MASONIC BALL

A Very Successful Social Event

Anything undertaken by a Masonic lodge is always well done, and the ball and supper given on Friday evening last by t'e officers and members of Hiram lodge was no exception to the rule. About guests responded to the invitation.

No pains had been spared by the committee to make the affair a success. The hall was very tastefully arranged in patriotic and symbolic colors, even the floor had been freshly oiled for the occasion.

Mine Host, Johnston, of the Courtenay hotel excelled himself in the bountiousness and quality of the supper served to the guests.

Delightful though the dancing was, not the least absorbing part of the entertainment was the extremely pretty show of dresses worn by the ladies present. In particular we may mention :

Mrs. Kilpatrick, who looked especially charming in emerald green satin, draped with gold beaded net.

Mrs. MacLeod, in champagne colored silk crepe de chine (one of the prettiest dresses in the room)

Miss Wilson in eau de nile satin.

Mrs. Krause in cinnamon silk.

Mrs. Millard, looking very handsome in grey satin with a touch of mauve.

The Misses Covert looked very pretty in pink satin.

Mrs. McNaughton in eau de neil draped with white flowered chiffon

Miss Hoff in pale blue

Mrs. McMillan in white satin

Mrs. Daniel in pink and blue satin draped with flowered muslin.

Mrs. Berkley in white satin

Mrs. McPhee in white draped with flowered chiffon.

Mrs. McQuillan in red satin trimmed with black.

Mrs. Ardley in blue silk trimmed with white chiffon and gold.

Mrs. Allan in very becoming pink.

Mrs. Ryan in blue eponge

Miss Mathieson in light blue silk

Mrs. Bates in white satin

Miss Machin in pink and blue.

The Misses Bridges in white.

Mrs. McGregor in white satin, and many other pretty dress too numerous to mention.

The music was excellent, and was furnished by Roy's orchestra.

The ladies forming the reception committee were Mesdames McPhee. Kilpatrick, McQuillan and Millard.

The gentlemen who had charge of the arrangements were : W. S. McPhee, K. Grieves, Chas. Mathieson, A. Piercy, R. Allan, J. Milligan, Geo. Ardley, and R. Thompson, and they must indeed feel flattered at the many expressions of approval of their artistic decorative abilities.

All expressed themselves as having had a most enjoyable evening, and hoping they would be present at the next ball under the same auspices.

Byron Crawford died at the Cumberland hospital on Tuesday April 1st, after but a few days' illness. The funeral will take place on Friday, April 4th from the family residence, and proceed to St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, where service will be conducted by Rev. T. Menzies.

Deceased was a well known business man and farmer of this district having lived here nearly all his lifetime, being at the age of 59 yrs and 10 months.

In politics Mr. Crawford was a Conservative and being well read, took very broad views of things pertaining to the welfare of the community. Courtenay has lost an industrious citizen whose place will be hard to fill. He was a member of the Foresters and Orauge lodges the latter will attend the funeral in a body. He leaves to mourn his loss a widow and three small children at home, one son Dr. Crawford Montreal, and 2 married daughters.

Notes and Comments

If there is one place more than another where the souvenir fiends should curb their instincts it is at a Masonic ball, where they are guests of the first people of the land. He was in evidence at the ball on Friday evening. A comb, brush and two streamers being among the articles that are missing. The two latter, being nailed to the wall, could not have fallen off nor blown away.

In New York recently, a picturesque statement of fact was made by a lady who was advocating more rigid regulations in connection with moving picture theatres—especially the censoring of films—inasmuch as these places of entertainment are largely attended by young children. In her argument, she pointed out that she spoke as the mother of ten. A gentleman who followed, speaking on behalf of such theatres, said that he could speak as the father of eight. The lady interposed: "I want to tell this committee that it is a cinch to be the father of eight children, compared with being the mother of ten." This ended the discussion, and it is probable that the lady did more toward securing the legislation she advocated by this one interpolation, than by arguments more to the point at issue. Most men and all women are likely to agree with her. The average assemblage likes concrete statements, and is impressed by figures.

The Duke of Cannaught thinks that Canadians, when deciding on where to take their holidays, might well consider the claims of places within the Dominion, instead of carrying away their money to swell the millions annually spent at foreign watering places. His royal highness speaks with wisdom and his advice might be followed with profit by Canadians generally. Every province in Canada has attractive holiday spots, and the holiday-maker has the choice of mountain, lake, seashore and river.---Montreal Gazette.

Kaiser William is reported to have said that while the year 1813 was one of sacrifice, the year 1913 is searcely less critical to the German people, and should also be a year of sacrifice. Somewhere or other the Emporer has seen indications which satisfy him that Germany must strengthen herself still further against her real or possible foes, and the fiat has gone forth that the peace footing of the German army must be increased by nearly 200,000 men, bringing it up to about 850,000. The initial cost of this is placed at about $250,000, and it will entail in addition a permanent annual charge of over $50,000,000. France has also come to the conclusion that the nation is in danger, and the peace footing of the French army is to be increased by over 200,000 men, making it very nearly 800,000, while the immediate expenditure upon the army is to be increased by over $100,000,000. But these enormous increases have yet to run the gauntlet to the different Parliaments, and there will probably be many earnest protests, both in the French Chamber of Deputies, and in the German Reichstag, against this costly sacrifice to the God of War. If these schemes go through, they will necessarily mean increased taxes, and this usually means increased national discontent amongst the masses, whose scanty livlihood is rendered still more scanty, until it becomes a question whether war could be a greater commercial evil than these tremendous preperations for war. It would be well for the Kasier to bear in mind that there is a breaking point to even German endurance, and unless he be careful, the military burden of maintaining the empire will sink it instead of saving it. We would imagine that the themometer of the empire just now is dangerously near the revolution point.

SANDWICK

There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion, on Sunday, April 6, at St. Andrew's church, at 11 a. m., being the first Sunday of the month.

The Sandwick contingent of Normal school pupils left for Vancouver on Sunday.

We are informed that in order to save the farmers and others a long haul the Corner Store has laid in a stock of shingles, locally manufactured.

Farmers are reminded of the forthcoming sittings of the Agricultural Commission, in the Agricultural hall, on April 16 and 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Ridley Thompson are back from England and are now installed in their new house at Dove Creek.

The ladies of the valley are busily preparing for the Women's Institute flower show to be held during the summer and strenuous competetion is anticipated.

At the meeting of the Sandwick ratepayers held on Saturday, the 22nd instant, it was decided not to change the present school site.

Mr. William is now at his home in Sandwick, having returned from Cumberland hospital. His injured leg is mending satisfactorily.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. George M. Piercy, at Sandwick, on Easter Sunday, March 22, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Issac Parkin and family are leaving for Nanaimo, at which place they will make their home.

A well attended dance was given at the Woods' ranch on Thursday, the 27th.

Some interesting tests were carried out at Sandwick last Thursday in order to determine the minimum time required to load a cubic yard of gravel.

SALMOND—SCAIFE

At the home of Mrs. Fred Janes, Grantham, on Wednesday, March 26th, Miss Natalie Scaife was united in marriage to Alexander W. Salmond, late sergeant-major of the 72nd Highlanders.

Miss Marjorie Janes acted as bridesmaid, and Austin Blackburn supported the groom. Rev. T. Menzies performing the ceremony. The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents, They left on the Charmer, Thursday, for a honeymoon trip to Victoria and the sound cities,

Rush of Immigrants

Halifax, March 31---The strides Russian immigration to Canada has made since its inception a year ago were strikingly shown in Halifax in the past forty-eight hours when two big liners debarked a total of 2477 people, nearly all men, who intend settling in the Canadian west.

So well supplied with money were the fifteen hundred odd passengers, who left the Russian-America steamer Kursk, arrived on a special voyage from Libau yesterday, that the exchange brokers had to close out, short of funds, after exchanging $20,000 in Russian roubles into Canadian money.

The annual spring rush of immigration to Canada is in full swing and so great is the demand for passage on the other side that bookings have been completed on all ships sailing during the next month. To provide for this record influx the Hesperian left Liverpool last Wednesday on a specially arranged trip, carrying the largest number of passengers embarking for Canada in recent years on one ship. She has a complement of 1791 to land.

CUMBERLAND

Service in Holy Trinity church on Sunday next. April 6, will be at 7 p. m., consisting of evensong and sermon.

On Tuesday evening a wrestling tournament was held at the opera house. The main event was between Sam Martin, of Nanaimo, and Andrew Thompson, of Cumberland. As a preliminary a boxing contest was provided between J. Potter and W. Fitzgerald. They went for four two-minute rounds, and showed some clever work. At the end of the fourth round they were all in. Referee Kelly called it a draw, which decision pleased the audience. The wrestling bout was won by Thompson, who secured a scissor hold on Martin after 20 minutes of grilling work, and which he was unable to get out of, and, while he wrs not pinned, gave up. Thompson secured the second fall in twenty minutes, during which some clever work was done by both men, Martin doing nearly all the work. H. B. Dawley refereed the match to the satisfaction of everybody. This was Martin's first match as a pro-professional and while he put up a good exhibition he made a mistake in going up against an experienced wrestler, upwards of forty pounds heavier than himself.

How Courtenay Strikes a Newcomer

As a Field for Investment

Here anyhow is a theme on which the Newcomer can be whole-heartedly enthusiastic.

Naturally there are from a real estate point of view good, bad and indifferent 'buys' in the Courtenay district, but it is an axiom in the real estate business, that it is a gilt-edged investment that is made in a district to which direct railroad communication is assured.

And here we have not only the track actually laid to our very doors but also the assurance of a second great railroad at least within the immediate vicinity.

Geographically Courtenay is so situated that even if she had no natural resources of her own, she is bound to become a town of importance because she is the obivious gateway to a district full of raw material, lumber and coal, probably the two most important commodities on the world's market.

Added to these are the ever in-increasing supplies of agricultural products.

The Comox Valley which is recognized as being one of the most fertile valleys in B. C., roughly speaking 40 by 8 miles in area, will eventually become a great market garden for the almost insatible demands of cities like Vancouver and Victoria.

As it strikes a Newcomer, who has had some personal experience of real estate investements in the west, buy acreages as near to Courtenay as you can. If you cannot afford to buy acreage buy lots, using common sense of course, but buy and buy now. Old timers will tell you that the present prices of land are absurd. Be not afraid, their fathers said the same thing to them, but if you wait till the trains are running, in a few months time, you will join the great army of the Knights of Lost Opportunities.

The Newcomer holds no brief for Courtenay real estate agents, nor does he make the mistake of thinking that Courtenay is the one town in the west where great fortunes are to be made, but he does think that an investment in the Courtenay district is no speculation but as safe an investment as buying Consols. Because there are industries behind Courtenay. That is why Courtenay will flourish like the Scriptural bay tree.

Of what those industries are the Newcomer hopes to give his impressions in the succeeding issue of THE REVIEW.
