Horace McPhee left on Thursday morning last for Kamloops, where he will spend the summer in the mountains in that vicinity.

While returning from Victoria on Saturday morning, O. H. Fechner's car skidded and struck a telegraph pole cutting it off completly, when it struck the next one, however, the car went to pieces, Rod McCush was thrown about 40 feet, and was pretty badly shaken up. Feck saw the post just in time to brace himself and was not very hurt.

The Comox Logging & Railway Co., have been making some records in getting out logs lately. Last Tuesday they got out 850,000 feet, and three days this month 800,000 were taken out. They aim at getting out about 16 million per month or about 160 million feet per year. No other logging company in the world comes anywhere near this. They are constantly adding new machinery to the plant, and there is no likelihood of closing down in the near future. The lumber market on the prairies is looking up.

THURSDAY, JULY 24, 1913

Good afternoon.

What are you doing to keep Comox white?

Potatoes are so plentiful on the Prairies this summer, that one storekeeper in Estevan is trying to give away 500 bushels to any one who will go to the trouble to go for them.

The Japs, not content with capturing the fishing industry of of British Columbia have learned how to make the necessary machinery, and have gone back home and commenced canning fish there. Last year they shipped over $300,000 worth of canned salmon into Canada and the United States.

The new California State law provides for six occupations which orientals may engage in. Canadian law allows orientals to engage in any occupation the white man will allow him to. Its up to the white people not to allow themselves to be supplanted by the Asiatics. Especially in this Valley, the best and most prosperous in the whole of B. C.

We have a letter in connection wi-h some irregularity in the payment of some of the road workers. It is not our province to air these matters, unless in the public good. If anyone thinks he has a grievance, there is a way to remedy it. Lay the matter before the Superintendant, who will examine the roll and time sheet. If there is any discrepancy he is bound to act.

The younger generation are having a glorious time bathing in the Courtenay river these days. A favorite amusement is diving for dimes and nickles, which are tossed into the stream by people standing on the bridge. Several luckp divers gathered in ove. a dollar the other evening. Some of the more venturesome ones dives off the bridge.

Mr. G. H. VanHorne, of Port Haney, came up on Sunday's boat. He has decided to locate here.

A K. of P. Lodge is likely to be organized in Courtenay, about the latter part of August. Andrew Thompson and T. D. Hind are the organizers.

Mr. A. V. M. Sibley has purchased property facing on the Lake Trail road, with a view to permanent location, and intends this fall to erect thereon a six roomed bungalow of artistic design.

$50 Reward

The above reward will be paid to the person who gives information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who removed the following described fur-lined coat from an automobile, standing in front of Fechner's dance hall, on the night of May 20, 1913.

Long black fur-lined coat, chest 38 inches or 40 inches, length about 52 inches; heavy otter shin collar, worn where back of the neck rubbed; lined with Russian rat, which resembles the Canadian mnskrat, excepting that it is darker in color, in some places being al most black; edges of outside pockets had been worn and had been bouud with braid, and sleeves had been repaired; very large inside pocket on the left side which had been put in after coat was made anp top of which was bound with fur of slightly different color. A reward has been offered for the recovery of this coat.

HORNBY ISLAND

Owing to the wet season, haying has only commenced.

There is every indication that there will be a large increase of pheasants this season

Mr. Howard McFarlane of Denman Island has opened a logging camp at Tribune Bay. Besides horses he has a donkey engine in operation.

Among the recent arrivals on the S. S. Charmer were Mr. J. C. Ross of Victoria. He is a member of the Northwest Security Co., and is interested in the subdivision and development of the five acre lots on Hornby. Mr. Ernest Harwood of Vancouver is home staying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harwood. Miss L. Harwood, a student at the Columbia College, New Westminster is also a recent arrival and is spending the holidays on the Island at her partent's home. Miss Jennie Clayton, of Victoria, arrived last week and is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carmichael.

Mr. Garrett of the Vancouver Timber & Trading Co., is on a trip of inspection at the company's new camp at Westermain.

Messrs. McDonald and South have started logging at Schottish Cove, Lasqueti Island. The tug Rupert recently took over a load of supplies for the above camp.

A quantity of telephone wire arrived on last week's Charmer. We understand that the line will be extended and completed between Mr. Geo. Howe's and Ferd's Cove.

The arrival of the government pile driver is hourly expected at Ford's Cove to do much needed repairs, but the widening of the front or landing part is urgently needed and owing to its small size the whaf is subjected to severe strains, especially when arge boats land in stormy weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Malpass arrived from Cumberland and are staying with her mother Mrs. Scott.

At the Hornby public school examinations the following pupils were awarded honours; Geo. La-Forest, for proficiency; Ernest La Forest, for regularity and punctuality; Jessie Stracham, deportment.

Miss Margaret Beattie after a brief trip to Courtenay left for Victoria, where she will spend the holidays.

ROYSTON

Another accident occured at the junction of the Island Highway and Cumberland Road last Saturday. One of Mr. Wood's horses strayed onto the trestle and got stranded with all four legs through the bridge. It took about a dozen men fully an hour to get him propped up and off.

UNION BAY

On Saturday a steamer knocked away a portion of the wharf at Union Bay in an attempt to make fast. Some pilots need half the ocean to tie up in anyway.

Read McKean's announcemnnt in this issue. He is holding a gigantic clearing sale in order to reduce stock before moving.

Union Street — Courtenay

A new industry, that of condensing milk is to be started here in the near future. Messrs. Chief Justice Hunter, R. Kelly, J. Crome and A.S. Arkley were here on Monday and decided to at once establish a factory here. They expressed themselves as pleaased with the valley, and feel assured that their enterprise will be a boon to the farming community. They propose to take the whole of the milk, produced by the farmer, and will pay about 36c per pound butter fat.

Right here is where trouble will likely arise. The creamery Association take all the cream they can get and have been paying about 32c per pound butter fat, and have excluded oriental produced now the Condensed Milk Co., come along and will take the whole milk and pay about 36c per lb. butter fat. They will want all the milk they can get, and probably to that end will not exclude orientals.

Will the white man compete with these gentry? Right now is the time to decide what they will do.

Already the Japs have got a strong foothold in this Valley. Some of the largest and best farms are already rented to them. Its a crying shame. A strong anti-oriental league should be formed here at once. White people should absolutely refuse to use foodstuffs grown by yellow men, and those who are guilty of selling or leasing their lands to them should be ostracised. This may seem to be strong language but when one sups with the devil he must use a long handled spoon. This is a question affecting all the white people in this district and if Comox is to be kept white its time to start cleaning up now.

Life on this sunburnt ridge of sand is just one long succession of thrills and heart throbs, ups and downs, sweet hopes and sudden bumps. Its worth while living in Courtenay, the price is high but the entertainment is good.

This week we had the usual dog scrap at the corner, the regular Saturday night concert in the "Ram Pasture" and a one-round knock out on Union Street.

Then on Tuesday "Dot Leedle Nanaimo Band" struck town, and tuned up about 11 o'clock at Feck's. Wednesday was opening day at the Riverside. The band discoursed sweet music at various intervals all day, winding up with a grand dance in the opera house at night.

Life in Courtenay is worth while; it is invigorating; the eternal enquiry, "What y' going t' do about it?" meets us at every corner and gives us thrills.

The necessity of incorporation for Courtenay has been strongly emphasized during the past two or three weeks. Tramp printers have been in town and gathered up a quantity of work and carted it off to Vancouver to be done. A clothing traveller has been here soliciting orders for clothing, to be made in Vancouver (some say by scab or chinese labor) at any rate by non union labor. Fake or novelty advertising painters have also made their appearance, gathered in a few sheckels and departed for other pastures. Stock salesmen are also busily engaged in trying to induce the unwary to speculate in their wares. They one and all take every dollar they can lay their hands on out of the district, not a cent of it comes back. Our legitimate home dealers who live here and pay taxes are defrauded of the business. A good healthy tax on transient traders would help some.

Red Paint

Let others go prancing when paid off on Friday
To spend all his money on paiut which is pink;
Who find every pay day a farm and a a dry day,
And fill up their systems with kegs of red ink.

I'll drown out my thirst with a bucket of water,
And with what is left from the cost of my toot
I'll buy Panamas for my wife and my daughter,
And hike to the tailor's and order a suit.

I'll drop at the butcher's and buy lambs' hindqaurters,
I rather prefer it to scrapple and hash,
And also a steak from the same cut as porter;
All this I can buy with what's left of my cash.

I'll go to the grocer's and cart home some crakers,
Some bacon and cheese, and a bushel of beans,
While other chaps fill up on varnish and lacquers
I'll still have some money for new magazines.

The foolkiller waits round the corner to throttle
The fellows who whack up their hard-won doubloons
For red paint that is sold by the glass or the bottle,
Which should have been spent on bread, butter and prunes.

The bonehead, whose aim is to steep things deep ruby,
Pays dear for the stuff which the barkeepers sell;
He takes the first prize as a champion booby
Who piles on red paint at the corner hotel.

ROYSTON

Dangerous Railway Crossing, near Electric Railway from No. 8 Mine

Arising out of the publicity given to this in our last issue we hear that Mr. F. C. Gamble, Engineer of Railways for the Provincial Government, says that this dangerous crossing which he personally inspected sometime ago must be put in safe condition by the Wellington Colliery Railway under instructions of the Minister of Railways in accordance with provisions of Railway Acts, and that he has taken the matter up with the Prime Minister. Now that the Hon. Richard McBride's attention has been drawn to it our readers may rest assured that not a moment will be lost in doing all they desire.
