KOOTENAY CENTRAL RAILWAY

Eleven Miles of Right-of-way Cleared—Grade Will be Completed by September

Four miles of the grade on the Kootenay Central railway have practically been completed, and a substantial looking piece of work it is too. There is a break or two in the grade, but this is no fault of the contractors, the water having risen so fast during the recent hot spell that work had to be stopped just as connections were about to be made and operation carried on elsewhere. It is quite a pretty sight, however, to look along the grade and view its gentle curves from the far end of the slough, where it starts and continues as far as Nicholson's

There are about fifty teams working steadily and about 150 men, and these are making good headway, all things considered, as the work is frightfully heavy, owing to the numerous stumps and snags all along the route. The right-of-way has been cleared out for over eleven miles and it is expected that the grade will reach this point by the end of September, when preparations will be made no doubt for the further prosecution of the work.

There are altogether five camps, each of which looks like a miniature city. The men are comfortably quartered and are well fed, the grub being goods only of the highest standard and lots of it.

This week one camp was moved a mile or two further up the valley, and in a few days more the headquarters camp will be moved to Horse creek, and there established for several months.

F. E. Leach, the engineer in charge, intends taking a run along the line as far as Windermere along about the 15th of September to inspect the line of location.

Monday last was payday and a great deal of money was distributed amongst the boys, many of whom paid the town a call as a result.

This Settles It.

More rumors have been current lately, in Grit news papers only, that a general provincial election would be pulled off this fall. Concerning these the Nelson Daily News has made a most careful inquiry, as a result of which the News is positive in its statement that political war will certainly commence this fall. The above facts are now clinched by the appointment of Mr. F. E. Simpson of Cranbrook, as organizer for the Liberal party in Southeast Kootenay, who will at once commence the work of gathering to the fold all the Liberals in the district, appointing captains and lieutenants, committees etc., to keep them in line for the coming campaign, even if it does not occur until next year or the following year.

A. Joyce of Fernie has been appointed Deputy Registrar of the Country Court holden at Fernie.

Collector of Revenue Tax, Act 1901 and deputy under the Marriage Act, and Deputy registrar for the Fernie registry of the Supreme Court, and deputy recording officer for the Fernie cattle district.

McMullen has been appointed as registrar of the Country Court of East Kootenay holden at Fernie, Deputy Clerk of the peace for the Country of Kootenay, Collector under the Revenue and registrar under the Marriage Act, Deputy for the Fernie Electorial district, district registrar of births, deaths, and marriages for the southern division of East Kootenay, Deputy mining Recorder for that portion of the Fort Steele Mining division known as the Fernie district, registrar of the Fernie registry of the supreme court, and recording officer for the Fernie cattle district.

Still Asking for Time

At the second session of the royal commission held Tuesday to enquire into sale of the Pendray lots, D. W. Higgins, the World editor, asked that he be given further time before answering the question as to who was the name of his informant. He said he wanted to see the stenograph notes transcribed before being examined. Commissioner Peters consented to this.

James Anderson was examined but gave unimportant testimony. He declared he had never told his wife to call on Mr. Brown, the real estate agent.

"Conscience Money."

The first "conscience money" to be counted in the receipts of a theatrical man in British Columbia is treasured for luck by Manager C. H. Gibbons, who is directing the fortunes of Olivia Dahl, the famous Norwegian singer. It was paid into him at the little town of Duncans, where the hall was crowded to overflowing when Miss Dahl sang and the people declared an unofficial holiday in her honor. The manager was standing inside the hall itself—the door sale being over for the evening—when a tall, loose-jointed young Englishman elbowed his way through the "standing room" brigade, and passed over $1.50 in white money.

"Couple of chaps with me, smoking on the steps outside"—he explained—"beastly good it is, and we don't want to sponge it".

And before the astonished manager could recover from his paralytic astonishment, the lank loose-jointed one had vanished back again into the cloud of tobacco smoke which overhung the steps.

Manager Gibbons still has the $1.50 in silver coin to prove to him that it was not all a fairy dream.

The Olive Dahl Company will appear in Cranbrook, at Wentworth Hall August 9th.

Fatal Accident.

A fatal accident occurred at a sawmill located at Jutsen Siding on Thursday, when Wm. Simmons was fatally injured being crushed by logs which broke away while unloading cars, the accident happened about 3 p.m. and Simmons died at six o'clock. His remains were brought to Cranbrook on the evening train in charge of undertaker Beattie.

Big Strike at St. Eugene.

And now comes the good news that a big body of ore has been struck in the 2,000 foot level of the St. Eugene. This new strike is in about 500 feet from the 200 foot shaft level. In drifting from this level a full face of ore was encountered. This is another proof that the St. Eugene is becoming better with depth. So well is the company pleased with the property that several important improvments, it is said are being planned. One is the enlarging of the concentrator and the adding of a lot of machinery, and another is the sinking of the shift to a considerable greater depth. This will mean the employment of 100 or more additional men. Moyie seems destined to yet outrival Rossland or Phoenix as a mining camp.—Moyie Leader.

McDonald-McRae.

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Thursday evening of this week, when Rev. J. P. Westman united in marriage Archibald McDonald, C.P.R. brakeman, and Grace McRae, late of Manitoba. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few friends, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. McDonald. After the ceremony was over and congratulations extended, all sat down to a sumptuous dinner and the evening was spent in social enjoyments. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will reside in Cranbrook. The Prospector joins in wishing the bride and groom many years of happy life.

Pendry Bubble Has Burst.

The investigation into the World charges against the Lands and Works department terminated Thursday. It proves the charges against Hon. R. F. Green to have been utterly false Higgins admitting that the charge had not been substantiated. Thus another "hot air" Opposition bubble has been exploded.

Items of Interest.

A word to you sonny—you little twelve or thirteen-year-old boy who is smoking cigarettes on the sly. What do you want to be when you grow up—a stalwart, healthy, vigorous, broad-shouldered man, or a little, puny, measly, no 'count weakminded dude? If you want to be a man, strong like a man, with hair on your face, brains in your head and muscles in your limbs, you just let those cigarettes alone. If you want to be a thing, pitied by your folks, despised by the girls, and held in contempt by the fellows, keep right on smoking and end your days in the insane asylum.

It has always been a mystery to us that a young lady should make some poor fellow believe that she is interested in his welfare when as a matter of fact she is interested only in his farewell.

DEVELOP ST. MARY'S VALLEY

A Country Rich in Mineral, Agricultural and Forest Wealth—Board of Trade Letter.

THE PROSPECTOR has frequently mentioned the St. Marys valley, and the Upper St. Marys country and the wonderful possibilities of that section. So far as exploration has gone there appears to be a large copper belt running through the country. From what can be learned the ore on the surface is of a low grade, and cannot be made available until cheap transportation is assured. It is a wonderfully attractive section and when a railway is built up the St. Marys a country of magnificent propositions will be opened to exploitations.

One of the prettiest towns in Southeast Kootenay is Marysville. It is beautifully located at the confluence of Mark creek and the St. Marys river It is the only smelter town in the district, and bids fair to be one of great importance. There are four hotels in Marysville that are not excelled by any hotels east of Kootenay lake. Marysville boasts of several general merchandise stores, a drug store and other industries. The agricultural resources in the vicinity of the smelter city cannot be excelled in the Kootenay, grain of all kinds ripen readily and fruit grows in abundance. The following letter from Marysville Board of Trade, sent out to a large number of residents of Southeast Kootenay indicate that a united effort is being made to push the resources of this beautiful valley to the front.

Marysville, B.C., 1906.—To all persons interested in the development of the resources of the St. Mary's valley in the district of East Kootenay, B.C.

The residents of the town of Marysville, who have for years been waiting patiently to see the valley of the St. Mary's receive its deserving share of public attention, having decided to take the initiative in arousing those directly interested in the development of the wonderful resource of the St. Mary's valley, to a consciousness of the duty that lies before them, and hoping thereby to secure the hearty co-operation of all interested, have organized a lively and active Board of Trade, which in turn has decided to call a public meeting to be held in Chenette's Hall, August 1st, 10 a. m. A special invitation is hereby extended to you to attend the meeting, which has for its purpose the discussion of ways and means of attracting attention of the general public to this valley, and through this the securing of the investment of capital to be spent wisely, which is now the main thing needed to prove that this valley contains resources in mineral, timber and lands that offer many opportunities to investors. The following questions among others, will be taken up, viz:

What are our resources?

What hinder their development?

How can these hinderances be overcome.

An united effort is required to push this valley to the front. Let us all get in line and much good can be accomplished. The hearty co-operation of all interested is the sincerest wish of the St. Mary's Board of Trade. In case you are unable to be present at the meeting the secretary will be pleased to receive your written opinions which will be read at the meeting.

Kindly let us hear from you either by letter or in person.

Yours for success,

The Victoria Times and the Nelson Daily News are positive in their declarations that a provincial election will take place this fall. It is gratifying to note that our people are sprucing up and putting paint on their dwellings; a little paint goes a long way in adding value to property. A man will purchase a painted house with a fence around it much sooner than he will one not so ornamented. There is a lack of finish to an unpainted house which is oppressive to the artistic eye.

An air-lock is an air-tight chamber used in tunneling when the tunnel has to be kept filled with comprssed air to prevent the entrance of water. The air-lock communicates with the tunnel by one door, and with the outside by another. It serves the double purpose of allowing the workmen to enter and leave the tunnel without undue loss of air, and partially mitigating the physiological effect of a too sudden transition from the high pressure to the lower pressure outside.

The geology of Africa notwithstanding the many expeditions to the country, is little known. Very ancient crystalline rocks have been found rising into mountain ranges, at intervals spread over a large area. Most of the rocks overlying these ranges belong to the older formations, suggesting that the continent is antique. The sands that cover this large area are believed to be mainly of Aeolian origin, and have been formed by the action of water. The porous clay that occurs so abundantly in West Africa is of comparatively recent date. Around the great lakes are numerous evidences of vast volcanic activity, perhaps recent. There is no gainsaying the fact that Africa is one of richest mineral producing countries in the world. Its gold mines are in the lead, and its diamond industry is virtually a monopoly and may continue to be so indefinitely.

It is a curious fact, notwithstanding the extravagant vocabulary of the company promoter, no two mines in the world have produced either gold or silver at the same cost for any long period. Local conditions, character of ore methods of treatment, and often the personal intellectual equation of the mine manager, are factors that make it almost impossible to operate two properties at the same cost and produce the same results.

In Great Britain and Germany 'billion' denotes a million millions in the United States, France and other countries, a thousand millions.

Why Do We Come Into Life?

For what purpose do we come into life, and why do we leave it? is the somewhat curious query propounded by an analytical reader.

My own personal conclusions on this subject, supported by somewhat tedious studies in the same direction, under wise instructors, lead me to the belief that we come into this world, at the call of the Great Universal Power back of all things, to complete ourselves — important parts of the Universe of God.

In a mighty machine there are innumerable little bolts and rivets, and seemingly insignificant pieces, but all are needed to make the whole a perfect thing

Precisely so each individual is needed to make this wonderful piece of mechanism— the universe.

But as the universe is greater than a machine, so a man is greater than a piece of wood or iron. He is the expression of the power that created him, and his purpose in life is to reflect his maker.

We come into each incarnation more and more to perfect ourselves and to reveal more and more of the divine until we are completed—and "one with God"

We come here to better the world for those that follow us.

We leave this world to go on in other realms and learn other lessons.

This world is but one of the "many mansions" of the Creator

There are realms upon realms and zones around zones and worlds beyond number in the millions of miles of space beyond the earth.

It will require millions and billions of years for the soul of man to see and hear and know the wonders of the universe.

But to each soul, earnest enough and faithful enough and loving enough to desire these experiences, they will come.

Sorrow, pain trouble, well borne, and toil and hardship endured with faith and cheerfulness, are all steps toward the higher experiences awaiting us when we leave this body.

Idleness, selfishness, pleasure enjoyed at the expense of others, mean the dwarfing of the soul and the retarding of its progress.

There are knowledge, glory and happiness waiting for those who climb through this world on the stairs of love and unselfish toil.

It does not matter what you believe, or what your creed, or your mode of worship—if you love and believe in the power back of the universe and love your fellow men and work for the good of all you are fulfilling the "purpose" of this life.

No matter if you are a Croseus of wealth and an Emperor of power, if you are not doing these things you are violating the law of life, and must pay the penalty.

If you are an errand boy or a servant girl, and you are living up to the highest ideal of duty and love, then you are greater than the King or Queen who lives in indolence and selfishness.

We come into this world to better it and to perfect ourselves to such degree as we may in this one short incarnation.

We go out of this world to use the lessons we have learned in it for wider knowledge beyond and advance or to begin over, as we have chosen while here.

Some prospectors pretend to locate mines through observing the vegetable growth. They declare that there is a plant that grows where there are deposits of lead; that in all iron country birch trees indicate veins of iron; the beech tree favors limestone, the zinc violet indicates deposits of zinc, and there is a plant that grows in low, dense bushes, with small leaves coated with thick white down and wild rose-colored flowers in clusters on long stems, which indicates the presence of silver.

Agassiz lake is an extinct glacial lake that occupied the the valley of the Red River of the North, during the late Pleistocene period. This lake extended over a large area in North Dakota, Minnesota and Canada, and exceeded all the great lakes in size. The overflow of the lake is supposed to have passed into the Minnesota river, through a channel about 50 feet deep 50 or more miles long and a mile wide the outlines of which may be traced. The lake was held back by the northern ice sheet, but after the melting of the latter, the lake once more resumed its natural drainage to the north through the Red River.

It is estimated that there are fully 80,000 automobiles in use in the United States.

Will Visit Cranbrook.

The Deputy Minister of Agriculture for the province and professor F. T. Shutt chemist of the Central Experimental Farm at Ottawa, expect to reach Cranbrook on Thursday the 23rd August, they are studying the soil of the district and will give advice on such matters as come within the purview of their department and on Friday the 24th will give an address on soil cultivation in reference to the successful growing of crops and other similar objects. Interested parties will be afforded an opportunity to obtain an expert opinion on (not an analysis) soils and water. This will be of great assistance to practical ranchers and indeed to all owners of land. We are in the dark as to the capabilities of the soil in this neighborhood, and work has been thrown away for want of the knowledge of the proper way to treat our soil under our particular climatic conditions. The success which has attended the experiments of some of our enterprising settlers will be increased when the requirements of our lands are understood. Notice of the place of meeting will be given later.
