AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

Eight Contestants for a Silver Medal and Elocutionary Honors.

A large number of Citizens and children gathered at the Methodist Church on Friday evening last to witness an elocutionary contest between eight of the members of the Band of Hope.

The entertainment was opened by an address by G. T. Rogers, who explained to the audience the object of the contest and the rules governing the same.

Rev. C. O. Main, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, gave the children some good advice concerning these contests, also explained the different classes of medals which could be won during the different contests which will take place during the year.

The following was the programme for the evening:—

The Ship of Temperance, was rendered by Miss Eva Conelly.

In the Kegs, rendered by Grace Merlin.

A recitation by Miss Grace McFarland.

Chorus by the Band of Hope.

The Two Armies, by Avril Andrews.

My Son, Daisy McCallum.

Recitation by Laura Richards.

Song by little Miss Gracie Higgins.

The Shower, by Ruth Reid.

Papa's Good Night, by Lillian Leask.

Dr. Connolly then gave a clinical lecture, having for a subject "the deadly cigarette," and the smoking habit.

Youth and Tree, by Harvey Dickson.

Song by Robbie Marshall.

The Old Man's Story, by Charles Laurie.

While awaiting the decision of the judges, Rev. Taylor of the Baptist Church addressed the children.

The Judges were Messrs Gillis, Taylor and Smith. Who decided that according to the rules of the contest, that, Miss Daisy McCallum was the winner.

Mr. G. T. Rogers then presented the silver medal to Miss McCallum.

The evening entertainment closed by all singing "God save the King."

The eight contestants for the medal, had studied their parts well, great credit is due them for the able manner in which they rendered them. Credit is also due to Mrs. J. F. Smith for the careful training of the children.

An agreeable variation to the programme was the recitations of Miss McFarland, and Miss Richards, also the songs by Miss Gracie Higgins and Master Robbie Marshall.

Race for the Kaisers Cup To day.

Berlin, June 14.—The first of the important races this year is the contest for the German Emperors Cup over the Taunus circuit today. No less than 92 entrants, representing seven nations, have been received, and the interest shown in the contest is likely to make the first contest for the Kaiser's trophy the most important on the continent, even overshadowing the Grand Prix race of the Automobile Club of Turin, Germany has not had a road race on large proportions since the contest for the James Gordon Bennett Cup in 1904, although the Herkomer Cup competition for touring cars has attracted international attention. It was planned to use only part of the Taunus circuit, but on account of the extraordinary large entry list it is probable that the entire circuit will have to be used with three laps for the 300 mile race. In numbers of entries Germany leads with 32 England has 4, France 21, Italy 19, Belgium 10, Switzerland and America 3 each It was hoped their would be several American entires, but the American manufactures apparently prefer to concentrate their attention upon their candidates for the next Vanderbilt Cup race on the new speedway on Long Island. Most of the famous racing men of Europe will compete in the German race. The Darrac Company, whose car won the last Vanderbilt Cup race, has nominated a team of three with Duray, Gabriel and Rougier as drivers. Lancia, Nazzaro, and Dr. Wellman are to handle the three Fiats, and Kenatsky will drive one of the Mercedes candidates.

FORESTERS VS. TOWN

The Town Team Defeated In the Beattie Cup Contest.

A swift game of football was played on Tuesday evening, following the line up of the Foresters vs the Town teams in the contest for the Beattie cup.

The ground was damp, and good playing was not to be thought of, yet there was many excellent plays made by the contestants. Both teams were fairly well matched, and the play during the first half was sharp and exciting. No scores were made in the first half.

Within three minutes from the calling of time in the second half the Foresters succeeded in getting the ball between the posts, excellent playing followed, the Town team putting up a hard fight, but the Foresters were out to win, and finally won by a score of 3-0.

S. Watson was referee, and gave perfect satisfaction to both teams.

Next Tuesday, the Caledonians and Foresters will line up for the Cup, and there is no doubt but that the game will be the fastest and best of the series.

Elocutionary Contests.

The second Medal contest was held in the Presbyterian Church Thursday evening. The contestants for the elocutionary prize were:—

Miss Andrews, Miss Chapman, Miss Kennedy, Miss Hickenbotham, Miss Tisdale, Miss Gougban.

The church was filled by an interesting gathering, and all were unanimous in praise of the talented young ladies who took part

Among those who took a part in the evenings programme were:

Mrs. Reid, Mrs. Wryckman, Miss Connolly, Miss Eva Conolly, Mr Eagelston, Miss McFarlane and Master Robbie Marshall.

Mrs. Spoffard deserves great praise for the excellent treat she prepared in the very short time she had at her disposal.

The medal was awarded to Miss Chapman.

The whole performance was both elevating and interesting, and in the cause of temperance must have a healthy effect on any community.

Have Mounted the Water Wagon.

In its last issue, the Herald issued a challenge, to the effect, that its Base Ball team, consisting of printers, publishers, pressmen, devil, and everybody connected with the business, would play a match game, for a suitable trophy, with any ball team in the Kootenays The team, composed of the employees of the Fink Mercantile Co., accepted the challenge, and announced that they were ready to play this week. But the Old Man's team, not "Johnny on the Spot." were mounted on the "Water Waggon" leaving the Fink team, to hustle for a game where no "separator" can be brought into action. We are informed that the Fink team will accept a challenge from any local ball team in the district.

RAILWAY NOTES

A system has been inaugurated by the Canadian Pacific railway whereby passengers can have their baggage checked through from Cranbrook and other points on the line to their residences, or hotels, in the cities of Hamilton, Ottawa, Toronto, Montreal and Winnipeg at a charge of about 25 cents per package. This same arrangement applies to a large number of cities in the United States. Passengers check their baggage direct to a given address, and have nothing further to do but receipt for the same upon its arrival at the address given. This is a new innovation and will prove a boon to the travelling public

LUMBER CONDITIONS

An Increasing Demand From the Prairie Cities—Cranbrook a Lumbering Centre.

Since 1904 conditions in the Cranbrook district have made a rapid advance towards converting anticipation and the realization of the lumber resources of the district,

The Kootenay Valley's abundant supply of timber is a resource that is attractive to those who combine in a degree the gift of foresight and patience. Large tracts are found in this vicinity whereon the timber is first class, and the tracts heavily timbered.

In the past two years the relations between the lumber manufacturers of the Cranbrook district, and the dealers in the North West Territories have been getting closer for obvious reasons. The home market is a growing one with a steady growing population in Alberta and the Northwest, hence a constantly increasing demand is made upon the Cranbrook mills for all surplus manufactured.

Few people have taken deep thought of the extent and volume of the lumber trade of this district, that the lumber and timber industry has assumed vast proportions. And when we stop to consider for a moment this is not to be wondered at; for at the present time there are over thirty lumbering plants operating along the line of the Crow's Nest branch with a good home market, while the surplus product is marketed in Alberta, where the region is treeless and must be supplied from the nearest producing point.

It may be stated here that the main portion of marketable timber is found in the vicinity of Cranbrook and the northern portion of the district, where there are thousands of miles of good timber waiting to be cut. This will last for many years, and those who own timber limits will reap a rich harvest.

The advantage of geographical position is possessed by the Cranbrook district in competing for the trade of Alberta and Manitoba. For the present, or near future, lumbermen have no occasion to complain, and no regrets in reviewing the past year, for the year's business was a banner year, and the outlook for the present season is much better, and there is no reason to fear that Cranbrook lumbermen will shut down their mills this summer for lack of a market.

WEDDING BELLS

Huchcroft-Montgomery.

A pretty but quiet wedding took place at the home of Theodore Montgomery on Thursday May 23rd, when his only daughter, Miss Sarah, became the bride of Foster Huchcroft, of British Columbia. The ceremony, which took place at high noon was performed by Rev. Geo. MacArthur. The young couple were unattended, the bride looking particularly lovely in a white gown of soft silky material. After the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Huchcroft left on the afternoon train for Montreal, where the honeymoon was spent. The bride travelled in a blue suit with hat to match. The bride is one of Cardinal's fairest and most popular daughters, and expression was given to the high esteem in which she is held by many very handsome gifts. The groom who was formerly a Cardinal boy, is a prosperous business man and much respected among his friends. Mr. and Mrs. Hucheroft expect to leave for home in British Columbia about June 4th. They will carry with them the best wishes of many friends.—Prescott Messenger.

A POLICY of high protection that would develop the mining, manufacturing and agricultural interests of Cranbrook district, and at the same time shut out American farm products would be beneficial to the farmers of the district.

A home demand for their products is essential to the farmer. A Canadian market is wanted by the Kootenay miners for the disposition of their lead products, and one of the essentials of successful mining, is cheap transportation and a home market.

Our delinquent subscribers may have good intentions, but they are like alarm clocks that don't go off.

The Cranbrook district is so rich in minerals, coal, oil and timber, that in the near future it will be known as "the treasure house of the Province."

Gardening is in order now. Many of our citizens are already acquiring health from that exertion.

In the vicinity of Cranbrook, the prairies have the balmy appearance of spring, while the mountain tops to the east and west is still clothed in earth's white mantle.

The man with the swelled head does not suffer as much as those who are compelled to associate with him.

A number of citizens have received a touch of "high life" in the shape of tax demands from the city assessor. Some of these demands are rather high and there is much cussin "again" the city government.

This is the unanimous words of all our friends in distant lands; "The prospector" is as good as a letter from home.

has widened its market until it includes the whole civilized world; has become the typewriter of over 300,000 operators and has, during 1906, broken every previous record of sales, because it has from the beginning best met every typewriter need.

THE tri-color feature of the Smith Premier Typewriter is recognized as the greatest improvement in modern typewriter construction—yet in providing it, none of the strong fundamental features, for which the Smith Premier has always been noted, have been sacrificed. Complete literature on request.

HIGH ARCH AND HIGH INSTEP

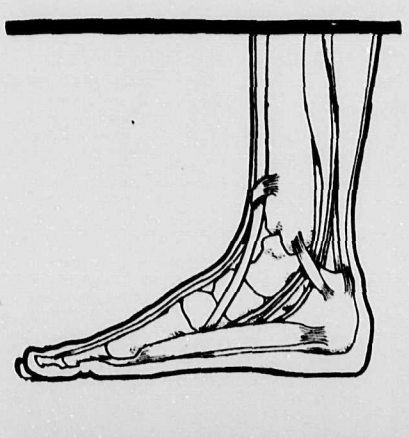
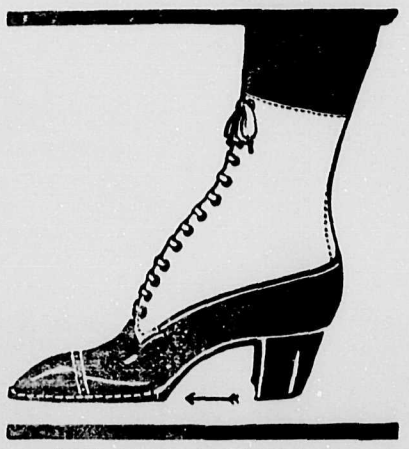
"ONE OF THE 14"



The Usual Flat Foot

The Usual Flat Foot in the Usual Shoe



The Usual Flat Foot in a Dolly Varden Shoe

No woman can have a clever foot without a high arch and high instep and no woman can have these vital foot beauty requisites unless her arch is firmly supported from below.

Flat foot is common to everybody in a marked or moderate degree. If marked, pain and inability to walk are the penalties. If moderate, an even greater feminine penalty is inflicted—ugly feet.

The foot is a chain of small bones held together in an arched position by powerful ligaments and muscles. The pressure from above stretches these ligaments and muscles, letting down the arch and instep in a flat position. The extent of the flatness depends upon the strength of the muscles. The strong suffer less than the weak, but all suffer either the disease of flat foot, or the humiliation of low instep, low arch and foot homeliness.

Dolly Vardens are built with a newly devised steel arch, powerful but pliant, which absolutely prevents flat foot, relieves those afflicted with the disease, and gives the wearer who wants smart, dashy feet, the enviable high arch and high instep.

Our agent in your city will take pleasure in showing you High Arch, High Instep, Dolly Vardens. Purchasers or investigators equally welcome. In the States or Canada at the same price—$5.00 and $4.00. Every pair Goodyear Welted. (To be continued.)

Hippodrome Contests a Big Feature With the Norris & Rowe Circus

Exciting hippodrome contests will be the big feature of the Norris & Rowe circus this season. The contests contain no element of danger to the participants and is just the added spice that seasons the finish of the long and varied programme of the big show. In the present season's exciting hippodrome races, contests involving blooded pedigreed racing stock, elephants camels, llamas, dromedaries, Shetland ponies and monkeys will vie in interest with a reproduction of the games of ancient Rome during which the most notable athletes drove, at break-neck speed, trios of racehorses attached to chariots. There will be Roman standing races, flat races contests of endurance between man and horse, vaulting and hurdle races over high barriers, bare-back races, jockey acts, rough riding and many feats of expert equestrianism will be shown. Norris & Rowe are awarding prizes of money and medals as an incentive to realistic effort and this spurs the contestants to greater endeavor and consequent excitement for the auditors. These spectacles are always satisfying and Norris & Rowe have grown so big and successful that they will allow no other show to exceed them in any portion of their ideal circus programme. Each season some little show with a high sounding title and but little else to recommend them, threaten opposition but the public knows by experience that Norris & Rowe have always given full value and a bit more for money expended in witnessing the various attractions the ambitious young showmen provide for our amusement, entertainment and instruction, so it is assured that the public whose confidence has never been betrayed by Norris & Rowe will continue to support the energetic young showmen whose home is in the west and whose interests are all here. Norris & Rowe will give their annual exhibition in Cranbrook Monday June 24th.

Editorial Notes.

The situation in San Francisco remains uncharged. Japs inclined to be belligerent. Uncle Sam holding high the "big stick" on which is perched "the eagle bird."

Why the Japs left home, and what happened in Frisco, is keeping the eyes of the world directed towards the Pacific Ocean.

If a few of those last year's sun spots would show up with a bunch of heat, we are of the opinion that the Old Man's bananna patch would pull out all right.

* * *

Occasionally something leaks out that gives to the people of Canada an insight into management of the high science workings of Grit political workers, that shows to the aforesaid "common people" what slim barriers are to be placed between the promises made before and after election.

* * *

Those who take an active part and interest in politics are beginning to study the subject of candidates for the next Dominion election, which will take place next spring.

* * *

To a casual observer, it does not appear that the "Big Seven" or the Laurier government had done anything for the interest and benefit of British Columbia.

SUNSHINE FURNACE

There is no dust nuisance in connection with the Sunshine.

Because the Sunshine is fitted with a dust flue (see illustration.)

When you rock down the ashes (no back-breaking shaking with the Sunshine) what dust arises is drawn from the ash-pan up the dust-flue, across the fire-pot to the smoke-pipe, as shown in illustration, where it immediately ascends to the outer air.

Only two things to remember in connection with this operation:—open both the dust and direct draft dampers.

Sunshine is just the cleanest, simplest, easiest managed, greatest labor saving furnace that you can buy

Hippodrome Contests a Big Feature With the Norris & Rowe Circus

Exciting hippodrome contests will be the big feature of the Norris & Rowe circus this season. The contests contain no element of danger to the participants and is just the added spice that seasons the finish of the long and varied programme of the big show. In the present season's exciting hippodrome races, contests involving blooded pedigreed racing stock, elephants camels, llamas, dromedaries, Shetland ponies and monkeys will vie in interest with a reproduction of the games of ancient Rome during which the most notable athletes drove, at breakneck speed, trios of racehorses attached to chariots. There will be Roman standing races, flat races contests of endurance between man and horse, vaulting and hurdle races over high barriers, bare-back races, jockey acts, rough riding and many feats of expert equestrianism will be shown. Norris & Rowe are awarding prizes of money and medals as an incentive to realistic effort and this spurs the contestants to greater endeavor and consequent excitement for the auditors. These spectacles are always satisfying and Norris & Rowe have grown so big and successful that they will allow no other show to exceed them in any portion of their ideal circus programme. Each season some little show with a high sounding title and but little else to recommend them, threaten opposition but the public knows by experience that Norris & Rowe have always given full value and a bit more for money expended in witnessing the various attractions the ambitious young showmen provide for our amusement, entertainment and instruction, so it is assured that the public whose confidence has never been betrayed by Norris & Rowe will continue to support the energetic young showmen whose home is in the west and whose interests are all here. Norris & Rowe will give their annual exhibition in Cranbrook Monday June 24th.

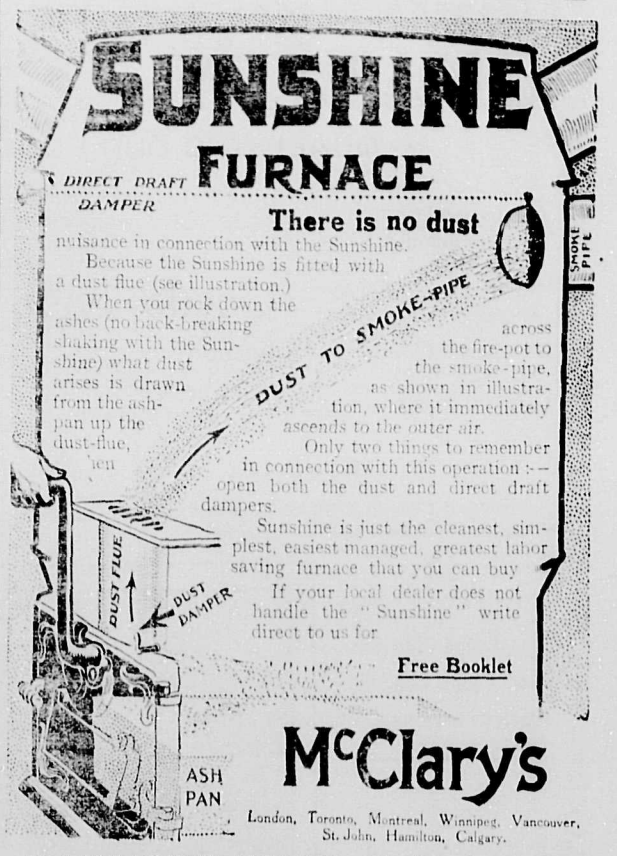
SUNSHINE FURNACE



There is no dust nuisance in connection with the Sunshine. Because the Sunshine is fitted with a dust flue (see illustration.) When you rock down the ashes (no back-breaking shaking with the Sunshine) what dust arises is drawn from the ash-pan up the dust-flue, then across the fire-pot to the smoke-pipe, as shown in illustration, where it immediately ascends to the outer air.

Only two things to remember in connection with this operation:—open both the dust and direct draft dampers.

Sunshine is just the cleanest, simplest, easiest managed, greatest labor saving furnace that you can buy
