THE NEW OPERA HOUSE

Will be the Largest and Finest Theatre Between Calgary and the Coast.

Contractor, Geo. Leask & Co., are pushing the construction work on the new Opera House to completion as rapidly as possible, and it is expected that it will be formally opened about August 20th.

The building is located on Norbury Avenue, and is one hundred feet in length, with a width of 45 feet. From the floor to the ceiling is 28 feet The balcony is 22 x 44 feet, while the auditorium will square up 45 x 44 feet, which with the balcony will have a seating capacity of about 800.

The stage will be 25 x 45 feet, the proscenium entrance 13 x 26 feet. The scenery consists of five setts, and was painted by Mr. Chas. Miner, a well known Chicago artist, and are all of modern design and finish. The curtain being a gem of the scenic art. The gridiron has a height of 28 feet, which will give ample space for hoisting the drops. Under the stage are five dressing rooms for performers and a property room.

The building will be heated with hot air from furnaces located in the basement, perfect ventilation has also been provided for. In case of fire there are four large exits, one in front, two on the side and one in the rear of the stage.

The total cost of the building and furniture will be close to $15,000

Mineral Float.

Nineteen hundred and seven has certainly been a banner year for coal, and quartz mining in Southeast Kootenay.

It seems quite natural that the placer fields of the Cranbrook district should again revive the spirits of enterprising miners and capitalists

Bob Dore, was in town this week with a bunch of mineral in his pocket which is said to represent a recent strike on Wild Horse creek.

One of the strong coal mining companies, and one that will from now on take an important part in the production of coal and coke, is the Imperial Coal and Coke Company.

It is claimed, that upon the construction of the Kootenay Central railway, the next mining district to attract attention of the mining world will be the country embraced in the Upper Columbia and Kootenay valleys.

Matters Political.

The Dominion general elections are not likely to be pulled off before next May or June.

The Liberals of Yale-Cariboo will make a strong pull to secure the re-nomination of Duncan Ross.

Many Conservatives in the Kootenay are of the opinion that E. A. Watt, of Wattsburg, is the right man to carry the Conservative banner in the next campaign.

Dirt will Fly.

A special over the G. N. arrived in Fernie Monday night at 11 p.m.

President L. W. Hill, Vice-President McGuigan, Gen. Manager F. E. Ward, Purchasing Agent Plecher, Div. Supt. O'Neil and Chief Engineer Hogland were on board, and early Tuesday morning the party, which was joined by Messrs. Lindsey, Drinnan and McEvoy, of the Coal company, transferred to the C. P. R. track and ran up to Michel. They were there joined by Mr. P. E. Thain, locating agent of the G. N. After inspecting the Michel yards the train was headed for Fernie again, and a slow run made down the valley to afford the party as much of an inspection of the route of the proposed extension of the G. N. to Michel as possible.

The contract for the building of the extension has been awarded to A. Guthrie and Co of St. Paul, and it is expected that the new line will be ready for operation by the first of the new year.

The special arrived in Fernie on its return trip about 10 a.m. and was at once transferred to the G. N. tracks again. The distinguished party of officials walked over to the Coal company offices and thence to the G. N. Station, and were soon rolling back to Spokane.

The building of this section to Michel completes another link in the chain that is to bind Fernie to Winnipeg with another pair of steel ribbons some eight or nine hundred miles in length.

Then there will be branches leading off from this main stem, but they will all have to come to Fernie and thus throw the whole volume of traffic through Fernie, the gateway to prosperity on either side of the mountains.—Fernie Ledger.

BASE BALL

Small's Team Win an Exciting Game.

A large number of base ball fans witnessed an exciting game on Tuesday evening, between two teams selected by the official umpires J. Bates and E. Small.

Game was called at 7-20, with "Bud" Staples of Wycliffe as umpire. "Bud" gave perfect satisfaction to both teams and the crowd in attendance.

The Bates team went to the bat, and Burton sent in a few curves and very generously donated three goose eggs to the Bates bunch. Then the men under the banner of "Eni" toed the plate, and McCallum mixed up a curve which Harrington sent out for a base hit, then stole second. Reid hit for a single bag, sending Harrington to third, to help matters along Debeck fanned out. Then Sutherland went to first on a single and Harrington scored. Reid popped up an easy fly and the Small outfit was sent back to the field.

In the second inning the Bates bunch batted out two runs, while Small's cherubs were contented with a single run.

In the next three innings the Bates bunch were treated to an application of the big white brush, and the cherubs dragged in a run and two eggs.

In the first half of the fatal sixth, the Bates bunch managed to squeeze out three runs, and thought that they were galloping to a finish, but got tired and went egg hunting. The Cherubs then got in on the ground floor and punished McCallum for five runs clinching the game.

In the following innings the Bates bunch captured two runs, the Cherubs putting another goose egg in the basket.

Good base running was a prominent feature of the game both sides stealing bases.

Burton was soaked for 21 base hits, with one two bagger. McCallum saw enough of high life when the Cherubs mixed his curves up for 23 singles and three two base hits.

A double play of Burton to Reid, Reid to Sutherland killed two of the Bates bunch at first and second base.

The score:—

FIRE AT VICTORIA

From Store Street to Quadra Ground is Bare.

Victoria, B. C., July 23.—The greatest fire in Victoria's history occured this afternoon, destroying five blocks and many detached buildings, involving a loss of a quarter of a million dollars. Starting in the unused boiler shop of the defunct Albion works, the fire wiped out the shacks of the tenderloin. From store street to Quadra, four blocks eastward and between Herald and Chatham and Pioneer streets, scarcely anything escaped.

WATER PRESSURE POOR.

The poor pressure of water greatly handicapped the firemen, who, aided by the soldiers of the garrison and a host of volunteers fought desperately, pulling down many buildings in the path of the fire, which was brought under control at 7 p.m. Dynamite was brought in automobiles to blow up buildings, but Fire Chief Watson would not use it. The water pressure was poor, greatly handicapping the firemen. Men, women and children were hurriedly carrying out their belongings from the houses in the threatened section.

In many instances the furniture brought to the street was burned before conveyances could be secured to carry it away.

NARROW ESCAPES FROM DEATH.

Several narrow escapes took place. The women who wanted to get back into burning buildings to save their valuables were dragged out by fireman as the roof fell in. One woman on Green street became crazed and tried to rush back into a burning building, being prevented by a policeman, who grabbed her and hurried her struggling from the scene.

The number of houses burned is estimated at 75, the insurance at about $135,000, and the total loss at $250,000.

Bate's Challenge.

Umpire Jim. Bates not being satisfied with the result of last Tuesdays ball game, has challeaged the "Cherubs" of Eni. Small to another game to be played next Tuesday. Eni. has accepted the "defi" and the fans are getting warm in the collar in anticipation of a close and exciting game.

Obituary.

The funeral of James McLeod, one of the victims of the recent unhappy drowning accident at Marysville, took place on yesterday 23rd inst., at Calvery Cemetery with the full honors of the Order of the Knights of Pythias. All the chief officials and some of the members of the local Lodge attended the interment in their mourning regalia, accompanied by the Revd. Mr. Hughes of the Methodist Church who conducted the very impressive service at the grave side.

The deceased came out here from Scotland where, it is said, he left a young wife and one child, and shortly after joined the Order at Trail, B. C., where he gained a knowledge of the smelting business at which he was working in the Marysville smelter at the time of his death. When his body was discovered there was found on it his membership card of the Trail Lodge and on the fact being notified to the Cranbrook brethren they at once sent up a man to take charge of the remains and became responsible for the undertaking and funeral expenses. The deceased was an absolute stranger to every member of the Cranbrook fraternity with the exception of Fred. Cummer who knew him slightly in Trail.

The facts are deserving of notice and of appreciative record since they illustrate the practical working of one of the great underlaying principles of action of one of our most popular and beneficent Orders. Had James McLeod not belonged to the Knights his remains would have been put away with the scantiest ceremony, and, possibly, we might have seen a few of the men who worked by his side pay his memory the last, poor courtesy of seeing his body committed to the earth. Instead, there was a burial full of honor and elegant, symbolical impressiveness.

Methodist Church.

The subject next Sunday night will be: "The Constraining Love of Christ."

In the morning, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered and new members received.

Open air service on Sunday night at 8-45, Rev. W. G. Taylor, and Rev. R. Hughes will speak.

League Ball.

But for one bad inning, in which Jorgensen got punished for six runs, enough to win, the game between the Shops and Town teams would have been close and exciting. Outside of that disasterous second innings, Jorgerson pitched shutting out ball The Town team scored in the first, second and fourth innings, the shops in the first and second. Twice the Town had three men on bases that could not reach the plate, the shops also playing in equally hard luck.

MANDATE RENEWED

Premier McBride Will Continue to Fight for Better Terms for British Columbia.

Whatever the opposition press may say, Premier McBride has on two important occasions risen above the level of party politics and shown that when vital public issues are at stake he does not view them from the standpoint of a politician, but from that of a statesman. On his return from the Ottawa conference he struck the keynote of his attitude in an address which for moderation, sagacity and breadth of view has never been surpassed in Western Canada. On his return from London where he had preferred the claims of British Columbia before the highest court in the Empire, in the same capital city of his native Province, he outlined the salient features of his mission, and the attitude of the Imperial authorities, in a manner which can provoke no partizan protest, and which cannot but be gratifying to every loyal British Columbian. In his address the only authentic report of which will be found in the current issue of The Week, the Premier demonstrated to the satisfaction of a critical and non-political audience, that his mission had not been fruitless, and that the Imperial authorities had endorsed the vital constitutional principal that no part of the King's Dominion is too insignificant or too uninfluential to obtain a hearing in London and to secure at least a measure of justice. That the Colonial Office would interfere in any way in a dispute between the Federal and a Provincial Government, is out of the question, but in reasserting a principal upon which the very life of Provincial Government depends, the abrogation of finality without the acquiescence of both parties, the British Government has rendered an invaluable service to the cause of self-government. The case may be stated in a nut-shell, Ottawa said: "Here is your million dollars, take it and go," at the same time slamming the door. The British Government said: "We will express no opinion as to the adequacy of the million dollars to settle the claim of British Columbia, but the door shall not be shut." It therefore remains that the status quo is maintained, and since British Columbia audiences and the British Columbia electorate, has endorsed the attitude of Premier McBride, in rejecting so insignificant a sum, and in pressing the claims of the Province, he will continue to do so. The keynote of his address on Monday night was one of confidence, and challenge, the fight will continue to be waged, it is not one between political parties, but between the people of the Province as a whole and the Federal Government. If Sir Wilfrid Laurier persists in his refusal to give practical effect to his own admission, his successor may prove more amendable, but the Premier of British Columbia will not forego the fight. He may even have to carry it to Ottawa in person, and from the floor of the Federal House, insist upon due recognition of his claims. But be that as it may, he renews the fight in the spirit which animated Lord Beaconsfield when he declared that his purpose would ultimately be achieved, and that he would persist though the conflict had to be continued through one, two or even three campaigns.—Victoria Week.

Methodist Picnic Next Thursday.

Next Thursday, August 1st. the annual Sunday School picnic of the Methodist Church, will be held a few miles from town. Parents and friends will be carried free, also all visitors that can come. Bring a lunch basket. Start at one o'clock from Church.

SATURDAY, JULY 27, 1907

THE political pot is beginning to simmer, and though no announcement has been made as to the date of the general elections, the impression is general that it is near at hand, and both parties are making nominations and getting ready for the fray.

• • •

The time is approaching when candidates for the Dominion House are to be talked about, and it is worth while for the electors of the Kootenay to look the ground over carefully with a view of selecting a man who is equal to his duties. In making a selection keep in view Mr. E. A. Watt, the Wattsburg lumber man.

• • •

Sir Wilfred Laurier and many of his spellbinders in the Kootenay are said to be deficient in a sense of humor, they must be, or they would never attempt to excuse such political chicanery as has been exhibited by members of the Laurier government.

• • •

Peculiar conditions have existed during the past administration of the Liberal party, and these conditions have assumed a more serious tendency. Scandal, the most gross in the history of the Dominion, is found floating from the Atlantic to the Pacific oceans.

• • •

During the coming year every foot of land in the vicinity of of Cranbrook will be taken up either by purchase or pre-emption.

• • •

Doing stunts and talking loud will give a man notoriety, but it's making good that gives him a solid reputation.

• • •

The big mines of the Cranbrook district are setting an example, and making good the record of being the largest silver-lead producing mines in Canada.

• • •

There is every reason to anticipate a season of increased activity and profit making, in the lumbering and mining industries in 1907.

• • •

Even the "old Man" expects to wake up some day and find himself famous. But there may be a slip, and the "old Man" only get so far as the walking point.

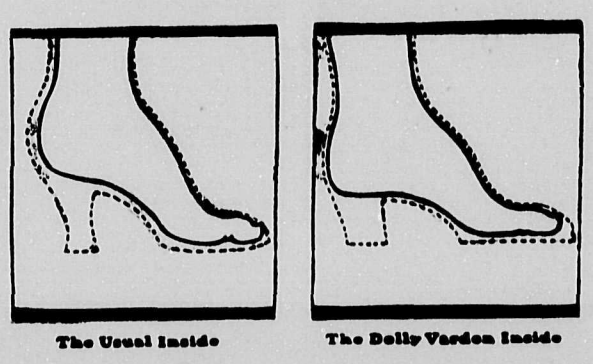
BAREFOOT COMFORT

"ONE OF THE 14"



The Usual Inside — The Dolly Varden Inside

The claim that a shoe is as comfortable as a barefoot is a pretty strong claim, but we claim it for the Dolly Varden Shoe and our agent in your city is ready to prove our claim. By trying on a few pairs you can soon find out.

Why are they comfortable?

Because they are copies of perfect feminine feet which allow the feet to lie in their natural position.

Because of their Free Flat Tread.

Because of their newly devised, restful steel arch support which relieves the fatigue muscles of the arch and prevents crowding of the toes into the narrow front of the shoe, by holding the heel close to the back.

Because of their Dead Level Ball and Heel Balance, which places the feet on the ground as nature intended.

Because of their Harmless High Heels which are as comfortable as moccasins.

Because they hold the foot firmly at every point in a corset-like grip.

And because of their new "velvette kid" leather, which is as soft as cloth.

$3.00 and $4.00 in Canada or the States. Every pair Goodyear Welted. (To be continued.)
