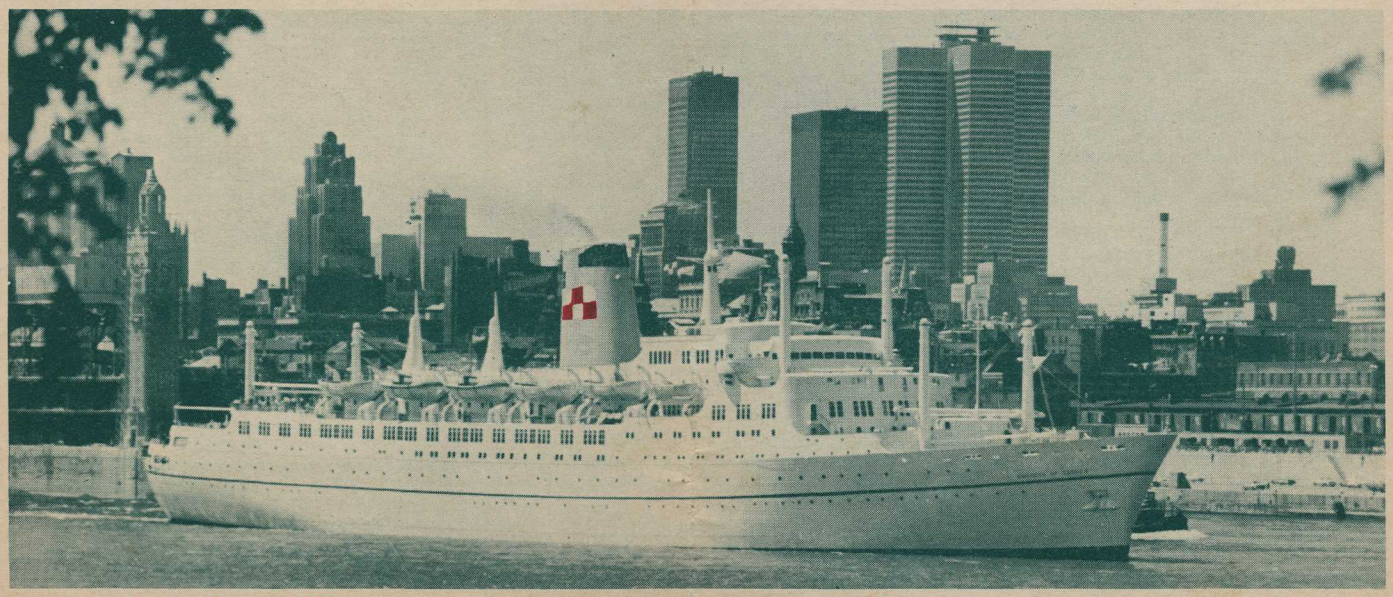
A MAGNIFICENT WHITE EMPRESS



This photograph shows the graceful Canadian Pacific 27,300-ton "Empress of Canada", with the skyline of Montreal in the background. The vessel was launched on May 10th, 1960, at Vickers-Armstrongs' shipyards, Newcastle-on-Tyne, England. Flagship of Canadian Pacific's fleet, the "Empress of Canada" was specially designed for service both on the North Atlantic and for cruising, and carries approximately 1060 passengers, 200 first class and 860 tourist. This ship is the largest passenger vessel to call at Quebec and Montreal.

② For day use these "Studio" Rooms are each fitted with one folding bed and one bed convertible to a sofa.

Children's fares: Under 1 year, when accompanied by adult—First Class, $40.00 one way; Tourist, $20.00 one way; 1 year and under 12, when occupying room with adult or adults—one half the applicable adult fare for accommodation occupied. 12 years and over—full applicable adult fare for accommodation occupied. The age of infant or child on date of sailing governs fare to be paid. For round-trip bookings the age at the date of outward sailing governs fare for both outward and homeward portions.

Servants' fares, when accompanying employers: Thrift season $270 one way, $257 half round trip; Summer season $304 each way (berthed in first class minimum room).

DEPOSITS—First Class: 20% of passage fare with a minimum of $50 each way. Tourist: $30 each way.
For half-fare children, half the corresponding amount quoted for adults.

Balance of passage money to be paid on delivery of ticket or upon demand of Company's agent, but not later than six weeks prior to sailing date.

No accommodation will be considered as engaged until a deposit or payment in full is made.

The Company reserves the right to decline the sale of any room for less than its capacity.

Canadian Port Charge of $1.00 per adult passenger and 50 cents per half-fare child (no charge for infants) must be collected on all bookings from or to Eastern Canadian ports.

EMIGRANT FARES: Special Low First Class Fares for Westbound Emigrants are available throughout the St. Lawrence Season, except between July 16th and September 15th inclusive, and will be quoted on application—from $303 up, according to accommodation occupied.

Sail White Empress to and from Europe

ROUND TRIP FARES

A reduction of 5% from One-way Thrift Season fares will apply for passengers who arrange round trip bookings for completion during a 12 month period and provided total passage money is paid prior to outward departure.

THRIFT SEASON

The effective outward sailing dates are as follows:—

EASTBOUND	WESTBOUND
Jan. 1, 1966 to Apr. 30, 1966	Jan. 1, 1966 to June 30, 1966
Aug. 8, 1966 to Dec. 31, 1966	Oct. 8, 1966 to Dec. 31, 1966

SUMMER SEASON

In addition, the 5% round trip reduction will also apply from the One-way Summer Season fares provided passengers travel outward during the following periods:—

EASTBOUND	WESTBOUND
May 1, 1966 to May 15, 1966	July 1, 1966 to July 15, 1966

Passengers who return on a sailing East or West during the Summer Season period other than the dates specified above will pay the One-way Summer Season fare applicable.

Round trip fares may be extended to passengers who travel one-way by Canadian Pacific ship and one-way by ship of another Line or by Air.

30 DAY ROUND TRIP EXCURSION FARES

Provided passengers travel outward during the following periods:—

EASTBOUND	WESTBOUND
Jan. 1, 1966 to Apr. 15, 1966	Jan. 1, 1966 to Apr. 15, 1966
Sept. 15, 1966 to Dec. 31, 1966	Sept. 15, 1966 to Dec. 31, 1966

a reduction of 15% may be granted from the sum of the appropriate 1966 One-way First Class or Tourist fares. The period between the advertised date of arrival at port of debarkation, outward, and the advertised date from the port of embarkation, homeward, must not exceed 30 days, excluding days of arrival and departure.
To be eligible for the 15% reduction, passengers must travel round trip by ships of the Trans-Atlantic Passenger Steamship Conference Lines to or from any European port.

SPECIAL REDUCED FARES FOR PARTY OF 25 PASSENGERS

An organized party of 25 or more round trip passengers travelling together during the Thrift Season can secure the benefit of a reduction of 25% from the sum of the two appropriate thrift season one-way fares, First Class and Tourist, provided they are booked for outward sailings during the following periods:—

EASTBOUND	WESTBOUND
Jan. 1, 1966 to Apr. 30, 1966	Jan. 1, 1966 to June 30, 1966
Aug. 8, 1966 to Dec. 31, 1966	Oct. 8, 1966 to Dec. 31, 1966

Tickets are valid for Canadian Pacific homeward sailing during the Thrift Season periods within 12 months from date of outward departure.

Passengers may also travel one-way Canadian Pacific and one-way by any other member of the Trans-Atlantic Passenger Steamship Conference, or one-way by air charter.

SPECIAL EMIGRANT FARES

For Emigrants to Canadian destinations holding Canadian Immigration visas or medical cards, etc., issued in the United Kingdom or Republic of Ireland, a special reduction of 10% will apply to First Class fares and a 15% reduction to Tourist except between July 16th and September 15th.

For Emigrants to United States destinations, a reduction of 10% will apply except between July 16th and September 15th.

ROUND-THE-WORLD AND TRIANGULAR TOURS

When a booking is part of a round-the-world or triangular tour the one-way thrift season or summer season fare may be reduced by 5%.

GENERAL INFORMATION

EMBARKATION ARRANGEMENTS

MONTREAL — Empresses sail from Canadian Pacific Pier No. 8 (located at the foot of St. Lawrence Blvd.) at 11:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time. Embarkation commences at 8:00 a.m. Local Time.

Passengers are urged to arrive at pier in ample time to allow for examination of their travel documents, i.e., steamship ticket and passport, which passengers should have readily available.

QUEBEC — Passengers embarking at Quebec are requested to contact Canadian Pacific Office, Room 3, Palais Station, Quebec (telephone 529-9228). Such passengers are required to provide their own transportation to Quebec.

CUSTOMS RE-ENTRY PERMITS — Cameras, binoculars, portable radios or typewriters, musical instruments, etc., should be declared to Customs Officer by Canadian Residents when embarking and permit secured to cover re-entry to Canada of such articles without payment of duty. United States residents should check with nearest U.S. Customs prior to leaving the U.S. regarding form to permit re-entry of such articles duty free.

BOOKINGS

RESERVATIONS AND DEPOSITS — Reservation of accommodation may be made through any authorized agent upon payment of the following deposits:

First Class: For each adult, 20% of passage fare with a minimum of $50 each way.

Tourist: For each adult, $30 each way.

For half-fare children, half the corresponding amount quoted for adults.

Balance of passage money to be paid on delivery of ticket or upon demand of Company's agent, but not later than six weeks prior to sailing date. No accommodation will be considered as engaged until a deposit or payment in full is made.

FARES INCLUDE — Fares quoted are for adult passengers and include transportation, a bed or berth in a room, and meals from port of embarkation to port of debarkation.

CONDITIONS—Special attention is drawn to the terms of the contract set out on the passage tickets which limit the legal liability of the Company in respect of passengers and their baggage. Passengers are strongly recommended to insure themselves and their baggage. This can be done at very small cost and the Company's offices and agents would be glad to advise and assist in making arrangements of this kind. No agent or employee of the Company has authority to vary the Conditions of passage tickets.

MEDICAL CERTIFICATE is required from infirm and aged persons showing that they are in a fit state of health to travel. Persons under medical treatment should have in their possession a brief clinical history outlining details of the illness and the treatment recommended. The booking of expectant mothers is subject to there being three clear months between date of sailing and expected date of confinement.

TRANSFER TO LATER SAILING—If passenger is prevented from using passage as engaged, a transfer to a subsequent steamer of the Company may be arranged if notice is given not less than three weeks prior to the date of sailing for which passage was booked without forfeiture of the amount paid, and similar accommodation will be allotted as circumstances permit.

CANCELLATION OF RESERVATION—Should notice be given that passenger is prevented from using reservation after deposit or passage money in full is paid, such reservation will be placed on sale, and any amount received therefrom, less expenses incurred, will be for credit of passenger.

REFUNDS — In making refunds due to cancellation of bookings, or other reasons, the following will be deducted: (a) Agency Commission, if any; (b) other expenses incurred. Refunds are subject to cancellation fee.

MAIL

MAIL FOR PASSENGERS — Mail intended for delivery to passengers sailing from or arriving at Montreal should be addressed in the following manner:—

Passenger's Name.....Class.....

Arriving or Sailing S.S.....Date.....

Montreal Sailings or Arrivals — c/o Canadian Pacific Passenger Dept., Room 115. Windsor Station, Montreal.

While every effort is made to distribute mail promptly, no responsibility is accepted for non-delivery, mis-delivery or delay. It is recommended that envelopes containing valuables should be sent registered mail.

PARCELS — Passengers booked westbound, when arranging for parcels to be addressed in care of the ship or Company's office, should communicate particulars to the Canadian Pacific office at Liverpool or Glasgow.

PASSPORTS, VISAS, ETC.

PASSPORTS — Passengers must be in possession of valid passports with necessary visas.

Canadian Passports are issued by the Passport Office, Department of External Affairs, Ottawa, to persons born in Canada and naturalized Canadian Citizens. Application form will be furnished on request or can be obtained at any Post Office, or direct from Ottawa.

British subjects (born or naturalized) should apply to the High Commissioner for the United Kingdom, Ottawa.

Citizens of the United States resident in Canada should apply for their passports to nearest United States Consul in Canada.

Citizens of the United States resident in the United States should apply for their passports to a clerk of a Federal or State Court, having authority to naturalize aliens, or by writing direct to the Department of State, Passport Division, Washington, D.C.

Canadian Citizens resident in the United States should apply for their passports to Canadian Consuls at Boston, Detroit, Chicago, New York, San Francisco or the Canadian Embassy at Washington.

Subjects of other countries should make application for passports to their nearest Consul.

VISAS — Visas should be obtained from nearest Consular Office of the countries to be visited when such visas are required.

UNITED KINGDOM IMMIGRATION REGULATIONS—Passengers proceeding to Britain to work must be in possession of the necessary permit. Commonwealth citizens should contact the nearest British Information Services office to secure an employment voucher. Citizens of other countries, including U.S.A., wishing to work in Great Britain must be in possession of a British Ministry of Labour Permit for production at port of arrival, otherwise permission to even land may be withheld.

PERMIT TO RE-ENTER THE UNITED STATES — Alien residents of the U.S. intending a temporary visit abroad of over one year must secure a Re-entry Permit (Form 1-132) before leaving the U.S.—failure to do so will necessitate applying abroad for an immigrant non-quota visa and undergoing stringent medical examination, with possibility of long delay or denial of visa. Alien residents of the U.S. intending an absence of up to one year may return without presenting a Re-entry Permit or an immigrant visa but must be in possession of Alien Registration Receipt Card (Form 1-151). The securing of a Re-entry Permit or Alien Registration Receipt Card is entirely the responsibility of the passenger.

U.S. INCOME TAX CLEARANCE — Alien residents of the United States should provide themselves with an Income Tax Clearance, obtainable from any office of the U.S. Department of Internal Revenue. United States citizens do not require a Clearance.

VACCINATION CERTIFICATE — United Kingdom health authorities may require production of a valid vaccination certificate if prevailing conditions warrant. All passengers arriving in Canada or the U.S. are required to present an International Certificate of Vaccination against smallpox on approved form of the World Health Organization. This certificate to be valid should have been issued within the past three years. Eastbound passengers who will be returning to Canada or the U.S. should take this certificate with them for presentation to the authorities upon their arrival at a Canadian or U.S. port. The "International Certificate of Vaccination" form is obtainable at all Canadian Pacific or local booking offices. United States residents are required to use U.S. Public Health Service Form PHS—731.

SHIPBOARD

TABLE AND DECK CHAIR RESERVATIONS — First Class Passengers may arrange, in advance, Restaurant and Deck Chair reservations through their booking agent. There is only one sitting in the First Class Restaurant, but a special sitting is arranged for children when desired.

Tourist Passengers may also reserve, in advance, seats in the Restaurant and Deck Chair locations by completing a reservation card supplied by their booking agent. On occasion two sittings may be necessary and whilst no guarantee can be given for a particular sitting or location, every endeavour will be made to comply with requests.

In event of two sittings being necessary, Children under 12 years of age will be served at the Main Sitting or at a special earlier sitting for the evening meal when so desired.

MEDICAL SERVICES — All "Empress" vessels carry a Doctor, trained Nurses and medical staff. There is a fully equipped hospital, with X-Ray facilities. The Doctor is authorized to make customary charges for his services, subject to the approval of the Captain.

DIETS AND CHILDREN'S FOODS—Dietetic foods, children's strained and milk foods are available. Details of any special dietary requirements should be advised booking agent at least two weeks before sailing.

DECK CHAIRS, CUSHIONS AND RUGS — The all-inclusive charge for the voyage is $3.00 or £1.0.0 payable to the Deck Steward.

SHOPPING AT SEA — Passengers may, at reasonable prices, purchase many articles of everyday need, also suitable gifts and souvenirs, from the vessel's shop — see "Shopping at Sea" copy of which is available on board.

VALUABLES AND MONEY — Passengers are advised not to keep valuables or money in their bedrooms but to deposit such articles with the Purser. As no charge is made, the responsibility of the Company for loss or damage, however arising, shall be governed by the conditions on the passage ticket.

TRANSFER—LIVERPOOL-LONDON

STEAMSHIP SPECIAL TRAIN, LIVERPOOL-LONDON — Steamship special train will be operated in connection with Empress arrivals and departures between Landing Stage, Liverpool, and London.

TRANSFER—GREENOCK-GLASGOW

TRANSPORTATION facilities will be available at time of arrival for passengers proceeding to Glasgow.

See Traffic Representative on board regarding purchase of tickets.

BAGGAGE INFORMATION

BAGGAGE — Baggage should be forwarded to reach port of embarkation 48 hours previous to sailing. Baggage consists of wearing apparel, toilet articles and similar effects and should be enclosed in trunks, valises, suitcases, etc. Articles intended for other persons or for sale should not be included in baggage. Household effects, furniture, books, glassware, etc. must be forwarded as cargo. Baggage should be plainly and securely labelled. "Wanted" baggage will be delivered to bedroom, or, if too large for bedroom, will be placed in the baggage room, to which passengers have access daily.

CHECKING OF BAGGAGE — Baggage may be checked from principal stations in Canada and the United States direct to the ship at port of embarkation under prepaid delivery checks. Passengers from points where prepaid delivery checks are not obtainable should arrange at port of embarkation for transfer of their baggage from station to dock.

FREE BAGGAGE ALLOWANCE FOR STEAMSHIP PASSENGERS. On Canadian Pacific Steamships, each adult or half-fare passenger all classes, is allowed free carriage of 25 cubic feet of baggage or, at Company's option, 125 kilos or 275 lbs. consisting of personal effects. In addition, a reasonable amount of hand baggage may be taken into passenger's room.

On rail tickets from Canadian points of origin, 250 lbs., British Columbia 350 lbs., (not exceeding $100.00 value) per adult rail ticket. On United States Railways, the normal baggage allowance is 150 lbs. per adult, except that on tickets originating in Alaska, California, Oregon or Washington, endorsed "Trans-Atlantic" the allowance is 350 lbs. per adult. 50% of these rail allowances for each half-fare ticket.

EXCESS BAGGAGE CHARGES — The charge on the ship for the carriage of baggage consisting of personal effects in excess of the free allowance is $1.00 per cubic foot or 20¢ per kilo or 2 lbs. weight.

BAGGAGE INSURANCE — As the Company's liability for baggage is strictly limited, it is recommended that passengers insure their baggage, as in the event of loss or damage the Company cannot, under any circumstances, accept liability beyond the amount specified on the steamer contract ticket. Facilities for insuring baggage are available at any of the Company's offices or authorized agencies.

BAGGAGE TO OR FROM LONDON — Passengers for London via Liverpool, may, at reasonable charge, arrange with ship's Baggagemaster for through booking of their baggage to London, or for delivery direct to their hotel or residence in that City.

Passengers sailing westbound from Liverpool may have baggage collected at residence or hotel in London by application to the Canadian Pacific Office, 62 Trafalgar Square.

BAGGAGE STORAGE — Facilities for storage of baggage are available at ports of call and at Canadian Pacific Office, Trafalgar Square, London, England, and Paris, France, at reasonable rates.

Arrangements for storage should be made with the Baggagemaster of the ship.
