FROM LOUISBURG STATION

Special to Canadian Pacific Steamers.

Montreal, Sunday.

New York.

To-day was the coolest Sept. 7th since 1888, while Saturday was the coldest on record for that date. Cold weather is also reported from Eastern Canada.

New York.

The Prince of Wales attended the races to-day unrecognised, and during the afternoon was ordered to "move on" by a policeman, who found him standing apart from the crowd near the track. This evening he was the guest of honour at a dinner given by Clarence Mackay, followed by a dance at which 1,200 were present.

Boston.

Twenty thousand people gathered to welcome the world fliers here yesterday afternoon. They were escorted in by a large convoy of aeroplanes.

Wayne, Alberta.

A small riot was started here when, at a gathering of foreigners, a German proposed a toast to Germany—a better country than Canada. A returned soldier knocked the toastmaster down, and a general fight followed.

Regina.

Regina is facing a serious coal shortage this winter, largely owing to the Alberta miners' strike.

Brandon.

The Ven. W. H. S. Thomas, of Winnipeg, has been consecrated as first Bishop of the new Anglican diocese of Brandon.

Toronto.

The Home Bank trial starts on Tuesday. More than 100 witnesses have been summoned and a heavy expense is anticipated.

Atlantic City.

"Miss Philadelphia," otherwise Miss Ruth Malcomson, won the bathing beauty contest. The judging took place yesterday, and over 80 entrants competed.

Montreal.

Sir Walter Peacock, of the Prince of Wales' Council, said here to-day that the Prince of Wales would visit Montreal on his return from the West sometime in October.

FROM OXFORD STATION.

London, Sunday.

The unanimous acceptance in the last hour of the Franco-British plan dealing with arbitration, security and disarmament, brought a dramatic crisis last night in the League debate at Geneva. Mr. MacDonald moved and M. Herriot seconded the resolution which refers to above questions, to separate Committees. After agreement reached the League is to summon World Conference on Armaments without delay. There was a stirring scene when the British Premier mounted the tribune and made a short impassioned speech.

A Dusseldorf message states in conformity with London Agreement, the General commanding the troops in occupation has published an authorization for the return to the Ruhr and Rhine bridgeheads of all expelled persons except those whose advent is considered dangerous to the public peace.

The British Air Ministry have issued an official statement saying since January, 1920, deaths of Air Force fliers, through mishaps, amount to 211. The Force is being equipped with machines of new design, and there is no ground for uneasiness.

New York reports a terrific rainstorm in the Metropolitan area. A waterspout swept the harbour, and Governor's Island was flooded for the first time in history. A prominent actor, Raymend Crane, was killed by lightning while golfing on Long Island.
