Amateur Comedy Pleases Crowd

Trinity United Church Players scored a big hit in their production of "The Arrival of Kitty," at the Grand Theatre Thursday night last, standing room being almost at a premium to take care of the bumper turnout to witness the production of this talented company.

This three-act comedy is full of amusing incidents from start to finish and the artists by their clever acting kept the audience in a continuous mirthful mood. The role of "Ting," the bellboy, who suddenly promoted to hotel manager, was admirably played by Miss Lily Lewis, who showed great ability in this somewhat difficult part. Miss Lewis was well supported in the managing of the hotel by Sam, the colored porter, whose search for "de owner of dis trunk" caused roars of laughter. Bob Maxwell filled this laugh-creating role to prefection.

Miss Edna Holmes, as "Kitty," the girl in red, showed clever acting in a none-too-easy part. The characters of Jane, the maiden aunt, in search of a man; and young Jane, who already had one but nearly lost him, were taken Misses Clara and Violet Morrow respectively, both of whom revealed great proficiency.

Miss Isobel Burnett filled the light role of the French maid in a very pleasing manner, while the heavy part in the play was that of Mr. Winkler. High school principal W. Kelly in this character had much hard work which was cleverly done. Matt York was quite at home as Benjamin Moore, who got somewhat mixed up with his several brides, and eventually married the wrong Jane.

The great hit of the play, however, was in the dual part played by W. Collins: first as Bobby Baxter, and later impersonating the girl in red. Collins caused much amusement in this impersonation, and filled the role to perfection.

R. B. Staples was largely responsible for the success of the play, while much credit is also due Miss Holmes and Mr. Kelly, who acted as directors in the absence of the former. Trinity Young People wish to thank all those—especially Mrs. M. York—who rendered such valuable assistance.

1927 Chautauqua Solidly Popular

Schubert Male Quartette—four excellent vocalists with unusually fine voices.

John Ross Reed Company—something new and novel in the musical and recital line.

"British Policy in China; and Through Britain with a Camera"—a fascinating lecture magnificently illustrated with colored slides.

Herbert A. Taylor—Prince of Magic, Clown, Juggler and Ventriloquist.

"Smilin' Thru'"—a charming comedy of unprecedented popularity.

Martin-Erwin Entertainers—in a programme replete with sparkling novelty numbers.

The Plantation Quartette—a concert company de luxe presenting the mirth and melodies of the south.

"The Potter and the Clay"—a demonstration lecture by the only entertainer of his kind.

These are the big features of the four day Chautauqua which opens at Creston on Friday evening next, May 27th, at the Grand Theatre, and they eloquently tell of the rare value that is being offered this season for the popular season ticket price of $2.50 to adults, and $1 to school pupils under sixteen years.

In connection with the tickets sale attention is drawn to the fact that the seating of the Grand is limited to about 350 and only this number of tickets will be sold. These have been divided into 100 children's, and 250 adults, with the juvenile pasteboards available only at the drugstore.

The sale of reserve seats opened on Monday morning and there has been a heavy buying of them at $1 for the seven performances. Those whe wish to have a reserve seat should make their reservations at once to avoid disappoinment.

On every hand is heard high praise of the excellent variety and quality of this year's Chautauqua, along with commendation of the guarantors in deciding to stage the affair in the Grand with its excellent all round accommodation, and particularly its comfortable seating.

Chautauqua guarantors want it distinctly understood that tickets will be sold just in proportion to the exact seating capacity and have arranged for a door man who will see to it that a seat is forthcoming. Under this arrangement it will be well for those who want to see a few or all the programmes to purchase a season ticket. The way season admission are selling it is quite certain there will be no general admissions to sell in the evening, at any rate.

Italian Arrested For Selling White Bread

Law Imposed by Mussolini Forbids Any But "Economy Loaf"

Snooping fascists, at Naples, followed a hearse. Sniffing, they inhaled the aroma of fresh bread. Soon the mortician was handcuffed, his hearse found to contain white loaves. Weeping, imploring, the wretched culprit was dragged away, was jailed. He had broken the law forbidding the baking, transport, or sale within Italy of bread whiter than the "economy loaf" imposed by Signor Mussolini—a loaf either of whole wheat flour, or of white flour mixed with coarser grain. Since the mortician-baker had with him a list of rich Neapolitans who have been buying his bootlegged bread, these potent folk trembled, feared arrest or fascist reprisals for their iniquity.

WEAK AND NERVOUS

The Condition of a P. E. I. Lady Who Again Rejoices in Good Health

"I can most heartily recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all weak people," says Mrs. Augustin Arsenault, Wellington Station, P.E.I. "Before I began their use I was very weak and nervous. I had always worked hard, with no thought of my health, until suddenly my strength left me. I began to feel tired and depressed, and did not sleep well at night, feeling just as tired in the morning as when I went to bed at night. I began to feel discouraged when I would think of the work necessary for me to do. I got some medicine from the doctor whom I consulted, but it did not appear to meet my case as I showed no improvement while taking it. Then a neighbor advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I got a supply of this medicine. I very soon found they were helping me, and I continued their use until I was well again, and I have been strong and well ever since."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do one thing—and do it well. They build up, purify and enrich the blood, and as the blood supplies the whole body, new life is given to the entire system. ### PETER AT PENTECOST

Golden Text: "Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."—Acts 2.38.

Lesson: Acts 2.

Devotional Reading: Philippians 2.5-11.

Explanations and Comments

1. The Coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, verses 1-4.—Before He left His disciples Jesus gave them a great commission. They were to convince others that He is the Son of God, that he lived and taught as only they could fully testify, that he willingly suffered death on the cross for the salvation of the world, and that He had arisen from the dead and ascended into heaven. "Jesus Christ and the power of His resurrection" was a truth which the world would not readily accept. Only through power given them from on high could these men accomplish their great task.

On the Day of Pentecost that power came. There was a sound as of wind and an appearance as of fire—symbols of the Holy Spirit. The disciples found themselves praising God in words that sounded strange to them. The important fact was that they then realized that the Spirit of God had come into their hearts, that He was to abide with them as their Strengthener and Helper, to inspire and guide them in the work of making the Christ known to the ends of the earth.

"The Holy Spirit is just God making man understand Him, God making Himself intelligible to men, God speaking to each kind of man in his own tongue."—John Kelman.

How Should I Wean My Baby?

This is a serious problem to many mothers. Weaning should always be done gradually, beginning about the seventh month, giving one or two bottle feedings during the day, increasing the number of bottle feedings gradually until weaning is accomplished. Borden's Eagle Brand Milk is so like mother's milk in taste and ease of digestion that it can be given alternately with breast milk without causing abrupt weaning.

In this paper from time to time you will find an advertisement of Borden's Eagle Brand Milk, a food that has raised more healthy babies than all the prepared infant-foods combined. Cut out the advertisement and mail it to The Borden Company Limited, Montreal, and they will send you, free of charge, instructions for feeding your baby, and a Baby Welfare and Baby Record Book. Or, just write the Company, mentioning this paper, and they will be sent.

Radio And Newspapers

Not Slightest Conflict Between Them Says Louis Wiley

Louis Wiley, business manager of the New York Times, in an address on "Growing Friendliness Between the Newspapers and Radio" destroys all skepticism and clears up those apparent problems in a manner that proves beyond any doubt that the newspaper and the radio go hand in hand and serve to enlarge their respective fields of endeavor.

"There are now, and always have been, two general means by which knowledge and enjoyment are communicated to the human brain; the visual and the aural methods," said Mr. Wiley. "The newspaper, the motion picture, spectacles of every kind tell it through the eye. Radio, the telephone, public speaking, tell it through the ear. And now television, that incredible utility of the future, has succeeded in combining the two.

"There is not the slightest conflict between the newspaper and radio. On the contrary, there is every reason why the newspaper and radio should be, as they are, on terms of the friendliest co-operation.

"Each is a mighty agency for good. Each is devoted to the dissemination of knowledge and enjoyment. Each is an educational force of such all-pervading importance that the very similarity of their aims welds them all the closer in understanding and mutual helpfulness. The printing press and the microphone work out their wondrously helpful purposes in different ways—that is all.

"The essential difference between the newspaper and the radio is that one is a written record and the other gives only spoken information. Nothing could be more instantaneous than news announced over the radio. A Paul Revere's ride in 1927 would be impossible; information of vital interest to the nation could reach hundreds of thousands across the continent before Paul Revere could saddle his horse."

In order to forecast the weather with a reasonable degree of accuracy all you have to do is predict anything you don't expect.

Many Vanished Cities Are Being Sought

Important Discoveries Made of Life Thousand of Years Ago

Never have so many quests of vanished cities been in progress as in these days. Far more important discoveries are being made of life two, three and four thousand years ago than of additional historical facts of two, three, or four hundred years since. Particular interest attaches to a couple of 4,000 year old cities which are now being dug up. One is Spina, which was founded at the mouth of the Po soon after the time of Abraham, and hundreds of years before the birth of Tutankhamen. For centuries it was a prosperous river port, inhabited by the early Greeks. Then the river, known as the Eridanus in those days, silted up and left Spina standing inland.

By Augustine's time, some 2,000 years ago, it had dwindled to a village, and soon layer after layer of mud from recurrent floods covered it up. Of late 500 or 600 tombs have bees located and opened, as a beginning, and many thousand necklaces, ear-rings, finger-rings, and other pieces of jewellery, and vases, have been discovered. The other city of forty centuries ago is Mispah Benjamin, five miles north of Jerusalem, where the Hittites lived. Dr. William Nede and Major W. C. Gotscheil hope to come across there some bilingual tablets of sunbaked clay that will yield a key to the almost unknown Hittite language. Scraps of Hittite have already been found on Babylonian and Syrian tablets.

World's Most Modern Warship

Last One Allowed Great Britain Under Washington Treaty

The 35,000 ton Nelson, the last battleship Great Britain can lay down under the terms of the Washington treaty, has arrived at Southampton from the Tyne shipyards.

It is the absolute last word in battleships, said to be the most modern in the world, and the first British battleship to copy the method of triple gun turret. The turrets each contain three 16-inch guns, while astern are six steel turrets. Its 9-inch guns are of the new size and fire shells weighing more than a ton. The guns themselves weigh a little more than 110 tons each and are protected by a special thick armor.

The ship is protected from aircraft by hardened steel, bombproof decks, and under water it is designed to resist the explosion of more than four torpedoes. How many aeroplanes and catapults for discharging them are carried is kept secret. The battleship is 702 feet long, 106 feet broad, and carries a crew of 1,300 officers and men. It cost £7,000,000 ($35,000,000) to build and requires £432,000 ($2,160,000) for annual up-keep.

Largest Landowner in Empire

Sir Sidney Kidman, known as Australia's cattle king, will shortly visit England and America on a combined holiday and business tour, during which he will make inquiries regarding the beef trade. Sir Sidney Kidman owns flocks and herds by the hundred thousand in South Australia and is reputed to be the largest landowner in the British Empire. He started on a cattle farm at $2.50 a week.

"I saved a life the other day."

"How was that?"

"An auto was tearing down the road."

"Well?"

"I jumped out of the road."

Advance in Medical Science

Instead of Eating Fasting is Recommended as Cure

Somebody dug up a document out of some eighteenth century papers disclosing some curious practices of the medical fraternity in these days. One of these papers revealed that sick persons were sometimes ordered to eat seven meals a day, as much as they could stuff at a time, with concomitant copious drafts of brandy, sherry and other wines.

No doubt the idea was that the patient should "eat to keep up his strength."

Nowadays the tendency — especially among the chaps who make easy money by writing medical columns to the newspapers from an easy chair instead of getting around among sick folk—is precisely in the opposite direction.

People are told to take plenty of exercise — pushing themselves away from the table, for instance, before they are satisfied—and not only to cut down on diet substantially, but even to indulge in a fast for a few days or a few weeks occasionally.

In fact, fasting seems to be recommended as a sort of cure-all.

This complete turn of the wheel reminds us of the story of the man who went to a doctor and complained of stomach trouble. "Take heavy meals," said the medico, "and that should cure your ailment."

A week later the man went back and said the trouble was worse than before.

"Eat very sparingly," replied the physician, "and that should cure your ailment."

"But, doctor," protested the man, "you told me just the reverse last week."

"Um, yes," said the wise man. "But, you see, medical science has made vast strides since then."

World's Record Hen

White Leghorn Hen Proving a Money Maker for B.C. University

"Maizie," the White Leghorn hen, that last year established a world's record by laying 351 eggs in 365 days is proving a big money maker for the University of British Columbia Farm. Known as "Hen No. 6," she not only presides over the world's record pen, but with her eggs is bringing into the treasury of the University $2,900.

"We have actually sold $1,625 worth of stock from Hen No. 6, and have reservations for $1,275 worth, which will bring the total up to $2,900," says Prof. E. A. Lloyd, head of the Department of Field Husbandry. "Hen No. 6 is a member of the world's record pen, from which we are also selling a considerable number of hatching eggs, particularly from the other four 300-egg members of this pen, at $5 to $10 per egg."

Egg and progeny from this pen have found a market is all parts of Canada, the United States, and as far away as Australia.

ECZEMA IN SMALL PIMPLES

On Hands and Face, Itched and Burned. Cuticura Heals In Six Weeks.

"Eczema broke out in small pimples on my hands and face. The pimples were hard and red, and itched and burned. I could not put my hands in water because it made them worse. I could not help scratching and rubbing the affected parts and causing disfigurement. The trouble lasted three months.

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. I purchased more and in about six weeks I was completely healed." (Signed) John A. MacDonald, South West Margaree, N. S.

Little Helps For This Week

As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten.—Rev. iii. 19.

Great Master, touch us with Thy skilful hand,
Let not the music that is in us die;
Great Sculptor, hew and polish us; nor let,
Hidden and lost, Thy form within us lie.
Spare not the stroke, do with us as Thou wilt,
Let there be naught unfinished, broken, marr'd;
Complete Thy purpose, that we may become
Thy perfect image, O our God and Lord.

—Horatius Bonar.

A gem is not polished without rubbing, nor is a man perfected without trials.—Chinese.

Requisite on the Farm. — Every farmer and stock-raiser should keep a supply of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil on hand, not only as a ready remedy for ills in the family, but because it is a horse and cattle medicine of great potency. As a substitute for sweet oil for horses and cattle affected by colic it far surpasses anything that can be administered.

King Alfonso Drives Auto

Has Quickness of Perception Necessary to Good Driver

King Alfonso, known to be the best driver in Spain, is an expert because he approaches the American in type and has the quickness of perception necessary to the good driver, according to Margaret Fitzhugh Browne, Boston portrait painter. Commissioned to make a character study of Alfonso for the New York Yacht Club, Miss Browne has returned to New York with her finished work.

Although Alfonso is given to driving at great speed, he never has had an accident, states Miss Browne, for the reason that he thinks and acts quickly, knows his car, sees that it is kept in perfect order, and speeding is fairly safe since the highways in Spain are noticeably free from traffic.

The Lethbridge Northern Irrigation District enters upon the spring with an additional 10,000 acres of land, which came under the plow last summer and fall. There has been a considerable influx of new settlers, mainly from Europe.

An Oil that is Famous. Though Canada was not the birthplace of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, it is the home of that famous compound. From here its good name was spread to Central and South America, the West Indies, Australia and New Zealand. That is far afield enough to attest its excellence, for in all these countries it is on sale and in demand.

The inhabitants of cold countries make the darkest bread, of the tropics the whitest. Cornstalks are used as an ingredient in bread in Mexico and Central America, dried fish is used in Iceland, potatoes in Ireland, chestnuts in Italy, and during lean years the bark of trees in Russia.

Her Kidney Trouble Quickly Disappeared

New Brunswick Lady Tells of Benefits Derived from Dodd's Kidney Pills

Miss S. Moorehouse Advises All Kidney Sufferers to Use Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Zealand Station, N.B. (Special) — "I saw your advertisement for Dodd's Kidney Pills," states Miss S. A. Moorehouse, who lives at this place. "I had suffered with kidney trouble for over a year, so I decided to give your Dodd's Kidney Pills a trial. I have used several boxes now and have found great relief in them. I can highly recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills and would not be without them."

The reason Dodd's Kidney Pills have come to occupy such a prominent place in the home is that so many ordinary everyday ills come from sick kidneys.

Rheumatism, urinary troubles, backaches and heart disease can be traced directly or indirectly to sick kidneys. To be assured of good health the kidneys must be kept in good working order all the time.

CARRIED WIFE TO BED

Suffered So She Could Not Walk. Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Minesing, Ontario.—"I am a practical nurse and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to suffering women. For three months I was almost helpless and could not sit at the table long enough to drink a cup of tea. Many a time my husband carried me to bed, I would be so weak. Then he read in the paper of a woman suffering as I did who got better after taking the Vegetable Compound, so he went and got it for me. When I had taken three bottles I was just like a new woman and have had splendid health ever since. When I feel any bearing-down pains I always take it; sometimes a half bottle or whatever I need. It is my only medicine and I have told many a one about it. Any one wanting to know more about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I will gladly write to her. I do all I can to recommend it for I feel I owe my life and strength to it." — Mrs. Neal Bowser, R.R. 1, Minesing, Ontario.

Do you feel broken-down, nervous, and weak sometimes? Do you have this horrid feeling of fear which sometimes comes to women when they are not well? Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is excellent to take at such a time. It always helps, and if taken regularly and persistently will relieve this condition. C

Donations Disappoint

With grants of $125 from the village commissioners, and $25 from the school trustees, Creston's celebration of the sixtieth anniversary of Canadain Confederation is not getting the financial support it is entitled to.

Putting the village population at 500 the donation from the municipal exchequer averages but 25 cents per capita, which would have been fairly adequate for the purpose had the trustees been equally considerate, as well they might have been considering they levy an assesment on at least three quarters of a million dollars as compared with about one-third that assessable property within the village limits.

Or remembering that with a school attendance of almost 250 the school grant works out at 10 cents per pupil to assure a fitting observance of one of the outstanding events in Canadian history, and a celebration that is primarily designed to impress upon the younger generation the fact that they are citizens of no "mean" country.

The Review sincerely trusts that the other school districts will not too closely emulate the uncalled for economy of the local trustees. If only for appearance sake surely the world should be told the Valley's Canadianism assays somewhat higher than a dime per head of school population.

Poultry Industry Thrives

Press despatches from the coast indicate that this year British Columbia poultrymen are unable to quite fill all the orders that are coming their way for day old or baby chicks, and this report is confirmed by local fanciers who are operating on a commercial scale.

The information is decidedly interesting, because with the dyking of Kootenay Flats our poultrymen will have made available to them an abundant supply of grain feeds at a cost that will enable him to compete on a more equitable footing than at present with these supplies having to be shipped in from the prairie.

Too, Creston chicks at the same price as the coast product should have the edge on their Pacific slope competitors in the they should be just a little hardier and better adapted to stand the more rigorous climate obtaining elsewhere in Canada.

Another Opportunity

Just about a year ago Creston Board of Trade was commendably active in an effort to have the East Kootenay provincial agriculturist, whose headquarters is at Cranbrook, shifted to Lister and given the necessary acreage and needed equipment to conduct a demonstration farm to show just what that section is best adapted to in the way of mixed farming, with the local provincial horticulturist available to conduct a similar work along horticultural lines.

Nothing came of the effort due, probably, to the fact that it takes just a little time to execute such a change in policy. This month comes word that the agriculturist at Cranbrae is to be transferred to similar work at Kamloops, and as no successor has as yet been named it is to be hoped the board of trade will not pass up such a likely opportunity to repeat its request for a development policy in connection with the soldier settlement.

So far as can be observed at this distance the work of the agriculturist has been in some considerable measure taken up with secre aring fall fairs, stockbreeders and wool growers associations, and district farmers' institutes, and similar activities that, while indicating a splendid community spirit, certainly are not work for any agriculturist, and with the time so taken at this clerical effort put into the work for which such an official is appointed the new agriculturist can well be located at Lister and have ample time to supervise purely agricultural activities at the other sections in East Kootenay as well as the demonstration farm work.

Now that a change is being made is the time to be busy urging the necessity of change of head quarters and enlarging the scope of activities of the newcomer and it is to be hoped the board of trade will not let such a splendid opportunity for service to the district escape its attention.

The Herald has now discovered that 12 degrees of frost will not damage fruit blossoms at the stage the buds were in at Pentiction at the time of the mid-April freeze, and is hopeful for an average crop of cherries and peaches.

Blue Sky Laws Badly Needed

With better times now prevailing and business expanding in all directions, work plentful and wages good, high pressure salesmen of stock in all manner of companies are again much in evidence. Some of the propositions laid before people who have a few dollars to invest are sound enough; others are speculative to a degree, with the probabilities that any money invested will be lost, or, at best, will not be productive of dividends for years to come. The more glowing the prospects held up to the gaze of the innocent investor, the greater the possibility that the investment is a decidedly risky one; in fact, not an investment at all.

Unfortunately, it is an extremely difficult matter for anybody but an expert, or those who make it their business to keep fully informed, to distinguish between the good and the bad of the stock selling propositions presented to the general public. The only safe course to follow before making investment in any stock is to consult a banker or some reputable financial institution. It is better to be safe than sorry.

It is furthermore unfortunate that the company laws of Canada do not provide adequate protection of the public against these professional promoters of questionable stocks and so-called securities. Canada has reason to be proud of its general code of laws, but in this one respect the Dominion of Parliament has been sadly neglectful of its duty in that it has not provided safeguards against the people of Canada being victimized by persons and corporations offering questionable stock for sale to an unsuspecting public.

Some provincial governments have endeavored to protect their people, only to have their best efforts largely defeated because of the refusal of the Dominion authorities to supplement those efforts. As a result thousands of Canadians every year are robbed of millions of hard earned savings.

For example, some years ago the Saskatchewan Legislature passed an act prohibiting the sale of stocks of any kind within the Province unless the Company offering the same first submitted their proposals to the Local Government Board and obtained the approval of that Board and its consent to the stock being offered for public subscription. Certain companies incorporated under Dominion charters challenged the right of the Province to so restrict their stock selling activities, and, upon an appeal to the courts, the Saskatchewan law was declared invalid in so far as companies incorporated at Ottawa are concerned. The situation, therefore, is that any company holding a provincial charter and whose stock the Saskatchewan Local Government Board will not permit being offered for sale, has only to obtain Dominion incorporation at Ottawa to defy the Saskatchewan Legislature and sell any kind of stock it likes, good or bad.

It will be recalled that much the same situation existed when the Provinces first adopted prohibitory liquor laws. The Provinces could and did prohibit the retail sale of liquor, but they were powerless to stop its manufacture within their boundaries, and equally powerless to prevent it being brought into the province from other provinces or foreign countries, because this would be to interfere with trade and commerce which come solely within Federal jurisdiction. Public opinion, however, became so aroused that the Dominion authorities were forced to bow before it, with the result that the law was amended to provide that where a Province adopted prohibition it became unlawful under Dominion law to ship liquor into that Province.

There is need for a similar enactment in relation to Company incorporation. All that is needed is a very simple amendment by the Parliament of Canada to the effect that, where any Province passes an Act prohibiting the sale of stock in any company unless the same has first been approved by Provincial authority, such law shall be applicable to a Company incorporated under Dominion charter in so far as that province is concerned.

To the average citizen there would appear to be no insurmountable difficulty to the passage of such a simple and reasonable amendment. In fact, the average citizen would imagine that the Dominion Government would be just as anxious as Provincial Governments to protect their people from being victimized by unscrupulous company promoters and stock salesmen. The amazing thing is that, notwithstanding pressure from Provincial Governments, representations from reputable business organizations, strong editorial appeals by financial and other papers, the Ottawa Government declines to do anything, but allows a deputy minister at Ottawa to stubbornly block all efforts made to provide ample safeguards to protect Canadian citizens.

Representations have for some months past been made to one Provincial Government regarding the operations of one of these high pressure stock selling concerns, and protesting against what amounts to legalized robbery, but all the Provincial authorities can do is to admit they are powerless because the Company in question operates under a Dominion charter.

And within recent weeks this very Company has been shown up in reputable financial journals as having secured over $3,000,000 from Canadian citizens, of which considerably more than $1,000,000 went into the pockets of a subsidiary company as "commission" for selling the stock. In fact, the parent manufacturing company has less than one dollar to show for every two dollars invested by the public. Not only so but the Company has never declared a dividend, and for every dollar's worth of goods it has manufactured and sold it has cost the Company five dollars to make the sale. Yet this Company is still being permitted to sell stock throughout Canada and is doing so to unsuspecting people on the strength of rosy promises of big dividends to come.

It is high time that a certain cabinet minister at Ottawa freed himself from the influence of a reactionary and autocratic deputy head, and drafted legislation to be presented to Parliament at its next session upholding and supporting the Provinces in their efforts to put an end to this stock-jobbing and legalized robbery, which today is a blot on the fair name of Canada.

Chinese First Paper Makers

Learned Method by Watching Wasp Says Old Legend

According to an old legend, the Chinese first learned to make paper by watching the wasp build her nest. A Chinaman, watching the wasp one day, discovered that she took a bite of wood, chewed it into paste, and smeared it on her nest. When the paste became dry it turned into something like the present day paper. Thus the Chinese learned to make paper from wood long before any other people in the world.

Canadian Offices in London

Offices of Immigration and Trade and Commerce May be Combined

Hon. Robert Forke, Canadian minister of immigration, and Hon. James Malcolm, minister of trade and commerce, while in England this summer, will jointly consider the feasibility of combining in one building the branch offices in Britain and on the continent of their respective departments, it is understood. Such a procedure would eliminate duplication of premises and to a certain extent duplication of office staffs.

Mr. Malcolm has already received intimations that the allocation of $100,000 for advertising Canadian goods in Britain will not go very far in making a widespread appeal. It is understood that one suggestion meeting favor is that when big English stores take a large space for general advertisement, Canada should pay a proportion of the cost for whatever amount of space calls attention specially to Canadian goods.

DEBT PAYMENTS HEAVY DRAIN ON GREAT BRITAIN

London. — Expressing great misgivings because of the divergence of opinion and estrangement of sentiment growing up in regard to the war debts, the British Government, in a note to the United States, challenged the accuracy of the statement of March 17 by Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the United States treasury, that Great Britain's debt payments to the United States will not constitute a drain on British economic resources.

Citing what the British Government regards as errors and inaccuracies in Mr. Mellon's statement, the note expresses "trust that the United States Government will take steps to remove the unfair impression that has been created" by the issuance of Mr. Mellon's statement.

The note, which was delivered to Secretary of State Kellogg, by H. G. Chilton on behalf of Ambassador Howard, who is absent from Washington, takes up the specific position of Great Britain on war debts as mentioned by Secretary Mellon in a letter to Dr. John G. Hibben, president of Princeton University in reply to a statement by Dr. Hibben and 116 members of the Princeton faculty. This latter statement endorsed the open letter of the faculty of political science of Columbia University, recommending reconsideration and revision of the debts settlement made with the former allies of the United States.

Cattle Law Not Authorized

British Cattle Men Protest to Government Against Delay

London.—A number of resolutions passed by borough councils, protesting against the delay in authorizing importation into Britain of non-tubercular Canadian cows and heifers, have been received by the Government.

This was the reply to questions in the House of Commons made by Sir Harry Barnston on behalf of the Minister of Agriculture.

Sir Harry further said the minister had not the slightest intention of altering his decision not to permit the admission of non-pedigreed breeding cattle from Canada.

The questioner referred to the opinions of Chief Medical Officers and chief veterinary officers to the effect that it was very dangerous to introduce Canadian heifers to Britain because they were much more prone to tuberculosis than British heifers. Another member asked whether the understanding reached at the 1923 Imperial conference was that the only cattle to be imported were fat cattle for slaughter, or pedigree stock and not cows and heifers.

More Letters Written

Reduction in Postage Rates Increases Volume of Mail Matter

Ottawa. — The establishment of penny postage in Canada has had the effect of cutting down the revenues but, also of increasing the volume of mail matter.

The revenue from letters prior to the reduction on July 1 last was roughly $18,000,000 per year. The reduction from three to two cents applied to the same volume of business would therefore cut the receipts by $6,000,000. The showing, however, promises to be much more favorable.

In order that the chain of greetings may be complete it has also been suggested that the Lieutenant-Governors exchange greetings with each other, and that there shall further be an exchange between Premier King and the Premiers of the nine provinces of Confederation.

Developing Idea of Universal Insurance

Vancouver Liberal Believes System Will Soon Be Leading Plank of Party

Vancouver, B.C. — Prediction that within a short time the outstanding policy of the Liberal party of Canada would be a scheme of universal public insurance covering not only old age pensions but also maternity benefits, invalidism, accident and unemployment, was made by Captain L. A. McKenzie, M.L.A., in addressing the Vancouver South Liberal association. The foundation for such a policy had been laid by Sir Richard Cartwright many years ago with such an annuity scheme, he said. The leaders of liberalism in Canada had since developed the idea until the logical outcome must be a universal insurance scheme.

Wedded to His Post

Premier Ferguson of Ontario Has no Designs on Federal Office

Cooksville, Ont. — "I have no designs on any public position," Premier Howard Ferguson stated in an address here to Peel County Conservatives gathered in compliment to Colonel T. L. Kennedy, member of the Legislature, and Sam Chalters, member of the Dominion House.

The Premier made the statement, so he said, to lull the suspicions of the "acute-eared young gentlemen of the press," who had read in recent speeches of his the "mixed purpose" of making overtures to Ottawa.

Later in his address the speaker made another reference to the subject. Following a review of his policy of making "new men from wayward boys," and of making life brighter for the youth born under physical handicaps, the Premier added:

"Things like these are what wed me to the Province of Ontario and its service, instead of seeking wider fields where I would not be as happy and contented."

Will Set Fruit Prices

Selling Method of British Columbia Board Should Benefit Consumer

Winnipeg.—Prairie housewives will pay no more for their fruit this year than in other seasons, declared P. M. Black, former provincial treasurer, and now chairman of the board of control, which will fix minimum prices for all British Columbia fruits and vegetables and issue licenses to shippers. Mr. Black, who has just returned from the Coast, said the scientific method of selling under the British Columbia board should benefit the consumers. The growers of the Coast were solidly behind the new scheme, he said, since they believe it offers a way out from their difficulties caused by years of disorganized marketing.

GOVENROR-GENERAL VISITS WINNIPEG

HON. J. A. ROBB STARTED LIFE AS A MILLER'S BOY

Kingston, Ont.—Hon. J. A. Robb, Minister of Finance, today was in a mood of confessions. He told the students of Queen—where he received the honorary degree of LL.D.—how narrowly he escaped becoming a preacher and how, as a miller's boy, he once took toll of the farmers' grist.

"At the age of 16," said Mr. Robb, "I was foolish enough to leave the high school, after refusing the very kind offer of my father's friend, a clergyman, who, having no children of his own, offered to pay all my expenses through Queens, providing I would agree to enter the ministry and become a preacher. But I did not lean that way, feeling then as I do now that I was not good enougr to preach the gospel to others. And so I left the farm with its comforts, its joys, its drudgery and its great independence, to learn a trade and make a living as a dusty miller."

Mr. Robb turned the pages of another chapter. "During the first years in the mill," he went on humourously, "my duty was to sweep the floors and toll the farmers' grists. Now my duty is to toll the taxpayers of Canada and sweep in all the taxes they can't dodge.

Mr. Robb urged that in their studies of national problems, the students of Queens should study human nature more than geography and statistics.

He pressed that national unity was the special duty of jubilee year, that all should work for a greater and better Confederation — a Confederation not of land but of people.

Want "First Canadians" To Help Celebrate

Indians and Eskimos Will Take Part in Jubilee of Confederation

Ottawa.—It is anticipated that Indians and even Eskimos will in many centres of Canada take a prominent part in the forthcoming celebration of the jubilee of confederation.

It is regarded as highly desirable that as many of these "first Canadians" as possible shall take part in the celebration of the 60th birthday of Confederation. All applications from local committees for participation by the Indian people will be conducted by the department, it is said.

Excepting in the more or less settled points at Aklavik, Arctic Red River, and other places on the Mackenzie, it is not expected that the Eskimos will take much part.

The suggestion thrown out by the national committee for the celebration that a maple tree be planted on July 1 at every point where celebrations are held is meeting with lively response. Already a very large number of committees have the matter in hand and are selecting the most suitable spot for the planting of "confederation trees." The practice, it is believed, will be widespread.

Under the leadership of W. G. Hendoy the band is making fine progress and with sixteen members turning out regularly for the Tuesday night practices the band will be ready for the confederation celebration on July 1st.

At the Women's Institue meeting on Friday afternoon, Mrs. J. E. Hayden and Mrs. Maxwell were elected to the vacancies in the executive due the removal of Mrs. Staples and Miss Scrimgeour—the former taking the office of vice-president.

Carl Ambrose was sent up for trial at the county court at Nelson by Magistrate Mallandaine on Thursday last. Ambrose was before the court ten days previous on a charge of passing a worthless cheque and was at that time remanded for eight days.

The holiday attraction is the Rod and Gun Club dance in the Grand Theatre ballroom Tuesday, 24th, commencing at 9 p.m. The music is by Mrs. Lister's orchestra, and the admission $1.25 to gents and 75 cents to ladies, these prices to include supper.

There was only a fair turnout of citizens at the town call to arrange for Creston's celebration of the Confederation jubilee. Major Mallandaine was voted to the chair, and with C. Murrell as secretary the gathering proceeded to name representatives from all the organizations of every sort, including churches, ladies' aids, lodges and clubs, and these along with a similar lot of representatives from Sirdar to Kitchener, are to meet at the hall on Wednesday night, 25th, to formulate a programe for the day.

At the voters list court of revision on Monday only six additional names were enrolled, making a total of 130 names added for the year. With deductions on account of removals and deaths the 1927 list will show about 2300 names—450 of which are at Creston.

Residents who should know something of conditions state that there is still as much as three feet of snow in the hills which at this time in other years would be clear of the beautiful, and with hot weather so late in arriving there seems no possibility of escaping high water on the flats.

There was a large turnout of shareholders of Kootenay Co-Operative Fruit and Produce Association at the final organization meeting on Wednesday afternoon, with F. H. Jackson presiding. The chief business was the election of permanent directors for this year, and these were named as follows: A. Comfort, S. Fraser, Percy Boffey, E. Noguier, G. Nickel. A start is to be made at once to establish a chain of stores for the sale of the association's output, and Alf. Nelson is leaving this week to take charge of this work. The Nelson warehouse—adjoining the Fruit Exchange office—will be used and loading facilities will also be provided at Erickson. Up to the present 35 orchardists have purchased stock in the Association and all are optimistic as to its success right from the start.
