxford, seat of the famed University. You visit the principal colleges, wander down picturesque "High Street," and probably go bicycle riding in the English manner, or punting on the Thames. Next day you go by motor through the Shakespeare Country—visiting Stratford-on-Avon, where the Bard is buried; Ann Hathaway's Cottage at Shottery, where he did his courting; and Kenilworth and Warwick Castles.

Another day finds you motoring to London from Oxford via Stoke Poges, where you see the churchyard of Gray's "Elegy." At Windsor you have luncheon on a riverside balcony overlooking the Thames; and spend the afternoon doing Windsor Castle and Eton College.

Then London! Immense, crowded, busy, picturesque! You see it all: Westminster Abbey, the Houses of Parliament, the National Gallery and National Portrait Gallery, Whitehall, Buckingham Palace, St. James' Park, St. James' Palace, the London Museum, Piccadilly, the Royal Academy, Hyde Park and Kensington Gardens, Oxford Street, the British Museum, the Law Courts, Fleet Street, Ludgate Hill, St. Paul's Cathedral, the Bank of England, the Tower of London, the Embankment, the Old Curiosity Shop, Limehouse, the river, the theatres, the shops, the great hotels—what a program you'll plan!

From London you go to Dover and take a channel boat to Ostend, in Belgium—famed and fashionable bathing resort. Then to Brussels, with her tree-lined avenues, her Grand Place—"the noblest public square in Europe"—her sidewalk cafés, her savoury bakeshops, her light-hearted gaiety. From Brussels to The Hague, "Peace Palace" city and centre for several interesting excursions in windmill dotted Holland. You go to Amsterdam through the bulb district of Haarlem and Leyden; visit the Ryks Museum with its famous paintings by Dutch masters; and take a boat on the Zuider Zee to the picturesque Isle of Marken, where you see the real Dutch costumes—wooden shoes and all! Another afternoon you visit Scheveningen, gay continental bathing resort, for a swim in the North Sea and a visit to the cabarets where the Charleston is still danced ferociously by the Hollanders.

Then to Cologne, where you see the most magnificent Gothic cathedral in all Germany: The Dom. Its majestic twin spires dominate the city. To walk down its dim-lit aisles as the organ plays is a thrill one can never forget!

At Cologne you board steamer for that glad holiday, a trip up the Rhine to Mayence. Ruins of Castles, beautiful green vineyards, the Lorelei Rock, teeming traffic—certainly the Rhine is "the most beautiful river in the world," and the busiest! You arrive at Mayence just at dusk, after an afternoon of silver glory in Legend Land.

Next day, to Paris—climax city of our tour! You see it from a char-a-banc with our lecturer; you see it from a sidewalk café table at tea time on the boulevards. You see it from the top of Eiffel Tower, and perhaps from an airplane you have boarded at Le Bourget. You devote at least a morning to the Louvre; you wander through the Tuileries Gardens and along the Champs-Elysees; you dine in style at a restaurant in the Bois de Boulonge. Probably you'll see a French revue or two, and visit the Opera, and have a look at the cabarets and cafés in Montmartre and the Latin Quarter. If you're a woman, you'll want to visit at least one great couturier and bring home Paris dresses that will be the envy of your social circle! You'll go to Malmaison, too, where Josephine lived; and to Versailles, with its great palaces and adorable chateaux. Perhaps you'll do the Battle Sector, if you feel you can spare the time. There's plenty to do and plenty to see in Paris. You can be sure of almost anything, except being bored!

"WORRY-LESS TRAVEL" is the outstanding feature of conducted tours. You can see Europe without spending a small fortune for travelling expenses, or wasting precious holiday hours in securing tickets and reservations before you start from one city to the next. Everything is arranged in advance for you by travel experts, and ALL your travelling expenses are included in the tour price: round trip ocean passage; all tips abroad; European transportation by railway, steamer and motor; hotel accommodations at good hotels; usual meals; motor-trips as specified in itinerary; admissions to galleries and museums; sight-seeing and guide service; transportation of baggage; the helpful assistance of our conductors and couriers.

Sight-seeing is done in small groups, with experienced guides and lecturers who personally conduct each group. There are no "gaps" in the service—no possibilities of confusion. Motors wait at our hotel doors, train schedules are easily met. Yet with all this organization, there are plenty of days free for independent action; so that you may have the opportunity to poke about as you please in quest of the things that happen to interest YOU most: sight-seeing, shopping or amusement.

TERMS AND RESERVATIONS

An application for membership and reservations can be made to the address below. We make no extra charge for outside rooms, but early reservations insure preferred space. Prices and sailing dates on tours shown in this folder are subject to change without notice.

A deposit of $25 should accompany application for membership, balance to be paid four weeks before sailing. The deposit will be returned if applied for 30 days before sailing date.
