OBSERVATIONS

BY THE OLD MAN

Judging from what can be seen at the opera house occasionally, we have concluded to publish a few rules, which, if followed out, will undoubtedly add to the pleasure of those present:

1—Don't go early. Go late, so that you and your ladies will enter the hall after the curtain is up. You will attract more attention in this way and be considered aristocratic.

2—Don't be in a hurry to take your seats. It does not matter if the people behind you cannot see the stage. That is not your fault. Haste is plebian.

3—Ladies should always wear their largest hats. The people behind you can exercise their necks trying to look around the hats at the stage.

4—Always talk during an act. It will give the people near you an impression that you are an old theatre-goer and understand your business.

5—Never fail to comment on the people acting. Those sitting near are anxious to know your opinion while the act is in progress.

6—Don't take into consideration the comfort of anyone near you. You pay for your seats and have your rights. If anyone don't like what you are doing, they can leave the hall.

7—Be sure and laugh when a pathetic scene is being acted. It shows your disregard for the company, and that you have perfect control of yourself.

8—Take advantage of the fact that many can hear you and gossip about people. You can cut deeper with your remarks and make a reputation as a keen conversationalist.

9—Ladies should chew gum and men tobacco. Both are refined and elevating occupations in public.

10—Belittle every performance and those who participate. This will make people think you are the only real thing in the town when it comes to a knowledge of histrionic matters.

11—Never appear satisfied, never look pleased and never applaud. Either is a sign of vulgarity and ill breeding.

A Spokane man dropped fifteen $100 new American bills through a hole in his pocket on the streets of Nelson one day last week. The roll was found by two residents of the town, and the opinion was at once given that they were counterfeits and they were handed over to friends as souvenirs of the counterfeiter's art, and one timid hearted individual crumpled his up and threw it on the muddy street. Several hours later the loser started around the town with the police to see what could be done to recover the money and it was a forlorn hope, but they heard of the "counterfeits" and strange to say every one of the bills were recovered. Bills of that size must be curiosities in Nelson. If Bert Beattie, Enie Small, Al McDermott, Vic Rollins or the Old Man had picked up that roll there would have been no talk about counterfeits, and no hundred dollar bills handed out to friends.

There is a problem floating through the papers these days that will send anyone to the insane asylum if they figure at it long enough. Here it is:

Mary is 24 years old. Mary is twice as old as Ann was when Mary was as old as Ann is now. How old is Ann?

We have had enough of it, and pass it on to our readers.

Last Monday was King Edward's birthday and our wedding anniversary. Congratulations were numerous.

The Kimberley Train.

A change has been made in the running of the Kimberley train. Instead of running three times a week as heretofore, it will run only on Tuesdays and Fridays. The time will remain the same.

WILL BENEFIT MINING

Two Processes That Will Cheapen the Cost.

THE HENDRYX AND ELMORE

Large Bodies of Low Grade Ore May Become Veritable Bonanzas.

VERY GREAT INTEREST IN EXPERIMENTS

The future of British Columbia depends upon the progress smelters are making in the cheapening process of treating the various ores. This province is noted for its immense bodies of low grade ores, and whenever these ores can be treated at a profit, such a tide of prosperity will flow into British Columbia that will be a surprise to even the most sanguine and enthusiastic advocate of the province's resources and future. Especially is this the case in East Kootenay, and, naturally, with its various classes of ore, the people are interested in every new process that successfully reduces the cost of treatment.

Great interest is being manifested at this time in the Elmore process, and if the reports from Rossland be authentic, that the claims advanced for the Elmore process of metal extraction have been made good, and treatment of the refractory ores of British Columbia made possible at $2 per ton, it means that this fair western province must speedily become the greatest mining region of the entire globe. When ore so low grade as not to average $3 a ton in values can still be mined at profit in British Columbia, no limit need be put upon predictions as to the country's future. The possibilities are boundless—so great in fact that it is not easy to grasp at first sight what the successful treatment of $3 rock means to this province. Only a comparison can give an idea.

The Treadwell mine, for instance, is the biggest free milling proposition in the world. Fifteen hundred stamps are dropping at the one mine on rock running $1.64 a ton. There are four mines in Rossland which can produce as much ore every day as the Alaska Treadwell, providing $3 is pay rock.

The big reefs of the Rand are known all over the world as mining propositions that are worked cheaply. Yet with Kaffir labor and all the labor-saving contrivances that the science of mining has produced, the great Robinson mine pays a bare profit of $8 rock. With $8 rock the Le Roi, with the assistance of the Elmore process, would pay $30,000 a week profit or the reabouts on its present production.

The Granby mine in the Boundary is producing, approximately, 10,000 tons a week. In the Knob Hill and Ironsides mines there are 20,000,000 tons of ore broken out. The only reason 1000,000 tons a week are not mined is because the Granby company has not the smelter capacity to handle that much ore. The Elmore process would put 33 tons of Granby rock into one ton of concentrates. With the assistance of an oil concentrator of sufficient capacity built at the mine, the Granby company with its present smelter capacity could mine 330,000 tons a week. The freight rate from the mines at Phoenix to the smelter at Grand Forks is 25 cents a ton. On 97 tons out of every hundred this 25 cents would be saved. The possible profit from this source alone on the present possible production of 330,000 tons a week is approximately $72,450 a week. It takes 350 men to take out 10,000 tons a week at the Granby mine. Without adding one ton to the capacity of their smelter an Elmore mill would permit the Granby alone to employ 11,550 men. There are fewer than 10,000 miners employed in Butte, the greatest copper camp on earth.

In Washington another process is coming into prominence that promises a revolution in the treatment of certain classes of ores, and it is claimed that it will be possible to treat Republic gold-silver ores by the Hendryx process at a cost of $1.50 per ton. The results of the system are likely to revolutionize the camp.

Not only does the system cut down costs, but from tests already made, it is possible to treat ores in from three to eight hours, that require as many days by the old process. R. K. Neill of the Kendall mine in Montana, has been making tests of the system, and is considering the installation of the Hendryx process there. A. E. Palmer of the Mountain Lion is also considering the installation of a 50 ton test plant in connection with the abandoned Mountain Lion cyanide mill.

C. M. Fassett, an assayer of Spokane and one who has attained a high position for his clever work in minerology and conservative judgment on all matters pertaining to mining, has this to say of the new Hendryx process:

"The tests have shown recovery of 90 to 91 per cent of the the gold in the Republican ores, and from 60 to 80 per cent of the gold and silver. These are minimum savings. When the treatment is perfected, there should be still better recoveries. The process is especially adapted to the silver ores of the camp.

"One of its most important factors is the speed of the process. Dr. Hendryx at the trials of his little plant erected in my ore testing works, has recovered values in from three to eight hours where formerly it took three to eight days of leaching. That speed is of immense importance. It reduces the tanks to at least one tenth the number under old processes, and there is a corresponding reduction in the cost of tanks and of buildings to house them.

"One of the features is the weak solution of cyanide. The cost of the cyanide is not more than one-third of the old processes, and the cyanide is constantly revivified by the electric current in the tank.

In most cyanide treatments the constant aim is to avoid slimes. With the Hendryx process slimes are no objection. The ore is crushed to a fineness of 80 to 120 mesh. Probably Chilian mills will prove the best means of reducing the Republic ores. In fact, crushing the ore is the principal item of expense. I believe that in many cases it will be possible to treat the ores and pay a royalty of 10 cents a ton, at a total cost of $1.50 per ton."

This is evidence of the fact that mining is rapidly becoming a practical business proposition, and it does not take a seer to know that it is only a question of a very short time when the vast bodies of low grade ore in South East Kootenay will be worked at a profit, which will mean the employment of a vast army of men in this district and the investment of hundreds of thousands of dollars in capital.

The Fernie Recount.

Nelson, Nov. 9. The Fernie election recount came up this morning in chambers before Judge Forin. Returning Officer Alexander told why he had not produced the boxes when summoned to do so, giving as a reason a telegram from the provincial secretary, who has the boxes, saying that he had no authority to forward the same. The case was enlarged until Nov. 17th at Fernie.

STUART OPPOSES WILSON

Vancouver Liberals Place Him in the Field.

DR. KING'S ELECTION PROTESTED

Brown, of Greenwood, and Tanner of Sanich, Included in the List.

PREMIER McBRIDE'S NEW CABINET

Captain Stuart to Oppose Wilson.

Vancouver, Nov. 10.—The new liberal club rooms overflowed this evening with members of the party who after a comprehensive discussion of the issues created within the past few weeks decided to contest the bye-election next Wednesday week necessitated by the acceptance of the attorney-generalship by the Hon. Charles Wilson. Captain Duff Stuart, Joseph Martin, James McGeer, Dr. McInnes, ex-lieutenant governor, T. S. Baxter and Captain Hart-McHarg were nominated.

In the interests of the united party Mr. Martin declined the nomination, as also did Mr. Baxter and captain Hart-McHarg, and a ballot being taken Captain Duff Stuart secured a large majority of votes, being subsequently made the unanimous nominee.

Will Protest King's Election.

Word has been received from the coast that the McBride party will protest the election of Dr. King, and that papers were filed at Victoria last Saturday in his case, and in the cases of Brown of Greenwood and Tanner of Sanich. A Herald representative saw Dr. King and asked him for the particulars of the charges. "I have not been enlightened as to that," said the doctor, "as no papers have been served on me. The matter is not bothering me the slightest. Of course Mr. McBride and some of his advisers here would endeavor to make me trouble if possible. When I entered the campaign I declared that I would fight it on straight political issues and make it a clean and honest campaign. I did so, and am satisfied in consequence. Every man who was assisting me in the campaign knew my position and my desires on that point."

The New Cabinet.

After all kinds of scheming Mr. McBride has formed his new cabinet as follows:

Premier, minister of mines and provincial secretary, Hon. R. McBride.

Minister of finance, Hon. R. G. Tatlow.

Attorney general, Hon. C. Wilson.

President of the council, Hon. F. J. Fulton.

McPhillips resigned his position as attorney general, being succeeded by Charles Wilson, who has been president of the council. Wilson is succeeded in the latter office by Fulton of Kamloops. Both have been sworn in.

Wilson will go back for re-election, the bye-election being pulled off in two weeks. Fulton does not have to be re-elected.

Later there will be another shuffle of portfolios. McBride will leave the department of lands and works, taking that of mines and combining with it the provincial secretaryship; while Green goes to the lands and works department.

CHANGE IN THE COAL COMPANY

Word was received by The Herald this morning that J. H. Tonkin, manager of the Crows Nest Pass Coal company had been let out and that Superintendent Stockett was temporarily in charge. Also that the Morrissey Mines townsite had been taken from Thomas Crahan and given to Cree & Hutchison of Fernie. It is too late to secure particulars and The Herald gives the news as heard just before going to press. This arrangement may effect Mr. Crahan's hold on the company's hotel at Michel, which is considered the biggest paying proposition in British Columbia.

The "Old Man."

The Vancouver World, in reproducing the "Old Man's" advice to young men in a recent issue of that paper, comments editorially on it as follows:

It is not in consequence of his patriarchial age but rather by reason of the fact that he has ever displayed a kind and fatherly pride and interest in the district that is his home, its industries, its character, its young men and young women, that Mr. F. E. Simpson of the Cranbrook Herald, is known throughout the length and breadth of East Kootenay as "The Old Man." Nor is the title slightingly bestowed. East Kootenay regards "The Old Man" with affection, and while he occasionally finds it necessary to expose the weaknesses of the camps and their inhabitants under his special fatherly jurisdiction and caustically comment thereon, the friendliness of his censure and the excellence of his advice are taken by the healthy community directly interested, in the intent of their deliverance and duly appreciated. Recently "The Old Man" has been having a heart-to-heart talk with his young men. His words of wisdom to them have the ring of common-sense philosophy, and as they are equally applicable to the case of Vancouver's young men as that of the young men of East Kootenay, the World deems them deserving of repetition. They illustrate the fatherly style in which "The Old Man" talks to his East Kootenay family for the family's good.

Liberals Elect Officers.

The Cranbrook Liberal Association held a meeting Wednesday night at their rooms in the Watts block. There were a large number present and great interest manifested in the proceedings. An election of officers resulted as follows:

Honorary Presidents—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, J. A. MacDonald, Liberal leader; Dr. J. H. King, M. P. P.

President—W. F. Gurd.

Vice Presidents—Joseph Brault, C. D. McNab, T. A. Corey, J. R. Downes, H. Parsons, Wm. Oliver, T. Doris, T. Boyter, H. White, Frank LeClerc, M. McAlpine, A. Erickson, S. Roleau, R. Logan, J. Swinnerton, G. R. Muir, H. E. Watt.

Secretary—F. E. Simpson.

Assistant Secretary—S. Clancey.

Treasurer—A. L. McDermot.

Short addresses were made by Dr. J. H. King, the member elect, W. F. Gurd and others, and arrangements made to hold a social meeting every two weeks. The first one will be Wednesday evening, November 25, and a program is being prepared for the occasion, consisting of songs, recitations, readings, etc.

Manitoba Hotel Sale.

Last week the Manitoba hotel changed hands, Tom Wellman selling his interests to Dan McDonald and Frank Clapp. The Manitoba is one of the best hotel properties in town, and has made all kinds of money. It was built in the early days by W. Kake, and was then known as the Commercial. Later, when bought by Mr. Wellman, the name was changed to the Manitoba. Mr. McDonald has been manager of the hotel during Mr. Wellman's absence from town while looking after his stable of horses, and is well liked by the people. He will continue to have personal charge of the business as Mr. Clapp's time will be fully taken up as manager or the East Kootenay Bottling Works.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

In another column of today's paper will be found an article giving the wealth of Mr. Heinze, the mining magnate of Montana. In the items named is a tract of land in British Columbia containing 250,000 acres. When asked if he had a deed to the land, Mr. Heinze stated on oath that he did not, as the property was being held in trust by a railway company to escape payment of taxes. This land is probably the grant made by a liberal legislature to Mr. Heinze for the building of a short road from Rossland to Trail, and his frankness in stating how it was being held to keep the province from receiving taxes, illustrates one of the reasons why British Columbia is bankrupt today. Not only have the assets of the province been given away, but a prodigal government has exempted its gifts to corporations from taxation for many years to come.

Tammany has won again in New York, and the old time grafters are waking up.

W. R. Ross is receiving some unpleasant advertising as the successful candidate in the Fernie district.

South East Kootenay has had its full share of graft and grafters and there have been big grafters and little grafters that were looking for $10 and $25 pick-ups in their official capacity. There are enough honest citizens in this district, who constitute a majority and who stand against such official pilfering. This grafting has been carried on in many ways in this district, and the longer one lives here the more he finds out. A story of the past four or five years' graft in South East Kootenay would make mighty interesting reading. Sometimes the goods were delivered, and sometimes they were not, and it is incidents of this character that would furnish the humor and pathos for such a history.

The provincial government is offering a bonus for dead crows. Is Mr. McBride anticipating a post-election banquet.

Bishop Perrin and Joe Martin butted in on the Houston incident.

A lot of 2 by 4 editors are taking a crack at John Houston these days. He don't deserve it from the press. Politically, he is in a fight that will arouse criticism, but it should be confined to politics. Personalities have nothing to do with it.

What Canada needs is more railroads and needs them badly.

Joe Martin has bobbed up again.

The house meets this month. It will be a warm session.

Cranbrook should be incorporated. Her future progress depends upon it.

What the people want in this district is honesty in the administaation of affairs.

Award is Not Complete.

New York, Nov. 7.—Hon. Clifford Sifton, the Canadian minister of the interior, and agent for Great Britain in the Alaskan arbitration, returned on the Campania today.

Mr. Sifton and other Canadians on board were not inclined to discuss the findings of the Alaskan commirsion nor the refusal of the Canadian commission to sign the findings.

F.C. Wade, who appeared before the tribunal as counsel for Canada, said it was true that a strip of land about 120 miles long was not included in the findings because the surveys and other necessary data for determining the boundary were lacking.

Heinze's Wealth.

F. Agustus Heinze of Butte, Mont., owns 250,000 acres of British Columbia lands, according to his sworn testimony at Butte recently. He was examined in the district court there respecting his holdings in connection with his surety on an appeal bond.

He had made a list of his real and personal property, and referred to it in giving his testimony as to his holdings. The items were as follows: Personal notes that the holder considered to be good, in excess of $225,000; mortgages upon Butte property, in excess of $10,000; real estate in Butte to the value of $15,000; from 10 to 15 per cent. of the real property held by the Davis estate in Montana of the value of about $100,000; 4000 acres of grazing land in Teton county of the value of about $7 an acre; 250,000 acres of land in British Columbia, value $100,000; mine in Jefferson county, value $40,000; Arizona News group of mines near the United Verde in Arizona, $72,000; 2½ per cent. of the Nipper Corn Rock Island and Nipper Mines; 35 per cent of the Basin Reduction company stock; one-half interest in Basin townsite; interest in Trail townsite, British Columbia; 150,000 shares in the United Copper company common stock (which is worth about $160 per share), and 12,000 shares of the preferred stock (on which a dividend of $3 a share was declared on November 2).

"Do you own any other property?" asked Attorney Con. F. Kelley who conducted the examination of Mr. Heinze.

"I do," was the reply, "but this is about all that I can think of now."

"Have you the deed to the 250,000 acres of land in British Columbia?"

"It is held in trust for me by the railroad company," was the reply, "and under that condition no taxes will be paid on it till 1911. I could get the deed tomorrow if I wished it."

"What are your liabilities?"

"My personal liabilities amount to about $200,000," replied Mr. Heinze.

Associated Boards of Trade.

The sixth annual convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Eastern British Columbia will meet in Rossland on Wednesday, December 2nd. 1903, at 10 o'clock a. m.

The boards entitled to be represented at this meeting are those of Nelson, Kaslo, Rossland, Moyie, Fort Steele, Trail, Greenwood, Phoenix, Vernon, Cranbrook, Fernie and Kamloops, and any other Board of Trade within the districts of Kootenay, Yale and Cariboo that has been registered under the Dominion Boards of Trade Act, and that may make application for membership. Resolutions proposed for discussion at the convention must be in the hands of the secretary at least twenty days prior to the date of the meeting.

The usual arrangements in regard to transportation will be made and announced later.

In the temporary absence from the province of the secretary (Mr. Jackson) all communication in regard to this meeting may be sent to the President,

G. O. Buchanan, of Kaslo.

The Coal Output.

Fernie Free Press:—The total output of coal from the three collieries of the C. N. P. Coal Company amounted to 71,300 tons. This is about 2,000 tons below the highest record.

The coke shipments were:

Coal Creek	10,753 tons
Michel	6,157 tons
Morrissey	357 tons
Total	17,267 tons

There are about 5,000 tons of coke stacked at the ovens awaiting shipment. The transportation question has undergone no change during the week and it is still into secure anything like an adequate supply of cars.

The lack of cars has been felt at Michel to a greater extent than at either of the other collieries and as a result much time was lost there. It is estimated that the total output would have been at least 20,000 tons more had plenty of cars been supplied throughout the month. It is expected that the heaviest grain shipments will soon be over and that the shortage of cars will gradually be relieved.

Mrs. Wallinger and children of Fort Steele, visited Cranbrook friends last Sunday and Monday.

Harold Nelson and his company are receiving unstinted praise from the press wherever they appear.

N. C. McKinstry is having a livery barn built in front of the Royal hotel. A. Vroom is putting up the building.

H. W. Ross, who is writing up the mining conditions of the district for the Herald's annual, was in town Friday evening.

Charles Campbell has purchased an undertaking business in Lethbridge, instead of going to Duluth, and says he has excellent prospects of a good business.

Mr. Burgess, C. P. R. agent at Kitchener, came up to Cranbrook one day last week to have his flowing locks trimmed. The lock of a tonsorial artist in that town makes such trips necessary at times.

Prof. Hepburn states that pupils may enter his dancing class for $5 for the rest of the term. This is a grand opportunity for those who desire to take lessons from a man who understands his business.

The Miners' Union of Kimberley holds its regular annual ball this evening. These balls are always a success, and are looked forward to with pleasant anticipation by the people of that vicinity.

William Keay, customs collector at Fernie, and William Simmons, private secretary for J. H. Tonkin, manager of the coal company, were in town Saturday. Mr. Keay is a former resident of Cranbrook, and his friends here are many.

Mrs. Petitt returned last week from her trip to the east. Miss Petitt will remain in Winnipeg to take a course in music.

George Wales arrived in town on Tuesday from Crows Nest, where he has been engaged in a saw mill. He will probably remain in Cranbrook this summer.

Miss Jessie Leitch will leave in a few weeks for the coast to make an extended visit with relatives and seek the benefits of a change of climate during the winter months.

There are a number of sidewalks in need of repairs over the town. If better judgment was displayed in the care of the prisoners, they could do all of this kind of work in Cranbrook, instead of being taken to Fort Steele to languish in jail.

The dance given by the Alexandra hotel at Morrissey Mines last Monday evening was a decided success. There was a large crowd, excellent music and a magnificent lunch. Everyone present had a most enjoyable time.

The Cosgrove Concert Company will give an entertainment on the 20th for the benefit of the fire department. This is a first class company and should be liberally patronized. After the concert a dance will be given. The net proceeds of the concert and the proceeds of the dance will go to the fire department.

Literary Society.

The Cranbrook literary society will give its first program next Friday evening at Odd Fellows hall. The committee has arranged for a very enjoyable evening, and the promoters of the society hope that there will be a large attendance and many join that evening. The society is bound to be a benefit to the community as well as affording several evenings of pleasant entertainment during the winter season. The program for Friday evening is as follows:

Address by the president, Mr. R. E. Beattie.

Piano solo, Mr. Wright.

Paper, the benefits of a literary society, Mr. Claude Vroom.

Song, Mrs. Malpas.

Song, Mr. Hazell.

Recitation, Mr. Clarence Darling.

Paper on a current events, Mr. G. T. Rogers.

Song, Mrs. Malpas.

Resolved, that Civilization Tends to Make Men Happier. Rev. W. G. W. Fortune, affirmative. Mr. W. F. Gurl, negative. Dr. J. H. King, M. P. P., referee.

An Imposition.

The Crows Nest Pass Coal Company or the Great Northern, are displaying unlimited nerve when they run a box car for passengers on the Morrissey branch and charge fare. Ladies are compelled to climb a crude step-ladder and crawl into the side door the best way bossible, and then sit on benches in the cold during the trip. To expect passengers to ride in this age in that manner, when there is no excuse for it, is asking too much. A monopoly has a cinch, but it is possible to overreach the limit. It is strange that the Morrissey Dispatch fails to comment upon the manner in which the people of that town are being treated. Morrissey is too good a town to stand for it.

RAILWAY NOTES.

Canductor T. Caven has returned to town from Calgary.

Conductor Reber of Medicine Hat is in town for a few days.

Mrs. W. Stocks has been the guest of Mrs. Bennett at Sirdar.

Operator W. O. Knowles left on a visit to the east on Friday.

Roadmaster Doolan visited Sirdar on Friday and Moyie on Sunday.

Bridgemaster Stocks accompanied the bridge inspection party on their tour.

H. T. Johnston of Calgary, has succeeded J. W. Lucas as assistant resident engineer of the Crow's Nest branch.

Arthur Sheppard is in harness again after his vacation. He spent a very pleasant fortnight with friends at Winnipeg and Portage la Prairie.

Superintendent Taylor, in company with divisional engineers Dawson and Brooks of Calgary, has been on a bridge inspection tour over the Crow the past week.

Miss A. L. Couzens visited Ryan on Sunday to spend the day with her brother, who this week resumed his duties as agent, after a vacation of six weeks in the east.

J. McKee, one of the most popular bridge foremen on the Crow, intends to make his home permanently at Elko. Mrs. McKee and family move from Regina this week.

Friends of Fred Thomas, formerly roadmaster's clerk here, will regret to learn that an accident he suffered some time ago has resulted in the loss of the left thumb. At the time the accident was so slight that he took little heed of it, but blood poisoning supervened, and the thumb was amputated in Macleod hospital.

The practice indulged in by many travelers in the West of not entering the train until it has started, received an unpleasant illustration at Cranbrook on Saturday. No. 3 had just started westward, and in the rush for the steps an elderly man missed his footing, and but for the energetic action of a fellow passenger he would have fallen between the platform and the wheels of the moving train. As it was, he was carried some distance along the platform with his feet dangling dangerously below the car steps. The incident caused not a little excitement among the spectators who witnessed it from the platform.

The population of the Crow has been depleted to the extent of nearly 600 souls this week. On account of the reduction of the staff to a winter basis, the extra gangs, consisting mainly of Italians and Galicians, have either been laid off or transferred to service on the main line. The gangs included in the latter category were: Worth's, Carlson's, Hansen's, Newland's and Provenzanos'. The others dispersed far and wide over the country, some to the mines at Fernie, others to Edmonton and Calgary. Not a few were passed back to Montreal, en route to sunny Italy, to spend an idle month or two on the dollars they had been piling up almost since the time of construction.

Annual Sale.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church has decided to hold their annual sale of useful and fancy articles, candy, dolls, etc. on Thursday evening, Nov. 26th, from 6 to 12 p. m. Several choice musical numbers will be given during the evening. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged at the door.

Church Notice.

At Christ church service will be held tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock. Archdeacon Pentreath will give an address. This is the Archdeacon's farewell visit and I trust a full congregation will meet him. The Rector.

INTERNATIONAL CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOLS, Box 799, SCRANTON, PA.

An interesting exhibition for one week commencing Friday Nov. 13th, come and see. The International Correspondence Schools of Scranton, have opened a great display at W. T. Reid's store. These schools have behind them 12 years of continuous success, not only in this great country of ours, but also across the seas, in Asia, Africa, Europe, and Australia, and have proved beyond a doubt that instruction by mail can qualfy our working classes for better positions. The best wishes and testimonials of hundreds of thousands of students and graduates are testifying to the worth of these schools.

The exhibit has aroused an immense interest in our borough and we must say that no men wishing for improvement in his position or betterment of his pay should fail to visit it in order to consult the special representative in attendance as to the steps he ought to take to achieve this end. The International Correspondent School's exhibit contains texbooks published by the International Textbook Company, the owners of these schools, written in connection with the 152 different courses taught, and given free of charge to their students. Free lessons in Spanish German, and French are given by means of the phonograph. S. H. Kings, the local representative, is in constant attendance in order to form classes at special club rates. The "International Library of Technology," the best standard reference books on technology ever published in the world, is open for inspection, and the "Principles of Law," the supreme compilation of commercial law of the United States should be of interest to lawyers, manufacturers, owners of real estate, in fact all merchants.

The International Correspondence school's additional branches are Courses in Lettering and Sign Painting, Show-Card Writing, and Advertising. A rare collection of work done by students and graduates of the schools can be examined. The great benefits so many of our fellow citizens derived from these schools and our own conviction that anybody willing to study in leisure hours will be able to gain success permit us to recommend a visit to this great educational exhibit.

The magnificent set of books, that were included in the price of my steam engineering course, are alone worth the money I paid for the course. While the instruction is so clear and concise, that anyone of the average understanding can make good progress in a short time. Considering that a man can use his spare moments thus to improve himself in his trade or profession at a slight cost, I would unhesitatingly advise any ambitious man or woman to take up a course with the Scranton International Correspondence school.

ITEMS FROM MOYIE

From the Moyie Leader

P. D. Hope this week purchased the drug store from A. T. Clark.

There is talk of a fancy dress ball being given in Moyie on Nov. 26th, thanksgiving day.

John Rogers, the newly appointed manager of the Moyie Lumber Co., has severed his connection with that company, and has left for the east.

Lewis Thompson has returned from the Slocan. He says a person must go away from home to appreciate the prosperity which South East Kootenay is enjoying.

Claude Trotter, the young man who jumped from a moving freight train in Moyie three weeks ago last Monday and had his left leg so badly mangled that it was found necessary to amputate it below the knee, is out of the hospital and is getting along splendidly.

Wants to Know.

The Sawmill, Perry Creek, Nov. 9.

Editor Herald:—Some time ago you indulged in a little witticism upon an item that appeared in the Fort Steele Prospector, which said a party of hunters were shooting at Bummer's Flat. Now, of course, the awkwardness of the phrase is obvious enough, but there appears that there is some controversy about the propriety of the Prospector's use of the apostrophy "S" and using in the first word of the name of places as nouns in the possessive case. Should it be written "Bummer Flat" or "Bummer's flat?"

Yours respectfully,
Tall Timber.

It depends upon who is using the names. Thoughts are like persons. Each person dresses to suit one's self. Language dresses one's thoughts, and like persons, are characteristic of their clothes. Either of those terms would be offensive to fastidious persons; either is characteristic of the Prospector, and the Prospector has a right to use them. Papers, like persons, are sometimes interesting for their peculiarities. If a man wants to wear his shirt outside his pants there is no law to prevent him, and if he spells Bummer's Flat with an apostrophy "s" and a small "f" there is no law to prevent that. Common usage is to not use the possessive sign, as in "Vancouver Island." Vancouver discovered the island, but it does not belong to him. The same applies to Bummer Flat. Still there is no law to prevent the Prospector from saying Bummer's flat, nor to prevent people from shooting at it.

Wanted.

By the Herald Office, a boy to learn the printing trade. He must be intelligent and energetic and mean business. No triflers wanted, and worthless kids need not apply.
